TNA DOCKET ROOM

Joint Application of
Journal Communications, Inc.,
Norlight Telecommunications, Inc.
and
Q-Comm Corporation
For Approval of the Transfer of Control of Norlight Telecommunications, Inc. to
Q-Comm Corporation and for Norlight
Telecommunications, Inc. to Participate in Certain Financing Arrangements

Journal Communications, Inc. (“Journal”), Norlight Telecommunications, Inc. (“Norlight”), and Q-Comm Corporation (“Q-Comm”) (Journal, Norlight and Q-Comm collectively, “Applicants”), through their undersigned counsel, provide the following response to the Tennessee Regulatory Authority’s (“TRA”) Data Request No. 2.

A copy of the Term Sheet for the financing transactions is attached hereto under seal as Exhibit E. Applicants respectfully request confidential treatment of the Term Sheet. Exhibit E contains confidential business information that Q-Comm does not ordinarily make available to the public. The information set forth in this Exhibit derives significant economic value from not being disclosed to the public and, more importantly, the competitors of Q-Comm and Norlight may gain significant economic benefit in the event of disclosure of such information. In order to maintain the protected status of the Term Sheet, Applicants have clearly designated all protected information as "CONFIDENTIAL," and have enclosed the information in sealed envelopes.

2. Page 6 of the Joint Application states that upon closing Norlight will pledge assets as security for the First Lien Facilities and Second Lien Facilities.

What Tennessee assets will be pledged as collateral for debt issued?

As stated in the Joint Application, Norlight, however, may have some customer premise equipment that it leases to customers in Tennessee. Norlight does not have any other assets in Tennessee. Therefore, the customer premise equipment is the only asset in Tennessee that Norlight will pledge as collateral for debt issued.

Respectfully submitted,

Catherine Wang
