Re: AT&T/BSLD Request for Approval of Customer Notification Pursuant to Authority Rule 1220-4-1-.08
Docket No. 07-00002

Dear Chairman Kyle:

Based on discussions with the Staff, BellSouth has agreed to modify the proposed customer notice it filed on January 2, 2007. Attached is a copy of the revised customer notification. This notice will appear in customer bills for two consecutive months.

BellSouth appreciates the Staff's prompt review of its January 2 filing. We respectfully request that this matter be placed on the Authority's January 22, 2007 Agenda.

Very truly yours,

PROPOSED CUSTOMER NOTICE

AT&T Inc has acquired BellSouth Corporation. BellSouth Long Distance, Inc. has adopted the AT&T brand name. BellSouth Long Distance is transitioning to offer services to you using the name "AT&T Long Distance Service" and you will notice these names appearing in your telephone bill within the next few months.

While BellSouth Long Distance will use this new name, this will not change the service, rates, terms or conditions that you are currently receiving from BellSouth Long Distance. We look forward to serving you, our valued customer, as AT&T.
