RE: Business Communications, Inc.'s Request for Cancellation of CCN

Dear Madam,

Business Communications, Inc. ("BCI") was originally granted a certificate of public convenience and necessity ("CCN") under the name of Vo2 Network, Inc. in Docket No. 06-00055. The company later changed its name from Vo2 Network, Inc. to Business Communications Inc. in Docket No. 13-00088.

We hereby respectfully request the cancellation of the CCN granted in Docket No. 06-00055. The business reason for this request is the sale of BCI's telecommunications division (formerly Vo2 Network) to Jive Communications, Inc., effective October 7, 2016. BCI no longer has a physical presence in Tennessee, nor do we intend to provide competing resold and facilities-based local exchange and interexchange telecommunications services within the State of Tennessee in the future.

Sincerely

Brett Hatten
VP, Operations
