Re: Docket to Evaluate Atmos Energy Corporation's
Gas Purchases and Related Sharing Incentives
TRA Docket No. 07-00225
Return of Documents Designated as Confidential and Highly Confidential

Dear Melvin:

Enclosed you will find the following documents:

1. Letter dated March 11, 2008 to outside counsel for the parties and two disks - one marked 03-10-08 CD Volume: AEM-HIGHLY CONFID, and a second disk marked 03-10-08 CD Volume: AEM-CONFID.
2. Letter dated March 11, 2008 to Ron Jones, Hearing Officer, with hard copy of Responses of Atmos Energy Marketing, LLC to the Consumer Advocate and Protection Division's First Discovery Requests designated as HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL.

I am aware of my obligations under the Protective Order issued in this docket and they do not include immediate return of these documents as requested by you in your letter dated Wednesday, March 11th, which was written after Stand Energy Corporation withdrew from the case. As you were well aware, I was out of town on Wednesday afternoon and the remainder of the week. Your urgent tone was unnecessary and unwarranted. Paragraph 14 of the Protective Order states that:

“Upon an order becoming final in this proceeding and conclusion of any appeals resulting from such an order, all the filings, exhibits and other materials designated as CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and all copies thereof shall be returned to counsel of the party who produced the filings, exhibits and other materials within fifteen (15) days of a written request from the producing party, or counsel in possession of such documents shall certify to counsel of the producing party that all the filings, exhibits and other materials designated as CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION and all copies thereof have been destroyed.”

A final order has not been issued in this proceeding and the time for appeals has not lapsed. The Protective Order does not address voluntary withdrawals. Thus, my return of the documents is timely.

Sincerely,
