Ms. Standley --

I am advised that your below request cannot be timely accomplished relative to my firm's e-mail server, as it is programmed to attach the disclaimers. Please accept this further email as such authorization as necessary to publish and include my earlier e-mail in the docket file; as the TRA (via R. Collier and you) are its intended recipients. To the extent you prefer a separate letter for filing in the docket, rather than these e-mails, please let me know and I will forward such a letter.

Mr. Higney and Mr. Butler

Thank you for the correspondence regarding the tariff of Chattanooga Gas Company. The email, however, is noted as "Any use, dissemination, distribution, or copying of this communication other than by the intended recipient(s) is strictly prohibited."

I would like to place a copy of your email in the docket file. So could you please email or mail your position without the restriction.

Thank You

CMA does not object to the filing of the negotiated tariffs, and agrees to the Company's letter request seeking substitution of the revised version in lieu of the proposed tariff submitted by the Company on or about May 31, 2007.
