1. Question: On August 1, 2007, you filed a response to an information request in the above docket. You responded that "No existing officers of Airespring, Inc. have previously been officers of, or involved with, any telecommunications business that has been sanctioned and/or revoked by any state or federal regulatory agency.

Please see the attached resolution from the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California revoking the Non-Dominant Interexchange Carrier Certificates of Public Conveniences and Necessity held by twenty companies, of which Addtel Communications is listed, for failure to comply with California PUC Decision 93-05-010, Ordering Paragraph 4.

Response: Airespring, Inc. sold Addtel in January 1997 to SA Telecomm. Shortly thereafter, SA Telecomm. went in to bankruptcy. They failed to pay some of the taxes and surcharges.

All of this happened well after we sold the company and were no longer officers or executives of the company.
