Re: Implementation of the Federal Communications Commission's Triennial Review Order (Nine-month Proceeding) (Loop & Transport)
Docket No. 03-00527

Dear Director Miller:

Enclosed please find fourteen (14) copies of the following:

- (1) Specific routes for which CLECs are not impaired without access to BellSouth's Unbundled Transport.
- (2) Customer locations where CLECs are not impaired without access to BellSouth's Unbundled High Capacity Loops.

This information is being submitted in accordance with your December 22, 2003, Order Modifying Procedural Schedule. As noted in BellSouth's letter to you dated December 18, 2003, the Loop and Transport Case is going to be fact intensive, and requires substantial time to identify the specific buildings and specific routes for which BellSouth intends to challenge the presumption of impairment. Because BellSouth is dependant, to a large degree, on CLEC information with respect to specific routes and customer locations in this docket, new information may come to light based on CLEC discovery and filings. Although BellSouth is continuing to work with parties who have received BellSouth's discovery and nonparties who have received subpoenas to develop the information needed to respond to your Order, a number of parties and nonparties have failed, as of today, to provide the information BellSouth has requested.¹

The list of specific routes and customer locations for which BellSouth intends to undertake a rebuttal of the presumption of impairment may need to be refined by ¹ KMC provided a partial response to BellSouth's discovery on the afternoon of New Year's Eve, December 31, 2003, with a promise to answer Question 12 "as soon as it is completed." Question 12 seeks information regarding high capacity loops and customer locations for those loops. XO, a major facilities based CLEC in Tennessee, has not yet responded to BellSouth's subpoena.

BellSouth after the outstanding responses to discovery and subpoenas are received and analyzed. The procedural schedule in this docket provides for a second round of discovery and information from that discovery could also impact the specific information provided on the enclosed list.

Copies of the enclosed have been provided to counsel of record in this docket.

Respectfully submitted,
