MODIFICATION PURSUANT TO 47 U.S.C 251(f)(2))

ORDER DENYING PETITION FOR RECONSIDERATION
AND GRANTING EXTENSION TO MAY 4, 2007 TO COMPLY WITH ORDER COMPELLING DISCOVERY

This matter is before the Hearing Officer upon the Petition for Reconsideration of Order Granting, in Part, CMRS Providers' Motion to Compel Issued April 23, 2007, and Addendum Thereto ("Petition for Reconsideration") filed on April 27, 2007 by the Tennessee Rural Independent Coalition ("Rural Coalition"). In the Petition for Reconsideration, the Rural Coalition requests the Hearing Officer to reconsider the Order Granting, In Part, CMRS Providers' Motion to Compel and to deny the motion to compel in its entirety. In the alternative, the Rural Coalition asks the Hearing Officer to extend, from April 30, 2007 to May 4, 2007, the deadline for the Rural Coalition to respond to the CMRS discovery. On April 30, 2007, counsel for the CMRS Providers sent a letter to the Hearing Officer advising that the CMRS Providers do not oppose the Rural Coalition's request for an extension through May 4, 2007 and would file an opposition response to the Petition for Reconsideration.¹

¹ Subsequently, on May 1, 2007, the CMRS Providers filed a response in opposition to the Rural Coalition's Petition for Reconsideration.

The Hearing Officer convened a telephonic status conference with the parties on April 30, 2007 in light of the Petition for Reconsideration and the CMRS Providers' letter. At that time, the parties agreed to a resolution of the Petition for Reconsideration by allowing the Rural Coalition additional time through May 4, 2007 to comply with the Order Compelling Discovery.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1. The Petition for Reconsideration is denied.
2. The Tennessee Rural Independent Coalition shall have until Friday, May 4, 2007 to provide the information and documents as set forth in the Order Granting, In Part, CMRS Providers' Motion to Compel.
