Questions & Answers
The Workers' Compensation Managed Care Arrangement

1. What do I do if I am injured and need immediate emergency treatment?

   You will be provided with treatment at the nearest hospital or appropriate facility. This treatment will be authorized and the bills will be paid. When your condition no longer requires emergency treatment, you will be sent to a Primary Care Physician in The First Health® Network ("Network") for continuing treatment.

2. If I am injured and it is not an emergency situation, where do I go for medical treatment?

   You will select a Primary Care Physician from the list of network physicians in the immediate area of your work-site. You may be given a "Request For Medical Treatment Form" to take with you to that Physician's office. The form will identify you as being a participant in The Workers' Compensation Managed Care Arrangement and a user of the Network. You must go to one of the listed Primary Care Physicians, or the treatment will not be authorized. Many network Primary Care Physicians are conveniently located 15-30 miles from your work-site, and many specialists are 30-60 miles from your work-site.

3. What do I do when I am working for my employer outside my area and need to see a doctor?

   If the injury is not an emergency, contact your employer for directions. You will be provided with a local treatment center in that area and will be referred to a physician in Network when you return to your service area, if further treatment is needed.

   If it is an emergency situation, seek immediate medical attention at the nearest hospital or facility.

4. How can I find out who the authorized physicians are in my area?

   The names, addresses and phone numbers of Primary Care Physicians have been posted by your employer. If you do not know where the list has been posted, ask your employer for the location. If you have access to the Internet, selecting "Locate Network Medical Providers" on the www.mywcinfo.com webpage will also take you to the network list of authorized providers.

5. What is meant by a Primary Care Physician and what does the Primary Care Physician do?

   The Primary Care Physician within the Network is a Florida physician licensed as a family practitioner, general practitioner, occupational medicine, occupational/urgent clinic, internist or osteopath (or other physician which your Medical Case Manager or Claim Adjuster agrees is appropriate to treat your injury). The Primary Care Physician is responsible for providing evaluation and treatment of your work related injury.

6. What is a Medical Care Coordinator, and what does the Medical Care Coordinator do?

The network Medical Care Coordinator (MCC) is a Florida licensed physician who serves as the "gate keeper" for medical issues related to your work injury. The Medical Care Coordinator will help make final medical decisions in your Workers Compensation claim. You will probably be examined at least one time to evaluate your work injury, treatment needs and return to work needs. The Medical Care Coordinator may or may not be your treating physician. Once assigned to your claim, the Medical Care Coordinator probably will not change during the length of your claim. If you have specific concerns about your medical care, you can discuss them directly with the MCC.

7. What should I do if I am not happy with my Primary Care Physician?

Contact the Medical Case Manager and/or Claim Adjuster to discuss your options. Florida Workers Compensation law allows for one change in provider during the life of your claim. The change must be to a provider in the same specialty as the physician you no longer wish to see. You cannot change physicians within the Network without prior authorization. Your Medical Case Manager or Claims Adjuster will make the necessary arrangements for any change in network physicians. If an appointment is not established with the new physician within 5 days of receipt of your request, you may be able to select the new network provider.

8. What if the Primary Care Physician decides that I need to see a specialist such as an Orthopedic Surgeon?

Your Primary Care Physician will refer you to an orthopedic surgeon or other specialist within the Network. All specialty referrals must be made by network physicians already authorized to provide you with treatment. Before the first appointment with a new physician, authorization must be gained from the Claims Adjuster or Medical Case Manager.

9. After changing an authorized treating physician, what should I do if I am still dissatisfied?

You should immediately contact your Claim Adjuster or Medical Case Manager and express your concerns and/or dissatisfaction. If you still wish to change your Primary Care Physician or specialist, you must follow the formal grievance process (please refer to the document entitled "Grievance Procedure" within this Handbook).

10. Who is the managed care arrangement?

The Workers' Compensation Managed Care Arrangement consists of your employer, its Carrier/Claim Administrator, and Network physicians. Everyone works together with you and the independent Network physicians to provide efficient managed care medical services in connection with your work-related injuries.

11. What is an Independent Medical Examination or IME?

Once, during the life of your Workers Compensation claim, if there is a major disagreement with the medical recommendations from an authorized treating network physician, the injured employee and the carrier/claim administrator each have the right to gain another medical opinion through an Independent Medical Examination (IME). The IME should match the specialty of the physician whose opinion is being disputed. The carrier/claim administrator will pay for the employee's IME only when a network physician is selected for the opinion, or a decision is made to authorize the treatment recommended in the IME report. An IME physician cannot become a treating physician.

Convenio de Atención Médica Dirigida de Compensación Laboral

1. ¿Qué hago si me lesiono y necesito tratamiento inmediato de emergencia?

   Se le proporcionará tratamiento en el hospital o centro adecuado más cercano. Se autorizará este tratamiento y se pagarán las facturas. Cuando su estado ya no requiera tratamiento de emergencia, se le enviará a un Médico de Cabecera de The First Health® Network ("la Red") para continuar el tratamiento.

2. Si me lesiono y no se trata de una emergencia, ¿adónde voy para recibir tratamiento médico?

   Usted está obligado a ir a uno de los Médicos de Cabecera de la red que aparecen en la lista, o no se autorizará el tratamiento. Muchos Médicos de Cabecera de la red están situados a 15 ó 30 millas de su centro de trabajo, y muchos especialistas están a 30 ó 60 millas de su centro de trabajo. Pudieran darle una "Planilla de Solicitud de Tratamiento Médico" para que la lleve a la consulta de ese médico. La planilla lo identificará a usted como participante del Convenio de Atención Médica Dirigida de Compensación Laboral y usuario de la Red. Su empleador pudiera proporcionarle la oportunidad de seleccionar al Médico de Cabecera de la lista de médicos de la red en el área inmediata a su centro de trabajo.

3. ¿Qué hago si estoy trabajando para mi empleador fuera de mi área y necesito ver a un médico?

   Si la lesión no es una emergencia, pídale instrucciones a su empleador. Se le proporcionará un centro local de tratamiento en esa área y se le remitirá a un médico de la Red cuando usted regrese a su área de servicio, si se necesita tratamiento adicional.

   Si se trata de una situación de emergencia, busque atención médica de inmediato en el hospital o centro más cercano.

4. ¿Cómo puedo saber quiénes son los médicos autorizados en mi área?

   El nombre, la dirección y el número de teléfono de los Médicos de Cabecera aparecen en una lista que su empleador ha puesto a la vista. Si usted no sabe dónde está la lista, pregúnteselo a su empleador. Si usted tiene acceso a Internet, seleccione "Locate Network Medical Providers" en la página Web www.mywcinfo.com , para ver la lista de proveedores autorizados de la red.

5. ¿Qué significa Médico de Cabecera y qué es lo que hace?

   El Médico de Cabecera de la Red es un médico con licencia para ejercer en la Florida la medicina de familia, medicina general, medicina ocupacional, en clínicas ocupacionales/de urgencia, como internista u osteópata (u otro médico que el Director de su Caso Médico o el Ajustador de su Reclamación considere adecuado para el tratamiento de su lesión). El Médico de Cabecera es responsable de proporcionar la evaluación y el tratamiento de su lesión relacionada con el trabajo.

6. ¿Qué es un Coordinador de Atención Médica y qué hace?

El Coordinador de Atención Médica (MCC, por sus siglas en inglés) de la red es un médico con licencia para ejercer en la Florida, encargado de los asuntos médicos relacionados con su lesión laboral. El Coordinador de Atención Médica ayudará a tomar decisiones definitivas en su reclamación de Compensación Laboral. Usted probablemente será examinado al menos una vez para evaluar su lesión laboral, así como las necesidades de tratamiento y de regreso al trabajo. El Coordinador de Atención Médica pudiera ser o no el médico que lo está tratando. Una vez que se le haya asignado su reclamación, el Coordinador de Atención Médica probablemente no cambiará durante la duración de su reclamación. Si usted tiene inquietudes específicas sobre su atención médica, discútalas directamente con el MCC. Si usted desea que lo trate un quiropráctico o un podiatra, necesitará un referido del MCC.

7. ¿Qué debo hacer si estoy descontento con mi Médico de Cabecera?

Comuníquese con el Director de su Caso Médico y/o el Ajustador de su Reclamación para hablar sobre sus opciones. La ley de Compensación Laboral de la Florida permite que se haga un cambio de proveedor durante la vigencia de su reclamación. El cambio debe ser con un proveedor de la misma especialidad que el médico que usted no desea seguir viendo. No puede cambiar de médico de la RED sin autorización previa. El Director de su Caso Médico o el Ajustador de su Reclamación hará los trámites necesarios para cualquier cambio en médicos de la red. Si no se concerta una cita con el nuevo médico en un plazo de 5 días de haberse recibido su solicitud, usted pudiera seleccionar al nuevo proveedor de la red.

8. ¿Qué sucede si el Médico de Cabecera decide que necesito ver a un especialista, tal como un cirujano ortopédico?

Su Médico de Cabecera lo remitirá a un cirujano ortopédico o a cualquier otro especialista que esté en la Red. Todos los referidos a especialistas deberán ser procesados por médicos de la red que ya estén autorizados para darle tratamiento a usted. Antes de la primera cita con un médico nuevo, se debe obtener autorización del Ajustador de la Reclamación o del Director del Caso Médico.

9. ¿Qué debo hacer si, después de cambiar de médico autorizado que me está tratando, aún no estoy satisfecho?

Usted debe comunicarse de inmediato con el Ajustador de su Reclamación o el Director de su Caso Médico y expresar sus inquietudes y/o descontento. Si aún desea cambiar su Médico de Cabecera o especialista, debe seguir el proceso formal de queja (consulte el documento titulado "Procedimiento de Queja" en este manual).

10. ¿Quién constituye el convenio de atención médica dirigida?

El Convenio de Atención Médica Dirigida de Compensación Laboral está constituido por el empleador suyo, su Compañía de Seguros o Administrador de Reclamaciones, y los médicos de la Red. Todos colaboran con usted y los médicos independientes de la red para proporcionar servicios médicos eficientes de atención dirigida con respecto a sus lesiones relacionadas con el trabajo.

11. ¿Qué es un Examen Médico Independiente o IME, por sus siglas en inglés?

Una vez, durante la vigencia de su reclamación de Compensación Laboral, si hay un desacuerdo importante respecto a las recomendaciones de un médico de la red autorizado para darle tratamiento, tanto el empleado lesionado como la compañía de seguros o el administrador de la reclamación tienen derecho a obtener otra opinión médica a través de un Examen Médico Independiente (IME). El IME deberá concordar con la especialidad del médico cuya opinión se disputa. La compañía de seguros o el administrador de reclamaciones pagará por el IME solamente cuando se seleccione un médico de la red para la opinión, o se tome la decisión de autorizar el tratamiento recomendado por el informe de IME. El médico del IME no puede convertirse en el médico que aplique el tratamiento.

POLÍTICA DE QUEJAS

Su empleador y la compañía de seguros/administrador de reclamaciones tienen interés en que usted reciba el tratamiento médico adecuado en caso de que se lesione en el trabajo. Si en algún momento usted no está satisfecho o tiene preguntas sobre la atención y el tratamiento médico que recibe con respecto a una lesión relacionada con su trabajo, debe comunicarse con el Director de su Caso Médico o el Ajustador de su Reclamación. Si desea cambiar de médico o de otro elemento de atención médica, puede comunicarse directamente con su Coordinador de Atención Médica para obtener un referido. Su primera solicitud de autorización para ver un médico o para un servicio médico deberá hacerse siempre al Director de su Caso Médico o al Ajustador de su Reclamación, quienes se esforzarán por resolver su problema lo más pronto posible. Esta solicitud inicial se llama una "Solicitud de Servicio". Su asunto pudiera remitirse al Coordinador de Atención Médica (MCC) asignado a su reclamación, o a un Médico Asesor independiente, para que lo revise y dé su impresión sobre la atención médica que considere necesaria y adecuada en relación a su lesión. Usted recibirá una respuesta a su inquietud en un plazo de 7 a 14 días después de que recibamos su solicitud inicial.

Si se ha denegado una solicitud específica, en un plazo de un año a partir de la fecha de la denegación, usted puede presentar una Queja formal por escrito ante el Coordinador de Quejas del Convenio de Atención Médica Dirigida de Compensación Laboral. El Coordinador de Quejas emitirá una decisión en un plazo de 14 días a partir de la fecha en que recibamos la queja por escrito, y le informará prontamente, por escrito, sobre los resultados.

Tras la revisión de su queja formal por escrito por parte del Coordinador de Quejas, si la solicitud continúa siendo denegada, se le informará que su solicitud será remitida al Comité de Quejas para que la revise. El comité, que incluye a un médico con licencia para ejercer en la Florida, revisará la solicitud en un plazo de 30 días de haber recibido la solicitud el comité. En ocasiones, 14 días adicionales son necesarios debido a que se requiere información adicional. A usted se le informará prontamente por escrito, sobre la condición de su reclamación ante el Comité de Quejas, así como de la decisión de dicho comité.

Usted puede presentar una "Queja Urgente" si su Médico de Cabecera o Coordinador de Atención Médica determina que su estado médico corre un riesgo considerable de deteriorarse si no se da una respuesta en 72 horas. El Coordinador de Quejas revisará la solicitud y le notificará a usted de la decisión en 3 días a más tardar.

Tanto para la solicitud de Queja formal como para la de Queja Urgente, se requiere que se llene debidamente la planilla No. 3160-0019 de la Agencia de Administración de Atención a la Salud (AHCA, por sus siglas en inglés). Las planillas pueden obtenerse a través de la página Web de AHCA, o mediante solicitud por escrito o verbal a la información de contacto que aparece más adelante. La planilla de queja se le enviará a más tardar en 7 días de recibirse su solicitud.

Al completarse este proceso de queja, usted puede presentar una Petición de Beneficios. Puede comunicarse con la Oficina de Asistencia a Empleados sobre Compensación Laboral escribiendo a The Workers' Compensation Employee Assistance Office, 200 East Gaines St., Tallahassee, FL 32399-4225; o llamando al 800-342-1741.

Se hará todo el esfuerzo para resolver su queja lo más pronto posible. Casi todas las quejas verbales pueden resolverse al momento de la conversación telefónica inicial. En cualquier momento durante el procesamiento de su queja, usted puede solicitar una reunión personal que se realice en un lugar conveniente.

INTENT: The grievance procedure is intended to be self-executing and easy to use. An injured worker may call the grievance coordinator directly without completing this form. The National Council on Compensation Insurance has the same rights we have under this provision.

Cancellation

1. You may cancel this policy. You will mail or deliver advance written notice to us, stating when the cancellation is to take effect.
2. We may cancel this policy. We will mail to each named insured and to the broker or the agent of record advance written notice stating when the cancellation is to take effect.

   a. at least 30 days before the cancellation is to take effect if the policy has been in force for 60 days or less;
   b. at least 60 days before the cancellation is to take effect if the policy has been in force for more than 60 days.
4. If this policy has been in effect for 60 days or more, we may cancel only for one of the following reasons:
   a. Nonpayment of premium
   b. The policy was issued because of a material misrepresentation.
   c. You violated any of the material terms and conditions of the policy.
   d. There are unfavorable underwriting factors, specific to you, that were not present when the policy took effect.
   e. The Director has determined that we no longer have adequate reinsurance to meet our needs.

5. Our notice of cancellation will state our reasons for canceling.

An exact and unaltered copy of such notice shall be sent to the insured's broker, if known, or the agent of record at the last mailing address known by the company.
2. Our notice of nonrenewal will state our reasons for not renewing.

3. If we fail to provide the notice of nonrenewal as required, the policy will still terminate on its expiration date if:
   a. We show you a willingness to renew the policy; or
   b. You notify us or the agent or broker who procured this policy that you do not want the policy renewed; or
   c. You fail to pay all premiums when due; or
   d. You obtain other insurance as a replacement of the policy.

Proof of mailing of this notice to you at your mailing address shown in Item 1 of the Information Page will be sufficient to prove notice.
2. If we fail to provide the notice of nonrenewal as required, the policy will be deemed to be renewed for the ensuing policy period upon payment of the appropriate premium, and coverage will continue until you have accepted replacement coverage with another insurer, until you have agreed to the nonrenewal, or until the policy is canceled.
3. If we have delivered or mailed to you a renewal notice, bill, certificate, or policy not less than 30 days before the end of the current policy period clearly stating the amount and due date of the renewal premium charge, then the policy will terminate on the due date without further notice unless the renewal premium is received by us or our agent on or before the due date. If the policy terminates in this manner, we will deliver or mail to you within 15 days of termination at your mailing address shown in Item 1 of the Information Page a notice that the policy was not renewed and the date on which coverage ceased to exist. Proof of mailing of the renewal premium to us or our agent on or before the due date will constitute a presumption of receipt on or before the due date.

D. Cancellation

1. If coverage has not been in effect for sixty days and the policy is not a renewal, cancellation shall be effected by mailing or delivering a written notice to the first-named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy at least sixty days before the cancellation effective date, except in cases where cancellation is based on nonpayment of premium. Notice of cancellation based on nonpayment of premium shall be mailed or delivered at least ten days prior to the effective date of cancellation. After coverage has been in effect for more than sixty days or after the effective date of a renewal policy, no insurer shall cancel a policy unless the cancellation is based on at least one of the following reasons:
   a. Nonpayment of premium.
   b. Fraud or material misrepresentation made by or with the knowledge of the named insured in obtaining the policy, continuing the policy, or in presenting a claim under the policy.
   c. Activities or omissions on the part of the named insured which change or increase any hazard insured against, including a failure to comply with loss control recommendations.
   d. Change in the risk which increases the risk of loss after insurance coverage has been issued or renewed, including an increase in exposure due to regulation, legislation, or court decision.
   e. Determination by the commissioner of insurance that the continuation of the policy would jeopardize a company's solvency or would place the insurer in violation of the insurance laws of this state or any other state.
   f. Violation or breach by the insured of any policy terms or conditions.
   g. Such other reasons that are approved by the commissioner of insurance.
2. a. A notice of cancellation of insurance coverage by an insurer shall be in writing and shall be mailed or delivered to the first-named insured at the mailing address as shown on the policy. Notices of cancellation based on conditions 22.636.4, 1.b. through 1.g. above shall be mailed or delivered at least thirty days prior to the effective date of the cancellation; notices of cancellations based upon condition 1.a. above shall be mailed or delivered at least ten days prior to the effective date of cancellation. The notice shall state the effective date of the cancellation.
   b. The insurer shall provide the first-named insured with a written statement setting forth the reason for the cancellation where the insured requests such a statement in writing and the named insured agrees in writing to hold the insurer harmless from liability for any communication giving notice of or specifying the reasons for a cancellation or for any statement made in connection with an attempt to discover or verify the existence of conditions which would be a reason for cancellation under this endorsement.

3. Nothing in this endorsement shall require an insurer to provide a notice of cancellation or a statement of reasons for cancellation where cancellation for nonpayment of premium is effected by a premium finance agency or other entity pursuant to a power of attorney or other agreement executed by or on behalf of the insured.
4. An insurer may decide not to renew a policy if it delivers or mails to the first-named insured at the address shown on the policy written notice it will not renew the policy. Such notice of nonrenewal shall be mailed or delivered at least sixty days before the expiration date. Such notice to the insured shall include the insured's loss run information for the period the policy has been in force within, but not to exceed the last three years of coverage. If the notice is mailed less than sixty days before expiration, coverage shall remain in effect under the same terms and conditions until sixty days after notice is mailed or delivered. Earned premium for any period of coverage that extends beyond the expiration date shall be considered pro rata based upon the previous year's rate. For purposes of this endorsement, the transfer of a policyholder between companies within the same insurance group shall not be a refusal to renew. In addition, changes in the deductible, changes in rate, changes in the amount of insurance, or reductions in policy limits or coverage shall not be refusals to renew.
5. Notice of nonrenewal shall not be required if the insurer or a company within the same insurance group has offered to issue a renewal policy, or where the named insured has obtained replacement coverage or has agreed in writing to obtain replacement coverage.
6. If an insurer provides the notice described in paragraph 4 above and thereafter the insurer extends the policy for ninety days or less, an additional notice of nonrenewal is not required with respect to the extension.
7. An insurer shall mail or deliver to the named insured at the mailing address shown on the policy written notice of any rate increase, change in deductible, or reduction in limits or coverage at least thirty days prior to the expiration date of the policy. If the insurer fails to provide such thirty-day notice, the coverage provided to the named insured at the expiring policy's rate, terms, and conditions shall remain in effect until notice is given or until the effective date of replacement coverage obtained by the named insured, whichever first occurs. For the purposes of this paragraph, notice is considered given thirty days following date of mailing or delivery of the notice. If the insured elects not to renew, any earned premium for the period of extension of the terminated policy shall be calculated pro rata at the lower of the current or previous year's rate. If the insured accepts the renewal, the premium increase, if any, and other changes shall be effective the day following the prior policy's expiration or anniversary date.
8. Paragraph 7 shall not apply to the following:
   a. Changes in a rate or plan filed with the insurance rating commission and applicable to an entire class of business.
   b. Changes based upon the altered nature or extent of the risk insured.
   c. Changes in policy forms filed and approved with the commissioner and applicable to an entire class of business.
   d. Changes requested by the insured.
9. Proof of mailing of notice of cancellation, or of nonrenewal or of premium or coverage changes, to the named insured at the address shown in the policy, shall be sufficient proof of notice.

MISSOURI PROPERTY AND CASUALTY GUARANTY ASSOCIATION NOTIFICATION ENDORSEMENT

This endorsement applies only to the insurance provided by the policy because Missouri is shown in Item 3.A. of the Information Page.

Missouri Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Coverage Limits:

1. Subject to the provisions of the Missouri Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association Act (Act), if we are a member of the Missouri Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Association (Association), the Association will pay claims covered under the Act if we become insolvent.
2. The Act contains various exclusions, conditions and limitations that govern a claimant's eligibility to collect payment from the Association and affect the amount of any payment. The following limitation applies subject to all other provisions of the Act:
   a. Claims covered by the Association do not include a claim by or against an insured of an insolvent insurer if the insured has a net worth of more than $25 million on the later of the end of the insured's most recent fiscal year or the December thirty-first of the year next preceding the date the insurer becomes an insolvent insurer; provided that an insured's net worth on such date shall be deemed to include the aggregate net worth of the insured and all of its affiliates as calculated on a consolidated basis.

      If the insured prepares an annual report to shareholders, or an annual report to management reflecting net worth, then such report for the fiscal year immediately preceding the date of insolvency of the insurer will be used to determine net worth.

      However, the association will not:

      (1) Pay an amount in excess of the applicable limit of insurance of the policy from which a claim arises; or

      (2) Return to an insured any unearned premium in excess of $25,000.

      These limitations have no effect on the coverage we will provide under this policy.

This endorsement changes the policy to which it is attached and is effective on the date issued unless otherwise stated.

With respect to Exclusion C7 we will defend any claim, proceeding or suit for damages where bodily injury is alleged. We have the right to investigate and settle. We will not defend or continue to defend after the applicable limits of the insurance have been paid. Such policy limits include any legal costs assessed against you on behalf of your employee(s).

We may not limit our liability to pay damages for which we become legally liable to pay because of bodily injury to an infant under the age of 18 years in a proceeding made pursuant to Article 2 as provided in N.J.S.A. 34:15-10.

The basis for determining the credit is the limited payroll of each employee for the number of hours worked (excluding overtime premium pay) for each construction classification (other than employees engaged in the construction of one- or two-family residential housing) for the third quarter, as reported to taxing authorities, for the year preceding the policy date. Total payroll is to continue to be reported for employees engaged in the construction of one- or two-family residential housing. For example:

Policy Inception Date	Third Quarter Payroll
4/1/02 thru 3/31/03	2001
4/1/03 thru 3/31/04	2002
4/1/04 thru 3/31/05	2003
4/1/05 thru 3/31/06	2004
4/1/06 thru 3/31/07	2005

If you have any eligible classes on your policy, you should have been notified by your insurance carrier or the New York Compensation Insurance Rating Board approximately nine months prior to the inception date of this policy. If you believe you may be eligible for a credit and have not received an application, you should immediately contact your agent, insurance carrier, or the New York Compensation Insurance Rating Board.

Credits are calculated by the New York Compensation Insurance Rating Board. You must submit a completed application to: Attention: Audit Department, New York Compensation Insurance Rating Board, 200 East Forty-Second Street, New York, New York 10017.

Applications must be received within six months prior to the inception date of this policy (or at the latest, within 12 months after the inception date if accompanied by a letter explaining the reason for late submission).

Under no circumstances will an application for this credit be accepted more than 12 months after the inception date of this policy.

OKLAHOMA LOSS COST AND RATE CHANGE NOTICE ENDORSEMENT

This endorsement applies only to the insurance provided by the policy because Oklahoma is shown in Item 3.A. of the Information Page.

When your policy was issued, we applied rates that were based upon loss costs approved by the Oklahoma Board for Property and Casualty Rates effective January 1, 2001. Those rates and loss costs reflected workers compensation cost savings of approximately 3.4% that would have resulted from medical cost reductions implemented by the Workers Compensation Court, effective January 1, 2001.

On April 6, 2001, the District Court of Oklahoma County ruled that the Workers Compensation Court exceeded its authority when it implemented those medical cost reductions. The District Court ordered that the current Workers Compensation Schedule of Medical and Hospital Fees revert to the schedule that was in effect prior to January 1, 2001.

The Oklahoma Board for Property and Casualty Rates approved an overall loss cost decrease of 6.6% effective January 1, 2001, which included the 3.4% cost savings. Because the 3.4% cost savings will not be realized, the Oklahoma Board for Property and Casualty Rates has approved revised loss costs that reflect an increase o f3.4%, retroactive to January 1, 2001. Therefore, the overall reduction in loss costs effective January 1, 2001 is 3.2%.

The policy is being endorsed to reflect new premium based on the revised loss costs. Additional premium may be due immediately or deferred until final audit.

   a. Nonpayment of premium;

Part 6 (Conditions) of the policy is amended by adding the following provisions:

PENNSYLVANIA ACT 86-1986 ENDORSEMENT NONRENEWAL, NOTICE OF INCREASE OF PREMIUM, and RETURN OF UNEARNED PREMIUM

This endorsement applies only to the insurance provided by the policy because Pennsylvania is shown in Item 3.A. of the Information Page.

The policy conditions are amended by adding the following regarding nonrenewal, notice of increase in premium, and return of unearned premium.

Nonrenewal

1. We may elect not to renew the policy. We will mail to each named insured, by first class mail, not less than 60 days advance notice stating when the nonrenewal will take effect. Mailing that notice to you at your mailing address last known to us will be sufficient to prove notice.
2. Our notice of nonrenewal will state our specific reasons for not renewing.
3. If we have indicated our willingness to renew, we will not send you a notice of nonrenewal. However, the policy will still terminate on its expiration date if:
   a. you notify us or the agent or broker who procured this policy that you do not want the policy renewed; or
   b. you fail to pay all premiums when due; or
   c. you obtain other insurance as a replacement of the policy.

Notice of Increase in Premium

1. We will provide you with not less than 30 days advance notice of an increase in renewal premium of this policy, if it is our intent to offer such renewal.
2. The above notification requirement will be satisfied if we have issued a renewal policy more than 30 days prior to its effective date.
3. If a policy has been written or is to be written on a retrospective rating plan basis, the notice of increase in premium provision of this endorsement does not apply.

Return of Unearned Premium

1. If this policy is canceled and there is unearned premium due you:

   b. If you cancel, the unearned premium will be returned within 30 days after the effective date of cancellation.
2. Because this policy was written on the basis of an estimated premium and is subject to a premium audit, the unearned premium specified in 1a. and 1b. above, if any, shall be returned on an estimated basis. Upon our completion of computation of the exact premium, an additional return premium or charge will be made to you within 15 days of the final computation.
3. These return of unearned premium provisions shall not apply if this policy is written on a retrospective rating plan basis.

This endorsement applies only to the insurance provided by the policy because Tennessee is shown in Item 3.A. of the Information Page.

The premium for the policy is determined (in part) by the product of loss costs developed and filed by the National Council on Compensation Insurance, Inc., and/or an assigned risk loss cost multiplier developed by the Tennessee Department of Commerce and Insurance.

HAWAII NOTIFICATION ENDORSEMENT

This endorsement applies to the insurance provided by this policy because Hawaii is shown in Item 3.A. of the Information Page.

Hawaii law requires that all policies issued to employers for workers compensation insurance disclose clearly to employers as separate figures the portion of the premium charged for categories (1) through (5) below. Category (6) is provided for informational purposes only so that the figures total 100% in Column A. These figures are provided below in column A as percentages of standard premium because rates are filed and approved on a standard premium basis. If the figures were not provided as percentages of standard premium, the percentages would vary by policy based on any premium discounts applied to the individual policy. Hawaii law also requires the disclosure of the percentages of premiums expended during the previous year by the insurer for claims paid in the same categories. These percentages are provided below in Column B based on the most recent available calendar year data. The figures in Column B may not total to 100% since premiums collected in any individual calendar year will not correspond exactly to the claims and expenses paid in that calendar year.

Category	A	B
(1) Medical care, services, and supplies	23.7%	36.4%
(2) Wage loss benefits including temporary total, temporary partial, and permanent total disability benefits and their related benefits	8.2%	12.6%
(3) Indemnity benefits for permanent partial disability	23.9%	36.8%
(4) Death benefits	0.4%	0.6%

NOTICE OF NEW WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROGRAM:
Medical Provider Network

California Law requires your employer to provide and pay for medical treatment if you are injured at work. Your employer will provide this medical care by using a Workers' Compensation Medical Provider Network (MPN). This notification describes the program and your rights in choosing medical care for work related injuries and illnesses.

What is a Medical Provider Network (MPN)?

A Medical Provider Network is a group of health care providers (physicians and other types of providers) that will manage and direct any medical care you receive if you are injured on the job.
TRAVELERS PROPERTY CASUALTY COMPANY OF AMERICA (St. Paul Travelers) uses First Health, a national managed-care company, whose network of providers has been approved by the Division of Workers' Compensation's (DWC) Administrative Director to treat workers injured on the job. The providers in the MPN specialize in work related injuries and meet access to care standards for common occupational injuries and work-related illnesses.

The MPN access standards require the MPN to provide at least three physicians of each specialty expected to treat worker's compensation injuries. The MPN has primary treating providers within 15 miles or 30 minutes and specialty care providers within 30 miles or 60 minutes from either your work or residence. The MPN also provides that you will be able to get an appointment for non-emergency services within 3 business days and for specialist services within 20 business days following St. Paul Travelers receipt of request for treatment. Further, the regulations require MPN providers to use medical treatment guidelines adopted by the DWC in making any decisions related to medical care or treatment. In the event that you need medical care in connection with a workers' compensation claim, it is likely that you will receive this care from providers within the MPN.

How do I find out which doctors are in the MPN?

You may contact:

St. Paul Travelers MPN Team
800-287-9682

This team will be able to answer your questions about the MPN and help you find the names of MPN providers or help you if you are having trouble getting an appointment with an MPN provider. There are several methods for locating MPN providers. You may:

- Contact your Case Manager (Claim or Medical)
- Contact the MPN Team above
- Contact your employer
- Log on to the website at: www.mywcinfo.com
    - Click on Injured Employee Info square
    - Click on the Network Medical Provider square, then follow the prompts

What happens if I get injured at work?

If you incur a work-related injury or illness that is an emergency either call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical center. You should notify your employer as soon as possible following any emergency treatment. If your injury or illness is not an emergency, notify your employer that you have a work-related injury. Your employer or insurer will arrange an initial appointment with a doctor with in the MPN.

How do I choose a provider?

After the first visit with an MPN provider for your work-related injury or illness, you may continue treatment with this doctor or you may choose another provider from within the MPN that is appropriate to treat your injury. If needed, you may choose a specialist or ask the treating doctor to refer you to a specialist for treatment. If you need help in choosing a doctor or have trouble getting an appointment with a doctor within the MPN, contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team who will assist you.

What if there are no providers in my area?

The MPN has providers available within the entire state of California. If you find there is not an appropriate treating physician or specialist available in your area, please contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team for assistance. You may have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN in this case.

What if I am temporarily working or traveling outside of the MPN geographic service area?

If your employer has authorized you to temporarily work or travel for work outside the MPN geographic service area and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, you may treat with a provider of your choice. You may also contact the MPN Team or Case Manager for assistance in locating the appropriate medical care in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

What if I am permanently or temporarily residing outside of the MPN geographic service area?

If you are a former employee whose employer has ongoing workers' compensation obligations and who permanently resides outside of the MPN geographic service area and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, you may treat with a provider of your choice. You may also contact your Case Manager for assistance in locating the appropriate medical care in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

If you are an injured employee who decides to temporarily reside outside of the MPN geographic service area during your recovery and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, contact your primary treating physician within the MPN or Case Manager for assistance in obtaining a list of providers in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

What if I am already being treated for a work-related injury before the MPN begins?

If your current treating doctor is a member of the St. Paul Travelers MPN program, then you may continue to treat with this doctor and your treatment will be under the MPN. If your current treating doctor is not or is not allowed to become a member of the MPN, then you may be sent to a MPN doctor for treatment. If this occurs, you will be sent a letter and your doctor will also be notified.

St. Paul Travelers has a "Transfer of Care" policy that describes what will happen if you are currently treating for a work-related injury with a physician who is not a member of the MPN. A copy of the "Transfer of Care" policy will be made available upon request.

If your current non-MPN treating doctor becomes an MPN provider, then you and your provider will be notified in writing by St. Paul Travelers that your treatment will now be provided under the provisions of the MPN.

You will not be transferred to a doctor in the MPN if your injury or illness meets any of the following conditions:

(a) Acute The treatment for your injury or illness is expected to be completed within 90 days.

(b) Serious chronic Your injury or illness is one that is serious in nature and persists without full cure or worsens over 90 days and requires ongoing treatment. Once it has been determined that you have a serious chronic condition, you may be allowed to continue treatment by your current physician for up to one year, until a safe transfer of care can be made. The one year period for the completion of treatment starts from the date you receive notification of determination that you have a serious chronic condition.

(c) Terminal illness You have an incurable or irreversible condition that is likely to cause death within one year or less. If it is determined that you have such an illness, you will be allowed to treat with the current provider for the duration of the terminal illness.

(d) Pending surgery or other procedure You already have a surgery or other procedure that has been authorized by St. Paul Travelers that will occur within 180 days of the MPN effective date.

If St. Paul Travelers is going to transfer your care you and your physician will be notified in writing. If you disagree with the transfer of care, you may ask your treating doctor for a report that addresses whether you are in one of the categories listed above. Your treating physician must respond to your request within 20 calendar days. If your treating physician fails to issue the report, then the determination made by St. Paul Travelers shall apply.

If either St. Paul Travelers or you do not agree with your treating doctor's report, this dispute will be resolved according to Labor Code Section 4062. You must notify your Case Manager if you disagree with this report. If your treating doctor agrees that your condition does not meet one of those listed above, the transfer of care will go forward while you continue to disagree with the decision. If your treating doctor states that your condition does meet one of those listed above, you may continue to treat with him or her until the dispute is resolved.

Until you are transferred into the MPN, your treating physician may make referrals for additional care to providers within or outside the MPN.

What if I am being treated by a MPN provider and the provider leaves the MPN?

If your physician stops participating in the MPN, your Case Manager will advise you on your options for continued treatment based on the approved St. Paul Travelers' Continuity of Care Plan. Please contact your Case Manager for questions or advice on your options. A copy of the "Continuity of Care" Plan will be made available upon request.

If your provider is no longer in the MPN because the MPN terminated his or her contract for issues relating to medical disciplinary cause or reason, fraud or criminal activity, you will not be allowed to continue treatment with that provider and you will be required to choose a provider within the MPN.

If your provider has been terminated for another reason, St. Paul Travelers will contact you and your provider in order to determine rights and responsibilities to complete treatment with the terminated provider. If you have one of the following conditions, you may qualify to continue treating with your treating provider even though the provider has terminated the MPN:

(a) An acute condition Your medical condition involves a sudden onset of symptoms due to an illness, injury, or other medical problem that requires prompt medical attention and that has a duration of less than 90 days. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of the treatment for the duration of the acute condition, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(b) Serious chronic Your injury or illness is one that is serious in nature and persists without full cure or worsens over 90 days and requires ongoing treatment. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of treatment for a serious chronic condition that will not exceed 12 months from the contract termination date, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(c) Terminal illness You have an incurable or irreversible condition that is likely to cause death within one year or less. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of treatment for the duration of a terminal illness, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(d) Pending surgery or other procedure You already have a surgery or other procedure that has been authorized by St. Paul Travelers as part of a documented course of treatment and has been recommended and documented by the provider to occur within 180 days of the contract termination date. St. Paul Travelers will affirm authorization for continued treatment as described in this paragraph subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

If you qualify under one of the above listed treatment conditions and request to continue to treat with the terminated provider, St. Paul Travelers will contact the provider to affirm the provider's willingness and capability to continue treatment under the same contractual terms and conditions that existed prior to termination. If the provider is unwilling or incapable of continuing treatment, St. Paul Travelers will advise you to seek treatment from another provider within the MPN. In such circumstances, St. Paul Travelers will not be obligated to authorize continued services beyond the contract termination date, and will communicate the timeframe they will be authorized to continue treatment with the terminated provider.

If you have chosen to continue treatment with the terminated provider and the provider has agreed to continue to treat, St. Paul Travelers will be responsible for payment of completion of the medically necessary treatment. St. Paul Travelers will not be responsible for unauthorized treatment.

If you choose not to continue with the terminated provider, you will be advised of how to choose a new provider within the MPN.

If St. Paul Travelers has determined that no further treatment will be authorized with the terminated physician and you disagree, you may ask your treating doctor for a report that addresses whether you have one of the conditions listed above. Your treating physician must respond to your request within 20 calendar days. If your treating physician fails to issue the report, then the determination made by St. Paul Travelers shall apply.

If either St. Paul Travelers or you do not agree with your treating doctor's report, this dispute will be resolved according to Labor Code Section 4062. If your treating doctor agrees that your condition does not meet one of those medical conditions listed above, you shall choose a new provider from within the MPN until the dispute is resolved. If the treating physician does not agree with St. Paul Travelers' determination that you do not meet one of the medical conditions listed above, you shall continue to treat with the terminated provider until the dispute is resolved.

What if I disagree with my doctor about medical treatment?

If you disagree with either the diagnosis or treatment prescribed by your treating provider, you may ask for a second opinion from another doctor within the MPN. If you want a second opinion, you must contact your Case Manager (either orally or in writing) and tell them you want a second opinion. The Case Manager will make sure that you have a regional area listing of MPN providers, based on the specialty or recognized expertise in treating the particular injury or condition in question, for you to choose from. Then you may choose a doctor from the MPN list, make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers and notify the Case Manager of your appointment date. If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers, you will not be allowed to have a second opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment by this treating physician.

Upon notification of the appointment date, your Case Manager will contact the physician selected to perform the second opinion and inform them of the nature of the dispute and their role and provide them with any necessary medical records needed for their review. You may request a copy of the medical records that are sent to the second opinion provider. If the second opinion provider that you chose feels that your injury or illness is outside the type of injury or illness he or she normally treats, the provider's office will notify your Case Manager and you will receive a new list of MPN providers from which to make another selection. During this process, you will be required to continue treatment with your treating physician or with a physician of your choice within the MPN.

After you receive the second opinion, if you still disagree with the diagnosis or treatment, you may seek a third opinion from another appropriate MPN provider. If you want a third opinion, you must contact your Case Manager (either orally or in writing) and tell them you want a third opinion. The Case Manager will make sure that you have a regional area listing of MPN providers, based on the specialty or recognized expertise in treating the particular injury or condition in question, for you to choose from. Then you may choose a doctor from the MPN list, make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers and notify the Case Manager of your appointment date. If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers, you will not be allowed to have a third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment by this treating physician.

Upon notification of the appointment date, your Case Manager will contact the physician selected to perform the third opinion and inform them of the nature of the dispute and their role and provide them with any necessary medical records needed for their review. You may request a copy of the medical records that are sent to the third opinion provider. If the third opinion provider that you chose feels that your injury or illness is outside the type of injury or illness he or she normally treats, the provider's office will notify your Case Manager and you will receive a new list of MPN providers from which to make another selection.

You may obtain any recommended treatment indicated by the second and/or third opinion physician(s) by either changing physicians to the second opinion physician, third opinion physician, or other physician within the MPN.

If after the third opinion, you still disagree with your provider's diagnosis or treatment of your illness or injury, you may ask for an Independent Medical Review (IMR). Your Case Manager will have given you the information on requesting an IMR and provided you with the IMR Application at the time you request a third opinion.

An IMR will be performed by a provider outside of the MPN who will be selected by the DWC Administrative Director based upon the specialty of the treating provider and other information submitted with the IMR Application. The provider will be selected to conduct an independent assessment of your dispute.

If the IMR provider does not agree with your treating provider's diagnosis or treatment of your illness or injury, you can receive treatment from either an MPN provider or a non-MPN provider. If you choose a provider that is outside the MPN, the treatment you receive from that provider can only be for the treatment or diagnostic service recommended by the IMR provider. Once any treatment provided to you related to the disputed diagnosis or treatment is completed, you must seek any further care from an MPN provider.

You may always contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team if you need help or further explanation about your medical treatment if you have a work-related injury or illness. The St. Paul Travelers MPN Team can be reached at 800-287-9682.

Las normas de acceso a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") requieren que dicha Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") proporcione por lo menos tres médicos de cada especialidad que se ocupan de tratar lesiones en concepto de indemnización laboral. relacionada con su trabajo. Su empleador o asegurador hará los arreglos para una cita inicial con un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Después de la primera visita con un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") debido a su lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo, usted podrá continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte de este doctor o podrá seleccionar a otro proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos que resulte apropiado para tratar su lesión. De ser necesario, usted podrá seleccionar a un especialista o solicitar que el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento le recomiende a un especialista. Si usted necesita ayuda para seleccionar a un doctor o si tiene dificultad para obtener una cita con un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), comuníquese con su Administrador(a) del Caso o con el equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") para que le presten ayuda.

¿Qué sucede si no hay proveedores en mi área?

La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") cuenta con proveedores disponibles dentro de todo el estado de California. Si usted encuentra que no hay un médico o especialista apropiado disponible para que le proporcione tratamiento en su área, por favor, comuníquese con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso o con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos para obtener asistencia. Es posible que en este caso, usted tenga derecho a ver a un especialista que no pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si su empleador le ha autorizado a trabajar o viajar de forma temporaria fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") por motivos de trabajo y surge la necesidad de obtener cuidados médicos que no son de emergencia, usted podrá obtener tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de su elección. Si usted es un(a) empleado(a) lesionado(a) que durante su recuperación decide residir de forma temporal fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") y surge la necesidad de obtener atención médica que no sea de emergencia, comuníquese con el médico primario a cargo de su tratamiento perteneciente a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso para que le ayuden a obtener una lista de los proveedores de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual es miembro del programa de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de St. Paul Travelers, entonces, usted podrá continuar el tratamiento con este doctor y su tratamiento se encontrará amparado por la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual no es miembro o no se le permite convertirse en miembro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), entonces, es posible que a usted se el envíe a un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") para que reciba tratamiento. Si este fuera el caso, a usted se le enviará una carta y su doctor también será notificado.

St. Paul Travelers cuenta con un plan para "Transferencia de Atención Médica" que describe qué es lo que ocurrirá si usted está recibiendo tratamiento en la actualidad debido a una lesión relacionada con el trabajo con un médico que no es miembro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") se convierte en un proveedor de dicha red, entonces, usted y su proveedor recibirán notificación escrita de parte de St. Paul Travelers indicando que su tratamiento ahora se proporcionará de conformidad con las disposiciones de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

(a) Grave El tratamiento de una lesión o enfermedad que se anticipa se resolverá dentro de un período de 90 días.

(b) Crónica Grave Su lesión o enfermedad es de índole grave y persiste sin cura total o empeora a lo largo de un período de 90 días y requiere tratamiento continuo. Una vez que se ha determinado que sufre de una condición crónica grave, es posible que a usted se le permita continuar su tratamiento con su médico actual durante un período que no deberá exceder un año, hasta que se pueda realizar una transferencia de cuidados de forma segura. El período de un año para completar el tratamiento se inicia a partir de la fecha en la que recibe notificación que se ha determinado que usted sufre de una condición crónica grave.

(c) Enfermedad Terminal Usted sufre de una enfermedad o lesión incurable o irreversible que probablemente le ocasionará la muerte dentro de un período de un año o menos. Si se determina que sufre de tal enfermedad, a usted se le permitirá recibir tratamiento de parte de su proveedor actual mientras dure dicha enfermedad terminal.

(d) Cirugía u otro procedimiento pendiente St. Paul Travelers ya le ha dado autorización para una cirugía u otro procedimiento a llevarse a cabo dentro de un período de 180 días contados a partir de la fecha de vigencia de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si St. Paul Travelers va a transferir sus cuidados, usted y su médico recibirán notificación escrita. Si no está de acuerdo con la transferencia de cuidados, usted podrá solicitar que el médico a cargo de su tratamiento le proporcione un informe que indique si usted satisface alguna de las categorías mencionadas anteriormente. El médico a cargo de su tratamiento debe responder a su pedido dentro de un período de 20 días calendarios. Si el médico a cargo de su tratamiento no entrega el informe, será la determinación tomada por St. Paul Travelers la que regirá.

Si St. Paul Travelers o usted no está(n) de acuerdo con el informe del doctor a cargo de su tratamiento, esta disputa se resolverá en virtud del artículo 4062 del Código de Trabajo. Usted debe notificar a el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso si no está de acuerdo con este informe. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento concuerda que su condición no satisface lo mencionado anteriormente, la transferencia de cuidados seguirá adelante mientras usted continúa estando en desacuerdo con la decisión. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento indica que su condición no satisface lo indicado anteriormente, usted podrá continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte de dicho médico hasta que se resuelva la disputa.

El médico a cargo de su tratamiento lo podrá derivar a proveedores para que le proporcionen cuidados adicionales dentro o fuera de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") hasta que a usted se le transfiera a dicha red.

Si su médico deja de participar de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso le indicará cuáles son sus opciones con respecto a la continuación del tratamiento en base al Plan de Continuidad de Atención Médica aprobado por parte de St. Paul Travelers. Por favor, comuníquese con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso para hacer preguntas con respecto a sus opciones. Una copia del "Plan de Continuidad de Atención Médica" se pondrá a su disposición si usted lo solicita.

Si su proveedor ya no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") debido a que dicha red ha rescindido su contrato por asuntos relacionados con causas o motivos médicos de índole disciplinaria, fraude o actividad delictiva, a usted no se le permitirá que continúe recibiendo tratamiento de parte de ese proveedor y se le requerirá que elija a un proveedor participante de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si su proveedor ha sido rescindido por algún otro motivo, St. Paul Travelers se comunicará con usted y con su proveedor para poder determinar los derechos y responsabilidades para completar el tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido. Si usted sufre de alguna de las siguientes condiciones, es posible que reúna los requisitos para continuar recibiendo tratamiento del proveedor que está a cargo del mismo, a pesar de que el proveedor ha rescindido su relación laboral con la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"):

(a) Una enfermedad o lesión grave Su dolencia implica el inicio repentino de síntomas ocasionados por una enfermedad, lesión u otro problema médico que requiere atención médica sin demoras y cuya duración es inferior a los 90 días. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento mientras dure dicha condición de gravedad sujeta a la cooperación del proveedor de acuerdo a lo que se describe a continuación.

(b) Crónica grave Su lesión o enfermedad es de índole grave y persiste sin cura total o empeora durante un período de 90 días y requiere tratamiento continuo. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento de una condición crónica grave que no exceda los 12 meses contados a partir de la fecha de rescisión del contrato sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor según lo que se indica a continuación.

(c) Enfermedad terminal Usted tiene una condición incurable o irreversible que tiene altas probabilidades de ocasionar la muerte dentro de un período de un año o menos. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento mientras dure la enfermedad terminal, sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor, según se describe a continuación.

(d) Cirugía u otro procedimiento pendiente St. Paul Travelers ya ha autorizado una cirugía u otro procedimiento como parte de un curso de tratamiento documentado y que ha sido recomendado y documentado por parte del proveedor a llevarse a cabo dentro de un período de 180 días contados a partir de la fecha de rescisión del contrato. St. Paul Travelers reafirmará la autorización para la continuación del tratamiento sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor según lo que se describe a continuación.

Si su caso reúne alguna de las condiciones de tratamiento enumeradas anteriormente y solicita continuar su tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido, St. Paul Travelers se comunicará con el proveedor para confirmar la intención y capacidad del proveedor de continuar el tratamiento de acuerdo a los mismos términos y condiciones contractuales que existían antes de la rescisión. Si el proveedor no está dispuesto o es incapaz de continuar a cargo del tratamiento, St. Paul Travelers le aconsejará al trabajador lesionado que solicite tratamiento de parte de otro proveedor dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). En dichas circunstancias, St. Paul Travelers no estará obligado a autorizar la continuación de servicios más allá de la fecha de rescisión del contrato y le comunicará el período de tiempo durante el cual tendrá autorización para continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte del proveedor rescindido.

Si usted ha optado por continuar su tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido y el proveedor ha prestado su consentimiento para proporcionar el tratamiento, St. Paul Travelers será responsable del pago para completar el tratamiento que resulta necesario desde un punto de vista médico. St. Paul Travelers no será responsable de tratamientos que no hayan sido autorizados.

Si opta por no continuar con el proveedor rescindido, a usted se le indicará el modo de elegir otro proveedor nuevo dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si St. Paul Travelers decide que no se autorizará tratamiento adicional por parte del médico rescindido y usted no está de acuerdo, usted podrá solicitar que su doctor proporcione un informe que indique si usted satisface alguna de las condiciones enumeradas anteriormente. El médico a cargo de su tratamiento debe responder a su solicitud dentro de un período de 20 días calendarios. Si el médico a cargo de su tratamiento no presenta el informe, la decisión de St. Paul Travelers será la que regirá.

Si St. Paul Travelers o usted no están de acuerdo con el informe del doctor a cargo del tratamiento, esta disputa se resolverá en virtud del artículo 4062 del Código de Trabajo. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento está de acuerdo con que su condición no satisface alguna de las condiciones médicas indicadas anteriormente, usted deberá elegir a un nuevo proveedor que pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") hasta la resolución de la disputa. Si el médico a cargo del tratamiento no está de acuerdo con la decisión de St. Paul Travelers en cuanto a que no satisface ninguna de las condiciones médicas enumeradas anteriormente, usted continuará recibiendo tratamiento de parte del proveedor rescindido hasta que se resuelva la disputa.

Si usted no está de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o con el tratamiento indicado por el proveedor a cargo del mismo, usted podrá solicitar una segunda opinión de parte de otro doctor que forme parte de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si usted desea una segunda opinión, deberá comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (tanto verbalmente como por escrito) e indicarle que usted desea una segunda opinión. El(la) Administrador(a) del caso se asegurará de que usted tenga una lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") del área de la que elegir en base a la especialidad o experiencia reconocida para tratar la lesión o condición en particular. Luego usted podrá seleccionar a un doctor de la lista de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), hacer una cita dentro de un período de 60 días de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la MPN y notificar al Administrador(a) de su Caso acerca de la fecha de su cita. Si no hace la cita dentro de un período de 60 días después de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), a usted no se le permitirá obtener una segunda opinión con respecto a este diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado del médico que le está proporcionando el tratamiento.

Una vez que se le notifique acerca de la fecha de la cita, el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso se comunicará con el médico seleccionado para proporcionar la segunda opinión e informarle acerca de la índole de la disputa y de su papel en la misma, y proporcionarle los archivos médicos necesarios para su consideración. Usted podrá solicitar que se le envíe una copia de los archivos médicos que se le envían al proveedor que proporcionará la segunda opinión. Si el proveedor a cargo de la segunda opinión que usted selecciona considera que la lesión o enfermedad se encuentra fuera del tipo de lesión o enfermedad para la que él o ella proporciona tratamiento, la oficina del proveedor le notificará al Administrador(a) del Caso y usted recibirá una lista nueva de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de la cual podrá volver a elegir. Durante este proceso, a usted se le requerirá que continúe con el médico a cargo de su tratamiento o con el médico de su elección que pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Una vez que recibe la segunda opinión, si usted continúa en desacuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento, usted podrá solicitar una tercera opinión de parte de otro proveedor apropiado perteneciente a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si desea una tercera opinión, usted debe comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (tanto de forma verbal como escrita) e informarle que usted desea una tercera opinión. El(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso se asegurará de que tenga una lista de la cual pueda elegir proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de su área que se base en la especialidad o experiencia reconocida en el tratamiento de la lesión o condición en cuestión. Luego, usted podrá seleccionar a un doctor de la lista de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), hacer una cita dentro de un período de 60 días contados a partir de la fecha en la que se reciba la lista de proveedores de la "MPN" y notificar al Administrador(a) del Caso acerca de la fecha de su cita. Si no hace una cita dentro de los 60 días de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), a usted no se le permitirá obtener una tercera opinión con respecto a este diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado de parte de este médico.

Cuando reciba notificación de la fecha de la cita, el(la) Administrador(a) de su caso se comunicará con el médico seleccionado para que proporcione la tercera opinión y le informará acerca de la índole de la disputa y de su papel en la misma y le proporcionará todos los archivos médicos necesarios para su consideración. Usted podrá solicitar una copia de los expedientes médicos que se le envíen al proveedor a cargo de la tercera opinión. Si el proveedor a cargo de la tercera opinión que usted elija decide que su lesión o enfermedad se encuentra fuera del tipo de lesión o enfermedad para la que él o ella normalmente proporciona tratamiento, la oficina del proveedor le notificará al Administrador(a) de su Caso y usted recibirá una lista nueva de proveedores de la MPN de la cual podrá volver a elegir.

Usted podrá obtener todo tratamiento recomendado que le haya indicado el o los médicos a cargo de la segunda y/o tercera opinión y cambiar al médico que dio la segunda opiniòn o la tercera opinión o a cualquier otro médico que se encuentre dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si después de la tercera opinión, usted sigue no estando de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento de su enfermedad o lesión, usted podrá solicitar una Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR", por sus siglas en inglés). El(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso le proporcionará la información para solicitar la Revisión Médica Independiente y dará la Solicitud en el momento de solicitar una tercera opinión.

Un proveedor que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos estará a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR") y dicho médico será seleccionado por parte del Director Administrativo de la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC") en base a la especialidad del proveedor a cargo del tratamiento y de otra información presentada con la Solicitud de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR"). Se seleccionará al proveedor para que lleve a cabo una evaluación independiente de su disputa.

Si el proveedor a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR") no está de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento del proveedor a cargo de su lesión o enfermedad, usted podrá recibir tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o de un proveedor que no pertenezca a la "MPN". Si elige a un proveedor que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), el tratamiento que usted reciba de dicho proveedor consistirá solamente del servicio de tratamiento o de diagnóstico recomendado por el proveedor a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR"). Una vez completado todo tratamiento con respecto a su diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado, usted debe solicitar cuidados adicionales de parte de un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Usted podrá comunicarse con el Administrador de su Caso o con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") en cualquier momento si necesita ayuda o una explicación adicional con respecto a su tratamiento médico cuando sufre una lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo. Usted puede comunicarse con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de St. Paul Travelers llamando al 800-287-9682.

NOTICE OF NEW WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROGRAM:
Medical Provider Network

California Law requires your employer to provide and pay for medical treatment if you are injured at work. Your employer will provide this medical care by using a Workers' Compensation Medical Provider Network (MPN). This notification describes the program and your rights in choosing medical care for work related injuries and illnesses.

What is a Medical Provider Network (MPN)?

A Medical Provider Network is a group of health care providers (physicians and other types of providers) that will manage and direct any medical care you receive if you are injured on the job.

(St. Paul Travelers) uses First Health, a national managed-care company, whose network of providers has been approved by the Division of Workers' Compensation's (DWC) Administrative Director to treat workers injured on the job. The providers in the MPN specialize in work related injuries and meet access to care standards for common occupational injuries and work-related illnesses.

The MPN access standards require the MPN to provide at least three physicians of each specialty expected to treat worker's compensation injuries. The MPN has primary treating providers within 15 miles or 30 minutes and specialty care providers within 30 miles or 60 minutes from either your work or residence. The MPN also provides that you will be able to get an appointment for non-emergency services within 3 business days and for specialist services within 20 business days following St. Paul Travelers receipt of request for treatment. Further, the regulations require MPN providers to use medical treatment guidelines adopted by the DWC in making any decisions related to medical care or treatment. In the event that you need medical care in connection with a workers' compensation claim, it is likely that you will receive this care from providers within the MPN.

How do I find out which doctors are in the MPN?

800-287-9682

This team will be able to answer your questions about the MPN and help you find the names of MPN providers or help you if you are having trouble getting an appointment with an MPN provider. There are several methods for locating MPN providers. You may:

- Contact your Case Manager (Claim or Medical)
- Contact the MPN Team above
- Contact your employer
- Log on to the website at: www.mywcinfo.com
    - Click on Injured Employee Info square
    - Click on the Network Medical Provider square, then follow the prompts

What happens if I get injured at work?

If you incur a work-related injury or illness that is an emergency either call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical center. You should notify your employer as soon as possible following any emergency treatment. If your injury or illness is not an emergency, notify your employer that you have a work-related injury. Your employer or insurer will arrange an initial appointment with a doctor with in the MPN.

How do I choose a provider?

After the first visit with an MPN provider for your work-related injury or illness, you may continue treatment with this doctor or you may choose another provider from within the MPN that is appropriate to treat your injury. If needed, you may choose a specialist or ask the treating doctor to refer you to a specialist for treatment. If you need help in choosing a doctor or have trouble getting an appointment with a doctor within the MPN, contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team who will assist you.

What if there are no providers in my area?

The MPN has providers available within the entire state of California. If you find there is not an appropriate treating physician or specialist available in your area, please contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team for assistance. You may have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN in this case.

What if I am temporarily working or traveling outside of the MPN geographic service area?

If your employer has authorized you to temporarily work or travel for work outside the MPN geographic service area and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, you may treat with a provider of your choice. You may also contact the MPN Team or Case Manager for assistance in locating the appropriate medical care in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

What if I am permanently or temporarily residing outside of the MPN geographic service area?

If you are a former employee whose employer has ongoing workers' compensation obligations and who permanently resides outside of the MPN geographic service area and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, you may treat with a provider of your choice. You may also contact your Case Manager for assistance in locating the appropriate medical care in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

If you are an injured employee who decides to temporarily reside outside of the MPN geographic service area during your recovery and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, contact your primary treating physician within the MPN or Case Manager for assistance in obtaining a list of providers in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

What if I am already being treated for a work-related injury before the MPN begins?

If your current treating doctor is a member of the St. Paul Travelers MPN program, then you may continue to treat with this doctor and your treatment will be under the MPN. If your current treating doctor is not or is not allowed to become a member of the MPN, then you may be sent to a MPN doctor for treatment. If this occurs, you will be sent a letter and your doctor will also be notified.

St. Paul Travelers has a "Transfer of Care" policy that describes what will happen if you are currently treating for a work-related injury with a physician who is not a member of the MPN. A copy of the "Transfer of Care" policy will be made available upon request.

If your current non-MPN treating doctor becomes an MPN provider, then you and your provider will be notified in writing by St. Paul Travelers that your treatment will now be provided under the provisions of the MPN.

You will not be transferred to a doctor in the MPN if your injury or illness meets any of the following conditions:

(a) Acute The treatment for your injury or illness is expected to be completed within 90 days.

(b) Serious chronic Your injury or illness is one that is serious in nature and persists without full cure or worsens over 90 days and requires ongoing treatment. Once it has been determined that you have a serious chronic condition, you may be allowed to continue treatment by your current physician for up to one year, until a safe transfer of care can be made. The one year period for the completion of treatment starts from the date you receive notification of determination that you have a serious chronic condition.

(c) Terminal illness You have an incurable or irreversible condition that is likely to cause death within one year or less. If it is determined that you have such an illness, you will be allowed to treat with the current provider for the duration of the terminal illness.

(d) Pending surgery or other procedure You already have a surgery or other procedure that has been authorized by St. Paul Travelers that will occur within 180 days of the MPN effective date.

If St. Paul Travelers is going to transfer your care you and your physician will be notified in writing. If you disagree with the transfer of care, you may ask your treating doctor for a report that addresses whether you are in one of the categories listed above. Your treating physician must respond to your request within 20 calendar days. If your treating physician fails to issue the report, then the determination made by St. Paul Travelers shall apply.

If either St. Paul Travelers or you do not agree with your treating doctor's report, this dispute will be resolved according to Labor Code Section 4062. You must notify your Case Manager if you disagree with this report. If your treating doctor agrees that your condition does not meet one of those listed above, the transfer of care will go forward while you continue to disagree with the decision. If your treating doctor states that your condition does meet one of those listed above, you may continue to treat with him or her until the dispute is resolved.

Until you are transferred into the MPN, your treating physician may make referrals for additional care to providers within or outside the MPN.

What if I am being treated by a MPN provider and the provider leaves the MPN?

If your physician stops participating in the MPN, your Case Manager will advise you on your options for continued treatment based on the approved St. Paul Travelers' Continuity of Care Plan. Please contact your Case Manager for questions or advice on your options. A copy of the "Continuity of Care" Plan will be made available upon request.

If your provider is no longer in the MPN because the MPN terminated his or her contract for issues relating to medical disciplinary cause or reason, fraud or criminal activity, you will not be allowed to continue treatment with that provider and you will be required to choose a provider within the MPN.

If your provider has been terminated for another reason, St. Paul Travelers will contact you and your provider in order to determine rights and responsibilities to complete treatment with the terminated provider. If you have one of the following conditions, you may qualify to continue treating with your treating provider even though the provider has terminated the MPN:

(a) An acute condition Your medical condition involves a sudden onset of symptoms due to an illness, injury, or other medical problem that requires prompt medical attention and that has a duration of less than 90 days. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of the treatment for the duration of the acute condition, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(b) Serious chronic Your injury or illness is one that is serious in nature and persists without full cure or worsens over 90 days and requires ongoing treatment. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of treatment for a serious chronic condition that will not exceed 12 months from the contract termination date, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(c) Terminal illness You have an incurable or irreversible condition that is likely to cause death within one year or less. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of treatment for the duration of a terminal illness, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(d) Pending surgery or other procedure You already have a surgery or other procedure that has been authorized by St. Paul Travelers as part of a documented course of treatment and has been recommended and documented by the provider to occur within 180 days of the contract termination date. St. Paul Travelers will affirm authorization for continued treatment as described in this paragraph subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

If you qualify under one of the above listed treatment conditions and request to continue to treat with the terminated provider, St. Paul Travelers will contact the provider to affirm the provider's willingness and capability to continue treatment under the same contractual terms and conditions that existed prior to termination. If the provider is unwilling or incapable of continuing treatment, St. Paul Travelers will advise you to seek treatment from another provider within the MPN. In such circumstances, St. Paul Travelers will not be obligated to authorize continued services beyond the contract termination date, and will communicate the timeframe they will be authorized to continue treatment with the terminated provider.

If you have chosen to continue treatment with the terminated provider and the provider has agreed to continue to treat, St. Paul Travelers will be responsible for payment of completion of the medically necessary treatment. St. Paul Travelers will not be responsible for unauthorized treatment.

If you choose not to continue with the terminated provider, you will be advised of how to choose a new provider within the MPN.

If St. Paul Travelers has determined that no further treatment will be authorized with the terminated physician and you disagree, you may ask your treating doctor for a report that addresses whether you have one of the conditions listed above. Your treating physician must respond to your request within 20 calendar days. If your treating physician fails to issue the report, then the determination made by St. Paul Travelers shall apply.

If either St. Paul Travelers or you do not agree with your treating doctor's report, this dispute will be resolved according to Labor Code Section 4062. If your treating doctor agrees that your condition does not meet one of those medical conditions listed above, you shall choose a new provider from within the MPN until the dispute is resolved. If the treating physician does not agree with St. Paul Travelers' determination that you do not meet one of the medical conditions listed above, you shall continue to treat with the terminated provider until the dispute is resolved.

What if I disagree with my doctor about medical treatment?

If you disagree with either the diagnosis or treatment prescribed by your treating provider, you may ask for a second opinion from another doctor within the MPN. If you want a second opinion, you must contact your Case Manager (either orally or in writing) and tell them you want a second opinion. The Case Manager will make sure that you have a regional area listing of MPN providers, based on the specialty or recognized expertise in treating the particular injury or condition in question, for you to choose from. Then you may choose a doctor from the MPN list, make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers and notify the Case Manager of your appointment date. If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers, you will not be allowed to have a second opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment by this treating physician.

Upon notification of the appointment date, your Case Manager will contact the physician selected to perform the second opinion and inform them of the nature of the dispute and their role and provide them with any necessary medical records needed for their review. You may request a copy of the medical records that are sent to the second opinion provider. If the second opinion provider that you chose feels that your injury or illness is outside the type of injury or illness he or she normally treats, the provider's office will notify your Case Manager and you will receive a new list of MPN providers from which to make another selection. During this process, you will be required to continue treatment with your treating physician or with a physician of your choice within the MPN.

After you receive the second opinion, if you still disagree with the diagnosis or treatment, you may seek a third opinion from another appropriate MPN provider. If you want a third opinion, you must contact your Case Manager (either orally or in writing) and tell them you want a third opinion. The Case Manager will make sure that you have a regional area listing of MPN providers, based on the specialty or recognized expertise in treating the particular injury or condition in question, for you to choose from. Then you may choose a doctor from the MPN list, make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers and notify the Case Manager of your appointment date. If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers, you will not be allowed to have a third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment by this treating physician.

Upon notification of the appointment date, your Case Manager will contact the physician selected to perform the third opinion and inform them of the nature of the dispute and their role and provide them with any necessary medical records needed for their review. You may request a copy of the medical records that are sent to the third opinion provider. If the third opinion provider that you chose feels that your injury or illness is outside the type of injury or illness he or she normally treats, the provider's office will notify your Case Manager and you will receive a new list of MPN providers from which to make another selection.

You may obtain any recommended treatment indicated by the second and/or third opinion physician(s) by either changing physicians to the second opinion physician, third opinion physician, or other physician within the MPN.

If after the third opinion, you still disagree with your provider's diagnosis or treatment of your illness or injury, you may ask for an Independent Medical Review (IMR). Your Case Manager will have given you the information on requesting an IMR and provided you with the IMR Application at the time you request a third opinion.

An IMR will be performed by a provider outside of the MPN who will be selected by the DWC Administrative Director based upon the specialty of the treating provider and other information submitted with the IMR Application. The provider will be selected to conduct an independent assessment of your dispute.

If the IMR provider does not agree with your treating provider's diagnosis or treatment of your illness or injury, you can receive treatment from either an MPN provider or a non-MPN provider. If you choose a provider that is outside the MPN, the treatment you receive from that provider can only be for the treatment or diagnostic service recommended by the IMR provider. Once any treatment provided to you related to the disputed diagnosis or treatment is completed, you must seek any further care from an MPN provider.

AVISO DEL NUEVO PROGRAMA DE COMPENSACIÓN DEL TRABAJADOR PARA EMPLEADOS:
Medical Provider Network (MPN) Cadena o Red de Proveedores de Medicina

La ley de California requiere que su patrón o compañía de empleo le de y pague el tratamiento médico si se dañan o lesionan en el trabajo. Su patrón /compañía de trabajo le asistirá el tratamiento médico por medio del programa (MPN). Esta notificación describe el programa y sus derechos en elegir la asistencia médica para enfermedades y lesiones relacionadas con su trabajo.

¿Qué es la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN")?

Una Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") es un grupo de proveedores de atención médica (médicos y otros tipos de proveedores) que estarán a cargo y dirigirán toda atención médica que reciba si usted se lesiona en el trabajo. (St. Paul Travelers) utiliza a First Health, una compañía nacional de administración de atención médica cuya red de proveedores ha sido aprobada por el Director Administrativo de la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC", por sus siglas en inglés) para proporcionar tratamiento a los trabajadores que se lesionan en el trabajo. Los profesionales de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") se especializan en lesiones relacionadas con el trabajo y satisfacen las normas de acceso a los cuidados convencionales para las lesiones ocupacionales y enfermedades relacionadas con el trabajo.

Las normas de acceso a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") requieren que dicha Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") proporcione por lo menos tres médicos de cada especialidad que se ocupan de tratar lesiones en concepto de indemnización laboral. La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") cuenta con proveedores de atención primaria dentro de un área de 15 millas o a 30 minutos de distancia y con proveedores especialistas dentro de un área de 30 millas o a 60 minutos de distancia de su residencia o trabajo. La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") también facilita que usted pueda concertar una cita para obtener servicios que no sean de emergencia dentro de un período de 3 días hábiles y para los servicios de especialistas dentro de un período de 20 días hábiles posterior a que St. Paul Travelers reciba el pedido de tratamiento. Además, las regulaciones requieren que la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") utilicen las pautas de tratamiento médico adoptadas por la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC") al tomar cualquier decisión relacionada con los cuidados o tratamiento médico. Si usted necesita cuidados médicos relacionados con un reclamo de indemnización laboral, es posible que reciba estos cuidados de parte de proveedores que se encuentran dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

El Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos de St. Paul Travelers

Hay varios medios para localizar a los proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Usted podrá:

- Comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (Reclamo o Médico)
- Comunicarse con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") anteriormente mencionado
- Comunicarse con su empleador
- Dirigirse al sitio en la red: www.mywcinfo.com
  - Pulse el casillero: "Empleado Lesionado"
  - Pulse el casillero Proveedor Médico de la Red, luego siga las indicaciones

¿Qué sucede si me lastimo en el trabajo?

Si usted resulta lesionado(a) o sufre de una enfermedad relacionada con su trabajo que es de emergencia, llame al 911 o bien diríjase al centro de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Usted deberá notificar a su empleador lo antes posible después de haber recibido tratamiento de emergencia. Si su lesión o enfermedad no es de emergencia, notifique a su empleador que usted ha sufrido una lesión relacionada con su trabajo. Su empleador o asegurador hará los arreglos para una cita inicial con un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

¿Cómo hago para seleccionar a un proveedor?

Después de la primera visita con un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") debido a su lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo, usted podrá continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte de este doctor o podrá seleccionar a otro proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos que resulte apropiado para tratar su lesión. De ser necesario, usted podrá seleccionar a un especialista o solicitar que el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento le recomiende a un especialista. Si usted necesita ayuda para seleccionar a un doctor o si tiene dificultad para obtener una cita con un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), comuníquese con su Administrador(a) del Caso o con el equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") para que le presten ayuda.

¿Qué sucede si no hay proveedores en mi área?

La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") cuenta con proveedores disponibles dentro de todo el estado de California. Si usted encuentra que no hay un médico o especialista apropiado disponible para que le proporcione tratamiento en su área, por favor, comuníquese con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso o con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos para obtener asistencia. Es posible que en este caso, usted tenga derecho a ver a un especialista que no pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si su empleador le ha autorizado a trabajar o viajar de forma temporaria fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") por motivos de trabajo y surge la necesidad de obtener cuidados médicos que no son de emergencia, usted podrá obtener tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de su elección. Además, usted podrá comunicarse con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o con el Administrador de su Caso para que le ayuden a obtener los cuidados médicos apropiados dentro de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si usted es un ex empleado cuyo empleador todavía tiene obligaciones para con usted de indemnización laboral y usted reside de forma permanente fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") y surge la necesidad de obtener atención médica que no sea de emergencia, usted podrá recibir tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de su elección. Además, usted podrá comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su caso para que le ayude a obtener los cuidados médicos apropiados dentro de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si usted es un(a) empleado(a) lesionado(a) que durante su recuperación decide residir de forma temporal fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") y surge la necesidad de obtener atención médica que no sea de emergencia, comuníquese con el médico primario a cargo de su tratamiento perteneciente a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso para que le ayuden a obtener una lista de los proveedores de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual es miembro del programa de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de St. Paul Travelers, entonces, usted podrá continuar el tratamiento con este doctor y su tratamiento se encontrará amparado por la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual no es miembro o no se le permite convertirse en miembro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), entonces, es posible que a usted se el envíe a un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") para que reciba tratamiento. Si este fuera el caso, a usted se le enviará una carta y su doctor también será notificado.

St. Paul Travelers cuenta con un plan para "Transferencia de Atención Médica" que describe qué es lo que ocurrirá si usted está recibiendo tratamiento en la actualidad debido a una lesión relacionada con el trabajo con un médico que no es miembro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Una copia del plan para "Transferencia de Atención Médica" se pondrá a su disposición si usted lo solicita.

Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") se convierte en un proveedor de dicha red, entonces, usted y su proveedor recibirán notificación escrita de parte de St. Paul Travelers indicando que su tratamiento ahora se proporcionará de conformidad con las disposiciones de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Usted no será transferido(a) a un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") si su lesión o enfermedad reune cualquiera de las siguientes condiciones:

(a) Grave El tratamiento de una lesión o enfermedad que se anticipa se resolverá dentro de un período de 90 días.

(b) Crónica Grave Su lesión o enfermedad es de índole grave y persiste sin cura total o empeora a lo largo de un período de 90 días y requiere tratamiento continuo. Una vez que se ha determinado que sufre de una condición crónica grave, es posible que a usted se le permita continuar su tratamiento con su médico actual durante un período que no deberá exceder un año, hasta que se pueda realizar una transferencia de cuidados de forma segura. El período de un año para completar el tratamiento se inicia a partir de la fecha en la que recibe notificación que se ha determinado que usted sufre de una condición crónica grave.

(c) Enfermedad Terminal Usted sufre de una enfermedad o lesión incurable o irreversible que probablemente le ocasionará la muerte dentro de un período de un año o menos. Si se determina que sufre de tal enfermedad, a usted se le permitirá recibir tratamiento de parte de su proveedor actual mientras dure dicha enfermedad terminal.

(d) Cirugía u otro procedimiento pendiente St. Paul Travelers ya le ha dado autorización para una cirugía u otro procedimiento a llevarse a cabo dentro de un período de 180 días contados a partir de la fecha de vigencia de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si St. Paul Travelers va a transferir sus cuidados, usted y su médico recibirán notificación escrita. Si no está de acuerdo con la transferencia de cuidados, usted podrá solicitar que el médico a cargo de su tratamiento le proporcione un informe que indique si usted satisface alguna de las categorías mencionadas anteriormente. El médico a cargo de su tratamiento debe responder a su pedido dentro de un período de 20 días calendarios. Si el médico a cargo de su tratamiento no entrega el informe, será la determinación tomada por St. Paul Travelers la que regirá.

Si St. Paul Travelers o usted no está(n) de acuerdo con el informe del doctor a cargo de su tratamiento, esta disputa se resolverá en virtud del artículo 4062 del Código de Trabajo. Usted debe notificar a el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso si no está de acuerdo con este informe. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento concuerda que su condición no satisface lo mencionado anteriormente, la transferencia de cuidados seguirá adelante mientras usted continúa estando en desacuerdo con la decisión. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento indica que su condición no satisface lo indicado anteriormente, usted podrá continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte de dicho médico hasta que se resuelva la disputa.

El médico a cargo de su tratamiento lo podrá derivar a proveedores para que le proporcionen cuidados adicionales dentro o fuera de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") hasta que a usted se le transfiera a dicha red.

Si su médico deja de participar de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso le indicará cuáles son sus opciones con respecto a la continuación del tratamiento en base al Plan de Continuidad de Atención Médica aprobado por parte de St. Paul Travelers. Por favor, comuníquese con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso para hacer preguntas con respecto a sus opciones. Una copia del "Plan de Continuidad de Atención Médica" se pondrá a su disposición si usted lo solicita.

Si su proveedor ya no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") debido a que dicha red ha rescindido su contrato por asuntos relacionados con causas o motivos médicos de índole disciplinaria, fraude o actividad delictiva, a usted no se le permitirá que continúe recibiendo tratamiento de parte de ese proveedor y se le requerirá que elija a un proveedor participante de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si su proveedor ha sido rescindido por algún otro motivo, St. Paul Travelers se comunicará con usted y con su proveedor para poder determinar los derechos y responsabilidades para completar el tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido. Si usted sufre de alguna de las siguientes condiciones, es posible que reúna los requisitos para continuar recibiendo tratamiento del proveedor que está a cargo del mismo, a pesar de que el proveedor ha rescindido su relación laboral con la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"):

(a) Una enfermedad o lesión grave Su dolencia implica el inicio repentino de síntomas ocasionados por una enfermedad, lesión u otro problema médico que requiere atención médica sin demoras y cuya duración es inferior a los 90 días. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento mientras dure dicha condición de gravedad sujeta a la cooperación del proveedor de acuerdo a lo que se describe a continuación.

(b) Crónica grave Su lesión o enfermedad es de índole grave y persiste sin cura total o empeora durante un período de 90 días y requiere tratamiento continuo. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento de una condición crónica grave que no exceda los 12 meses contados a partir de la fecha de rescisión del contrato sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor según lo que se indica a continuación.

(c) Enfermedad terminal Usted tiene una condición incurable o irreversible que tiene altas probabilidades de ocasionar la muerte dentro de un período de un año o menos. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento mientras dure la enfermedad terminal, sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor, según se describe a continuación.

(d) Cirugía u otro procedimiento pendiente St. Paul Travelers ya ha autorizado una cirugía u otro procedimiento como parte de un curso de tratamiento documentado y que ha sido recomendado y documentado por parte del proveedor a llevarse a cabo dentro de un período de 180 días contados a partir de la fecha de rescisión del contrato. St. Paul Travelers reafirmará la autorización para la continuación del tratamiento sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor según lo que se describe a continuación.

Si su caso reúne alguna de las condiciones de tratamiento enumeradas anteriormente y solicita continuar su tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido, St. Paul Travelers se comunicará con el proveedor para confirmar la intención y capacidad del proveedor de continuar el tratamiento de acuerdo a los mismos términos y condiciones contractuales que existían antes de la rescisión. Si el proveedor no está dispuesto o es incapaz de continuar a cargo del tratamiento, St. Paul Travelers le aconsejará al trabajador lesionado que solicite tratamiento de parte de otro proveedor dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). En dichas circunstancias, St. Paul Travelers no estará obligado a autorizar la continuación de servicios más allá de la fecha de rescisión del contrato y le comunicará el período de tiempo durante el cual tendrá autorización para continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte del proveedor rescindido.

Si usted ha optado por continuar su tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido y el proveedor ha prestado su consentimiento para proporcionar el tratamiento, St. Paul Travelers será responsable del pago para completar el tratamiento que resulta necesario desde un punto de vista médico. St. Paul Travelers no será responsable de tratamientos que no hayan sido autorizados.

Si opta por no continuar con el proveedor rescindido, a usted se le indicará el modo de elegir otro proveedor nuevo dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si St. Paul Travelers decide que no se autorizará tratamiento adicional por parte del médico rescindido y usted no está de acuerdo, usted podrá solicitar que su doctor proporcione un informe que indique si usted satisface alguna de las condiciones enumeradas anteriormente. El médico a cargo de su tratamiento debe responder a su solicitud dentro de un período de 20 días calendarios. Si el médico a cargo de su tratamiento no presenta el informe, la decisión de St. Paul Travelers será la que regirá.

Si St. Paul Travelers o usted no están de acuerdo con el informe del doctor a cargo del tratamiento, esta disputa se resolverá en virtud del artículo 4062 del Código de Trabajo. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento está de acuerdo con que su condición no satisface alguna de las condiciones médicas indicadas anteriormente, usted deberá elegir a un nuevo proveedor que pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") hasta la resolución de la disputa. Si el médico a cargo del tratamiento no está de acuerdo con la decisión de St. Paul Travelers en cuanto a que no satisface ninguna de las condiciones médicas enumeradas anteriormente, usted continuará recibiendo tratamiento de parte del proveedor rescindido hasta que se resuelva la disputa.

Si usted no está de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o con el tratamiento indicado por el proveedor a cargo del mismo, usted podrá solicitar una segunda opinión de parte de otro doctor que forme parte de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si usted desea una segunda opinión, deberá comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (tanto verbalmente como por escrito) e indicarle que usted desea una segunda opinión. El(la) Administrador(a) del caso se asegurará de que usted tenga una lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") del área de la que elegir en base a la especialidad o experiencia reconocida para tratar la lesión o condición en particular. Luego usted podrá seleccionar a un doctor de la lista de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), hacer una cita dentro de un período de 60 días de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la MPN y notificar al Administrador(a) de su Caso acerca de la fecha de su cita. Si no hace la cita dentro de un período de 60 días después de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), a usted no se le permitirá obtener una segunda opinión con respecto a este diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado del médico que le está proporcionando el tratamiento.

Una vez que se le notifique acerca de la fecha de la cita, el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso se comunicará con el médico seleccionado para proporcionar la segunda opinión e informarle acerca de la índole de la disputa y de su papel en la misma, y proporcionarle los archivos médicos necesarios para su consideración. Usted podrá solicitar que se le envíe una copia de los archivos médicos que se le envían al proveedor que proporcionará la segunda opinión. Si el proveedor a cargo de la segunda opinión que usted selecciona considera que la lesión o enfermedad se encuentra fuera del tipo de lesión o enfermedad para la que él o ella proporciona tratamiento, la oficina del proveedor le notificará al Administrador(a) del Caso y usted recibirá una lista nueva de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de la cual podrá volver a elegir. Durante este proceso, a usted se le requerirá que continúe con el médico a cargo de su tratamiento o con el médico de su elección que pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Una vez que recibe la segunda opinión, si usted continúa en desacuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento, usted podrá solicitar una tercera opinión de parte de otro proveedor apropiado perteneciente a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si desea una tercera opinión, usted debe comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (tanto de forma verbal como escrita) e informarle que usted desea una tercera opinión. El(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso se asegurará de que tenga una lista de la cual pueda elegir proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de su área que se base en la especialidad o experiencia reconocida en el tratamiento de la lesión o condición en cuestión. Luego, usted podrá seleccionar a un doctor de la lista de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), hacer una cita dentro de un período de 60 días contados a partir de la fecha en la que se reciba la lista de proveedores de la "MPN" y notificar al Administrador(a) del Caso acerca de la fecha de su cita. Si no hace una cita dentro de los 60 días de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), a usted no se le permitirá obtener una tercera opinión con respecto a este diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado de parte de este médico.

Cuando reciba notificación de la fecha de la cita, el(la) Administrador(a) de su caso se comunicará con el médico seleccionado para que proporcione la tercera opinión y le informará acerca de la índole de la disputa y de su papel en la misma y le proporcionará todos los archivos médicos necesarios para su consideración. Usted podrá solicitar una copia de los expedientes médicos que se le envíen al proveedor a cargo de la tercera opinión. Si el proveedor a cargo de la tercera opinión que usted elija decide que su lesión o enfermedad se encuentra fuera del tipo de lesión o enfermedad para la que él o ella normalmente proporciona tratamiento, la oficina del proveedor le notificará al Administrador(a) de su Caso y usted recibirá una lista nueva de proveedores de la MPN de la cual podrá volver a elegir.

Usted podrá obtener todo tratamiento recomendado que le haya indicado el o los médicos a cargo de la segunda y/o tercera opinión y cambiar al médico que dio la segunda opiniòn o la tercera opinión o a cualquier otro médico que se encuentre dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si después de la tercera opinión, usted sigue no estando de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento de su enfermedad o lesión, usted podrá solicitar una Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR", por sus siglas en inglés). El(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso le proporcionará la información para solicitar la Revisión Médica Independiente y dará la Solicitud en el momento de solicitar una tercera opinión.

Un proveedor que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos estará a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR") y dicho médico será seleccionado por parte del Director Administrativo de la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC") en base a la especialidad del proveedor a cargo del tratamiento y de otra información presentada con la Solicitud de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR"). Se seleccionará al proveedor para que lleve a cabo una evaluación independiente de su disputa.

Si el proveedor a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR") no está de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento del proveedor a cargo de su lesión o enfermedad, usted podrá recibir tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o de un proveedor que no pertenezca a la "MPN". Si elige a un proveedor que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), el tratamiento que usted reciba de dicho proveedor consistirá solamente del servicio de tratamiento o de diagnóstico recomendado por el proveedor a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR"). Una vez completado todo tratamiento con respecto a su diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado, usted debe solicitar cuidados adicionales de parte de un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Usted podrá comunicarse con el Administrador de su Caso o con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") en cualquier momento si necesita ayuda o una explicación adicional con respecto a su tratamiento médico cuando sufre una lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo. Usted puede comunicarse con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de St. Paul Travelers llamando al 800-287-9682.

NOTICE OF NEW WORKERS' COMPENSATION PROGRAM:
Medical Provider Network

California Law requires your employer to provide and pay for medical treatment if you are injured at work. Your employer will provide this medical care by using a Workers' Compensation Medical Provider Network (MPN). This notification describes the program and your rights in choosing medical care for work related injuries and illnesses.

What is a Medical Provider Network (MPN)?

A Medical Provider Network is a group of health care providers (physicians and other types of providers) that will manage and direct any medical care you receive if you are injured on the job.

(St. Paul Travelers) uses First Health, a national managed-care company, whose network of providers has been approved by the Division of Workers' Compensation's (DWC) Administrative Director to treat workers injured on the job. The providers in the MPN specialize in work related injuries and meet access to care standards for common occupational injuries and work-related illnesses.

The MPN access standards require the MPN to provide at least three physicians of each specialty expected to treat worker's compensation injuries. The MPN has primary treating providers within 15 miles or 30 minutes and specialty care providers within 30 miles or 60 minutes from either your work or residence. The MPN also provides that you will be able to get an appointment for non-emergency services within 3 business days and for specialist services within 20 business days following St. Paul Travelers receipt of request for treatment. Further, the regulations require MPN providers to use medical treatment guidelines adopted by the DWC in making any decisions related to medical care or treatment. In the event that you need medical care in connection with a workers' compensation claim, it is likely that you will receive this care from providers within the MPN.

How do I find out which doctors are in the MPN?

800-287-9682

This team will be able to answer your questions about the MPN and help you find the names of MPN providers or help you if you are having trouble getting an appointment with an MPN provider. There are several methods for locating MPN providers. You may:

- Contact your Case Manager (Claim or Medical)
- Contact the MPN Team above
- Contact your employer
- Log on to the website at: www.mywcinfo.com
    - Click on Injured Employee Info square
    - Click on the Network Medical Provider square, then follow the prompts

What happens if I get injured at work?

If you incur a work-related injury or illness that is an emergency either call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical center. You should notify your employer as soon as possible following any emergency treatment. If your injury or illness is not an emergency, notify your employer that you have a work-related injury. Your employer or insurer will arrange an initial appointment with a doctor with in the MPN.

How do I choose a provider?

After the first visit with an MPN provider for your work-related injury or illness, you may continue treatment with this doctor or you may choose another provider from within the MPN that is appropriate to treat your injury. If needed, you may choose a specialist or ask the treating doctor to refer you to a specialist for treatment. If you need help in choosing a doctor or have trouble getting an appointment with a doctor within the MPN, contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team who will assist you.

What if there are no providers in my area?

The MPN has providers available within the entire state of California. If you find there is not an appropriate treating physician or specialist available in your area, please contact your Case Manager or the MPN Team for assistance. You may have the right to see a specialist outside of the MPN in this case.

What if I am temporarily working or traveling outside of the MPN geographic service area?

If your employer has authorized you to temporarily work or travel for work outside the MPN geographic service area and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, you may treat with a provider of your choice. You may also contact the MPN Team or Case Manager for assistance in locating the appropriate medical care in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

What if I am permanently or temporarily residing outside of the MPN geographic service area?

If you are a former employee whose employer has ongoing workers' compensation obligations and who permanently resides outside of the MPN geographic service area and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, you may treat with a provider of your choice. You may also contact your Case Manager for assistance in locating the appropriate medical care in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

If you are an injured employee who decides to temporarily reside outside of the MPN geographic service area during your recovery and the need for non-emergency medical care arises, contact your primary treating physician within the MPN or Case Manager for assistance in obtaining a list of providers in your area. If your injury requires emergency care, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency medical treatment center.

What if I am already being treated for a work-related injury before the MPN begins?

If your current treating doctor is a member of the St. Paul Travelers MPN program, then you may continue to treat with this doctor and your treatment will be under the MPN. If your current treating doctor is not or is not allowed to become a member of the MPN, then you may be sent to a MPN doctor for treatment. If this occurs, you will be sent a letter and your doctor will also be notified.

St. Paul Travelers has a "Transfer of Care" policy that describes what will happen if you are currently treating for a work-related injury with a physician who is not a member of the MPN. A copy of the "Transfer of Care" policy will be made available upon request.

If your current non-MPN treating doctor becomes an MPN provider, then you and your provider will be notified in writing by St. Paul Travelers that your treatment will now be provided under the provisions of the MPN.

You will not be transferred to a doctor in the MPN if your injury or illness meets any of the following conditions:

(a) Acute The treatment for your injury or illness is expected to be completed within 90 days.

(b) Serious chronic Your injury or illness is one that is serious in nature and persists without full cure or worsens over 90 days and requires ongoing treatment. Once it has been determined that you have a serious chronic condition, you may be allowed to continue treatment by your current physician for up to one year, until a safe transfer of care can be made. The one year period for the completion of treatment starts from the date you receive notification of determination that you have a serious chronic condition.

(c) Terminal illness You have an incurable or irreversible condition that is likely to cause death within one year or less. If it is determined that you have such an illness, you will be allowed to treat with the current provider for the duration of the terminal illness.

(d) Pending surgery or other procedure You already have a surgery or other procedure that has been authorized by St. Paul Travelers that will occur within 180 days of the MPN effective date.

If St. Paul Travelers is going to transfer your care you and your physician will be notified in writing. If you disagree with the transfer of care, you may ask your treating doctor for a report that addresses whether you are in one of the categories listed above. Your treating physician must respond to your request within 20 calendar days. If your treating physician fails to issue the report, then the determination made by St. Paul Travelers shall apply.

If either St. Paul Travelers or you do not agree with your treating doctor's report, this dispute will be resolved according to Labor Code Section 4062. You must notify your Case Manager if you disagree with this report. If your treating doctor agrees that your condition does not meet one of those listed above, the transfer of care will go forward while you continue to disagree with the decision. If your treating doctor states that your condition does meet one of those listed above, you may continue to treat with him or her until the dispute is resolved.

Until you are transferred into the MPN, your treating physician may make referrals for additional care to providers within or outside the MPN.

What if I am being treated by a MPN provider and the provider leaves the MPN?

If your physician stops participating in the MPN, your Case Manager will advise you on your options for continued treatment based on the approved St. Paul Travelers' Continuity of Care Plan. Please contact your Case Manager for questions or advice on your options. A copy of the "Continuity of Care" Plan will be made available upon request.

If your provider is no longer in the MPN because the MPN terminated his or her contract for issues relating to medical disciplinary cause or reason, fraud or criminal activity, you will not be allowed to continue treatment with that provider and you will be required to choose a provider within the MPN.

If your provider has been terminated for another reason, St. Paul Travelers will contact you and your provider in order to determine rights and responsibilities to complete treatment with the terminated provider. If you have one of the following conditions, you may qualify to continue treating with your treating provider even though the provider has terminated the MPN:

(a) An acute condition Your medical condition involves a sudden onset of symptoms due to an illness, injury, or other medical problem that requires prompt medical attention and that has a duration of less than 90 days. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of the treatment for the duration of the acute condition, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(b) Serious chronic Your injury or illness is one that is serious in nature and persists without full cure or worsens over 90 days and requires ongoing treatment. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of treatment for a serious chronic condition that will not exceed 12 months from the contract termination date, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(c) Terminal illness You have an incurable or irreversible condition that is likely to cause death within one year or less. St. Paul Travelers will authorize completion of treatment for the duration of a terminal illness, subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

(d) Pending surgery or other procedure You already have a surgery or other procedure that has been authorized by St. Paul Travelers as part of a documented course of treatment and has been recommended and documented by the provider to occur within 180 days of the contract termination date. St. Paul Travelers will affirm authorization for continued treatment as described in this paragraph subject to the provider's cooperation as described below.

If you qualify under one of the above listed treatment conditions and request to continue to treat with the terminated provider, St. Paul Travelers will contact the provider to affirm the provider's willingness and capability to continue treatment under the same contractual terms and conditions that existed prior to termination. If the provider is unwilling or incapable of continuing treatment, St. Paul Travelers will advise you to seek treatment from another provider within the MPN. In such circumstances, St. Paul Travelers will not be obligated to authorize continued services beyond the contract termination date, and will communicate the timeframe they will be authorized to continue treatment with the terminated provider.

If you have chosen to continue treatment with the terminated provider and the provider has agreed to continue to treat, St. Paul Travelers will be responsible for payment of completion of the medically necessary treatment. St. Paul Travelers will not be responsible for unauthorized treatment.

If you choose not to continue with the terminated provider, you will be advised of how to choose a new provider within the MPN.

If St. Paul Travelers has determined that no further treatment will be authorized with the terminated physician and you disagree, you may ask your treating doctor for a report that addresses whether you have one of the conditions listed above. Your treating physician must respond to your request within 20 calendar days. If your treating physician fails to issue the report, then the determination made by St. Paul Travelers shall apply.

If either St. Paul Travelers or you do not agree with your treating doctor's report, this dispute will be resolved according to Labor Code Section 4062. If your treating doctor agrees that your condition does not meet one of those medical conditions listed above, you shall choose a new provider from within the MPN until the dispute is resolved. If the treating physician does not agree with St. Paul Travelers' determination that you do not meet one of the medical conditions listed above, you shall continue to treat with the terminated provider until the dispute is resolved.

What if I disagree with my doctor about medical treatment?

If you disagree with either the diagnosis or treatment prescribed by your treating provider, you may ask for a second opinion from another doctor within the MPN. If you want a second opinion, you must contact your Case Manager (either orally or in writing) and tell them you want a second opinion. The Case Manager will make sure that you have a regional area listing of MPN providers, based on the specialty or recognized expertise in treating the particular injury or condition in question, for you to choose from. Then you may choose a doctor from the MPN list, make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers and notify the Case Manager of your appointment date. If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers, you will not be allowed to have a second opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment by this treating physician.

Upon notification of the appointment date, your Case Manager will contact the physician selected to perform the second opinion and inform them of the nature of the dispute and their role and provide them with any necessary medical records needed for their review. You may request a copy of the medical records that are sent to the second opinion provider. If the second opinion provider that you chose feels that your injury or illness is outside the type of injury or illness he or she normally treats, the provider's office will notify your Case Manager and you will receive a new list of MPN providers from which to make another selection. During this process, you will be required to continue treatment with your treating physician or with a physician of your choice within the MPN.

After you receive the second opinion, if you still disagree with the diagnosis or treatment, you may seek a third opinion from another appropriate MPN provider. If you want a third opinion, you must contact your Case Manager (either orally or in writing) and tell them you want a third opinion. The Case Manager will make sure that you have a regional area listing of MPN providers, based on the specialty or recognized expertise in treating the particular injury or condition in question, for you to choose from. Then you may choose a doctor from the MPN list, make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers and notify the Case Manager of your appointment date. If you do not make an appointment within 60 days of receipt of the list of MPN providers, you will not be allowed to have a third opinion with regard to this disputed diagnosis or treatment by this treating physician.

Upon notification of the appointment date, your Case Manager will contact the physician selected to perform the third opinion and inform them of the nature of the dispute and their role and provide them with any necessary medical records needed for their review. You may request a copy of the medical records that are sent to the third opinion provider. If the third opinion provider that you chose feels that your injury or illness is outside the type of injury or illness he or she normally treats, the provider's office will notify your Case Manager and you will receive a new list of MPN providers from which to make another selection.

You may obtain any recommended treatment indicated by the second and/or third opinion physician(s) by either changing physicians to the second opinion physician, third opinion physician, or other physician within the MPN.

If after the third opinion, you still disagree with your provider's diagnosis or treatment of your illness or injury, you may ask for an Independent Medical Review (IMR). Your Case Manager will have given you the information on requesting an IMR and provided you with the IMR Application at the time you request a third opinion.

An IMR will be performed by a provider outside of the MPN who will be selected by the DWC Administrative Director based upon the specialty of the treating provider and other information submitted with the IMR Application. The provider will be selected to conduct an independent assessment of your dispute.

If the IMR provider does not agree with your treating provider's diagnosis or treatment of your illness or injury, you can receive treatment from either an MPN provider or a non-MPN provider. If you choose a provider that is outside the MPN, the treatment you receive from that provider can only be for the treatment or diagnostic service recommended by the IMR provider. Once any treatment provided to you related to the disputed diagnosis or treatment is completed, you must seek any further care from an MPN provider.

AVISO DEL NUEVO PROGRAMA DE COMPENSACIÓN DEL TRABAJADOR PARA EMPLEADOS:
Medical Provider Network (MPN) Cadena o Red de Proveedores de Medicina

La ley de California requiere que su patrón o compañía de empleo le de y pague el tratamiento médico si se dañan o lesionan en el trabajo. Su patrón /compañía de trabajo le asistirá el tratamiento médico por medio del programa (MPN). Esta notificación describe el programa y sus derechos en elegir la asistencia médica para enfermedades y lesiones relacionadas con su trabajo.

¿Qué es la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN")?

Una Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") es un grupo de proveedores de atención médica (médicos y otros tipos de proveedores) que estarán a cargo y dirigirán toda atención médica que reciba si usted se lesiona en el trabajo. (St. Paul Travelers) utiliza a First Health, una compañía nacional de administración de atención médica cuya red de proveedores ha sido aprobada por el Director Administrativo de la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC", por sus siglas en inglés) para proporcionar tratamiento a los trabajadores que se lesionan en el trabajo. Los profesionales de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") se especializan en lesiones relacionadas con el trabajo y satisfacen las normas de acceso a los cuidados convencionales para las lesiones ocupacionales y enfermedades relacionadas con el trabajo.

Las normas de acceso a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") requieren que dicha Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") proporcione por lo menos tres médicos de cada especialidad que se ocupan de tratar lesiones en concepto de indemnización laboral. La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") cuenta con proveedores de atención primaria dentro de un área de 15 millas o a 30 minutos de distancia y con proveedores especialistas dentro de un área de 30 millas o a 60 minutos de distancia de su residencia o trabajo. La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") también facilita que usted pueda concertar una cita para obtener servicios que no sean de emergencia dentro de un período de 3 días hábiles y para los servicios de especialistas dentro de un período de 20 días hábiles posterior a que St. Paul Travelers reciba el pedido de tratamiento. Además, las regulaciones requieren que la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") utilicen las pautas de tratamiento médico adoptadas por la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC") al tomar cualquier decisión relacionada con los cuidados o tratamiento médico. Si usted necesita cuidados médicos relacionados con un reclamo de indemnización laboral, es posible que reciba estos cuidados de parte de proveedores que se encuentran dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

  - Pulse el casillero Proveedor Médico de la Red, luego siga las indicaciones ¿Qué sucede si me lastimo en el trabajo?

Si usted resulta lesionado(a) o sufre de una enfermedad relacionada con su trabajo que es de emergencia, llame al 911 o bien diríjase al centro de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Usted deberá notificar a su empleador lo antes posible después de haber recibido tratamiento de emergencia. Si su lesión o enfermedad no es de emergencia, notifique a su empleador que usted ha sufrido una lesión relacionada con su trabajo. Su empleador o asegurador hará los arreglos para una cita inicial con un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

¿Cómo hago para seleccionar a un proveedor?

Después de la primera visita con un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") debido a su lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo, usted podrá continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte de este doctor o podrá seleccionar a otro proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos que resulte apropiado para tratar su lesión. De ser necesario, usted podrá seleccionar a un especialista o solicitar que el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento le recomiende a un especialista. Si usted necesita ayuda para seleccionar a un doctor o si tiene dificultad para obtener una cita con un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), comuníquese con su Administrador(a) del Caso o con el equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") para que le presten ayuda.

¿Qué sucede si no hay proveedores en mi área?

La Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") cuenta con proveedores disponibles dentro de todo el estado de California. Si usted encuentra que no hay un médico o especialista apropiado disponible para que le proporcione tratamiento en su área, por favor, comuníquese con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso o con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos para obtener asistencia. Es posible que en este caso, usted tenga derecho a ver a un especialista que no pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si su empleador le ha autorizado a trabajar o viajar de forma temporaria fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") por motivos de trabajo y surge la necesidad de obtener cuidados médicos que no son de emergencia, usted podrá obtener tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de su elección. Además, usted podrá comunicarse con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o con el Administrador de su Caso para que le ayuden a obtener los cuidados médicos apropiados dentro de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si usted es un ex empleado cuyo empleador todavía tiene obligaciones para con usted de indemnización laboral y usted reside de forma permanente fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") y surge la necesidad de obtener atención médica que no sea de emergencia, usted podrá recibir tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de su elección. Además, usted podrá comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su caso para que le ayude a obtener los cuidados médicos apropiados dentro de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si usted es un(a) empleado(a) lesionado(a) que durante su recuperación decide residir de forma temporal fuera del área geográfica de servicio de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") y surge la necesidad de obtener atención médica que no sea de emergencia, comuníquese con el médico primario a cargo de su tratamiento perteneciente a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso para que le ayuden a obtener una lista de los proveedores de su área. Si su lesión requiere cuidados de emergencia, llame al 911 o diríjase al centro de tratamiento de emergencias médicas más cercano.

Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual es miembro del programa de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de St. Paul Travelers, entonces, usted podrá continuar el tratamiento con este doctor y su tratamiento se encontrará amparado por la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual no es miembro o no se le permite convertirse en miembro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), entonces, es posible que a usted se el envíe a un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") para que reciba tratamiento. Si este fuera el caso, a usted se le enviará una carta y su doctor también será notificado.

St. Paul Travelers cuenta con un plan para "Transferencia de Atención Médica" que describe qué es lo que ocurrirá si usted está recibiendo tratamiento en la actualidad debido a una lesión relacionada con el trabajo con un médico que no es miembro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Una copia del plan para "Transferencia de Atención Médica" se pondrá a su disposición si usted lo solicita.

Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento actual que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") se convierte en un proveedor de dicha red, entonces, usted y su proveedor recibirán notificación escrita de parte de St. Paul Travelers indicando que su tratamiento ahora se proporcionará de conformidad con las disposiciones de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Usted no será transferido(a) a un doctor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") si su lesión o enfermedad reune cualquiera de las siguientes condiciones:

(a) Grave El tratamiento de una lesión o enfermedad que se anticipa se resolverá dentro de un período de 90 días.

(b) Crónica Grave Su lesión o enfermedad es de índole grave y persiste sin cura total o empeora a lo largo de un período de 90 días y requiere tratamiento continuo. Una vez que se ha determinado que sufre de una condición crónica grave, es posible que a usted se le permita continuar su tratamiento con su médico actual durante un período que no deberá exceder un año, hasta que se pueda realizar una transferencia de cuidados de forma segura. El período de un año para completar el tratamiento se inicia a partir de la fecha en la que recibe notificación que se ha determinado que usted sufre de una condición crónica grave.

(c) Enfermedad Terminal Usted sufre de una enfermedad o lesión incurable o irreversible que probablemente le ocasionará la muerte dentro de un período de un año o menos. Si se determina que sufre de tal enfermedad, a usted se le permitirá recibir tratamiento de parte de su proveedor actual mientras dure dicha enfermedad terminal.

(d) Cirugía u otro procedimiento pendiente St. Paul Travelers ya le ha dado autorización para una cirugía u otro procedimiento a llevarse a cabo dentro de un período de 180 días contados a partir de la fecha de vigencia de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si St. Paul Travelers va a transferir sus cuidados, usted y su médico recibirán notificación escrita. Si no está de acuerdo con la transferencia de cuidados, usted podrá solicitar que el médico a cargo de su tratamiento le proporcione un informe que indique si usted satisface alguna de las categorías mencionadas anteriormente. El médico a cargo de su tratamiento debe responder a su pedido dentro de un período de 20 días calendarios. Si el médico a cargo de su tratamiento no entrega el informe, será la determinación tomada por St. Paul Travelers la que regirá.

Si St. Paul Travelers o usted no está(n) de acuerdo con el informe del doctor a cargo de su tratamiento, esta disputa se resolverá en virtud del artículo 4062 del Código de Trabajo. Usted debe notificar a el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso si no está de acuerdo con este informe. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento concuerda que su condición no satisface lo mencionado anteriormente, la transferencia de cuidados seguirá adelante mientras usted continúa estando en desacuerdo con la decisión. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento indica que su condición no satisface lo indicado anteriormente, usted podrá continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte de dicho médico hasta que se resuelva la disputa.

El médico a cargo de su tratamiento lo podrá derivar a proveedores para que le proporcionen cuidados adicionales dentro o fuera de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") hasta que a usted se le transfiera a dicha red.

Si su médico deja de participar de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso le indicará cuáles son sus opciones con respecto a la continuación del tratamiento en base al Plan de Continuidad de Atención Médica aprobado por parte de St. Paul Travelers. Por favor, comuníquese con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso para hacer preguntas con respecto a sus opciones. Una copia del "Plan de Continuidad de Atención Médica" se pondrá a su disposición si usted lo solicita.

Si su proveedor ya no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") debido a que dicha red ha rescindido su contrato por asuntos relacionados con causas o motivos médicos de índole disciplinaria, fraude o actividad delictiva, a usted no se le permitirá que continúe recibiendo tratamiento de parte de ese proveedor y se le requerirá que elija a un proveedor participante de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si su proveedor ha sido rescindido por algún otro motivo, St. Paul Travelers se comunicará con usted y con su proveedor para poder determinar los derechos y responsabilidades para completar el tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido. Si usted sufre de alguna de las siguientes condiciones, es posible que reúna los requisitos para continuar recibiendo tratamiento del proveedor que está a cargo del mismo, a pesar de que el proveedor ha rescindido su relación laboral con la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"):

(a) Una enfermedad o lesión grave Su dolencia implica el inicio repentino de síntomas ocasionados por una enfermedad, lesión u otro problema médico que requiere atención médica sin demoras y cuya duración es inferior a los 90 días. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento mientras dure dicha condición de gravedad sujeta a la cooperación del proveedor de acuerdo a lo que se describe a continuación.

(b) Crónica grave Su lesión o enfermedad es de índole grave y persiste sin cura total o empeora durante un período de 90 días y requiere tratamiento continuo. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento de una condición crónica grave que no exceda los 12 meses contados a partir de la fecha de rescisión del contrato sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor según lo que se indica a continuación.

(c) Enfermedad terminal Usted tiene una condición incurable o irreversible que tiene altas probabilidades de ocasionar la muerte dentro de un período de un año o menos. St. Paul Travelers autorizará que se complete el tratamiento mientras dure la enfermedad terminal, sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor, según se describe a continuación.

(d) Cirugía u otro procedimiento pendiente St. Paul Travelers ya ha autorizado una cirugía u otro procedimiento como parte de un curso de tratamiento documentado y que ha sido recomendado y documentado por parte del proveedor a llevarse a cabo dentro de un período de 180 días contados a partir de la fecha de rescisión del contrato. St. Paul Travelers reafirmará la autorización para la continuación del tratamiento sujeto a la cooperación del proveedor según lo que se describe a continuación.

Si su caso reúne alguna de las condiciones de tratamiento enumeradas anteriormente y solicita continuar su tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido, St. Paul Travelers se comunicará con el proveedor para confirmar la intención y capacidad del proveedor de continuar el tratamiento de acuerdo a los mismos términos y condiciones contractuales que existían antes de la rescisión. Si el proveedor no está dispuesto o es incapaz de continuar a cargo del tratamiento, St. Paul Travelers le aconsejará al trabajador lesionado que solicite tratamiento de parte de otro proveedor dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). En dichas circunstancias, St. Paul Travelers no estará obligado a autorizar la continuación de servicios más allá de la fecha de rescisión del contrato y le comunicará el período de tiempo durante el cual tendrá autorización para continuar recibiendo tratamiento de parte del proveedor rescindido.

Si usted ha optado por continuar su tratamiento con el proveedor rescindido y el proveedor ha prestado su consentimiento para proporcionar el tratamiento, St. Paul Travelers será responsable del pago para completar el tratamiento que resulta necesario desde un punto de vista médico. St. Paul Travelers no será responsable de tratamientos que no hayan sido autorizados.

Si opta por no continuar con el proveedor rescindido, a usted se le indicará el modo de elegir otro proveedor nuevo dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si St. Paul Travelers decide que no se autorizará tratamiento adicional por parte del médico rescindido y usted no está de acuerdo, usted podrá solicitar que su doctor proporcione un informe que indique si usted satisface alguna de las condiciones enumeradas anteriormente. El médico a cargo de su tratamiento debe responder a su solicitud dentro de un período de 20 días calendarios. Si el médico a cargo de su tratamiento no presenta el informe, la decisión de St. Paul Travelers será la que regirá.

Si St. Paul Travelers o usted no están de acuerdo con el informe del doctor a cargo del tratamiento, esta disputa se resolverá en virtud del artículo 4062 del Código de Trabajo. Si el doctor a cargo de su tratamiento está de acuerdo con que su condición no satisface alguna de las condiciones médicas indicadas anteriormente, usted deberá elegir a un nuevo proveedor que pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") hasta la resolución de la disputa. Si el médico a cargo del tratamiento no está de acuerdo con la decisión de St. Paul Travelers en cuanto a que no satisface ninguna de las condiciones médicas enumeradas anteriormente, usted continuará recibiendo tratamiento de parte del proveedor rescindido hasta que se resuelva la disputa.

Si usted no está de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o con el tratamiento indicado por el proveedor a cargo del mismo, usted podrá solicitar una segunda opinión de parte de otro doctor que forme parte de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si usted desea una segunda opinión, deberá comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (tanto verbalmente como por escrito) e indicarle que usted desea una segunda opinión. El(la) Administrador(a) del caso se asegurará de que usted tenga una lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") del área de la que elegir en base a la especialidad o experiencia reconocida para tratar la lesión o condición en particular. Luego usted podrá seleccionar a un doctor de la lista de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), hacer una cita dentro de un período de 60 días de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la MPN y notificar al Administrador(a) de su Caso acerca de la fecha de su cita. Si no hace la cita dentro de un período de 60 días después de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), a usted no se le permitirá obtener una segunda opinión con respecto a este diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado del médico que le está proporcionando el tratamiento.

Una vez que se le notifique acerca de la fecha de la cita, el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso se comunicará con el médico seleccionado para proporcionar la segunda opinión e informarle acerca de la índole de la disputa y de su papel en la misma, y proporcionarle los archivos médicos necesarios para su consideración. Usted podrá solicitar que se le envíe una copia de los archivos médicos que se le envían al proveedor que proporcionará la segunda opinión. Si el proveedor a cargo de la segunda opinión que usted selecciona considera que la lesión o enfermedad se encuentra fuera del tipo de lesión o enfermedad para la que él o ella proporciona tratamiento, la oficina del proveedor le notificará al Administrador(a) del Caso y usted recibirá una lista nueva de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de la cual podrá volver a elegir. Durante este proceso, a usted se le requerirá que continúe con el médico a cargo de su tratamiento o con el médico de su elección que pertenezca a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Una vez que recibe la segunda opinión, si usted continúa en desacuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento, usted podrá solicitar una tercera opinión de parte de otro proveedor apropiado perteneciente a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"). Si desea una tercera opinión, usted debe comunicarse con el(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso (tanto de forma verbal como escrita) e informarle que usted desea una tercera opinión. El(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso se asegurará de que tenga una lista de la cual pueda elegir proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de su área que se base en la especialidad o experiencia reconocida en el tratamiento de la lesión o condición en cuestión. Luego, usted podrá seleccionar a un doctor de la lista de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), hacer una cita dentro de un período de 60 días contados a partir de la fecha en la que se reciba la lista de proveedores de la "MPN" y notificar al Administrador(a) del Caso acerca de la fecha de su cita. Si no hace una cita dentro de los 60 días de haber recibido la lista de proveedores de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), a usted no se le permitirá obtener una tercera opinión con respecto a este diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado de parte de este médico.

Cuando reciba notificación de la fecha de la cita, el(la) Administrador(a) de su caso se comunicará con el médico seleccionado para que proporcione la tercera opinión y le informará acerca de la índole de la disputa y de su papel en la misma y le proporcionará todos los archivos médicos necesarios para su consideración. Usted podrá solicitar una copia de los expedientes médicos que se le envíen al proveedor a cargo de la tercera opinión. Si el proveedor a cargo de la tercera opinión que usted elija decide que su lesión o enfermedad se encuentra fuera del tipo de lesión o enfermedad para la que él o ella normalmente proporciona tratamiento, la oficina del proveedor le notificará al Administrador(a) de su Caso y usted recibirá una lista nueva de proveedores de la MPN de la cual podrá volver a elegir.

Usted podrá obtener todo tratamiento recomendado que le haya indicado el o los médicos a cargo de la segunda y/o tercera opinión y cambiar al médico que dio la segunda opinión o la tercera opinión o a cualquier otro médico que se encuentre dentro de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Si después de la tercera opinión, usted sigue no estando de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento de su enfermedad o lesión, usted podrá solicitar una Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR", por sus siglas en inglés). El(la) Administrador(a) de su Caso le proporcionará la información para solicitar la Revisión Médica Independiente y dará la Solicitud en el momento de solicitar una tercera opinión.

Un proveedor que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos estará a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR") y dicho médico será seleccionado por parte del Director Administrativo de la Secretaría de Indemnización Laboral ("DWC") en base a la especialidad del proveedor a cargo del tratamiento y de otra información presentada con la Solicitud de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR"). Se seleccionará al proveedor para que lleve a cabo una evaluación independiente de su disputa.

Si el proveedor a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR") no está de acuerdo con el diagnóstico o tratamiento del proveedor a cargo de su lesión o enfermedad, usted podrá recibir tratamiento de parte de un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") o de un proveedor que no pertenezca a la "MPN". Si elige a un proveedor que no pertenece a la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN"), el tratamiento que usted reciba de dicho proveedor consistirá solamente del servicio de tratamiento o de diagnóstico recomendado por el proveedor a cargo de la Revisión Médica Independiente ("IMR"). Una vez completado todo tratamiento con respecto a su diagnóstico o tratamiento disputado, usted debe solicitar cuidados adicionales de parte de un proveedor de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN").

Usted podrá comunicarse con el Administrador de su Caso o con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") en cualquier momento si necesita ayuda o una explicación adicional con respecto a su tratamiento médico cuando sufre una lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo. Usted puede comunicarse con el Equipo de la Red de Proveedores Médicos ("MPN") de St. Paul Travelers llamando al 800-287-9682.

NEW JERSEY

NOTICE OF ELECTION – PROPRIETORS AND PARTNERS WORKERS' COMPENSATION AND EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY INSURANCE

The New Jersey Workers' Compensation Law was amended effective April 13, 2000. The amendment permits election by a self-employed person or partners of any partnership including partners of a limited liability partnership and members of a limited liability company actively performing services on behalf of the business to be deemed employees for the purpose of receipt of benefits and the payment of premiums. This election does not affect the insurance obligations for employees other than the self-employed person, partners or members.

The election must be made at the time the policy is purchased or renewed and must be effective at the inception date of the policy. It is important to note that the election cannot be rescinded during the policy period and that in the case of any partnership including a limited liability partnership or limited liability company, ALL of the partners or ALL of the members must elect the coverage. You will be required to pay a premium based on the remuneration and duties of the self-employed person or each partner or each member.

The insurer or insurance producer shall not be liable in an action for damages on account of the failure of a business, limited liability partnership, limited liability company or partnership to elect to obtain workers' compensation coverage for a self-employed person, limited liability partner, limited liability company member or partner, unless the insurer or insurance producer causes damage by a willful, wanton or grossly negligent act of commission or omission.

Whether electing or rejecting coverage, it will be necessary to complete the information requested below. This completed form must then be returned to the carrier/producer. A copy of this Notice and proof of mailing should be retained for your records.

TRAVELERS

Hydraulics vs. Illinois Industrial Commission

The above captioned case law has significantly impacted the manner in which insurers and employers are able to obtain medical information on Workers Compensation cases within the Benefit State of Illinois. This decision makes ex-parté (direct and unauthorized) communications to any and all injured worker's medical providers unlawful if a signed waiver from the employee or, if represented, his/her attorney has not been obtained.

In March, 2002, in the case of Hydraulics vs. The Illinois Industrial Commission, the Appellate Court held that ex-parté communication between the carrier/employer and medical provider is unlawful without a signed waiver from the employee or, if represented, his/her attorney. The Hydraulics case was appealed to the Illinois Supreme Court. In October 2002, the Supreme Court declined to hear this case.

Impact for Travelers Customers

- With the need to obtain a waiver, there will be a delay in obtaining medical information in most, if not all claims. As Travelers believes in early and aggressive claim management, this delay or inability to obtain needed medical information from providers may have an unfavorable impact on our ability to manage the claim to its best possible outcome.
- Although there is no precedent for this type of judicial mandate, we are projecting that a majority of injured workers will execute a waiver upon presenting a claim. On those claims where a waiver is not voluntarily signed, and where we are not able to confirm medical causation without this information, we may be forced to deny the claim. We hope we can avoid these situations with full cooperation by employers, injured workers, and physicians.
- Possible increased involvement of attorneys/filings may occur as a result of the denial trend noted above and the possible delay in issuing TTD benefits or medical bill payment pending receipt of the waivers.

What Can Employers Do?

- The Hydraulic decision applies to both insurers and employers. Thus, employers are barred from direct communication to medical providers of their injured workers unless they have obtained the signed waiver release.
- Assist Travelers/CSS in getting the waiver signed prior to reporting a claim. Employers will be provided a waiver form both manually and/or electronically to facilitate this process.
- Consult your legal department if you are in doubt about any such actions that you are contemplating regarding direct communication with injured worker's medical providers.

What is Travelers doing?

- We have redesigned our workflow process for Illinois WC claims to accommodate the Hydraulics mandates.
- We are providing waivers to injured workers, employers and medical providers to facilitate an early execution of the waiver. We have been working closely with our network providers to further expedite this process.
- We are working with AIA to identify the most appropriate industry actions to address the Hydraulics impact.

If you have further questions, please contact Jim Wucherpfennig at 630-961-8811.

This document is intended to provide general information about the potential impact of the Hydraulics vs. Illinois Industrial Commission decision, and should not be construed as providing legal advice or legal opinions. You should consult an attorney for any specific legal questions.

POLICYHOLDER NOTICE

CALIFORNIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE RATING LAWS

Pursuant to Section 11752.8 of the California Insurance Code, we are providing you with an explanation of the California workers' compensation rating laws.

1. We establish our own rates for workers' compensation. Our rates, rating plans, and related information are filed with the insurance commissioner and are open for public inspection.
2. The insurance commissioner can disapprove our rates, rating plans, or classifications only if he or she has determined after public hearing that our rates might jeopardize our ability to pay claims or might create a monopoly in the market. A monopoly is defined by law as a market where one insurer writes 20% or more of that part of the California workers' compensation insurance that is not written by the State Compensation Insurance Fund. If the insurance commissioner disapproves our rates, rating plans, or classifications, he or she may order an increase in the rates applicable to outstanding policies.
3. Rating organizations may develop pure premium rates that are subject to the insurance commissioner's approval. A pure premium rate reflects the anticipated cost and expenses of claims per $100 of payroll for a given classification. Pure premium rates are advisory only, as we are not required to use the pure premium rates developed by any rating organization in establishing our own rates.
4. We must adhere to a single, uniform experience rating plan. If you are eligible for experience rating under the plan, we will be required to adjust your premium to reflect your claim history. A better claim history generally results in a lower experience rating modification; more claims, or more expensive claims, generally result in a higher experience rating modification. The uniform experience rating plan, which is developed by the insurance rating organization designated by the insurance commissioner, is subject to approval by the insurance commissioner.
5. A standard classification system, developed by the insurance rating organization designated by the insurance commissioner, is subject to approval by the insurance commissioner. The standard classification system is a method of recognizing and separating policyholders into industry or occupational groups according to their similarities and/or differences. We can adopt and apply the standard classification system or develop and apply our own classification system, provided we can report the payroll, expenses, and other costs of claims in a way that is consistent with the uniform statistical plan or the standard classification system.
6. Our rates and classifications may not violate the Unruh Civil Rights Act or be unfairly discriminatory.
7. We will provide an appeal process for you to appeal the way we rate your insurance policy. The process requires us to respond to your written appeal within 30 days. If you are not satisfied with the result of your appeal, you may appeal our decision to the insurance commissioner.

CALIFORNIA WORKERS' COMPENSATION INSURANCE NOTICE OF NONRENEWAL

Section 11664 of the California Insurance Code requires us, in most instances, to provide you with a notice of nonrenewal. Except as specified in paragraphs 1 through 6 below, if we elect to nonrenew your policy, we are required to deliver or mail to you a written notice stating the reason or reasons for the nonrenewal of the policy. The notice is required to be sent to you no earlier than 120 days before the end of the policy period and no later than 30 days before the end of the policy period. If we fail to provide you the required notice, we are required to continue the coverage under the policy with no change in the premium rate until 60 days after we provide you with the required notice.

We are not required to provide you with a notice of nonrenewal in any of the following situations:

1. Your policy was transferred or renewed without a change in its terms or conditions or the rate on which the premium is based to another insurer or other insurers who are members of the same insurance group as us.
2. The policy was extended for 90 days or less and the required notice was given prior to the extension.

© 2002 by the Workers' Compensation Insurance Rating Bureau of California. All rights reserved.

3. You obtained replacement coverage or agreed, in writing, within 60 days of the termination of the policy, to obtain that coverage.
4. The policy is for a period of no more than 60 days and you were notified at the time of issuance that it may not be renewed.
5. You requested a change in the terms or conditions or risks covered by the policy within 60 days prior to the end of the policy period.
6. We made a written offer to you to renew the policy at a premium rate increase of less than 25 percent.
   (A) If the premium rate in your governing classification is to be increased 25 percent or greater and we intend to renew the policy, we shall provide a written notice of a renewal offer not less than 30 days prior to the policy renewal date. The governing classification shall be determined by the rules and regulations established in accordance with California Insurance Code Section 11750.3(c).
   (B) For purposes of this Notice, "premium rate" means the cost of insurance per unit of exposure prior to the application of individual risk variations based on loss or expense considerations such as scheduled rating and experience rating.

This notice does not change the policy to which it is attached.

NOTICE REQUIRED BY LAW – CALIFORNIA

Since our offer to renew your coverage reflects a premium rate increase of 25 percent or more in your governing classification, California law (Insurance Code section 11664) requires us to send you a "notice of nonrenewal", even though we do intend to renew your policy. This constitutes the required notice. For purposes of this Notice, premium rate means the cost of insurance per unit of exposure prior to the application of individual risk variations based on loss or expense considerations such as scheduled rating and experience rating.

Your Workers' Compensation Benefits

- How Do I Report My Workers' Compensation Injury?
- What Are My Workers' Compensation Benefits?
- How Do I Obtain Them?

You may be entitled to workers' compensation benefits if you are injured or become ill because of your job, or are a victim of a workplace crime. Workers' compensation covers most work-related physical or mental injuries and illnesses. An injury or illness can be caused by one event (such as a hurting your back in a fall) or by repeated exposures (such as hurting your wrist from doing the same motion over and over).

BENEFITS. Workers' compensation benefits include:

Medical Care: Doctor visits, hospital services, physical therapy, lab tests, x-rays, and medicines that are reasonably necessary to treat your injury. You should never see a bill.

Physical Therapy, Occupational Therapy and Chiropractic visits are limited to 24 each.

Temporary Disability Benefits: Payments if you lose wages while recovering.

Permanent Disability Benefits: Payments if your injury causes a permanent disability.

Supplemental Job Displacement Vouchers: If your injury occurs on or after January 1, 2004, you may receive payments if your injury results in permanent disability and your employer is unable to accommodate your new restrictions. The amount is dependent upon you level of disability. If your injury occurred prior to January 1, 2004, you may be eligible for vocational benefits.

Death Benefits: Paid to dependents of a worker who dies from a work-related injury or illness.

Benefits such as temporary, permanent, vocational rehabilitation and death benefits are all payable at a rate based on 2/3 of your average weekly wage, and subject to state minimum and maximum amounts in effect on your date of injury. These benefits are paid every two weeks while you are eligible. For most injuries after April 18, 2004, temporary disability benefits are limited to two years.

If You Get Hurt:

Get Medical Care. If you need first aid, contact your employer. If you need emergency care, call for help immediately.

Report Your Injury. Report the injury immediately to your supervisor. Don't delay. There are time limits. If you wait too long, you may lose your right to benefits. Your employer is required to provide you a claim form within one working day after learning about your injury, and must also authorize treatment within one working day after you have returned a signed and completed copy of the form. The statute of limitations for filing a workers' compensation claim is one year from the date of injury or, if resulting from repeated exposures, one year from when you realized or should have realized that your job caused it.

See Your Treating Physician. This is the doctor with overall responsibility for treating your injury or illness. If you named your personal physician before injury you may see him or her for treatment. Otherwise, your employer has the right to select the physician who will treat you for the first 30 days. Your personal physician must have treated you and maintained your medical history and records before your work injury. If you wish to change doctors in the first 30 days, your claims administrator must select a new physician within five days of your request. (But if you gave your employer the name of your personal chiropractor or acupuncturist in writing before you were injured, you may switch to the chiropractor or acupuncturist upon request.) If you still need medical care after 30 days, you may be able to switch to a doctor of your own choice. If your employer has an approved medical provider network or HCO, they may be able to limit your choices of treating physicians and have longer medical control. See your employer for more information on your network or HCO.

Discrimination: It is illegal for your employer to punish or fire you for having a work injury or illness, for filing a claim, or testifying in another person's workers' compensation case. You may also have additional rights under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) or the Federal Employment and Housing Act (FEHA). For additional information, contact FEHA at (800) 884-1684 or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) at (800) 669-3362. You can get free information from a state Division of Workers' Compensation Information & Assistance Officer. Hear recorded information and a list of local offices by calling toll-free (800) 736-7401.

Learn more online: http://www.dir.ca.gov. Link to Workers' Compensation.

For your convenience, the reverse side of this page contains an optional form that you can use to predesignate your personal physician and give to your employer.

Any person who makes or causes to be made any knowingly false or fraudulent material statement or material representation for the purpose of obtaining or denying workers' compensation benefits or payments is guilty of a felony.

You have the right to designate your treating physician in the event you injure yourself on the job if you inform your employer in writing before you are injured. Your predesignated physician is your personal physician or chiropractor who has treated you prior to your injury, maintains your medical history and records, and agrees to treat you for any on-the-job injuries.

If your predesignated physician is a chiropractor or acupuncturist, your employer still retains medical control for the first visit. Failure to predesignate a physician gives your employer medical control for the first thirty* days after knowledge of injury.

 If you belong to an approved medical provider network or HCO, your employer may retain medical control for longer periods. Contact your employer for more information about your ability to predisignate.*

If medical care is not being provided by your employer you have several options. First, contact your claims administrator to find out the status of your claim. If you have given your employer a completed and signed claim form but your claim has been delayed for investigation, your employer is still required to authorize treatment, up to $10,000.00, during the delay. If the claim hasn't been accepted yet and your medical costs have exceeded the statutory $10,000.00 cap, you can go to your group health plan for care, find a doctor, clinic or hospital that will bill the claims administrator directly, or use public health services.

You have the right to disagree with decisions affecting your claim. If you have a disagreement, contact your claims administrator first to see if you can resolve it.

You can obtain free information from an Information and Assistance Officer of the state Division of Workers' Compensation, or you can hear recorded information and a list of local offices by calling (800) 736-7401. You may also go to the DWC web site at http://www.dir.ca.gov.

You can consult with an attorney. Most attorneys offer one free consultation. If you decide to hire an attorney, his or her fee may be taken out of some of your benefits. Beneficios. Los beneficios del seguro de compensación al trabajador incluyen:

Atención Médica: Visitas al doctor, servicios hospitalarios, terapia física, análisis de laboratorio, radiografías y medicamentos que sean razonablemente necesarios para tratar su lesión. Usted jamás deberá ver una factura.

El monto depende de su nivel de incapacidad. Si su lesión ocurrió antes del 1° de enero del año 2004, usted podrá ser elegible para recibir beneficios de rehabilitación vocacionales.

Beneficios por muerte: Se pagan a los dependientes de un trabajador que muere a causa de una lesión o enfermedad relacionada con el trabajo.

Estos beneficios se pagan cada dos semanas mientras que usted sea elegible. Para la mayoría de las lesiones posteriores al 18 de abril del 2004, los beneficios por incapacidad temporaria están limitados a dos años.

Si usted se lastima:
Obtenga Atención Médica. Si usted necesita primeros auxilios, comuníquese con su empleador. Si usted necesita atención de emergencia, solicite ayuda de inmediato.

Reporte Su Lesión. Infórmele de inmediato a su supervisor acerca de la lesión. No se demore. Existen límites de tiempo. Si usted espera demasiado, es posible que pierda su derecho a recibir beneficios. Su empleador debe darle a usted un formulario de reclamo dentro de un día hábil de haberse enterado de su lesión y también debe autorizar su tratamiento dentro de un día hábil de que usted le haya devuelto la copia del formulario completada y firmada. La fecha límite para la presentación de reclamos por beneficios de compensación al trabajador es de un año contado a partir de la fecha de la lesión o, si fuera como resultado de haber estado expuesto a actividades repetidas, la fecha límite es de un año contado a partir del momento en el que usted se enteró o debió haberse enterado de que su trabajo le produjo dicha lesión.

Consulte a su Médico. Este es el medico cuya responsabilidad general es la de tratar su lesión o enfermedad. Si usted designó a su médico familiar antes de la lesión, usted podrá consultar con el médico para recibir tratamiento. De lo contrario, su empleador tiene derecho de seleccionar el medico que la tratará durante los primeros 30 días. Su médico familiar deberá haberle tratado y mantenido su historial médico y sus expedientes antes de haberse lesionado en el trabajo. Si usted desea cambiar de médico durante los primeros 30 días, su administrador de reclamos deberá seleccionar a otro médico dentro de los cinco días contado a partir de la fecha que usted solicitara dicho cambio. (Pero si usted le proporcionó por escrito a su empleador el nombre de su quiropráctico o acupunturista particular antes de resultar lesionado, usted podrá cambiar a dicho quiropráctico o acupunturista si usted así lo solicita.) Si usted aún necesita atención médica al cabo de 30 días, usted podrá cambiar a un médico de su elección. Si su empleador cuenta con una red de proveedores médicos aprobada o HCO, es posible que le limiten sus opciones en cuanto a los médicos que proporcionen el tratamiento y que tengan el control médico durante más tiempo. Consulte con su empleador para obtener más información acerca de su red o HCO.

Discriminación: Es ilegal que su empleador le castigue o despida por haber sufrido una lesión o enfermedad relacionada con su trabajo, por presentar un reclamo, o por atestiguar en el caso de compensación al tabajador de otra persona. Bajo la Ley de Americanos con Incapacidades (ADA, por sus siglas en inglés) o la Ley Federal de Empleo y Vivienda (FEHA, por sus siglas en inglés) es posible que usted también tenga otros derechos. Para obtener más información, comuníquese con FEHA llamando al (800) 884-1684 o con la Comisión de Oportunidad Igualitaria en el Trabajo (EEOC, por sus siglas en inglés) llamando al (800) 669-3362. Usted puede tener el derecho de designar al medico que le ha de tratar en caso que usted se lastime en el trabajo, si se lo solicita a su empleador por escrito antes de resultar lesionado. El médico que usted designe por adelantado será el medico o quiropráctico privado quien le ha estado tratando antes de su lesión, quien tiene su historia clínica y expedientes y que está de acuerdo en tratarle en caso que usted sufra una lesión en el trabajo.

Si su medico designado por adelantado es un quiropráctico o acupunturista, su empleador aún retiene el control médico de la primera visita. El no designar a un medico por adelantado le otorga a su empleador el control medico durante los primeros treinta* días después de haber tomado conocimiento de su lesión.

 Si usted es miembro de una red de proveedores médicos aprobados o HCO, su empleador podrá conservar el control medico durante mástiempo. Comuníquese con su empleador para obtener mayor información acerca del modo de designar al médico por adelantado.*

Si su empleador no le está proporcionando atención médica, usted tiene varias opciones. La primera es comunicarse con su administrador de reclamos para averiguar cual es el estado de su reclamo. Si usted le ha entregado un formulario de reclamo completo y firmado a su empleador, pero su reclamo ha sido demorado debido a una investigación, su empleador aún deberá autorizar el tratamiento hasta los $10,000.00 durante la demora. Si su reclamo aún no ha sido aceptado y sus gastos médicos han excedido los $10,000.00 dispuestos por ley, usted podrá dirigirse a su plan de salud de grupo para recibir atención, deberá encontrar un doctor, clínica u hospital que le facture directamente al administrador de reclamos o bien utilizar servicios de salud pública.

Usted tiene derecho a no estar de acuerdo con las decisiones que afectan a su reclamo. Si usted está en desacuerdo, comuníquese primero con el administrador de reclamos para ver si puede resolverlo.

Usted puede consultar con un abogado. La mayoría de los abogados ofrecen una consulta gratuita. Si usted decide contratar a un abogado, sus honorarios podrán descontarse de algunos de sus beneficios. INFORMACIÓN SOBRE LA "COMPENSACIÓN DE TRABAJADORES" (WORKERS' COMPENSATION)

Así era antes

A principios del siglo XX, un trabajador que sufría un accidente en el trabajo tenía que llevar a juicio a su patrón para recobrar el salario perdido y los gastos médicos que había a tenido. Los juicios duraban meses, a veces años. Las personas del jurado tenían que decidir quién tenía la culpa y cuánto se tenía que pagar, si era algo, al trabajador. La mayoría de las veces el trabajador no recibía nada. Era un sistema costoso en tiempo y dinero, y frecuentemente también injusto.

Así es ahora

Hoy en día, el sistema de compensación de trabajadores en California proporciona una forma más rápida y mas justa para cuidar de los trabajadores accidentados. Para recobrar el salario perdido y los gastos médicos que se han tenido, no es necesario demostrar quién es el culpable.

Este seguro de accidentes de trabajo lo paga su patrón, y es supervisado por el Estado. Si Usted no puede trabajar, debido a un accidente o enfermedad producidos por su trabajo, la compensación de trabajadores automáticamente le paga sus cuentas médicas y le proporciona dinero para su mantenimiento, hasta que Usted pueda regresar a trabajar.

¿A quién cubre?

Casi todos los trabajadores de California están protegidos por la compensación de trabajadores, pero hay algunas excepciones, como por ejemplo: las personas con negocios propios y las personas que trabajan como voluntarias, sin recibir salario, puede ser que no estén cubiertas. Y los trabajadores marítimos y ferroviarios, así como los trabajadores federales, están cubiertos por leyes similares. Si Usted tiene alguna duda sobre quién califica, por favor, pregunte a su patrón.

¿Que cubre?

Cualquier accidente o enfermedad están cubiertos, si han sido causados por su trabajo, desde lesiones leves hasta accidentes muy graves. La protección es automática e inmediata. No hay un límite en cuanto se tiene que ganar antes de poder calificar. La protección empieza en el momento en que Usted empieza a trabajar.

Que debe de hacer Usted

Si Usted sufre una lesión o accidente, comuníqueselo inmediatamente a su patrón o supervisor. Ellos buscarán atención médica y le darán los formularios para que Usted pueda describir el accidente, cómo, cuando y donde ha sucedido. Rellénelos y devuélvaselos a su patrón o supervisor cuanto antes posible. La rapidez en informar a su patrón o supervisor es esencial para recibir sus beneficios con la mayor rapidez.

Beneficios

La "Ley de Compensación de Trabajadores de California" (California Workers' Compensation Law) le garantiza tres clases de beneficios:

- Servicios médicos par curarle...sin ninguna deducción.
- Pagos en efectivo libres de impuestos para compensar lo que Usted pierda en salarios mientras esté incapacitado para trabajar.
- Los servicios de rehabilitación que sean necesarios para que Usted pueda regresar a trabajar.

Se harán pagos adicionales, si el accidente es causa de invalidez permanente o muerte.

Estos beneficios están establecidos por la "Legislatura del Estado de California" (California State Legislature). La cantidad de los pagos, así cómo y cuando deben de ser hechos, está regulado por dicha ley del estado. Solamente la legislature estatal puede cambiar las cantidades.

Pago de los beneficios

Las cuentas médicas y los gastos del hospital se pagarán directamente a través de la compañía seguros de su patrón. A Usted no le enviarán ninguna cuenta. Si Usted está incapacitado para trabajar por más de tres días (fines de semana incluidos), Usted tiene derecho a ser compensado. Aproximadamente dos semanas después de haber informado de su accidente, Usted recibirá un cheque, y después de éste otro cada dos semanas, hasta que el doctor le diga que ya puede volver a trabajar. La cantidad de cada cheque será por dos terceras partes del promedio de su sueldo, hasta llegar la máximo establecido por la legis latura estatal. No será por la cantidad entera de su sueldo, pero no se le deduce ninguna cantidad, y está libre de impuestos.

A la compensación de trabajadores a veces se le confunde con otro programa de seguridad estatal llamado "Seguro Estatal de Incapacidad" (State Disability Insurance/SDI).

Parecen similares, pero entre ellos hay diferencias importantes. La compensación de trabajadores cubre accidentes y enfermedades que han pasado en el trabajo, y lo paga su patrón. El "SDI" cubre accidentes y enfermedades sufridas fuera del trabajo, y se paga mediante cantidades deducidas de su salario.

Si Usted tiene problemas o preguntas

Diríjase a su patrón o al representante de reclamaciones de la compañía de seguros de su patrón (el nombre, dirección y número de teléfono está anunciado donde Usted trabaja).

Oficiales para información y asistencia de la "División Estatal de Compensación de Trabajadores (State Division of Workers' Compensation) están también a su servicio para aclarar sus dudas y contestar sus preguntas, y no le cobrarán por la consulta. Puede encontrar la oficina en la sección de Oficinas del Gobierno del Estado (State Governement) en las primeras páginas blancas de la guía de teléfonos bajo Departamento de Relaciónes Industriales (Industrial Relations Department).

Más sobre cuidados médicos

Buen cuidado médico es importante para Usted, su familia y su patrón. Un tratamiento médico de calidad es la manera más rápida de recuperarse. Si hay servicios de primeros auxilios en su trabajo, obtenga tratamiento inmediatamente y dé parte de donde, cuando y cómo sucedió el accidente. Si es una emergencia, obtenga el mejor tratamiento disponible, y luego informe a su patrón de su accidente tan pronto como sea posible.

Si Usted necesita tratamiento adicional su patrón se lo proporcionará. Le podrán enviar a un doctor que Usted no conoce, pero eso no quiere decir que es un "médico de la compañía", sino un doctor con consulta privada, frecuentemente un especialista en la clase de lesión que Usted tiene. Además este doctor está familiarizado con los requisitos para la compensación de trabajadores y informará su accidente o enfermedad rápidamente de forma que se le paguen sus beneficios pronto. Si Usted desea cambiar de doctor por cualquier razón, pídaselo a su patrón o representante de reclamaciones. Ellos están tan interesados como Usted en su mejoría rápida y su vuelta al trabajo.

Usted tiene derecho a ser tratado por su propio doctor si Usted ha notificado a su patrón el nombre y dirección del doctor, por escrito, antes del accidente. Póngase en contacto con su patrón para más información.

Usted puede volver a su propio doctor treinta días después de dar parte del accidente. Considere esta decisión cuidadosamente—la mayoría de la gente no tiene un cirujano. Si Usted quiere que se le aconseje sobre especialistas, hable con su patrón o representante de reclamaciones. De todos modos, informe rápidamente su selección de médico para que sus cuentas sean pagados. Sobre todo, no se trate a si mismo. Hasta las heridas más leves necesitan cuidados expertos. Tratamiento médico, rápido y de calidad, es la mejor inversión que Usted y su patrón pueden hacer.

FACTS FOR INJURED WORKERS

Hurt On The Job?

That can be a terrible experience. But fortunately, the California workers' compensation system takes away a lot of the worry about job injuries and illnesses. It's no-fault insurance, paid for by employers and supervised by the state. This guide explains this valuable benefit.

What's Workers' Compensation?

California's compensation law, passed by the state Legislature more than 75 years ago, guarantees prompt, automatic benefits to workers injured on the job.

Before workers' compensation, injured workers had to sue their employers to recover medical costs and lost wages. Lawsuits took months and sometimes years. Juries and judges had to decide who was at fault and how much, if anything, would be paid. Too often, the injured worker got nothing. It was costly, time consuming and unfair.

Today, workers' compensation is faster and fairer. If you can't work because of a job injury, workers' compensation pays your medical bills and provides money to help replace your lost income until you can return to work.

Who's Covered?

Nearly every working Californian is protected by workers' compensation, but there are a few exceptions. People in business for themselves and unpaid volunteers may not be covered. Maritime workers and federal employees are covered by federal laws.

What's Covered?

Any injury caused by the job is covered—everything from first-aid type injuries to serious accidents. Job-related illnesses are covered too. (For example, common colds and flu aren't covered, but if you catch tuberculosis while working at a TB hospital, that's covered.) The key is whether the injury or illness is caused by your job.

When Am I Covered?

Coverage begins the first minute you're on the job and continues anytime you're working. You don't have to work a certain amount of time or earn a certain amount before you're protected. Coverage is automatic and immediate.

How Do I Get Benefits?

Report the injury to your employer or supervisor immediately and complete a simple claim form if more than first aid is required. The claim form will ask what, where, when and how it happened. Your employer or supervisor will see that you get medical help right away and file the necessary reports.

Prompt reporting is the key. Benefits are automatic, but nothing can happen until your employer knows about the injury. Insure your right to benefits by reporting every injury, no matter how slight. Even a cut finger can lead to disability if an infection develops.

What Are The Benefits?

California law guarantees three kinds of workers' compensation benefits:

- Medical care to cure the injury. Not just doctor bills, but also medicines, hospital costs, fees for lab tests, x-rays, crutches—even travel expenses for required medical treatment. There's no deductible and all costs are paid directly by the workers' compensation claim administrator so you should never see a bill.
- Cash payments to help replace lost wages. Most injuries only keep you from working temporarily, and you'll receive "temporary disability" payments until the doctor says you're able to return to work.
- Additional cash payments will be made after you're able to work if there's a permanent disability—for example, the loss of a finger or an eye—or if you can't return to work at all. If the injury results in death, benefits will be paid to your surviving dependents.
- Rehabilitation services necessary to return to work. This is just an extension of medical treatment—for example, physical therapy to strengthen muscles. However, if the injury keeps you from returning to your regular work, your employer will advise you if your regular job can be modified or if another position can be provided to accommodate your permanent disability. Many employers are subject to laws governed by the Americans with Disabilities Act or the Fair Employment Housing Act. An employer subject to these laws must provide reasonable accommodation—if possible—qualified disabled individuals who can perform all the essential job functions. If you are not able to return to your regular job because of a disability, you may have rights under these laws. For more information call the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission at 1-800-669-4000. If you can't return to work with your employer because of your disability, you may qualify for vocational rehabilitation benefits. A trained counselor will develop a plan to create new job opportunities for you. Again, workers' compensation insurance directly pays all costs up to a maximum set by state law.

How Much Are The Cash Payments?

Temporary disability payments generally are two-thirds of your wages – up to a maximum set by the state Legislature. For injuries on and after January 1, 1991, the maximum payment is $336 per week, with a minimum of either $126 per week or actual wages if less. The maximum increases to $406 per week for injuries on and after July 1,1994, to $448 for injuries on and after July 1,1995, and to $490 for injuries on and after July 1,1996.

- Compensation isn't paid for the first three days you're unable to work – unless you're hospitalized as an in-patient or unable to work for more than 14 days. In these instances, even the "waiting period" will be paid.
- If you report the injury promptly, your first temporary disability check should be mailed within 14 days. After that, you'll receive a check every two weeks until the doctor says you can go back to work.
- After you recover to the fullest extent possible, the doctor who treated you will evaluate the permanent effects of your injury. You and your employer may agree to rely on the treating doctor's report to establish your permanent disability payment. If you have questions about the report you may contact an information and assistance officer at the Division of Workers' Compensation. If you don't agree on the treating doctor's report, and you aren't represented by an attorney, you must choose an evaluating doctor from a panel of three independent doctors provided by the state. If you are represented by an attorney and you don't agree on the treating doctor's report, the attorney will arrange the medical evaluation.

  Your permanent disability payments will be based on the results of the doctor's evaluation and factors such as your age and pre-injury occupation. The weekly benefit is two-thirds of your income, subject to minimums and maximums set by the state. The minimums and maximums vary according to the date of injury. If you have a permanent disability, the calculation of the benefit will be fully explained in a letter.

Death benefit payments to survivors are set by state law according to the number of dependents. Payments are made at the same rate as temporary disability benefits.

Workers' compensation payments are tax free. There are no deductions for state or federal taxes, Social Security, union or retirement fund contributions, etc. For some workers the compensation check will be close to regular take-home pay.

What If There's A Problem?

Fortunately most claims – 9 out of 10 – are handled routinely. After all, workers' compensation benefits are automatic and the amounts are set by the Legislature.

But, mistakes and misunderstandings do happen. If you think you haven't received all your benefits, contact your employer or workers' compensation claim administrator. Many questions can be cleared up with a phone call.

- If you still have questions, contact the nearest office of the State Division of Workers' Compensation. Information & assistance officers are employed by the state to protect your rights, review your claim, and let you know what steps you can take. For example, they can tell you about the procedures for resolving medical disputes and direct you on how to proceed. The information and assistance service is free. For the nearest office check the State Government Offices section of the phone book under "Industrial Relations Department," or call 1-800-736-7401.
- Some problems may need to be resolved by the Workers' Compensation Appeals Board, the state agency responsible for handling disputes. The Appeals Board is a court of law. You can represent yourself or you may want to hire a lawyer. If you hire an attorney, the fee will be deducted from any benefits awarded by the Appeals Board. Attorney fees generally are 9 to 12 percent of your award. For example, if you were awarded $10,000 less 12 percent for attorney fees, your attorney would receive $1,200 and you would receive $8,800.
- If it's necessary to go to the Appeals Board to resolve your claim, be sure to do it within one year from the date of the injury or one year from the date of your last medical treatment. Waiting longer could mean losing your right to benefits.

© 1994 California Workers' Compensation Institute

Keep in mind, it's illegal for an employer to fire or discriminate against employees just because they file, intend to file, or settle a workers' compensation claim-or because they testify for a co-worker who was injured. A worker who proves this kind of discrimination will receive lost wages and benefits, a 50 percent increase in workers' compensation benefits (up to $10,000), plus costs and expenses up to a maximum set by the state Legislature.

Other Benefits

If the injury is very serious-one where you won't be able to work for a year or more—you may be eligible for additional benefits from Social Security. For information, contact the nearest office of the Social Security Administration (listed in the white pages of the phone book under "United States Government") or discuss it with your employer or claim administrator.

Workers' compensation sometimes is confused with another state program, State Disability Insurance (SD). They seem similar, but there are important differences. Workers' compensation takes care of on-the-job injuries and illnesses, and is paid for by your employer. On the other hand, SDI covers off-the-job injuries or sickness and is paid for by deductions from your paycheck.

Where Can I Get More Information?

Ask your employer or the workers' compensation claim administrator (the name, address and phone number are posted at your workplace). Or talk to an information & assistance officer at the State Division of Workers' Compensation, 1-800-736-7401. (The nearest local office is posted at your workplace and listed in the State Government section of the phone book under "Industrial Relations Department.") This service is free and the information and assistance officer can explain your rights, solve problems, and provide other information.

More About Medical Care

- Good medical care is important-to you, your family and your employer. Quality medical treatment is the quickest way to recovery.
- If there's a first-aid facility at your workplace, get immediate treatment and report where, when and how the accident happened. (If its an emergency, get the best treatment available, then report the injury to your employer as soon as possible.)

If it's more than a first-aid injury, your employer will give you a claim form. To make sure you get all your benefits, complete the form and return it to your employer as soon as possible.

- If additional treatment is necessary, the claim administrator will arrange for medical care. If you haven't selected a physician or health care organization prior to the injury you may be sent to a doctor you don't know, but that doesn't mean it's a "company doctor." Often, the doctor is a specialist for the specific injury. In addition, the doctor will be familiar with workers' compensation requirements and will report promptly so your benefits will be paid. If you want to change doctors for any reason, ask your employer or claim administrator. They're as interested as you are in your prompt recovery and return to work, and will give you a list of other doctors to choose from.
- You're entitled to be treated by your own personal physician if you've notified your employer of the doctor's name and address in writing before the injury. Contact your employer for further information.
- If you haven't predesignated a physician prior to the injury, you can switch to your own doctor after the employer's medical control expires. This can range from 30 days up to a year after reporting the injury, so check with your claim administrator. If you're thinking of changing doctors, consider this decision carefully—most people don't have a family surgeon, for example. If you want advice about specialists, talk to your claim administrator. In any event, report your choice as soon as you make it so your bills will be paid for you.

Above all, don't treat yourself. Even minor injuries need expert care. Prompt, quality medical treatment is the best investment you and your employer can make.

WORKERS COMPENSATION FRAUD IS A FELONY

Anyone who knowingly files or assists in the filing of a false workers' compensation claim may be fined up to $50,000 and sent to prison for up to five years (IC §18714)

INFORMACIÓN PARA PERSONAS ACCIDENTADAS EN EL TRABAJO

¿Accidentado en el trabajo?

Puede ser una horrible experiencia, pero afortunadamente el programa de compensación de trabajadores en California aminora la preocupación que podamos tener acerca de accidentes y enfermedades en el trabajo. Este programa se trata de un seguro sin culpabilidad, pagado por el patrón y supervisado por el Estado. Este folleto explica los beneficios.

¿Que es la compensación de trabajadores?

La ley de compensación sin admision de culpabilidad se legalizó en California hace más de 70 años y garantiza beneficios automática y rápidamente a trabajadores accidentados en el trabajo.

Antiguamente, antes de esta ley de compensación de trabajadores, las personas accidentadas en su trabajo se veían obligados a enjuiciar a sus patrones para que estos les reembolsasen sus gastos médicos y el salario perdido. Estos juicios a veces llevaban meses y hasta años. Los jurados y jueces tenían que decidir quien era culpable, si el trabajador debía de ser compensado y, en ese caso, cuánto seria la compensación. Generalmente, la persona accidentada no recibía absolutamente nada. Era un sistema costoso en tiempo y dinero y frecuentemente también injusto. Hoy en día, la compensación de trabajadores es más rápida y justa.

Si Usted no puede trabajar porque ha sufrido un accidente en su trabajo, la compensación de trabajadores le paga automáticamente sus gastos médicos y también le proporciona dinero para vivir hasta que pueda volver a su trabajo.

¿A quién cubre?

Casi todos los trabajadores Californianos están protegidos por la compensación de trabajadores, pero hay algunas excepciones como por ejemplo algunos propietarios de negocios y voluntarios su sueldo.

Ferroviarios, trabajadores marítimos, y empleados federales están protegidos por las leyes federales.

¿Que cubre?

Cualquier accidente o enfermedad está cubierto si es causado por su trabajo, desde lesiones leves hasta accidentes muy graves. Por ejemplo, resfriados y gripes no están cubiertos, pero si Usted se contagia de tuberculosis trabajando en un hospital de tuberculosos Usted está protegido. Lo importante es que el accidente o enfermedad esté causado por su trabajo.

¿Cuando estoy cubierto?

La protección comienza en el primer momento que Usted empieza a trabajar. No necesita trabajar por un tiempo o ganar una cierta cantidad de dinero para estar cubierto. La protección es automática y inmediata.

¿Como consigo los beneficios?

Informe a su patrón o supervisor de su lesión inmediatamente y rellene una simple reclamación indicando cuando, donde, cómo y qué sucedió. Su patrón o supervisor hará los trámites necesarios y le proporcionará tratamiento medico.

Lo esencial es dar parte del accidente o enfermedad con la mayor rapidez. Los beneficios son automáticos, pero no se puede hacer nada hasta que su patrón sepa de su accidente o enfermedad. Asegure sus beneficios dando informe de cualquier accidente, por leve que sea. Hasta una pequeña herida en un dedo, si se infecta, le puede dejar incapacitado.

¿Cuales son los beneficios?

La ley de California garantiza tres clases de beneficios en compensación para el trabajador:

- Atención médica para curar la lesión. No solamente las cuentas del médico, sino también medicinas, cuentas del hospital, análisis, Rayos X, muletas, etc. No hay deductible, y a Usted no se le enviará ninguna cuenta. sino que todas serán pagadas directamente por su patrón o compañía de seguros.
- Pago del salario perdido. Generalmente la mayoría de los accidentes de trabajo incapacitan para trabajar solo por un cierto tiempo, pero de todos modos Usted recibirá pagos por incapacidad temporal hasta que el doctor diga que Usted puede volver a trabajar. Si existe una incapacidad permanente, por ejemplo, la pérdida de un dedo o un ojo, se le harán pagos adicionales después de su vuelta al trabajo. Así mismo se le pagará si Usted no puede regresar más a trabajar. Si el accidente resulta en la muerte del trabajador los beneficios se pagarán a sus dependientes.

- Servicios de rehabilitación necesarios para su regreso al trabajo. Algunas veces esto es solo una extensión del tratamiento – por ejemplo, terapia física para fortalecer los músculos, pero si Usted está todavía incapacitado para volver al trabajo, puede tener derecho a recibir rehabilitación profesional. Un consejero o consejera le puede ayudar a crear un plan nuevo de posibilidades de trabajo, como puede ser, modificar su antiguo trabajo, encontrar otro trabajo con su misma empresa, o instrucción profesional para prepare para un trabajo nuevo. El seguro de compensación de trabajadores paga todos los gastos directamente.

La cantidad es generalmente las dos terceras partes de su salario con un máximo de $266 por semana, y un mínimo de $98 por semana. Por accidentes después del 1 de Enero, 1991, el pago máximo será de $336 por semana, y un mínimo de $126 por semana, o el salario actual si es menos.

- No se le pagará por los tres primeros días en que Usted no pueda trabajar a no ser que Usted esté hospitalizado o incapacitado para trabajar por más de 14 días. En ese caso se le pagarán incluso los tres primeros días.
- Si Usted ha dado parte de su accidente con rapidez, se le enviará su primer cheque de compensación antes de 14 días. Después, Usted recibirá un cheque por incapacidad temporal cada dos semanas hasta que el doctor le diga que puede volver a trabajar.
- El número de pagos por incapacidad permanente está basado en varios factores, establecidos por el Estado, como su edad, trabajo antes del accidente o enfermedad, y clase de invalidez permanente.
- Los pagos de beneficios de muerte a sus sobrevivientes están establecidos por la ley de acuerdo con el número de sus beneficiarios y son por la misma cantidad que los beneficios de incapacidad temporal.

Los pagos de compensación de trabajadores son libres de impuestos. No hay descuentos de impuestos estatales o federales, Seguridad Social, contribucciones a la unión o retiro. Para algunos trabajadores el cheque de compensación será muy similar a su salario normal.

¿Y si hay un problema?

Afortunadamente la mayoría de las reclamaciones – más de 9 de cada 10 – se procesan rutinariamente. Después de todo, los beneficios de compensación de trabajadores son automáticos y las cantidades están establecidas por la Legislatura. Pero algunas veces ocurren errores y malentendidos. Si Usted cree que no ha recibido todos los beneficios que le corresponden, póngase en contacto con su patrón o representante de reclamaciones de compensación de trabajadores. Una simple llamada telefónica puede aclarar muchas dudas.

- Si Usted todavía no está satisfecho, póngase en contacto con la oficina local de la División Estatal de Compensación de Trabajadores (State Division of Workers' Compensation). Los consejeros de Información y Asistencia que están allí están empleados por el Estado para informarle a Usted de sus derechos y, si es necesario, revisar su reclamación, completamente gratis. La oficina local figura en las páginas blancas de la guía telefónica en la sección: Oficinas del Estado de California ("California – State of") bajo Departamento de Relaciones Industriales ("Industrial Relations Dept.").
- Si el problema todavía no puede resolverse, Usted puede solicitar una adjudicación (Application for Adjudication) con el Consejo de Apelación para la Compensación de Trabajadores (Workers' Compensation Appeals Board). Es la agencia del estado encargada de resolver las disputas.
- El Consejo de Apelación es una corte legal. Usted puede representarse a si mismo, desde luego, o quizás quiera contractar a un abogado. Si así lo hace, los gastos aproximadamente de $1,500 serán descontados de los beneficios concedidos a Usted por el Consejo de Apelaciones.
- Si es necesario el ir al Consejo de Apelaciones para resolver su caso, hágalo antes de un año después del accidente o un año después de la ultima vez que recibió tratamiento médico. Si espera más podría perder sus derechos.
- Piense que es contra la ley el que un patrón despache o discrimine contra sus empleados simplemente porque ellos recurran, intenten recurrir o pidan reclamación de compensación de trabajadores – o porque testifiquen a favor de un compañero que esté accidentado. Un trabajador que pruebe esta clase de discriminación recibirá el salario perdido y beneficios, un incremento del 50% de los beneficios de compensación de trabajadores (hasta un máximo de $10,000) más gastos incurridos, con un máximo establecido por la legislatura estatal.

Otros beneficios

Si el accidente es muy grave—en caso de que Usted no pueda trabajar durante un año o más—es posible que Usted tenga derecho a beneficios adicionales de la Seguridad Social. Para más información comuníquese con la oficina local de la Administración de Seguridad Social (Social Security Administation), indicada en la guía telefónica bajo "United States Government," o con su patrón o el representante de reclamaciones de la compensación de trabajadores. La compensación de trabajadores se confunde algunas veces con otro programa del Estado: Seguro de Invalidez del Estado (State Disability Insurance—SDI). Parecen similares, pero hay diferencias importantes. La compensación de trabajadores cubre accidentes y enfermedades en el trabajo y es pagada por su patrón. Por otro lado, el Seguro de Invalidez del Estado (SDI) cubre accidentes y enfermedades fuera del trabajo, y es pagado con descuentos del salario de Usted.

¿Donde puedo obtener más información?

Pregunte a su patrón o póngase en contacto con el representante de reclamaciones de compensación de trabajadores (el nombre, dirección y número de teléfono están anunciados en su lugar de trabajo).

También puede hablar con un consejero o consejera en la oficina local de la División de Accidentes Industriales del Estado (State Division of Industrial Accidents) que estará anunciada en su lugar de trabajo o en las páginas blancas de la guía telefónica en la sección de "State Government Offices" bajo Departamento de Relaciones Industriales (Industrial Relations Department). Estos consejeros le podrán explicar sus derechos, ayudarle a solventar problemas, y darle la información necesaria.

Mas sobre cuidados médicos

Un buen cuidado médico es importante para Usted, su familia y su patrón. Un tratamiento médico de calidad es la manera mas rápida de recuperarse.

- Si hay servicios de primeros auxilios en su trabajo, obtenga tratamiento inmediatamente y dé parte de donde, cuando y cómo sucedió el accidente. Si es una emergencia, obtenga el mejor tratamiento disponible, y luego informe a su patrón de su accidente tan pronto como sea posible.
- Si Usted necesita tratamiento adicional su patrón se lo proporcionará. Le podrán enviar a un doctor que Usted no conoce, pero eso no quiere decir que es un "medico de la compañía," sino un doctor con consulta privada, frecuentemente un especialista en la clase de lesión que Usted tiene. Si Usted desea cambiar de doctor por cualquier razón, pídaselo a su patrón o representante de reclamaciones. Ellos están tan interesados como Usted en su mejoría rápida y su vuelta a trabajo.
- Usted tiene derecho a ser tratado por su propio doctor si Usted ha notificado a su patrón el nombre y dirección del doctor, por escrito, antes del accidente. Póngase en contacto con su patrón para más información.
- Usted puede volver a su propio doctor treinta días después de dar parte del accidente. Considere esta decisión cuidadosomente—la mayoría de la gente no tiene un cirujano. Si Usted quiere que se le aconseje sobre especialistas, hable con su patrón o representante de reclamaciones. De todos modos, informe rápidamente quien va a ser su médico para que sus cuentas sean pagadas. Sobre todo, no se trate a si mismo. Hasta las heridas más leves necesitan cuidados expertos. Tratamiento médico, rápido y de calidad, es la mejor inversión que Usted y su patrón pueden hacer.

Facts about Workers' Compensation

The Way It Was

In the early 20th century, a worker injured on the job had to sue his employer to recover medical expenses and lost wages.

Lawsuits took months and sometimes years. Juries had to decide who was at fault and how much, if anything, would be paid. In most instances, the workers got nothing. It was costly, time consuming and often unfair.

The Way It Is

Today the California workers' compensation law provides a faster, fairer way to take care of injured workers. . . where fault doesn't have to be proved to recover medical expenses and lost wages.

This job-injury insurance is paid for by your employer and supervised by the state. If you can't work due to a job-related injury or illness, workers' compensation automatically pays your medical bills and provides money to live on until you can return to work.

Who's Covered?

Almost every employee in California is protected by workers' compensation, but there are a few exceptions. People in business for themselves and unpaid volunteers may not be covered. Railroad and maritime workers and federal employees are covered by similar laws. If you have a question about coverage, ask your employer.

What's Covered?

Any injury or illness if it's due to your job. Everything from first-aid type injuries to serious accidents are covered.

Coverage is automatic and immediate. There's no qualifying period, no need to earn a certain amount in wages before you're covered. . .protection begins the first minute you're on the job.

What You Have To Do

Immediately notify your supervisor, who will arrange medical care. Your employer will give you a claim form so you can describe the injury and how, when and where it happened. Complete the claim form and return it to your employer as soon as possible. Prompt reporting is the key to prompt benefits.
Benefits

The California workers' compensation law guarantees you three kinds of benefits:

- Medical treatment to care to cure the injury. . .and no deductibles.
- Tax-free payments to replace lost wages while you're temporarily disabled. Additional payments are made if the injury results in a permanent handicap or death.
- Rehabilitation services necessary to get you back to work.

All benefits are set by the California State Legislature. The amount of the payments, and when and how they're paid are part of state law. Only the state Legislature can change the amounts.

Benefit Payments

Doctor bills and hospital expenses will be paid directly by your employer's insurance company, so you should never see a bill.

If you're unable to work for more than three days, including weekends, you are entitled to compensation. About two weeks after reporting the injury, you'll get a compensation check. . .and every two weeks after that until the doctor says you can return to work. (Payment won't be made for the first three days, however, unless you're hospitalized or unable to work more than 14 days.)

The amount of these checks will be two-thirds of your average wage, up to a maximum set by the state Legislature. It won't be the full amount of your regular paycheck, but there are no deductions and the payments are tax-free.

Other Benefits

Workers' compensation sometimes is confused with another state insurance program, State Disability Insurance (SDI). They seem similar, but there are important differences.

Workers' compensation insurance covers on-the-job injuries and illnesses and is paid for entirely by your employer. On the other hand, SDI covers off-the-job injuries or sickness, and is paid for by deductions from your paycheck.

If You Have Questions. . .

. . .ask your supervisor or employer. Or contact the workers' compensation claims representative for your employer (the name, address and phone number are posted at your workplace).

Or, talk to one of the Information & Assistance consultants at the nearest office of the State Division of Workers' Compensation. They're available at no charge to answer questions and review problems. The offices are listed in the State Government Offices section in the front of the white pages of the phone book under "Industrial Relations Department."

More About Medical Care

Good medical care is important—to you, your family and your employer. Quality medical treatment is the quickest way to recovery.

If first-aid is available at your workplace, get immediate treatment and report where, when and how the accident happened. If its an emergency, get the best treatment available, then report the injury to your employer as soon as possible.

- If additional medical care is necessary, your employer will arrange it. You may be sent to a doctor you don't know, but that doesn't mean the physician is a "company doctor". He or she is in private practice, often a specialist for the particular injury. In addition, the doctor will be familiar with workers' compensation requirements and will report promptly so benefits can be paid.
- If you want to change doctors for any reason, ask your employer or claims representative. They're as interested as you are in your prompt recovery and return to work.
- You're also entitled to be treated by your own personal physician if you've notified your employer of the doctor's name and address in writing before the injury. For further information, ask you employer.
- Thirty days after reporting the injury you can switch to your own doctor. If you switch, choose your doctor carefully—most people don't have a family surgeon, for example. If you want advice about specialists, talk to your employer or claims representative. In any event, report your choice as soon as you make it so the bills will be paid for you.

Above all, don't treat yourself. Even minor injuries need expert care. Prompt, quality medical care is the best investment you and your employer can make.

The maximum potential rate change for each industry group, including both the August 1 overall rate increase and the rate increase under consideration, is as follows:

Industry Group	Potential Rate Change
Manufacturing	47%
Contracting	32%

Goods & Services	39%
Miscellaneous	39%
"F" classifications	29%

Maritime class codes may vary slightly from the above.

The rate change under consideration will apply to all new and renewal workers' compensation insurance policies with effective dates on or after April 1, 2003, and to the unexpired portion of insurance policies with effective dates between January 1, 2003 and March 31, 2003.

* The maximum statewide overall average rate increase under consideration for "F" classification policies is approximately 3.5 percent. This would be in addition to the average overall rate change for "F" classifications of 2.7 percent, which became effective on August 1, 2002.

SAFETY IS YOUR CONCERN

U.S. companies spend billions of dollars each year on the direct and indirect costs of accidents. Dollar figures can't begin to reflect the pain and suffering of an injured worker and his or her family. But they do give some indication of the multiple consequences of an accident... loss of time, interrupted productivity, damaged materials and equipment, possible legal action from government regulatory agencies, and increased insurance costs.

It makes good sense for both companies and their employees to actively participate in a sound accident prevention program. The success of such a program depends to a large extent on your commitment to safety procedures and accident prevention techniques. Safety is a management concern. Maybe we can help.

You may want to consider the following "Safety Checkpoints" as you evaluate your organization's safety activities:

SELF-INSPECTION PROGRAM:

* Do you conduct periodic surveys of premises, equipment and operations?
* Do you analyze each activity to determine inherent hazards?
* If you discover hazards, do you follow up with immediate corrective action?
* Do you monitor such action to make sure it is implemented and effective?

ACCIDENT INVESTIGATION:

* Do you investigate each accident and find the cause?
* Do you take immediate steps to prevent a recurrence?
* Do you keep records of accident investigations and follow-up measures?
* Do you complete accident statistics and analyze trends?

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

* Do you take the time to train each of your employees to perform tasks in a proper and safe manner?
* Do more-experienced employees receive training to correct bad habits that have developed over time?
* Do all employees understand that safety is an important part of their jobs?

NEW YORK WORKERS COMPENSATION

DECEMBER 1, 2003 RATE REVISION

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

An overall average premium level increase of 1.7%, which includes a 1.8% in the average manual rate level and no change in the separate identifiable rate for foreign terrorism, as well as no change in the provision for domestic terrorism in the manual rate, has been approved by the New York State Insurance Department to become effective on December 1, 2003.

Projection of Future Costs - Although average workers compensation claim costs are rising, continuing low claim frequency has had a dampening effect on the rate level increase approved for this year. Ongoing employer emphasis on workplace safety and the effects of the 1996 reforms have continued to contribute to the stability in the average rate level.

Expenses - Overall carrier expense levels relative to premium were slightly lower than last year and loss adjustment expense relative to incurred losses decreased for the second consecutive year.

Catastrophe Provision - This revision also contains no change in the "disaster preparedness provision" for domestic terrorism and natural disasters which is included in each classification rate. In addition, a rate for foreign terrorism, which is required to be a separate line item on each policy by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002, has also not changed.

Classification Rates - Although the average manual rate level is increasing 1.8%, individual classification rates will change based on the most recently available loss experience. Both increases and decreases from the current rates have been actuarially calculated as a result of the number and types of claims that are incurred together with the total dollar values of these claims that have been reported for each class. This process ensures that each class rate reflects the appropriate level relative to the experience of the other classifications.

Notice to Employers

The Construction Employment Payroll Limitation Law, enacted under Senate Bill S7744 and Assembly Bill A11294, provides a more equitable distribution of premium between high wage paying and low wage paying employers in the construction industry. The law applies to employers with an anniversary rating date on or after October 1, 1999. One or more classification codes applicable to your policy may be subject to the Payroll Limitation Law. See list of eligible classifications below. The Law does not, however, apply to employments engaged in the construction of one or two family residential housing.

Your overall premium may increase or decrease depending on geographic territories and/or payroll limitations. The actual weekly payroll of each employee performing the employments subject to an eligible classification code is subject to the following limitations:

- a maximum of $900 per week plus ½ of the difference between the employee's total payroll and the limited payroll for policies with effective dates beginning October 1, 1999 and ending September 30, 2000;
- a maximum of $900 per week for policies with effective dates beginning October 1, 2000 and ending September 30, 2001;
- a maximum of $800 per week for policies with effective dates beginning October 1, 2001 and ending September 30, 2002; and
- a maximum of the greater of $750 or the weekly wage upon which the maximum weekly benefit is based for policies with effective dates on or after October 1, 2002.

The construction employment geographic territories are:

Territory 1 - Counties of the Bronx, Kings, New York, Queens and Richmond

Territory 2 - Counties of Duchess, Nassau, Orange, Putnam, Rockland, Suffolk and Westchester

Territory 3 - All other counties within the State

Please note that since your operations may be subject to the law, an employer with an eligible classification code is required to maintain true and accurate weekly records for each employee that shows:

1. Each employee's total weekly wages and hours worked;
2. The type of work performed;
3. The geographic territory in which the work was performed; and
4. Whether or not the work was performed on commercial structures or on one/two family residential housing.

Eligible classification codes are those currently contained in the New York Construction Classification Premium Adjustment Program (PAP), with the exception of code 5645, which applies to the construction of one or two family residential dwellings. The specific listing of eligible classification codes is as follows:

Section 51 of the NYS Workers' Compensation Law

Every employer who has complied with section fifty of this article shall post and maintain in a conspicuous place or places in and about his place or places of business typewritten or printed notices in form prescribed by the chairman, stating the fact that he has complied with all the rules and regulations of the chairman and the board and that he has secured the payment of compensation to his employees and their dependents in accordance with the provisions of this chapter, but failure to post such notice as herein provided shall not in any way affect the exclusiveness of the remedy provided for by section eleven of this chapter. Every employer who owns or operates automotive or horse-drawn vehicles and has no minimum staff of regular employees required to report for work at an established place of business maintained by such employer and every employer who is engaged in the business of moving household goods or furniture shall post such notices in each and every vehicle owned or operated by him. Failure to post or maintain such notice in any of said vehicles shall constitute presumptive evidence that such employer has failed to secure the payment of compensation. The chairman may require any employer to furnish a written statement at any time showing the stock corporation, mutual corporation or reciprocal insurer in which such employer is insured or the manner in which such employer has complied with any provision of this chapter. Failure for a period of ten days to furnish such written statement shall constitute presumptive evidence that such employer has neglected or failed in respect of any of the matters so required. Any employer who fails to comply with the provisions of this section shall be required to pay to the board a fine of up to two hundred fifty dollars for each violation, in addition to any other penalties imposed by law to be deposited into the uninsured employers' fund.

Dear Jim,

We now have pleasure in enclosing our Cover Note and Debit Invoice in respect of the above policy. We would be grateful if you would check this document carefully and advise us immediately if there are any errors.

As you are aware this insurance is treated as being "self procured". Additionally you should also be aware that XL the carrier writing this risk does not have a closing agreement with the US Internal Revenue. As a consequence of this Federal Excise Tax (F.E.T.) of 4% is due and payable on their proportion, to the relevant tax authority. If you have any questions regarding either issue we suggest that you contact your insurance consultants regarding any taxation matters that may arise.

The premium in respect of this policy is subject to a premium payment warranty and is payable to Underwriters by January 31st, 2007. We would be grateful if you would remit the funds, by wire transfer direct to the following bank account at least 10 days before the date stated above .

ARBITRATION

It is hereby understood and agreed that any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Policy or to the breach, cancellation, termination or validity of this Policy shall be finally and fully determined in London, England under the provisions of the Arbitration Act of 1996 ("Act") and/or any statutory modifications or amendments thereto, for the time being in force, by a Board composed of three arbitrators to be selected for each controversy as follows:

> Any party may, in the event of such a dispute, controversy or claim, notify the other party or parties to such dispute, controversy or claim of its desire to arbitrate the matter, and at the time of such notification the party desiring arbitration shall notify any other party or parties of the name of the arbitrator selected by it. The other party or parties who has been so notified shall within thirty (30) calendar days thereafter select an arbitrator and notify the party desiring arbitration of the name of such second arbitrator. If the party or parties notified of a desire for arbitration shall fail or refuse to nominate the second arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days following the receipt of such notification, the party who first served notice of a desire to arbitrate will, within an additional period of thirty (30) calendar days, apply to a judge of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales for the appointment of a second arbitrator and in such a case the arbitrator appointed by such a judge shall be deemed to have been nominated by the party or parties who failed to select the second arbitrator. The two arbitrators, chosen as above provided, shall within thirty (30) calendar days after the appointment of the second arbitrator choose a third arbitrator. In the event of the failure of the first two arbitrators to agree on a third arbitrator within said thirty (30) calendar day period, either of the parties may within a period of thirty (30) calendar days thereafter, after notice to the other party or parties, apply to a judge of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales for the appointment of a third arbitrator and in such case the person so appointed shall be deemed and shall act as the third arbitrator. Upon acceptance of the appointment by said third arbitrator, the Board of Arbitration for the controversy in question shall be deemed fixed.

The Board of Arbitration shall fix, by a notice in writing to the parties, a reasonable time and place for the hearing and may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations governing the course and conduct of the arbitration proceedings, including discovery by the parties.

The Board shall, within ninety (90) calendar days following the conclusion of the hearing, render its written decision on the matter or matters in controversy in writing and shall cause a copy thereof to be served on all the parties thereto. In case the Board fails to reach a unanimous decision, the decision of the majority of the members of the Board shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board, and the same shall be final and binding on the parties thereto. Such decision shall be a complete defense to any attempted appeal or litigation of such decision in the absence of serious irregularity. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties waive any right to appeal to, and/or seek collateral review of the decision of the Board of Arbitration by, any court or other body to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, including, without limitation, application or appeal under Sections 45 and 69 of the Act.

Any order as to the costs of the arbitration shall be in the sole discretion of the Board, who may direct to whom and by whom and in what manner they shall be paid.

The parties agree that, in the event that claims for indemnity or contribution are asserted in any action or proceeding against the Company by any of the Insured's other insurers in any jurisdiction or forum other than that set forth in this arbitration provision, the Insured will in good faith take all reasonable steps requested by the Company to assist the Company in obtaining a dismissal of these claims (other than on the merits) and will undertake to the court or other tribunal to reduce any judgment or award against such other insurers to the extent that the court or tribunal determines that the Company would have been liable to such insurers for indemnity or contribution pursuant to this Policy. The Insured shall be entitled to assert claims against the Company for coverage under this Policy, including, without limitation, for amounts by which the Insured reduced its judgment against such other insurers in respect of such claims for indemnity or contribution, in an arbitration between the Company and the Insured pursuant to this arbitration provision, which arbitration may take place before, concurrently with and/or after the action or proceeding involving such other insurers; provided, however, that the Company in such arbitration in respect of such reduction of any judgment shall be entitled to raise any defenses under this Policy and any other defenses (other than jurisdictional defenses) as it would have been entitled to raise in the action or proceeding with such insurers (and no determination in any such action or proceeding involving such other insurers shall have collateral estoppel, res judicata or other issue preclusion or estoppel effect against the Company in such arbitration, irrespective of whether or not the Company remained a party to such action or proceeding).

All other terms and conditions of this Policy remain unchanged.

It is hereby understood and agreed that this Policy and any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Policy, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the substantive internal law (i.e., excluding procedural and choice-of-law rules) of the State of New York, except insofar as such law (1) may prohibit payment in respect of punitive damages hereunder; (2) pertain to regulation under New York Insurance Law, or regulations issued by the Insurance Department of the State of New York pursuant thereto, applying to insurers doing insurance business, or issuance, delivery or procurement of policies of insurance, within the State of New York or as respect risks or insured entities situated in the State of New York; or (3) are inconsistent with any provision of this Policy; provided, however, that the provisions, stipulations, exclusions and conditions of this Policy are to be construed in an even handed fashion as between the Insured and the Company; where the language of this Policy is deemed to be ambiguous or otherwise unclear, the issue shall be resolved in the manner most consistent with the relevant provisions, stipulations, exclusions and conditions (without regard to authorship of the language, without any presumption or arbitrary interpretation or construction in favour of either the Insured or the Company or reference to the "reasonable expectations" of either thereof or to contra proferentum and without reference to parol or other extrinsic evidence). Subject: ACE Bermuda Insurance Ltd. Policy No. AWW-1274/4

Dear Jim,

We are pleased to enclose the ACE Bermuda Insurance Ltd. Occurrence Reported Policy No. AWW-1274/4, effective January 1, 2007 to January 1, 2008. Cover is provided for the layer US$30 million part of US$55 million excess of US$175 million on an occurrence reported basis at a total premium of US$210,000. While we have summarized the endorsements below; please refer to the policy form and each endorsement for a complete description of coverage.

The following endorsements are attached to the Policy:

Endorsement No. 1 Amendments to Form XL XS004
This endorsement amends the XL XS004 Policy Form by deleting and replacing the aircraft exclusion and expanding the Efficacy, Loss of use exclusion that is defined in this endorsement to Article IV, Exclusions. Further, Commercial Aviation operations is added to the Definitions Article III and the Cancellation Condition L is deleted from Article VI, Conditions, and replaced as defined in this endorsement.

Endorsement No. 2 Designation of Limit Endorsement
This endorsement reaffirms that ACE will only pay one "limit" for the entirety of a loss, whether noticed as separate occurrences over several years or in conjunction with an Integrated Occurrence notice. Indeed, the endorsement prevents the insured from transferring "loss" paid by ACE on an Occurrence in one year into the "loss" attributable to an Integrated Occurrence noticed in a subsequent policy period. Any payment by ACE on the original Occurrence reduces the limit available to the insured for the Integrated Occurrence and erodes the aggregate limit available to the insured under the policy in which the original Occurrence was noticed.

Endorsement No. 3 Incorporation of Schedules by Reference Endorsement
This endorsement incorporates into the policy by reference certain schedules (as specified in the endorsement) submitted with the application.

Endorsement No. 4 Known and Previously Notified Occurrence Exclusion Endorsement
This endorsement excludes coverage for Occurrences and/or Claims/Potential Claims for which notice was given or deemed to have been given under any other policy prior to the Inception Date. This endorsement also excludes coverage for actual or alleged liability arising from any Occurrence of which any Executive Officer or any manager or equivalent-level employee in the Insured's Risk Management, Insurance or Law Department was aware prior to the Inception Date regardless of whether such person believed or expected such Occurrence would involve the policy.

Endorsement No. 5 War and Terrorism Exclusion Endorsement
This endorsement provides an "absolute" exclusion for liabilities arising from "War" and "Terrorism" as defined in the endorsement. Please review the endorsement carefully as it provides a detailed discussion of the specific acts which are excluded.

Endorsement No. 6 Annual Aggregate Terrorism Sublimit Endorsement
This endorsement now includes terrorism coverage in the policy and provides that the maximum annual aggregate sublimit with respect to any single act of Terrorism or any combination of such acts shall be $30,000,000. Such sublimit shall be included within and shall not increase the Annual Period limit in the aggregate for all covered Occurrences and claims set forth in Item 2(a), 2(b) and of the Declarations.

Endorsement No. 7 Special Exclusionary Endorsement
This endorsement excludes coverage for liabilities arising out of operations, risks, events or other matters involving lead or silica.

Endorsement No. 8 Special Exclusionary Endorsement
This endorsement excludes coverage for liabilities arising out of operations, risks, events or other matters involving employment practices.

Endorsement No. 9	Amendment of Exclusion H. (1) Endorsement This endorsement excludes coverage for "asbestos or any asbestos-containing materials".
Endorsement No. 10	Amendment of Condition VI. L Cancellation (Minimum Earned Premium) It is understood and agreed that in the event of cancellation of this Policy by or at the direction of the Named Insured, the Insurer shall retain a MINIMUM Earned Premium of thirty-five percent (35%) of the Annual Premium.
Endorsement No.11	Fungi Exclusion Endorsement This endorsement acts as an "absolute" exclusion for liability arising from "Fungi"as defined in the endorsement. Please read this endorsement carefully as it provides specific definitions of what is excluded.
Endorsement No. 12	Non-Insured Endorsement This endorsement specifies and lists the entity(ies) that are deemed not to fall within the definition of "Insured" under Section P, Article III of the policy except as to its interest as the Insured's parent company.
Endorsement No. 13	Retroactive Coverage Endorsement This endorsement details the retroactive coverage date(s) for the layer(s) set forth in the endorsement. The endorsement also acts as a "carve-out" from the retroactive coverage provided by the policy for occurrences (as scheduled in the endorsement) known by the insured as the effective date regardless of whether the insured was aware that such occurrence was likely to involve the policy.

We have reviewed the above referenced policy and endorsements and have found them to be issued in accordance with the terms and conditions negotiated at renewal and per the terms of ACE's binder of insurance. Please review the attached endorsements and advise Marsh following receipt of this letter of anything which you believe is not in accordance with the negotiated coverage and terms.

We have also attached the instructions to be used in the event you wish to report a claim to ACE Bermuda Insurance Ltd.

NOTIFICATION OF CLAIMS
ACE BERMUDA INSURANCE LIMITED

Your policy is an occurrences-reported policy, which means that all occurrences must be reported to ACE's Claims Department during the policy period or, if purchased, the discovery period. The date notice is first given is the date for determination of the applicable limits, retentions, terms, conditions and exclusions of the policy. It is critical to understand that ACE may deny a claim on late notice grounds if ACE's Claims Department does not receive the notification prior to the policy's expiration date.

Your policy also contains strict reporting requirements for pollution claims. Notice of a pollution claim must be received by ACE before the time period specified by the policy lapses. The final day of that reporting period should be treated as a policy expiration date, when it comes to pollution claims, and the procedures set forth below should be followed for reporting such claims to ACE. We strongly suggest that you thoroughly read and understand the pollution claim notification requirements as ACE may deny claims that do not comply fully with those requirements.

This explanation of the reporting provisions of your policy has been provided in order to assist you in understanding and complying with the policy's requirements. In the event of a question or disagreement with your insurer concerning interpretation of the policy's reporting requirements as applied to the reporting of a specific claim, loss, occurrence, incident, offense or lawsuit, the actual policy wording, which is the contract between you and the insurer, and not Marsh's explanation of that language, will be controlling. Marsh, as an insurance representative, does not provide legal advice, and this explanation should not be relied upon as a legal interpretation of the policy provisions.

All claims notifications should be mailed or faxed directly to:

Claims Department
17 Woodbourne Avenue
Hamilton HM 08
Fax: 441 292-2456

ACE will also accept email notification of claims to acebermudaclaimsnotices@ace.bm. With limited flights into Bermuda, you should be aware that overnight mail services do not guarantee delivery of letters and packages to Bermuda within twenty-four (24) hours. As such, to the extent your notification letter and supporting documentation is not too voluminous, we suggest that you fax the notification to the number set forth above and maintain a copy of the fax confirmation sheet for your records. To the extent your notification is too voluminous to fax, we suggest that you place your notification and any supporting documentation in overnight mail at least ninety-six (96) hours before the policy expires. We also suggest that, in addition to overnight delivery, you fax the notification letter and a list of the claims being noticed to ACE's Claims Department prior to policy expiration to provide evidence of your intent to provide notice to ACE within the policy period. This procedure is particularly critical where you are providing ACE with a bordereau of all known claims because the policy is about to expire and ACE is being moved up in or off of your insurance program (a procedure commonly known as "laundry listing"). You must understand that ACE reserves the right to deny a claim based on "late notice" in the event ACE receives the notice, listing of claims and/or the supporting documentation after the policy has expired.

Finally, we suggest that you copy Marsh Global Markets (Bermuda) Ltd's Claims & Coverage Practice Leader on any claim notices sent directly to ACE so that Marsh can assist you in the claims-handling process. Please provide a copy to our claims intake email box: Bermuda.Claims@marsh.com. Should you have any further questions regarding ACE's notification criteria, you may contact Marsh's Claims & Coverage Practice Leader at 441 299-8832 at:

INSURING AGREEMENTS

I COVERAGE

ACE Bermuda Insurance Ltd. (the "Company") shall, subject to the limitations, terms, conditions and exclusions below, indemnify the Insured for Ultimate Net Loss the Insured pays by reason of Liability:-

(a) imposed by law, or
(b) of a person or party who is not an Insured assumed by the Insured under contract or agreement, for Damages on account of:

(i) Personal Injury
(ii) Property Damage
(iii) Advertising Liability

Encompassed by an Occurrence, provided:

COVERAGE A: notice of the Occurrence shall have been first given by the Insured in an Annual Period during the Policy Period in accordance with Article V of this Policy, or COVERAGE B: notice of the Occurrence shall have been first given during the Discovery Period in accordance with Article V of this Policy, but only if the Discovery Period option has been elected in accordance with the provisions of this Policy.

II LIMITS OF LIABILITY

A. Regardless of the number of Insureds under this Policy, for each layer of coverage set forth in Item 2(a) of the Declarations the Company shall be liable only for that amount of Ultimate Net Loss for each Occurrence covered under this Policy which is in excess of the greater of:

(1) the amounts indicated as the limits (including, without limitation, any reinstatements thereof, where applicable) of the underlying insurances and any self-insured retentions listed, or which should have been listed, on the present or any prior Schedule B annexed to this Policy and any other underlying insurance, as to which the Company and the Named Insured expressly agree that the insurance provided by this Policy shall:

(a) be in excess in respect of such Occurrences or Claims and Ultimate Net Loss as are covered by said underlying insurances (it being understood that this Policy shall in no way be subject to, or affected by, the terms, conditions or exclusions of said underlying insurances), and

(b) apply only as if such underlying insurances were fully available and collectable (except to the extent that any aggregate limits thereof are reduced or exhausted by actual payment of claims) for all occurrences or claims covered thereunder,

(2) the per Occurrence retention amount listed in Item 2 of the Declarations (which may be satisfied only by Ultimate Net Loss as defined herein).

And then only up to the per Occurrence limit of liability stated in Item 2(a) of the Declarations in respect of such layer for each Occurrence covered hereunder, and further subject to the aggregate limit of liability stated in Item 2(b) of the Declarations for all layers for all Occurrences covered hereunder of which notice is first given during each Annual Period (or during Discovery Period with respect to the immediately preceding Annual Period or portion thereof); provided, however, that for all Insureds the applicable aggregate limit of liability, per Occurrence limit of liability, per Occurrence retention, and the terms, conditions and exclusions of coverage shall be determined under the Policy as in effect at the time notice of the Occurrence or Notice of Integrated Occurrence for which coverage is asserted is first given pursuant to Article V of this Policy by any Insured. This Policy shall not be subject to or follow the form of any underlying insurances but shall apply in accordance with its own terms, conditions and exclusions.

B. All Personal Injury or Property Damage covered hereunder encompassed by an Integrated Occurrence shall be added together and treated as included within one Occurrence. If notice of an Occurrence (which was not a Notice of Integrated Occurrence) was given during a prior Annual Period, and if Personal Injury or Property Damage which is included in such Occurrence is included in an Integrated Occurrence of which Notice of Integrated Occurrence is first given during a subsequent Annual Period, all Ultimate Net Loss arising from such earlier notified Occurrence shall be included in the Ultimate Net Loss arising from such Integrated Occurrence. Any payments of Ultimate Net Loss on account of such earlier notified Occurrence shall be deemed to have been made under the Annual Period in which the Company received such Notice of Integrated Occurrence. The erosion of the applicable limits of liability in the respective Annual Periods of this Policy shall be adjusted to reflect such transfer of Ultimate Net Loss payments from the prior Annual Period to the Annual Period in which Notice of Integrated Occurrence was first given.

C. (1) As regards any liability of an Insured which arises in any manner whatsoever out of operations of the existence of any Joint Venture in which such Insured has an interest, the liability of the Company under this Policy in each layer shall be limited to the product of (i) the percentage interest of the Insured in such liability of such Joint Venture (whether direct or by virtue of the insolvency of others interested in such Joint Venture) and (ii) the total limit of liability insurance afforded such Insured for such layer by this Policy.

(2) It is further understood and agreed that in circumstances where paragraph (1) applies to limit the liability of the Company under this Policy, the Company shall be liable for each layer in respect of the liability of the Insured in excess of the greater of:

(a) the product of the per Occurrence retention amount specified in Item 2 of the Declarations for such layer and the percentage interest of the Insured in such liability of such Joint Venture as determined pursuant to paragraph (1), or

(b) the limits of the underlying insurance(s) (as reduced by general provisions relating to Joint Ventures, if applicable).

(3) It is further understood and agreed that paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Section C shall not apply if:

(i) the Insured has sole responsibility for the Joint Venture, or

(ii) the Insured is obligated to provide insurance for the Joint Venture in its entirety such as is afforded by this Policy.

(ii) liability of the Insured for Personal Injury or Property Damage caused by a Discharge of Pollutants which is not Expected or Intended, but only if the Insured becomes aware of the commencement of such Discharge within seven (7) days of such commencement; provided that the Insured gives the Company written notice in accordance with Section D of Article V of this Policy of such commencement of the Discharge under Subparagraphs (2)(b)(i) or (ii) of this Exclusion K within forty (40) days of such commencement. No inference shall be made from the express exclusion of liabilities in this Exclusion P that this Policy would otherwise cover such liabilities or similar liabilities.

V NOTICE OF OCCURRENCE

A. NOTICE AS SOON AS PRACTICABLE

If any Executive Officer shall become aware of an Occurrence likely to involve this Policy, the Named Insured shall, as a condition precedent to the rights of any Insured under this Policy, give written notice thereof to the Company in the manner provided in Section D of this Article V.

Such notice shall be given as soon as practicable and, in any event, during the Policy Period or the Discovery Period, if applicable, and in accordance with Paragraph 2(b) of Exclusion K, if applicable. Failure to provide written notice as prescribed above shall result in a forfeiture of any rights to coverage hereunder in respect of such Occurrence.

B. PERMISSIVE NOTICE

Any Insured may at any time during the Policy Period or Discovery Period give notice of an Occurrence to the Company in the manner provided in Section D of this Article V.

C. PERMISSIVE NOTICE OF INTEGRATED OCCURRENCE

The Insured may at its option give written notice to the Company of any Occurrence as an "Integrated Occurrence" by designating it as such and giving notice in the manner provided in Section D of this Article V. Once the Insured gives Notice of Integrated Occurrence, all Personal Injury, Property Damage that falls within the Integrated Occurrence (as provided in the terms, conditions and exclusions of this Policy) shall be treated as such for all purposes under this Policy irrespective of whether this Policy has been terminated after the Insured has given Notice of Integrated Occurrence. The limit of liability applicable to such Integrated Occurrence shall be the limit described in Article II of this Policy.

D. MANNER OF NOTICE

(1) Notice of Occurrence must explicitly be designated as such in writing and must be directed to the Company's Claims Department at the address set forth in Item 8(a) of the Declarations.

(2) Information (including, without limitation, information about pending and/or prior claims, reserves or payments, loss runs, etc.) submitted (whether face-to-face, by mail, telex, courier, facsimile or otherwise) to the Company's underwriter(s) (whether in an initial or annual renewal application/submission or otherwise) shall not constitute notice of Occurrence. All material directed to the Company at the address indicated in Item 8(b) of the Declarations shall be deemed to have been submitted to the Company's underwriters (unless otherwise acknowledged by the Company in writing).

VI CONDITIONS

A. PREMIUM

The premium for this Policy is a flat premium and is not subject to adjustment, except as specifically provided herein. The premium shall be paid to the Company.

B. INSPECTION

The Company shall be permitted but not obligated to inspect the Insured's property, operations, books, records and files at any time. Neither the Company's right to make inspections nor the making thereof or of a report thereon shall constitute an undertaking on behalf of or for the benefit of the Insured or others to determine or warrant that such property or operations are safe or are in compliance with any statute, law, ordinance, rule or regulation.

C. CROSS LIABILITY

In the event of a Claim being made by reason of Personal Injury suffered by an employee of one Insured hereunder for which another Insured hereunder is or may be liable, this Policy shall cover such Insured against whom such a Claim is made or may be made in the same manner as if separate policies had been issued to each Insured hereunder.

Nothing contained herein shall operate to increase the Company's limits of liability as set forth in Item 2 of the Declarations.

D. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION

(1) The Company shall not be called upon to assume charge of the settlement or defense of any Claim made or suit brought or proceeding instituted against an Insured, but the Company shall have the right and shall be given the opportunity to associate with the Insured or the Insured's underlying insurers or both in the defense and control of any Claim, suit or proceeding relative to any Occurrence where the Claim or suit involves, or appears reasonably likely to involve, the Company, in which event the Insured and the Company shall cooperate in all things in the defense of such Claim.

(2) The Insured shall furnish promptly all information reasonably requested by the Company with respect to any Occurrence, both with respect to any Claim against the Insured and pertaining to coverage under this Policy.

(3) If liabilities, losses, costs and/or expenses are in part covered by this Policy and in part not covered by this Policy, the Insured and Company shall use their best efforts to agree upon a fair and proper allocation thereof between covered and uncovered amounts, and the Insured shall cooperate with such efforts by providing all pertinent information with respect thereto.

(4) Those expenses incurred by the Company on its own behalf in connection with claims representation pursuant to this Condition D shall be at its own expense and shall not be part of Ultimate Net Loss.

E. APPEALS

In the event the Insured or the Insured's underlying insurers elect not to appeal a judgment in excess of the retention or the underlying limits, as the case may be, the Company may elect to make such appeal at its own cost and expense and shall be liable for the taxable costs and disbursements of such appeal and post-judgment interest on the judgment appealed from accruing during such an appeal. In no event, however, shall liability of the Company for Ultimate Net Loss exceed the applicable limit of liability plus the costs and expenses of such appeal.

F. LOSS PAYABLE

Liability under this Policy with respect to any Occurrence shall not attach unless and until:

(1) the Insured's underlying insurer(s) or the Insured shall have paid the greater of the amount of any applicable underlying limits or the applicable retention set forth in Item 2(a) of the Declarations; and

(2) the Insured's liability covered hereunder shall have been fixed and rendered certain either by final judgment against the Insured after actual trial or by settlement approved in writing by the Company, and the Insured shall have paid such liability.

Any consideration paid by the Insured or the Insured's underlying insurers other than in legal currency shall be valued at the lower of cost or market, and any element of the Insured's profit or other benefit to the Insured shall be deducted in determining the value of such consideration. The Company may examine the underlying facts giving rise to a judgment against or settlement by the Insured to determine if, and to what extent, the basis for the Insured's liability under such judgment or settlement is covered by this Policy.

The Insured shall make a definite demand for payment for any amount of the Ultimate Net Loss for which the Company may be liable under this Policy within twelve (12) months after the Insured shall have paid such amount. If any subsequent payments shall be made by the Insured on account of the same Occurrence or Claim, additional demands for payment shall be made similarly from time to time. Such losses shall be due and payable by the Company thirty (30) days after they are respectively paid by the Insured, demanded and proven in conformity with this Policy.

G. REPRESENTATION

The Named Insured or such other person as it shall designate in Item 5 of the Declarations shall represent and have authority to bind the Named Insured and any and all Insureds hereunder in all matters under this Policy, including, without limitation, payment of premium, negotiation of the terms of renewal or reinstatement and the adjustment, settlement and payment of claims. The Named Insured, by notice to the Company in writing, may designate a substitute representative, which representative shall, effective as of the date such notice is received, be deemed to be designated in Item 5 of the Declaration.

H. OTHER INSURANCE

If other valid and collectible insurance with any other insurer, whether issued prior hereto, simultaneously herewith or subsequent hereto, is available to the Insured for Ultimate Net Loss covered by this Policy, other than insurance which is expressly and specifically excess of the limits of, or quota share on the same layer as, this Policy, the insurance afforded by this Policy shall be in excess of and shall not contribute with such other insurance. Nothing herein shall be construed to make this Policy subject to the terms, conditions or limitations of other insurance.

If this Policy shall be deemed or required to contribute to Ultimate Net Loss with other insurance and such contribution arises in whole or in part from the failure of the Named Insured to list such other insurance on Schedule B hereto in accordance with the instructions for such Schedule B, then the Named Insured shall indemnify the Company for the amount of any such contribution, and this Policy shall apply as if such other insurance had been so listed.

I. SUBROGATION

In the event of any payment hereunder, the Company shall be entitled to exercise rights of subrogation, and the Insured shall execute and deliver instruments and papers and do whatever else is necessary to secure such rights. In such case, the Company will act in concert with all other interested parties, including the Insured, concerned in the exercise of rights of recovery. The apportioning of any amounts which may be so recovered, net of expenses, shall follow the principle that any parties, including the Insured, that shall have paid an amount over and above any payment hereunder shall first be reimbursed up to the amount paid by them. The Company is then to be reimbursed out of any balance then remaining up to the amount paid by it; lastly, the parties of whose interests this coverage is in excess, including the Insured, are entitled to claim the residue, if any.

J. CHANGES

Notice to or knowledge possessed by any person shall not effect waiver or change in any part of this Policy or estop the Company from asserting any right under the terms of this Policy. The terms of this Policy may not be waived or changed, except by written endorsement issued to form a part hereof and signed by the Company.

K. ASSIGNMENT

Assignment of interest under this Policy shall not bind the Company unless and until its consent is endorsed hereon.

L. CANCELLATION

(1) Coverage A under this Policy may be cancelled on a pro rata basis:

(a) at the end of any Annual Period by either the Named Insured or the Company by delivering prior written notice to the other.

(b) at any time by the Named Insured by delivering written notice to the Company at the address listed in Item 8(b) of the Declarations stating when, but in no event prior to the date such notice is received, cancellation shall be effective;

(c) at any time by the Company by delivering written notice to the Named Insured stating when, not less than ninety (90) days from the date the notice is received, cancellation shall be effective; or

(d) if any Insured shall institute a suit or proceeding against the Company other than as provided in Condition N below (or to enforce an award arising out of such arbitration), at any time thereafter by the Company by delivering written notice to the Named Insured stating when, not less than five (5) days from the date the notice is received, cancellation shall be effective.

(2) This Policy will be cancelled automatically retroactive to the commencement of the Annual Period, if the premium or proof of payment thereof is not received by the Company within five (5) business days of the commencement of such Annual Period.

(3) Coverage B may not be cancelled by either the Named Insured or the Company, except the Company may cancel effective immediately upon the delivery of written notice to the Named Insured of the Insured should institute a suit or proceeding against the Company other than as provided in Condition N below (or to enforce an award arising out of such arbitration).

M. CURRENCY

The premiums and losses under this Policy are payable in the respective currency(ies) set forth in Item 6 of the Declarations. Unless otherwise specified in Item 6, such currency(ies) shall be United States dollars. If judgment is rendered, settlement is denominated or another element of Damages is stated in a currency other than in the applicable currency, payment under this Policy shall be made in the applicable currency at the rate of exchange prevailing on the date the final judgment is rendered, the amount of the settlement is agreed upon or the other element of Damages is due, respectively.

N. ARBITRATION

(1) Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Policy or the breach, termination or invalidity thereof shall be finally and fully determined in London, England under the provisions of the Arbitration Acts of 1950, 1975 and 1979 and/or statutory modifications or amendments thereto, for the time being in force, by a Board composed of three arbitrators to be selected for each controversy as follows:-

Any party may, in the event of such a dispute, controversy or claim, notify the other party or parties to such dispute, controversy or claim of its desire to arbitrate the matter, and at the time of such notification the party desiring arbitration shall notify any other party or parties of the name of the arbitrator selected by it. The other party who has been so notified shall within thirty (30) calendar days thereafter select an arbitrator and notify the party desiring arbitration of the name of such second arbitrator. If the party notified of a desire for arbitration shall fail or refuse to nominate the second arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days following the receipt of such notification, the party who first served notice of a desire to arbitrate will, within an additional period of thirty (30) calendar days, apply to a judge of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales for the appointment of a second arbitrator and in such a case the arbitrator appointed by such a judge shall be deemed to have been nominated by the party or parties who failed to select the second arbitrator. The two arbitrators, chosen as above provided, shall within thirty (30) calendar days after the appointment of the second arbitrator choose a third arbitrator within said thirty (30) calendar day period, either of the parties may within a period of thirty (30) calendar days thereafter, after notice to the other party or parties, apply to a judge of the High Court of Justice of England and Wales for the appointment of a third arbitrator and in such case the person so appointed shall be deemed and shall act as the third arbitrator. Upon acceptance of the appointment by said third arbitrator, the Board of Arbitration for the controversy in question shall be deemed fixed. All claims, demands, denials of claims and notices pursuant to this Condition N shall be given in accordance with Condition U below.

(2) The Board of Arbitration shall fix, by a notice in writing to the parties involved, a reasonable time and place for the hearing and may prescribe reasonable rules and regulations governing the course and conduct of the arbitration proceeding, including without limitation discovery by the parties.

(3) The Board shall, within ninety (90) calendar days following the conclusion of the hearing, render its decision on the matter or matters in controversy in writing and shall cause a copy thereof to be served on all the parties thereto. In case the Board fails to reach a unanimous decision, the decision of the majority of the members of the Board shall be deemed to be the decision of the Board and the same shall be final and binding on the parties thereto. Such decision shall be complete defense to any attempted appeal or litigation of such decision in the absence of fraud or collusion. Without limiting the foregoing, the parties waive any right to appeal to, and/or seek collateral review of the decision of the Board of Arbitration by, any court or other body to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

(4) Any order as to the costs of the arbitration shall be in the sole discretion of the Board, who may direct to whom and by whom and in what manner they shall be paid.

(5) The Company and the Insured agree that in the event that claims for indemnity or contribution are asserted in any action or proceeding against the Company by any of the Insured's other insurers in any jurisdiction or forum other than that set forth in this Condition N, the Insured will in good faith take all reasonable steps requested by the Company to assist the Company in obtaining a dismissal of these claims (other than on the merits) and will, without limitation, undertake to the court or other tribunal to reduce any judgment or award against such other insurers to the extent that the court or tribunal determines that the Company would have been liable to such insurers for indemnity or contribution pursuant to this Policy. The Insured shall be entitled to assert claims against the Company for coverage under this Policy, including, without limitation, for amounts by which the Insured reduced its judgment against such other insurers in respect of such claims for indemnity or contribution, in an arbitration between the Company and the Insured pursuant to this Condition N, which arbitration may take place before, concurrently with and/or after the action or proceeding involving such other Insurers; provided, however, that the Company in such arbitration in respect of such reduction of any judgment shall be entitled to raise any defenses under this Policy and any other defenses (other than jurisdictional defenses) as it would have been entitled to raise in the action or proceeding with such insurers (and no determination in any such action or proceeding involving such other insurers shall have collateral estoppel, res judicata or other issue preclusion or estoppel effect against the Company in such arbitration, irrespective of whether or not the Company remained a party to such action or proceeding).

O. LAW OF CONSTRUCTION AND INTERPRETATION

This Policy, and any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Policy, shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the internal laws of the State of New York, except insofar as such laws:

(1) may prohibit payment in respect of punitive damages hereunder;

(2) pertain to regulation under the New York Insurance Law, or regulations issued by the Insurance Department of the State of New York pursuant thereto, applying to insurers doing insurance business, or issuance, delivery of procurement of policies of insurance, within the State of New York or as respects risks or insureds situated in the State of New York; or

(3) are inconsistent with any provision of this Policy; provided, however, that the provisions, stipulations, exclusions and conditions of this Policy are to be construed in an evenhanded fashion as between the Insured and the Company; without limitation, where the language of this Policy is deemed to be ambiguous or otherwise unclear, the issue shall be resolved in the manner most consistent with the relevant provisions, stipulations, exclusions and conditions (without regard to authorship of the language, without any presumption or arbitrary interpretation or construction in favor of either the Insured or the Company or reference to parol or other extrinsic evidence). To the extent that New York is inapplicable by virtue of any exception or proviso enumerated above or otherwise, and as respects arbitration procedure pursuant to Condition N, the internal laws of England and Wales shall apply.

P. LIABILITY OF THE COMPANY

The Named Insured and the Insured agree that the liability and obligations of the Company hereunder shall be satisfied from the funds of the Company alone and that the individual shareholders of the Company shall have no liability hereunder to the Named Insured or the Insured.

Q. POLICY EXTENSION

Subject to Condition L, Coverage A of this Policy may be extended at the expiration of each Annual Period for another Annual Period, subject only to agreement between the Company and the Named Insured as to the applicable premium and such other terms and conditions as the Company and the Named Insured may mutually deem appropriate. Coverage A shall expire at the end of an Annual Period if not extended (or upon cancellation thereof). Where Coverage A (or Coverage B) is cancelled or not extended, such cancellation or non-extension shall not affect the rights of the Insured as respect any Occurrence or Integrated Occurrence of which notice was given in accordance with the provisions of this Policy prior to such cancellation or non-extension and shall not limit whatever rights the Insured otherwise would have under this Policy as respects actual or alleged Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability included in such Occurrence or Integrated Occurrence taking place subsequent to such cancellation or non-extension.

R. REINSTATEMENT

(1) At the time of each annual Policy extension of Coverage A, the aggregate limit of liability set forth in Item 2(b) of the Declarations shall, unless otherwise agreed in writing between the Named Insured and the Company, automatically be reinstated with respect to covered Occurrences of which notice is first given during the following Annual Period. There shall be no separate premium charged for this automatic reinstatement in addition to that provided for in Condition Q above. There shall be no reinstatement of the aggregate limit of liability, unless otherwise agreed in writing by the Company, as respects Coverage B, and the remaining amount, if any, of the aggregate limit for the final Annual Period under Coverage A shall apply as respects the Discovery Period.

(2) If during any Annual Period, as respects Coverage A only, the aggregate limit of liability set forth in Item 2(b) ("Original Aggregate Limit") of the Declarations is or may be impaired by virtue of Occurrence(s) of which notice has been given previously during such Annual Period, then the Named Insured shall be entitled to elect one reinstatement of all or any portion of such aggregate limit, based on the following terms and conditions:

(a) Such reinstatement must be elected in writing by the Named Insured, which election shall specify the amount being reinstated, not to exceed an amount equal to the Original Aggregate Limit ("Reinstatement Amount"), and must be accompanied by payment of the reinstatement premium as provided in subparagraph (c) below. Such reinstatement shall be effective as of the date of the receipt by the Company of such written election and premium ("Reinstatement Date").

(b) (i) There shall be an aggregate sublimit of liability for all Occurrences of which notice is first given to the Company at any time during the entire Annual Period in an amount equal to the Original Aggregate Limit as respects all Occurrences of which the Named Insured is aware at the Reinstatement Date (including, without limitation, all Occurrences of which notice was first given during such Annual Period prior to such date and all Integrated Occurrence including Personal Injury or Property Damage which was included in any such prior noticed Occurrences). The Named Insured shall be deemed to have been aware of an Occurrence if any Executive Officer was aware of any actual or alleged Personal Injury, Property Damage or Advertising Liability which was included in such Occurrence, irrespective of whether or not such person believed or expected such Occurrence was likely to involve this Policy.

(ii) The aggregate limit of liability for all Occurrences of which the Named Insured is not aware at the Reinstatement Date and of which notice is first given to the Company during the portion of the Annual Period on or subsequent to the Reinstatement Date and during any Discovery Period in the event Coverage A terminates at the end of such Annual Period shall be:

(x) any unused portion of the Original Aggregate Limit pertaining to the portion of the Annual Period prior to the Reinstatement Date and to any Occurrences of which the Named Insured is aware at such date; plus

(y) the Reinstatement Amount.

In no event shall the aggregate limit of liability under this subparagraph (2)(b)(ii) exceed the Original Aggregate Limit.

(iii) In no event shall the aggregate limit of liability of the Company in respect for all Occurrences of which notice is first given to the Company during the entire Annual Period exceed the sum of the Original Aggregate Limit and the Reinstatement Amount.

(c) The reinstatement premium shall be an amount determined by the Company, but in no event shall this exceed one hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the total premium for the Annual Period in which the reinstatement takes place.

S. DISCOVERY PERIOD

(1) In the event of Termination of Coverage A, other than by reason of cancellation for non-payment of premium or due to institution of a proceeding other than as contemplated by Condition N, the Named Insured may elect, prior to the Termination Date of such Coverage A, to secure Coverage B for the following Annual Period for such Insureds as the Named Insured shall designate, by giving the Company written notice of such election and paying to the Company the annual premium set forth in the attached Schedule D no later than the date of commencement of such Annual Period.

(2) In the event that the Named Insured elects to secure Coverage B pursuant to paragraph (1) above, the Named Insured may elect to continue such Coverage B for any number of additional Annual Periods by giving the Company written notice of each election for a subsequent Annual Period and paying to the Company the corresponding annual premium set forth in the attached Schedule D no later than the end of the Annual Period for which such coverage B was previously elected. If the Named Insured shall fail to elect Coverage B for any Annual Period, it may not elect Coverage B for any subsequent Annual Period.

(3) For the purpose of application of retentions and limits of liability, notice of an Occurrence given during the Discovery Period shall be deemed to have been given during the final Annual Period in the Policy Period. The aggregate limit of liability shall not be reinstated for the Discovery Period.

T. FORMER SUBSIDIARIES, AFFILIATES AND ASSOCIATED COMPANIES

If any subsidiary, affiliate or associated company of the Named Insured which is an Insured hereunder shall cease to be such a subsidiary, affiliate or associated company of the Named Insured, then at such time Coverage A shall automatically terminate as to such former subsidiary, affiliate or associated company. Coverage A shall continue with respect to the Named Insured and any other entity which remains an Insured for its own liability, if any, arising out of its prior ownership of or affiliation or association with the former subsidiary, affiliate or associated company. At such time of such automatic termination of coverage, Coverage B shall, unless the Named Insured otherwise specifies, automatically incept as to such former subsidiary, affiliate or associated company and continue in force for the balance of the Annual Period, without additional payment or return of any premium. 2. Notwithstanding paragraph (3) of Definition III. V of the Policy, where separate Occurrences pursuant to such paragraph (3), except for the thirty (30) day limitation would otherwise be a single Occurrence under paragraph (2) of Definition III. V, then all such separate Occurrences, combined, shall be subject to a limit of liability equal to the largest Aggregate limit of liability stated in Item 2(b) of the Declarations in effect at the time of first notice of any such separate Occurrence pursuant to Article V of this Policy by any Insured.

Notwithstanding Definition M. Inception Date, with respect to the coverage provided by this endorsement, the Inception Date shall be the effective date of this endorsement. Great American Insurance Company of New York EXC 9252949
January 1, 2007 to January 1, 2007

Dear Jim,

We enclose the above Great American binder. This is a new placement to us as last year you were covered under your parent's excess program. This binder covers your liability for Bodily Injury and Property Damage arising out of an occurrence that takes place during the policy period. This policy follows form of the National Union Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh number 9834564 and shares the layer with Starr Excess Liability Insurance International. This policy does not follow form of the Sunrise endorsement on the National Union policy. This means that there is a gap in retro coverage for the period 10/1/1986 until 1/1/2007 for any occurrence that happened but claim was not yet made to your current carriers. It is our understanding that your coverage excess of 50 million euros for the 1/1/2006 to 1/1/2007 period was on an occurrence reported form with a retro date of 1/1/1986, which creates this gap. You should make sure that all claims that occurred prior to the inception of this policy 1/1/2007 are reported immediately to your parent's policies.

For coverage to be triggered under this endorsement you need to know about its commencement within 20 days and report it in writing to the insurance company within 80 days. Please also note the Employee Benefits Liability Endorsement in the followed policy is written on a claims made basis. This means that for coverage a claim must be made during the policy period.

The explanation of the reporting provisions of your policy has been provided in order to assist you in understanding and complying with the policy's requirements as applied to the reporting of a specific claim, loss, occurrence, incident, offense or lawsuit, the actual policy wording, which is the contract between you and the insurer, and not Marsh's explanation of that language, will be controlling. COMMERCIAL LIABILITY UMBRELLA COVERAGE FORM Various provisions in this policy restrict coverage. Read the entire policy carefully to determine rights, duties and what is and is not covered.

Throughout this policy the words "you" and "your" refer to the Named Insured shown in the Declarations, and any other person or organization qualifying as a Named Insured under this policy. The words "we", "us" and "our" refer to the company providing this insurance.

The word "insured" means any person or organization qualifying as such under Section II – Who Is An Insured.

Other words and phrases that appear in quotation marks have special meaning. Refer to Section V –Definitions.

SECTION I – COVERAGES

COVERAGE A – BODILY INJURY AND PROPERTY DAMAGE LIABILITY

1. Insuring Agreement

a. We will pay on behalf of the insured the "ultimate net loss" in excess of the "retained limit" because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance applies. We will have the right and duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for such "bodily injury" or "property damage" when the "underlying insurance" does not provide coverage or the limits of "underlying insurance" have been exhausted. When we have no duty to defend, we will have the right to defend, or to participate in the defense of, the insured against any other "suit" seeking damages to which this insurance may apply. However, we will have no duty to defend the insured against any "suit" seeking damages for "bodily injury" or "property damage" to which this insurance does not apply. At our discretion, we may investigate any "occurrence" that may involve this insurance and settle any resultant claim or "suit", for which we have the duty to defend. But:

(1) The amount we will pay for the "ultimate net loss" is limited as described in Section III – Limits Of Insurance; and

(2) Our right and duty to defend ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments or settlements under Coverages A or B.

No other obligation or liability to pay sums or perform acts or services is covered unless explicitly provided for under Supplementary Payments – Coverages A and B.

b. This insurance applies to "bodily injury" and "property damage" only if:

(1) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" is caused by an "occurrence" that takes place in the "coverage territory";

(2) The "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs during the policy period; and

(3) Prior to the policy period, no insured listed under Paragraph 1. of Section II – Who Is An Insured and no "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim, knew that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" had occurred, in whole or in part. If such a listed insured or authorized "employee" knew, prior to the policy period, that the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurred, then any continuation, change or resumption of such "bodily injury" or "property damage" during or after the policy period will be deemed to have been known prior to the policy period.

c. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" which occurs during the policy period and was not, prior to the policy period, known to have occurred by any insured listed under Paragraph 1. of Section II – Who Is An Insured or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim, includes any continuation, change or resumption of that "bodily injury" or "property damage" after the end of the policy period.

d. "Bodily injury" or "property damage" will be deemed to have been known to have occurred at the earliest time when any insured listed under Paragraph 1. of Section II – Who Is An Insured or any "employee" authorized by you to give or receive notice of an "occurrence" or claim:

(1) Reports all, or any part, of the "bodily injury" or "property damage" to us or any other insurer;

(2) Receives a written or verbal demand or claim for damages because of the "bodily injury" or "property damage"; or

 © ISO Properties, Inc., 2003 □

(3) Becomes aware by any other means that "bodily injury" or "property damage" has occurred or has begun to occur.

e. Damages because of "bodily injury" include damages claimed by any person or organization for care, loss of services or death resulting at any time from the "bodily injury".

2. Exclusions

This insurance does not apply to:

a. Expected Or Intended Injury

"Bodily injury" or "property damage" expected or intended from the standpoint of the insured. This exclusion does not apply to "bodily injury" resulting from the use of reasonable force to protect persons or property.

(2) Assumed in a contract or agreement that is an "insured contract", provided the "bodily injury" or "property damage" occurs subsequent to the execution of the contract or agreement. Solely for the purposes of liability assumed in an "insured contract", reasonable attorney fees and necessary litigation expenses incurred by or for a party other than an insured are deemed to be damages because of "bodily injury" or "property damage", provided:

(a) Liability to such party for, or for the cost of, that party's defense has also been assumed in the same "insured contract"; and

(b) Such attorney fees and litigation expenses are for defense of that party against a civil or alternative dispute resolution proceeding in which damages to which this insurance applies are alleged.

(3) Any statute, ordinance or regulation relating to the sale, gift, distribution or use of alcoholic beverages.

This exclusion applies only if you are in the business of manufacturing, distributing, selling, serving or furnishing alcoholic beverages.

This exclusion does not apply to the extent that valid "underlying insurance" for the liquor liability risks described above exists or would have existed but for the exhaustion of underlying limits for "bodily injury" and "property damage". (2) Any loss, cost or expense payable under or resulting from any first party physical damage coverage; no-fault law; personal injury protection or auto medical payments coverage; or uninsured or underinsured motorist law.

g. Employer's Liability

(1) An "employee" of the insured arising out of and in the course of:

(a) Employment by the insured; or

(b) Performing duties related to the conduct of the insured's business; or

(2) The spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that "employee" as a consequence of Paragraph (1) above.

This exclusion applies whether the insured may be liable as an employer or in any other capacity, and to any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury.

© ISO Properties, Inc., 2003

This exclusion does not apply to liability assumed by the insured under an "insured contract".

With respect to injury arising out of a "covered auto", this exclusion does not apply to "bodily injury" to domestic "employees" not entitled to workers' compensation benefits. Coverage provided will follow the provisions, exclusions and limitations of the "underlying insurance".

d. All reasonable expenses incurred by the insured at our request to assist us in the investigation or defense of the claim or "suit", including actual loss of earnings up to $250 a day because of time off from work.

e. All costs taxed against the insured in the "suit".

g. All interest on the full amount of any judgment that accrues after entry of the judgment and before we have paid, offered to pay, or deposited in court the part of the judgment that is within the applicable limit of insurance.

These payments will not reduce the limits of insurance.

2. When we have the right but not the duty to defend the insured and elect to participate in the defense, we will pay our own expenses but will not contribute to the expenses of the insured or the "underlying insurer".

3. If we defend an insured against a "suit" and an indemnitee of the insured is also named as a party to the "suit", we will defend that indemnitee if all of the following conditions are met:

   a. The "suit" against the indemnitee seeks damages for which the insured has assumed the liability of the indemnitee in a contract or agreement that is an "insured contract";

   b. This insurance applies to such liability assumed by the insured;

   c. The obligation to defend, or the cost of the defense of, that indemnitee, has also been assumed by the insured in the same "insured contract";

   d. The allegations in the "suit" and the information we know about the "occurrence" are such that no conflict appears to exist between the interests of the insured and the interests of the indemnitee;

   e. The indemnitee and the insured ask us to conduct and control the defense of that indemnitee against such "suit" and agree that we can assign the same counsel to defend the insured and the indemnitee; and

   f. The indemnitee:

      (1) Agrees in writing to:

         (a) Cooperate with us in the investigation, settlement or defense of the "suit";

         (b) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the "suit";

         (c) Notify any other insurer whose coverage is available to the indemnitee; and

         (a) Obtain records and other information related to the "suit"; and

   So long as the above conditions are met, attorneys' fees incurred by us in the defense of that indemnitee, necessary litigation expenses incurred by us and necessary litigation expenses incurred by the indemnitee at our request will be paid as Supplementary Payments. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 2.b.(2) of Section I – Coverage A – Bodily Injury And Property Damage Liability, such payments will not be deemed to be damages for "bodily injury" and "property damage" and will not reduce the limits of insurance.

   Our obligation to defend an insured's indemnitee and to pay for attorneys' fees and necessary litigation expenses as Supplementary Payments ends when we have used up the applicable limit of insurance in the payment of judgments, or settlements, or the conditions set forth above, or the terms of the agreement described in Paragraph f. above, are no longer met.

SECTION II – WHO IS AN INSURED

1. Except for liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of "covered autos":

      (1) An individual, you and your spouse are insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of a business of which you are the sole owner.

      (2) A partnership or joint venture, you are an insured. Your members, your partners, and their spouses are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business.

      (3) A limited liability company, you are an insured. Your members are also insureds, but only with respect to the conduct of your business. Your managers are insureds, but only with respect to their duties as your managers.

b. Each of the following is also an insured:

(1) Your "volunteer workers" only while performing duties related to the conduct of your business, your "employees", other than either your "executive officers" (if you are an organization other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company) or your managers (if you are a limited liability company), but only for acts within the scope of their employment by you or while performing duties related to the conduct of your business. However, none of these "employees" or "volunteer workers" are insureds for:

(a) "Bodily injury" or "personal and advertising injury":

(i) To you, to your partners or members (if you are a partnership or joint venture), to your members (if you are a limited liability company), to a co-"employee" in the course of his or her employment or performing duties related to the conduct of your business or to your other "volunteer workers" while performing duties related to the conduct of your business;

(ii) To the spouse, child, parent, brother or sister of that co-"employee" or "volunteer worker" as a consequence of Paragraph (a)(i) above; or

(iii) For which there is any obligation to share damages with or repay someone else who must pay damages because of the injury described in Paragraphs (a)(i) or (ii) above.

(b) "Property damage" to property:

(i) Owned, occupied or used by,

(ii) Rented to, in the care, custody or control of, or over which physical control is being exercised for any purpose by you, any of your "employees", "volunteer workers", any partner or member (if you are a partnership or joint venture), or any member (if you are a limited liability company).

(2) Any person (other than your "employee" or "volunteer worker"), or any organization while acting as your real estate manager.

(3) Any person or organization having proper temporary custody of your property if you die, but only:

(a) With respect to liability arising out of the maintenance or use of that property; and

(b) Until your legal representative has been appointed.

(4) Your legal representative if you die, but only with respect to duties as such. That representative will have all your rights and duties under this Coverage Part.

c. Any organization you newly acquire or form, other than a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company, and over which you maintain ownership or majority interest, will qualify as a Named Insured if there is no other similar insurance available to that organization. However:

(1) Coverage under this provision is afforded only until the 90th day after you acquire or form the organization or the end of the policy period, whichever is earlier;

(2) Coverage A does not apply to "bodily injury" or "property damage" that occurred before you acquired or formed the organization; and

(3) Coverage B does not apply to "personal and advertising injury" arising out of an offense committed before you acquired or formed the organization.

2. Only with respect to liability arising out of the ownership, maintenance, or use of "covered autos":

a. You are an insured.

b. Anyone else while using with your permission a "covered auto" you own, hire, or borrow is also an insured except:

(1) The owner or anyone else from whom you hire or borrow a "covered auto". This exception does not apply if the "covered auto" is a trailer or semi-trailer connected to a "covered auto" you own.

(2) Your "employee" if the "covered auto" is owned by that "employee" or a member of his or her household.

(3) Someone using a "covered auto" while he or she is working in a business of selling, servicing, repairing, parking or storing "autos" unless that business is yours.

(4) Anyone other than your "employees", partners (if you are a partnership), members (if you are a limited liability company), or a lessee or borrower or any of their "employees", while moving property to or from a "covered auto".

(5) A partner (if you are a partnership), or a member (if you are a limited liability company) for a "covered auto" owned by him or her or a member of his or her household.

(6) "Employees" with respect to "bodily injury" to any fellow "employee" of the insured arising out of and in the course of the fellow "employee's" employment or while performing duties related to the conduct of your business.

c. Anyone liable for the conduct of an insured described above is also an insured, but only to the extent of that liability.

3. Any additional insured under any policy of "underlying insurance" will automatically be an insured under this insurance.

If coverage provided to the additional insured is required by a contract or agreement, the most we will pay on behalf of the additional insured is the amount of insurance required by the contract, less any amounts payable by any "underlying insurance".

Additional insured coverage provided by this insurance will not be broader than coverage provided by the "underlying insurance".

No person or organization is an insured with respect to the conduct of any current or past partnership, joint venture or limited liability company that is not shown as a Named Insured in the Declarations.

SECTION III – LIMITS OF INSURANCE

1. The Limits of Insurance shown in the Declarations and the rules below fix the most we will pay regardless of the number of:
   a. Insureds;
   b. Claims made, "suits" brought, or number of vehicles involved; or
   c. Persons or organizations making claims or bringing "suits".
2. The Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of all "ultimate net loss" under:
   a. Coverage A, except "ultimate net loss" because of "bodily injury" or "property damage" arising out of the ownership, maintenance or use of a "covered auto"; and
   b. Coverage B.
3. Subject to 2. above, the Each Occurrence Limit is the most we will pay for the sum of all "ultimate net loss" under Coverage A because of all "bodily injury" and "property damage" arising out of any one "occurrence".
4. Subject to 2. above, the Personal and Advertising Injury Limit is the most we will pay under Coverage B for the sum of all "ultimate net loss" because of all "personal and advertising injury" sustained by any one person or organization.

The Aggregate Limit, as described in Paragraph 2. above, applies separately to each consecutive annual period and to any remaining period of less than 12 months, starting with the beginning of the policy period shown in the Declarations, unless the policy period is extended after issuance for an additional period of less than 12 months. In that case, the additional period will be deemed part of the last preceding period for purposes of determining the Limits of Insurance.

SECTION IV – CONDITIONS

1. Appeals

   If the "underlying insurer" or insured elects not to appeal a judgment in excess of the "retained limit", we may do so at our own expense. We will be liable for taxable costs, pre- and postjudgment interest and disbursements.

2. Bankruptcy
   a. Bankruptcy Of Insured

      Bankruptcy or insolvency of the insured or of the insured's estate will not relieve us of our obligations under this Coverage Part.

   b. Bankruptcy Of Underlying Insurer

      Bankruptcy of the "underlying insurer" will not relieve us of our obligations under this Coverage Part.

   However, this insurance will not replace the "underlying insurance" in the event of bankruptcy or insolvency of the "underlying insurer". This insurance will apply as if the "underlying insurance" were in full effect.

3. Duties In The Event Of Occurrence, Offense, Claim Or Suit
   a. You must see to it that we are notified as soon as practicable of an "occurrence" or an offense, regardless of the amount, which may result in a claim. To the extent possible, notice should include:
      (1) How, when and where the "occurrence" or offense took place;
      (2) The names and addresses of any injured persons and witnesses; and
      (3) The nature and location of any injury or damage arising out of the "occurrence" or offense.
   b. If a claim is made or "suit" is brought against any insured, you must:
      (1) Immediately record the specifics of the claim or "suit" and the date received; and
      (2) Notify us as soon as practicable.

      You must see to it that we receive written notice of the claim or "suit" as soon as practicable.

© ISO Properties, Inc., 2003

c. You and any other involved insured must:

(1) Immediately send us copies of any demands, notices, summonses or legal papers received in connection with the claim or "suit";

(2) Authorize us to obtain records and other information;

(3) Cooperate with us in the investigation or settlement of the claim or defense against the "suit"; and

(4) Assist us, upon our request, in the enforcement of any right against any person or organization which may be liable to the insured because of injury or damage to which this insurance may also apply.

d. No insured will, except at that insured's own cost, voluntarily make a payment, assume any obligation, or incur any expense, other than for first aid, without our consent.

4. Legal Action Against Us

No person or organization has a right under this Coverage Part:

a. To join us as a party or otherwise bring us into a "suit" asking for damages from an insured; or

b. To sue us on this Coverage Part unless all of its terms have been fully complied with.

A person or organization may sue us to recover on an agreed settlement or on a final judgment against an insured; but we will not be liable for damages that are not payable under the terms of this Coverage Part or that are in excess of the applicable limit of insurance. An agreed settlement means a settlement and release of liability signed by us, the insured and the claimant or the claimant's legal representative.

5. Other Insurance

a. This insurance is excess over, and shall not contribute with any of the other insurance, whether primary, excess, contingent or on any other basis. This condition will not apply to insurance specifically written as excess over this Coverage Part.

When this insurance is excess, we will have no duty under Coverage A or B to defend the insured against any "suit" if any other insurer has a duty to defend the insured against that "suit". If no other insurer defends, we will undertake to do so, but we will be entitled to the insured's rights against all those other insurers.

b. When this insurance is excess over other insurance, we will pay only our share of the "ultimate net loss" that exceeds the sum of:

(1) The total amount that all such other insurance would pay for the loss in the absence of this insurance; and

(2) The total of all deductible and self-insured amounts under all that other insurance.

6. Premium Audit

a. We will compute all premiums for this Coverage Part in accordance with our rules and rates.

b. Premium shown in this Coverage Part as advance premium is a deposit premium only. At the close of each audit period we will compute the earned premium for that period and send notice to the first Named Insured. The due date for audit and retrospective premiums is the date shown as the due date on the bill. If the sum of the advance and audit premiums paid for the policy period is greater than the earned premium, we will return the excess to the first Named Insured.

c. The first Named Insured must keep records of the information we need for premium computation, and send us copies at such times as we may request.

7. Representations Or Fraud

By accepting this policy, you agree:

a. The statements in the Declarations are accurate and complete;

b. Those statements are based upon representations you made to us;

c. We have issued this policy in reliance upon your representations; and

d. This policy is void in any case of fraud by you as it relates to this policy or any claim under this policy.

8. Separation Of Insureds

Except with respect to the Limits of Insurance, and any rights or duties specifically assigned in this Coverage Part to the first Named Insured, this insurance applies:

a. As if each Named Insured were the only Named Insured; and

b. Separately to each insured against whom claim is made or "suit" is brought.

9. Transfer Of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us

If the insured has rights to recover all or part of any payment we have made under this Coverage Part, those rights are transferred to us. The insured must do nothing after loss to impair them. At our request, the insured will bring "suit" or transfer those rights to us and help us enforce them.

10. When We Do Not Renew

If we decide not to renew this Coverage Part, we will mail or deliver to the first Named Insured shown in the Declarations written notice of the nonrenewal not less than 30 days before the expiration date.

If notice is mailed, proof of mailing will be sufficient proof of notice.

11. Loss Payable

Liability under this Coverage Part shall not apply unless and until the insured or insured's "underlying insurer" has become obligated to pay the "retained limit". Such obligation by the insured to pay part of the "ultimate net loss" shall have been previously determined by a final settlement or judgment after an actual trial or written agreement between the insured, claimant, and us.

12. Transfer Of Defense

When the underlying limits of insurance have been used up in the payment of judgments or settlements, the duty to defend will be transferred to us. We will cooperate in the transfer of control to us of any outstanding claims or "suits" seeking damages to which this insurance applies which would have been covered by the "underlying insurance" had the applicable limit not been used up.

13. Maintenance Of Underlying Insurance

The "underlying insurance" listed in the schedule of "underlying insurance" in the declarations shall remain in full effect throughout the policy period except for reduction of the aggregate limit due to payment of claims, settlement, or judgments.

Failure to maintain "underlying insurance" will not invalidate this insurance. However, this insurance will apply as if the "underlying insurance" were in full effect.

You must notify us as soon as practicable when any "underlying insurance" is no longer in effect.

14. Expanded Coverage Territory

a. If a "suit" is brought in a part of the "coverage territory" that is outside the United States of America (including its territories and possessions), Puerto Rico or Canada, and we are prevented by law, or otherwise, from defending the insured, the insured will initiate a defense of the "suit". We will reimburse the insured, under Supplementary Payments, for any reasonable and necessary expenses incurred for the defense of a "suit" seeking damages to which this insurance applies, that we would have paid had we been able to exercise our right and duty to defend.

   If the insured becomes legally obligated to pay sums because of damages to which this insurance applies in a part of the "coverage territory" that is outside the United States of America (including its territories and possessions), Puerto Rico or Canada, and we are prevented by law, or otherwise, from paying such sums on the insured's behalf, we will reimburse the insured for such sums.

b. All payments or reimbursements we make for damages because of judgments or settlements will be made in U.S. currency at the prevailing exchange rate at the time the insured became legally obligated to pay such sums. All payments or reimbursements we make for expenses under Supplementary Payments will be made in U.S. currency at the prevailing exchange rate at the time the expenses were incurred.

c. Any disputes between you and us as to whether there is coverage under this policy must be filed in the courts of the United States of America (including its territories and possessions), Canada or Puerto Rico.

d. The insured must fully maintain any coverage required by law, regulation or other governmental authority during the policy period, except for reduction of the aggregate limits due to payments of claims, judgments or settlements.

   Failure to maintain such coverage required by law, regulation or other governmental authority will not invalidate this insurance. However, this insurance will apply as if the required coverage by law, regulation or other governmental authority was in full effect.

NAMED PERIL AND TIME ELEMENT POLLUTION
Self-Insured Retention Endorsement
(Products-Completed Operations Hazard Version)

This policy is amended as follows:

Section I – Coverage A, paragraph 2.(i) Pollution is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

i. Pollution

This insurance does not apply to:

2. Any loss, cost or expense arising out of any request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement that the Insured or others test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of Pollutants; or

3. Any loss, cost or expense arising out of any claim or Suit by or on behalf of a governmental authority for damages because of tasting for, monitoring, cleaning up, removing, containing, treating, detoxifying or neutralizing, or in any way responding to, or assessing the effects of Pollutants.

However, Paragraph 1 of this exclusion will not apply to Bodily Injury or Property Damage arising out of:

1. Any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants directly or indirectly caused by fire, explosion, lighting, windstorm, vandalism or malicious mischief, riot or civil commotion, flood, earthquake, automatic sprinkler leakage, collision or upset of an Auto or Mobile Equipment or aircraft; or

II. Any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants and included within the Products-Completed Operations Hazard provided that Your Product or Your Work has not at any time been:

(a) discarded, dumped, abandoned, thrown away; or

(b) transported, handled, stored, treated, disposed of or processed as wastel

by anyone; or

III. Any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants that meets all of the following conditions:

(a) It was accidental and neither expected nor intended by the Insured. This condition would not serve to deny coverage for a non-routine incident where such discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of pollutants was a result of an attempt by the Insured to mitigate or avoid a situation where substantial third party Bodily Injury or Property damage could occur;

(b) It was demonstrable as having commenced on a specific date during the Policy Period;

(c) Its commencement became known to the Insured within twenty (20) calendar days;

(d) Its commencement was reported in writing to us within eighty (80) calendar days of becoming known to any officer of the Insured; any manager in your risk management, Insurance or legal department; any employee who was authorized by you to give or receive notice of an Occurrence, claim or Suit; or any Insured authorized or responsible to report the commencement; and

(e) Reasonable effort was expended by the Insured to terminate the discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants as soon as conditions permitted.

However, nothing contained in this endorsement will operate to provide any coverage with respect to:

i. Any site or location, principally used by the Insured, or by others on the Insured's behalf, for the handling, storage, disposal, dumping, processing or treatment of waste material;

ii. Any fines or penalties;

iii. Any clean up loss, cost or expense arising out of any governmental request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement. However, this provision iii will not apply to third party clean up loss, cost or expense otherwise covered by this endorsement that are also the subject of a governmental request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement;

iv. Acid rain or acid runoff;

v. Clean-up, removal, containment, treatment, detoxification or neutralization of Pollutants situated on premises which the Insured owns, rents or occupies at the time of the actual discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of said Pollutants; or

vi. Any Bodily Injury, Property Damage or Personal Injury and Advertising Injury, or any loss, cost or expense arising out of any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants in knowing violation of or non compliance with governmental permits.

For the purpose of this endorsement only, the SELF-INSURED RETENTION on the DECLARATIONS is amended to include the following additional provision:

$1,000,000 Each Occurrence (As respects all damages arising out of any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants covered under this endorsement). This Self-Insured Retention will not be reduced by Defense Expenses.

The above Self-Insured Retention applies whether or not there is any available Scheduled Underlying Insured or Other Insurance. If there is Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance applicable to a Loss, amounts received through such Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance for payment of the Loss may be applied to reduce or exhaust the above Self-Insured Retention if such policies were purchased by the Named Insured to specifically apply as underlying insurance to this policy. However, in no event will amount received through such Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance for the payment of Defense Expenses reduce the above Self-Insured Retention.

For the purpose of this endorsement only, Defense Provisions are deleted in their entirety and replaced by the following:

We will have no duty to defend any Suit against the Insured until the above Self-Insured Retention is exhausted by payment of Loss. We will, however, have the right, but not the duty, to participate in the defense of any Suit, and the investigation of any claim to which this endorsement may apply. If we exercise this right, we will do so at our own expense.

For purpose of this endorsement only, SECTION V – DEFINITIONS is amended to include the following additional definition:

Defense Expenses means a payment allocated to defend a specific Suit, including but not limited:

1. Attorney's fees and all other investigation, loss adjustment and litigation expenses;
2. Premiums on bonds to release attachments;
3. Premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or Suit;
4. Court costs taxed against the Insured in any Suit;
5. Pre-judgment interest awarded against the Insured; and
6. Interest that accrues after entry of judgment

All other terms, definitions, conditions and exclusions of this policy remain unchanged.

- LIMITS. OF INS. AMEND. ENDT. DEL. OF PARA. E., Form #86460 (08/04)
- UREA FORMALDEHYDE EXCLUSION ENDORSEMENT, Form #MNSCP (12/06)

You are hereby notified that under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the "Act") effective November 26, 2002, you now have a right to purchase insurance coverage for losses arising out of an Act of Terrorism, which is defined in the Act as an act certified by the Secretary of the Treasury (i) to be an act of terrorism, (ii) to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to (A) human life; (B) property or (C) infrastructure, (iii) to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in case of an air carrier or vessel or the premises of a U.S. mission and (iv) to have been committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. You should read the Act for a complete description of its coverage. The Secretary's decision to certify or not to certify an event as an Act of Terrorism and thus covered by this law is final and not subject to review. There is a $100 billion dollar annual cap on all losses resulting from Acts of Terrorism above which no coverage will be provided under this policy and under the Act unless Congress makes some other determination.

For your information, coverage provided under this proposal or binder for losses caused by an Act of Terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States under a formula established by the Act. Under this formula the United States pays 90% of terrorism losses covered by this law exceeding a statutorily established deductible that must be met by the insurer, and which deductible is based on a percentage of the insurer's direct earned premiums for the year preceeding the Act of Terrorism.

The coverage offered includes a premium charge for Terrorism of $9,996.00 that is included in the total premium above.

If your policy is subject to premium audit, the charge for TRIA coverage will also be subject to that adjustment.

This binder letter is predicated upon the understanding that the submitted information is accurate, the Loss information includes total incurred losses ground up and that the losses have not been capped. The terms and Conditions of this acceptance of risk of Umbrella or Excess coverage may be amended should there be discovery of a material change to the submitted information.

This binder contains only a general description of coverages provided. For a detailed description of the terms of a policy, you must refer to the policy itself.

* IMPORTANT - POLICY ISSUANCE VERIFICATION*

Our policy will be issued based upon the information displayed in this document. We ask that you thoroughly review this information (including the Name Insured and Address) to ensure it is correct. Your careful review, and timely advice if correction is needed, will help us to provide you with an accurate policy at time of issuance.

This binder includes certain information regarding the terms and conditions of the policy. If there is any conflict between the terms and conditions stated in this binder and the terms and conditions of the policy when issued, the terms and conditions of the policy shall govern.

Retained Limit Amendatory Endorsement

This policy is amended as follows:

Solely as respects coverages listed in the Schedule of Retained Limits, the following shall apply:

1. The DECLARATIONS, ITEM 5. SELF INSURED RETENTION is deleted in its entirety.
2. Section IV. LIMITS OF INSURANCE, Paragraphs B., G., H. and M. are deleted in their entireties and replaced by the following:

   B. The General Aggregate Limit is the most we will pay for all damages covered under this policy except:

      1. Damages included within the Products-Completed Operations Hazard; and

      2. Damages because of Bodily Injury or Property Damage to which this insurance applies, caused by an Occurrence and resulting from the ownership, maintenance or use of an Auto.

   G. If the total applicable Retained Limit(s) listed in the Schedule of Retained Limits are reduced or exhausted by payment of Loss to which this policy applies, we will:

      1. in the event of reduction, pay in excess of the remaining underlying Retained Limits; or

      2. in the event of exhaustion of the underlying Retained Limits, continue in force as underlying insurance.

   H. Defense Expenses will be in addition to the applicable Limits of Insurance of this policy. Provided, however, that if the amount of applicable Retained Limit over which this policy applies immediately in excess is specifically designated in the Schedule of Retained Limits as including Defense Expenses, then solely with respect to coverage afforded by this policy that is subject to such Retained Limit, such Defense Expenses will reduce the applicable Limits of Insurance of this policy.

   M. We will not make any payment under this policy unless and until the total applicable Retained Limit(s) and any applicable Other Insurance have been exhausted by the payment of Loss to which this policy applies.

      When the amount of Loss has been determined by an agreed settlement or a final judgment, we will promptly pay on behalf of the Insured the amount of such Loss falling within the terms of this policy. An agreed settlement means a settlement and release of liability signed by us, the Insured and the claimant or the claimant's legal representative.

3. Section III. DEFENSE PROVISIONS, Paragraph A. is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

   III. DEFENSE PROVISIONS

A. We will have the right and duty to defend any Suit against the Insured that seeks damages for Bodily Injury, Property Damage or Personal Injury and Advertising Injury covered by this policy, even if the Suit is groundless, false or fraudulent when the applicable limits listed in the Schedule of Retained Limits have been exhausted by payment of Loss to which this policy applies.

If we are prevented by law or statute from assuming the obligations specified under this provision, we will pay any expenses incurred with our consent.

4. Section V. EXCLUSIONS, Paragraphs I. and M. are deleted in their entireties, unless amended by separate endorsement to provide otherwise.

5. Section V. EXCLUSIONS, Paragraph Q. is amended as follows:

The last two sentences of Paragraph Q. are deleted and the clause "However, Paragraph 1 of this exclusion will not apply if coverage for such Bodily Injury or Property Damage as is described in subparagraphs 1) through 6) below is provided by Scheduled Underlying Insurance:", is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

However, this exclusion will not apply as described in subparagraphs 1) through 6) below:

provided, however, that the above amendments to Section V. EXCLUSIONS, Paragraph Q., do not apply if a separate endorsement attached to this policy deletes and replaces Section V. EXCLUSIONS, Paragraph Q.

6. Section VII. DEFINITIONS is amended to include the following additional definition:

Defense Expenses mean payment(s) allocated to the investigation, settlement or defense of a specific loss, claim or Suit, including but not limited to:

1. Attorney's fees and all other investigation, loss adjustment and litigation expenses;
2. Premiums on bonds to release attachments;
3. Premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or Suit;
4. Costs taxed against the Insured in any claim or Suit;

8. Any person or organization to whom you become obligated to include as an additional insured under this policy, as a result of any contract or agreement you enter into which requires you to furnish insurance to that person or organization of the type provided by this policy, but only with respect to liability arising out of your operations, including Your Work and Your Product, or premises owned by or rented to you. However, the insurance provided will not exceed the lesser of:

   a. The coverages and Limits of Insurance of this policy, or

   b. The coverage and Limits of Insurance required by said contract or agreement.

However, no such person or organization is an Insured by virtue of this provision 8. of this Paragraph M. of Section VII. if such person or organization is a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company of which the Named Insured is a partner or member, or is a partner or member of such partnership, joint venture or limited liability company.

9. Section VII. DEFINITIONS, the phrase "Notwithstanding any of the above:" and subparagraphs a. and b. thereunder appearing at the end of Paragraph M. are deleted in their entireties and replaced by the following:

   Notwithstanding any of the above provisions 1. through 7. of this Paragraph M. of Section VII., no person or organization is an Insured with respect to the conduct of any current, past or newly formed partnership, joint venture or limited liability company that is not designated as a Named Insured in Item 1 of the Declarations.

10. Section VII. DEFINITIONS, Paragraph P. is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

    P. Loss means those sums actually paid as judgments or settlements, provided, however, that if the applicable Retained Limit is specifically designated in the Schedule of Retained Limits as including Defense Expenses, then Loss shall include such Defense Expenses.

11. Section VII. DEFINITIONS, Paragraph R. is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

    R. Named Insured means:

    1. any person or organization designated in Item 1 of the Declarations;

    2. as of the inception date of this policy, any organization in which you maintain an interest of more than fifty percent (50%) as of the effective date of this policy, provided that coverage provided to such organization under this paragraph does not apply to any Bodily Injury or Property Damage that occurred or any Personal Injury and Advertising Injury that was caused by an Occurrence that was committed before you acquired or formed such organization or after you ceased to maintain an interest of more than fifty percent (50%) in such organization; and

    3. after the inception date of this policy, any organization, except for a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company, that you acquire or form during the Policy Period in which you maintain an interest of more than fifty percent (50%), provided that:

       a. coverage provided to such organization under this paragraph does not apply to any Bodily Injury or Property Damage that occurred or any Personal Injury and Advertising Injury that was caused by an Occurrence that was committed before you acquired or formed such organization or after you ceased to maintain an interest of more than fifty percent (50%) in such organization; and

       b. you give us prompt notice after you acquire or form such organization.

    Subject to the provisions of Paragraphs 3a. and 3b. above, a partnership, joint venture or limited liability company that you acquire or form during the Policy Period may be added as an Insured only by a written endorsement that we make a part of this policy.

    We may, at our option, make an additional premium charge for any organization that you acquire or form during the Policy Period.

12. Section VII. DEFINITIONS, Paragraph Z. is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

    Z. Retained Limit means the applicable limit(s) listed in the Schedule of Retained Limits.

    The Retained Limit(s) listed in the Schedule of Retained Limits will apply whether or not there is any available Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance. If there is Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance applicable to a Loss, amounts received through such Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance for payment of the Loss may be applied to reduce or exhaust the Retained Limit. Furthermore:

    a. If the applicable Retained Limit is specifically designated in the Schedule of Retained Limits as including Defense Expenses, then amounts received through Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance providing coverage to the Insured for the payment of Defense Expenses shall reduce the Retained Limit.

b. If the applicable Retained Limit is not specifically designated in the Schedule of Retained Limits as including Defense Expenses, then amounts received through Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance providing coverage to the Insured for the payment of Defense Expenses shall not reduce the Retained Limit.

13. Section VI. CONDITIONS, Paragraphs A. and C. are deleted in their entireties and replaced by the following:

A. Appeals

If the Insured or the Insured's underlying insurers do not appeal a judgment in excess of the total applicable Retained Limit(s), we may elect to do so. If we appeal, we will be liable for, in addition to the applicable Limits of Insurance of this policy, all court costs, expenses incurred and interest on that amount of any judgment which does not exceed the applicable Limits of Insurance of this policy incidental to such an appeal.

C. Bankruptcy or Insolvency

Your bankruptcy, insolvency or inability to pay or the bankruptcy, insolvency or inability to pay of any of your underlying insurers will not relieve us from the payment of Loss covered by this policy. But under no circumstances will such bankruptcy, insolvency or inability to pay require us to drop down, replace or assume any obligation within a Retained Limit.

14. If another endorsement attached to this policy states specifically that the provisions therein supercede any other terms, definitions, conditions, and exclusions of any language in this policy or its endorsements, then the provisions of such other endorsement apply irrespective of anything to the contrary in the provisions of this endorsement. In all other cases, the provisions of this endorsement apply notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the other terms, definitions, conditions, and exclusions terms and conditions of this policy.

All other terms, definitions, conditions and exclusions remain unchanged.

6) the Insured's expenses incurred at our request or with our consent.

4. Except as provided in Paragraph 1. above, we will have no duty to defend any Suit against the Insured. We will, however, have the right, but not the duty, to participate in the defense of any Suit and the investigation of any claim to which this policy may apply. If we exercise this right, we will do so at our own expense.

5. We will not defend any Suit, or pay any attorney fees or litigation expenses including, without limitation, the expenses described in Paragraph 3. above that accrue after the applicable Limits of Insurance of this policy have been exhausted by the payment of Loss and we will have the right to withdraw from the further defense of such Suit by tendering control of said defense to the Insured.

LIMITS OF INSURANCE

Solely for the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Section IV. LIMITS OF INSURANCE is amended to include the following additional provisions:

1. Regardless of the number of covered Autos, Insureds, premiums paid, claims made or vehicles involved in the Occurrence, the most we will pay for all damages resulting from any one Occurrence are the Limits of Insurance shown in Item 3. of the Declarations (as amended in this endorsement).

2. With respect to coverage provided under Paragraph 4.b. of the definition of Uninsured Motor Vehicle, the Limit of Insurance shall be reduced by all sums paid for Bodily Injury or Property Damage by or on behalf of anyone who is legally responsible.

3. Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit

   This policy applies only in excess of an Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit and then up to an amount not exceeding the Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Each Occurrence Limit as stated in the Declarations (as amended in this endorsement), subject to the provisions stated in 1. and 2. above.

   This Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit shall not be reduced or exhausted by Defense Expenses.

   This Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit shall apply whether or not the Insured maintains applicable underlying insurance. If there is Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance providing coverage to the Insured applicable to a Loss, amounts received through Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance providing coverage to the Insured for payment of the Loss may be applied to reduce or exhaust the Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit. However, in no event will amounts received through Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance providing coverage to the Insured for the payment of Defense Expenses reduce the Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit.

   Where the Uninsured/Underinsured laws of the state of West Virginia apply, this Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Retained Limit applies excess of the statutory minimum amount of Uninsured Motorists Coverage provided by an underlying insurer.

EXCLUSIONS

Solely for the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Section V. EXCLUSIONS, Exclusion O. is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

O. "No-Fault" Laws

   This insurance does not apply to any obligation of the Insured under any "No Fault" law.

Copyright, Insurance Services Office, Inc., 2000

Solely for the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Section V. EXCLUSIONS is amended to include the following additional exclusions:

1. This insurance does not apply to any claim settled without our consent. However, this exclusion does not apply to a settlement made with the insurer of a vehicle which is an Uninsured Motor Vehicle.

2. This insurance does not apply to the direct or indirect benefit of any insurer or self-insurer under any workers' compensation, disability benefits or similar law.

3. This insurance does not apply to any Insured using a vehicle without a reasonable belief that the person is entitled to do so.

4. This insurance does not apply to Bodily Injury or Property Damage sustained by:

   a. An individual Named Insured while Occupying or when struck by any vehicle owned by that Named Insured that is not a covered Auto for Uninsured Motorists Coverage under this endorsement;

   b. Any Family Member while Occupying or when struck by any vehicle owned by that Family Member that is not a covered Auto for Uninsured Motorists Coverage under this endorsement; or

   c. Any Family Member while Occupying or when struck by any vehicle owned by the Named Insured that is insured for Uninsured Motorists Coverage under any other policy.

5. This insurance does not apply to punitive or exemplary damages.

6. This insurance does not apply to Property Damage to an Auto or to property contained in an Auto owned by the Named Insured which is not a covered Auto.

7. This insurance does not apply to Property Damage for which the Insured has been or is entitled to be compensated by other property or physical damage insurance.

CONDITIONS

L. Other Insurance

Any insurance we provide under this endorsement will be excess to the total limits of any Other Insurance paid or available for payment to an Insured, except other applicable Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage written to be excess of this policy.

If there is other applicable Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage under any other policy issued to the Named Insured by us, the maximum recovery for damages may equal but not exceed the highest applicable limit of insurance under any one policy.

If there is other applicable excess Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage available under more than one policy, then the following priorities of coverage apply:

1. A policy covering as excess, umbrella, or similar insurance, a motor vehicle Occupied by the injured person or a policy covering, as excess, umbrella, or similar insurance, a pedestrian as a Named Insured.

2. A policy covering as excess, umbrella, or similar insurance, a motor vehicle Occupied by the injured person or a policy covering, as excess, umbrella, or similar insurance, a pedestrian as an Insured other than as a Named Insured.

3. A policy not covering a motor vehicle Occupied by the injured person but covering, as excess, umbrella, or similar insurance, the injured person as a Named Insured.

Includes copyrighted material of the Insurance Services Office, Inc., with its permission.
Copyright, Insurance Services Office, Inc., 2000

4. A policy not covering a motor vehicle Occupied by the injured person but covering, as excess, umbrella, or similar insurance, the injured person as an Insured other than as a Named Insured.

We will pay only our share of the Loss that must be paid under insurance providing umbrella or excess coverage. Our share is the proportion that our limit of liability bears to the total of all applicable limits of all the policies applicable on the same level of priority.

Solely for the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Condition G. Duties In the Event of an Occurrence, Claim Or Suit under Section VI. CONDITIONS is amended to include the following additional provisions:

G. Specifically as respects to any Occurrence which may result in a Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist claim for coverage under this policy:

a. You must promptly notify the police if a hit-and-run driver is involved, and

b. You must promptly send us copies of the legal papers if a Suit is brought.

c. A person seeking Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Coverage must also promptly notify us in writing of a tentative settlement between the Insured and the insurer of the vehicle described in Paragraph 4.b. of the definition of Uninsured Motor Vehicle and allow us 90 days to advance payment to that Insured in an amount equal to the tentative settlement to preserve our rights against the insurer, owner or operator of such vehicle described in Paragraph 4.b. of the definition of Uninsured Motor Vehicle.

Solely for the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Condition P. Transfer of Your Rights and Duties under Section VI. CONDITIONS is amended to include the following additional provisions:

P. If we make any payment and the Insured recovers from another party, the Insured shall hold the proceeds in trust for us and pay us back the amount we have paid.

However, where the Uninsured/Underinsured laws of the state of Louisiana apply, if we make any payment under this policy and the person to or for whom payment is made has a right to recover damages from another, we shall be subrogated to that right. However, our right to recover is subordinate to the right of the Insured to be fully compensated.

Our rights do not apply under this provision with respect to Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Coverage if we:

a. Have been given prompt written notice of a tentative settlement between an Insured and the insurer of a vehicle described in Paragraph 4.b. of the definition of Uninsured Motor Vehicle; and

b. Fail to advance payment to the Insured in an amount equal to the tentative settlement within 90 days after receipt of notification.

If we advance payment to the Insured in an amount equal to the tentative settlement within 90 days after receipt of notification:

a. That payment will be separate from any amount the Insured is entitled to recover under the provisions of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorists Coverage; and

b. We also have a right to recover the advanced payment.

For the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Section VI. CONDITIONS is amended to include the following additional conditions:

Arbitration (Not applicable where the Uninsured/Underinsured laws of West Virginia or Louisiana apply)

Copyright, Insurance Services Office, Inc., 2000

1. If we and an Insured disagree whether the Insured is legally entitled to recover damages from the owner or driver of an Uninsured Motor Vehicle or do not agree as to the amount of damages that are recoverable by that Insured, then the matter may be arbitrated. However, disputes concerning coverage under this endorsement may not be arbitrated. Both parties must agree to the arbitration. If so agreed, each party will select an arbitrator. The two arbitrators will select a third. If they cannot agree within 30 days, either may request that selection be made by a judge of a court having jurisdiction. Each party will pay the expenses it incurs and bear the expenses of the third arbitrator equally.

2. Unless both parties agree otherwise, arbitration will take place in the county in which the Insured lives. Local rules of law as to arbitration procedures and evidence will apply. A decision agreed to by two of the arbitrators will be binding.

Conformance to "Uninsured Motorist" and/or "Underinsured Motorist" Law

To the extent any term of this policy conflicts with any applicable Uninsured/Underinsured law, the term shall be deemed amended so as to conform to minimum requirements of that law. However, under no such circumstance shall any term be amended to be broader than the minimum requirements of that law.

DEFINITIONS

Solely for the purpose of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist Coverage provided by this endorsement, Definition M. Insured under Section VII. DEFINITIONS is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

Named Peril and Time Element Pollution
Self-Insured Retention Endorsement
(Products-Completed Operations Hazard Version)

This policy is amended as follows:

Section V. EXCLUSIONS, Paragraph Q. Pollution is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following:

Pollution

This insurance does not apply to:

2. Any loss, cost or expense arising out of any request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement that the Insured or others test for, monitor, clean up, remove, contain, treat, detoxify or neutralize, or in any way respond to, or assess the effects of Pollutants; or

3. Any loss, cost or expense arising out of any claim or Suit by or on behalf of a governmental authority for damages because of testing for, monitoring, cleaning up, removing, containing, treating, detoxifying or neutralizing, or in any way responding to, or assessing the effects of Pollutants.

However, Paragraph 1 of this exclusion will not apply to Bodily Injury or Property Damage arising out of:

i. Any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants directly or indirectly caused by fire, explosion, lightning, windstorm, vandalism or malicious mischief, riot or civil commotion, flood, earthquake, automatic sprinkler leakage, collision or upset of an Auto or Mobile Equipment or aircraft; or

ii. Any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants and included within the Products-Completed Operations Hazard provided that Your Product or Your Work has not at any time been:

(a) discarded, dumped, abandoned, thrown away; or

(b) transported, handled, stored, treated, disposed of or processed as waste;

by anyone; or

iii. Any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants that meets all of the following conditions:

(a) It was accidental and neither expected nor intended by the Insured. This condition would not serve to deny coverage for a non-routine incident where such discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of pollutants was a result of an attempt by the Insured to mitigate or avoid a situation where substantial third-party Bodily Injury or Property Damage could occur;

(b) It was demonstrable as having commenced on a specific date during the Policy Period;

(c) Its commencement became known to the Insured within (30) calendar days;

(d) Its commencement was reported in writing to us within (90) calendar days of becoming known to any officer of the Insured; any manager in your risk management, insurance or legal department; any employee who was authorized by you to give or receive notice of an Occurrence, claim or Suit; or any Insured authorized or responsible to report the commencement; and

(e) Reasonable effort was expended by the Insured to terminate the discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants as soon as conditions permitted.

However, nothing contained in this endorsement will operate to provide any coverage with respect to:

i. Any site or location principally used by the Insured, or by others on the Insured's behalf, for the handling, storage, disposal, dumping, processing or treatment of waste material;

ii. Any fines or penalties;

iii. Any clean up loss, cost or expense arising out of any governmental request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement. However, this provision iii will not apply to third party clean up loss, cost or expense otherwise covered by this endorsement that are also the subject of a governmental request, demand, order or statutory or regulatory requirement;

iv. Acid rain or acid runoff;

v. Clean-up, removal, containment, treatment, detoxification or neutralization of Pollutants situated on premises which the Insured owns, rents or occupies at the time of the actual discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of said Pollutants; or

vi. Any Bodily Injury, Property Damage or Personal Injury and Advertising Injury, or any loss, cost or expense arising out of any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants in knowing violation of or non compliance with governmental permits.

For the purpose of this endorsement only, the SELF-INSURED RETENTION in ITEM 5. of the DECLARATIONS, is amended to include the following additional provision:

$ 26,000,000 Each Occurrence (As respects all damages arising out of any discharge, dispersal, seepage, migration, release or escape of Pollutants covered under this endorsement). This Self-Insured Retention will not be reduced by Defense Expenses.

The above Self-Insured Retention applies whether or not there is any available Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance. If there is Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance applicable to a Loss, amounts received through such Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance for payment of the Loss may be applied to reduce or exhaust the above Self-Insured Retention if such policies were purchased by the Named Insured to specifically apply as underlying insurance to this policy. However, in no event will amounts received through such Scheduled Underlying Insurance or Other Insurance for the payment of Defense Expenses reduce the above Self-Insured Retention.

For the purpose of this endorsement only, Section III. DEFENSE PROVISIONS Paragraphs A. and D. are deleted in their entirety and Paragraph A. is replaced by the following:

We will have no duty to defend any Suit against the Insured until the above Self-Insured Retention is exhausted by payment of Loss. We will, however, have the right, but not the duty, to participate in the defense of any Suit and the investigation of any claim to which this endorsement may apply. If we exercise this right, we will do so at our own expense.

For the purpose of this endorsement only, Section VII. DEFINITIONS is amended to include the following additional definition:

Defense Expenses means a payment allocated to defend a specific Suit, including but not limited to:

1. Attorneys' fees and all other investigation, loss adjustment and litigation expenses;
2. Premiums on bonds to release attachments;
3. Premiums on appeal bonds required by law to appeal any claim or Suit;
4. Court costs taxed against the Insured in any Suit;
5. Pre-judgment interest awarded against the Insured; and
6. Interest that accrues after entry of judgment.

All other terms, definitions, conditions, and exclusions of this policy remain unchanged.

DISCLOSURE OF PREMIUM (RELATING TO DISPOSITION OF TRIA)

SCHEDULE*

(1) Premium attributable to risk of loss from certified acts of terrorism through the end of the policy period based on the extension of the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002, as amended by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Extension Act of 2005, ("TRIA") for lines subject to TRIA:

$790

If TRIA terminates, the portion of this premium attributable to the remaining part of the policy period, as modified by any change shown in (2) of this Schedule, applies to the risk of loss from terrorism after the termination of TRIA.

(2) Premium change upon termination of TRIA or upon applicability of a Conditional Endorsement:

No change unless one of the following is completed -

Return Premium: N/A

Additional Premium: _N/A

If we notify you of an additional premium charge, the additional premium will be due as specified in such notice.

*Information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

A. Disclosure of Premium

In accordance with the TRIA, we are required to provide you with a notice disclosing the portion of your premium, if any, attributable to the risk of loss from terrorist acts certified under that Act for lines subject to TRIA. That portion of your premium attributable is shown in the Schedule of this endorsement or in the Declarations.

B. Disclosure of Federal Participation in Payment of Terrorism Losses

The United States Government, Department of the Treasury, will pay a share of terrorism losses insured under the federal program. The federal share equals 90% (85% for 2007) of that portion of the amount of such insured losses that exceeds the applicable insurer retention. The Act currently provides for no insurance industry or United States government participation in terrorism losses that exceed $100 billion in any one calendar year. The federal program established by the Act is scheduled to terminate at the end of December 31, 2007 unless extended by the federal government.

C. Possibility of Additional or Return Premium

The premium attributable to the risk of loss from certified acts of terrorism coverage is calculated based on the coverage (if any) in effect at the beginning of your policy for certified acts of terrorism. If your policy contains a Conditional Endorsement, the termination of TRIA or extension of the federal program with certain modifications (as explained in that endorsement) may modify the extent of coverage (if any) your policy provides for terrorism. If TRIA terminates or the Conditional Endorsement becomes applicable to your policy, the return premium (if any) or additional premium (if any) shown in (2) of the Schedule will apply. If the level or terms of federal participation change, the premium shown in (1) of the Schedule attributable to that part of the policy period extending beyond such a change may not be appropriate and we will notify you of any changes in your premium.

Subject: Lexington Property Policy - 7477904
Policy Term - February 1, 2006 - February 01, 2007

Dear Jim,

We are pleased to enclose Lexington's policy for the February 1, 2006 to May 1, 2007 policy term. You should review the enclosed policy and advise Marsh within 30 days following receipt of this letter of anything which you believe is not in accordance with the negotiated coverage and terms.

This year we used the FM Advantage wording as the basis of the policy negotiated and issued by Lexington. This policy form was included in our submission sent out to markets back in December 2005. The submission and use of this form was approved by American Water Works. Last year American Water Works were covered under a combined program issued out of London for the RWE group where RWE Rhenas, the company's captive, used Zurich to front AWW's local policies in the USA, Canada and Puerto Rico. Last year's policies were issued on the "Zurich" policy form. It is our obligation to inform you that the two policy forms (Zurich + FM Forms) are different, thus there will be some situations where the attached policy will provide broader coverages but in other situations the policy may be more limiting when compared to Zurich's form.

The policy has now been updated with the final program conditions bound with Lexington in January for the term of the policy. For your convenience, we have prepared the following summary of coverages. Please note that this is a summary only, American Water must refer to the policy for the complete statement of terms, conditions, exclusions and limitations regarding coverage. Marsh will always be available to clarify any questions P&G may have related to the attached policy:

Summary of Insurance

When a limit of liability is shown as applying in the aggregate, the policy's maximum limit of liability will not exceed such limit during the term of the policy regardless of the number of locations and coverages involved.

The policy's maximum limit of liability in a single occurrence regardless of the number of locations or coverages involved will not exceed the Policy limit of liability of $17,600,000 and $35,200,000. in the aggregate. This policy will terminate when this aggregate is reached, however, American Water still participate in an excess property program issued out of the UK that will drop down once the aggregate on Lexington's policy is reached.

If a lesser limit of liability is stated elsewhere in the Policy, the lesser limit will apply. These lesser limits are part of and not in addition to the Policy limit of liability shown above.

Limits of liability stated below apply per occurrence for all locations and coverages involved. The maximum sub-limit amount collectible under the Policy shall be the sub-limit applicable for all loss or damage resulting from a peril insured against by the Policy, regardless of any other sub-limit involved.

Puerto Rico and Canada - Please note that local underlying policies are issued in Canada and Puerto Rico. The limits of liability under those policies are part of and not in addition to the limits outlined on the attached policy. The attached policy is considered the master/USA policy containing a DIC clause for losses in those two territories. Losses occurring in both Canada and Puerto Rico will contribute to the exhaustion of the aggregate under the attached policy. The 3 policies together constitute the "Property Program" negotiated and bound with Lexington for American Water & Thames Water operations in the 3 territories (USA, Canada and Puerto Rico)

NOTICE OF LOSS - As soon as practicable after any loss or damage occurring under this policy is known to the Insured's Home Office Insurance Department, the Insured shall report such loss or damage to both this Company and then to Marsh Inc.

This explanation of the reporting provisions of your policy has been provided in order to assist you in understanding and complying with the policy's requirements. In the event of a question or disagreement with your insurer concerning interpretation of the policy's reporting requirements as applied to the reporting of a specific claim, loss, occurrence, incident, offense or lawsuit, the actual policy wording, which is the contract between you and the insurer, and not Marsh's explanation of that language, will be controlling. Marsh, as an insurance representative, does not provide legal advice, and this explanation should not be relied upon as a legal interpretation of the policy provisions.

Corrections

We will be requesting Lexington to issue an endorsement to the named insured clause of the policy in order to include THAMES WATER AQUA US HOLDINGS INC. that was omitted from the policy. "Ordinary payroll" is defined to be the entire payroll expense for all employees of the Insured except officers, executives, department managers, employees under contract, and other important employees as determined by the Insured.

(3) In the event of physical loss, damage, or destruction covered herein to property as described in Clause 8.A. which results in an interruption of research and development activities which in themselves would not have produced income during the indemnity period, this policy shall cover the actual loss sustained of the continuing fixed charges and expenses including ordinary payroll directly attributable to such research and development activities.

(4) However, this Company shall not be liable under this Clause B. for any loss resulting from damage to or destruction of finished stock nor for the time required to reproduce said finished stock. (c) In respect of ADDITIONAL INCREASE IN COST OF WORKING: The additional expenditure in excess of the amount described under subsection (b) reasonably incurred for the sole purpose of resuming or maintaining normal business operations during the indemnity period;

(3) Definitions:

(a) Gross Profit: The sum produced by adding to the net profit the amount of all the standing charges of the business or if there be no net profit the amount of the said standing charges less the amount of any net trading loss. Standing charges shall include, but not be limited to, wages and depreciation on property.

(4) Memoranda:

MEMO 1: If during the indemnity period goods shall be sold or services shall be rendered elsewhere than at the premises for the benefit of the business either by the Insured or by others on their behalf, the money paid or payable in respect of such sales or services shall be brought into account in arriving at the turnover during the indemnity period.

MEMO 2: In adjusting any loss, account shall be taken and an equitable allowance made if any shortage in turnover due to the damage is postponed by reason of the turnover being temporarily maintained from accumulated stocks of finished goods in warehouses and/or depots.

MEMO 3: In the event of a loss, damage, or destruction covered herein to property described in Clause 8.A. which results in an interruption of research and development activities which in themselves would not have produced gross profit during the indemnity period, this policy shall cover the actual loss sustained of the continuing standing charges, including wages directly attributable to such research and development activities.

The right of subrogation against the Insured, affiliated, subsidiary, and associated companies or corporations, the Insured's officers, directors, and employees, or any other corporations or companies associated with the Insured through ownership or management, and at the option of the Insured against a tenant of the Insured, is waived.

B. In the event of any payment under this policy, this Company, where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance are not reduced or eliminated, shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefore. The Insured shall execute all papers required and shall do anything that may be reasonably necessary at the expense of the Company to secure such right. The Company will act in concert with all other interests concerned, i.e., the Insured and any other Company(ies) participating in the payment of any loss as primary or excess insurers, in the exercise of such rights of recovery.

If any amount is recovered as a result of such proceedings, the net amount recovered after deducting the cost of recovery shall be divided between the interests concerned in the proportion of their respective interests. If there should be no recovery, the expense of proceedings shall be borne by the insurers instituting the proceedings.

INSURED'S COPY

Upon discovery of a dangerous condition with respect to any boiler, fired or unfired pressure vessel and any mechanical or electrical machine or apparatus used for the generation, transmission or utilization of mechanical or electrical power, any representative of the Company may immediately suspend the insurance with respect to an "accident" to said property by written notice mailed or delivered to the Insured at the home office address of the Insured.

26. ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

Any unintentional error or omission made by the Insured in the description of where insured property is located or to include a location in the Schedule of Locations or to report a newly acquired (owned, purchased, leased or rented) location, or that results in cancellation of an insured location under this policy, shall not void or impair the insurance hereunder provided the Insured reports such error or omission as soon as reasonably possible after discovery by the Insured's home office insurance department. Coverage under this clause shall be subject to the limit of liability stated in Clause 4.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6).

27. NOTICE OF LOSS

As soon as practicable after any loss or damage occurring under this policy is known to the Insured's Home Office Insurance Department, the Insured shall report such loss or damage to both this Company and then to Marsh Inc.

If they should fail for 15 days to agree upon such umpire, then upon the request of the Insured or of this Company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the jurisdiction in which such appraisal is pending. Then, at a reasonable time and place, the appraisers shall appraise the loss, stating separately the value at the time of loss and the amount of loss. If the appraisers fail to agree, they shall submit their differences to the umpire. 33. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION OF THE INSURED

The Insured shall reasonably cooperate with this Company, and, at this Company's reasonable request and expense, shall attend hearings and trials and shall assist in effecting settlements, in securing and giving evidence, in obtaining the attendance of witnesses and in conducting suits.

In case of actual or imminent loss or damage covered by this policy except imminent loss or damage as respects an "accident", it shall, without prejudice to this insurance, be lawful and necessary for the Insured, their factors, servants, or assigns to sue, labor and travel for, in and about the defense, the safeguard, and the recovery of property or any part of the property insured hereunder; nor, in the event of loss or damage, shall the acts of the Insured or of this Company in recovering, saving, and preserving the insured property be considered a waiver or an acceptance of abandonment. Subject to the applicable deductible or the deductible that would apply had the loss happened, this Company shall pay the expenses so incurred.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6) nor does it cover any expenses incurred for actions to defend, safeguard, preserve or recover insured property from actual or imminent physical loss or damage covered by Terrorism coverage as provided in Clause 9.S.

C. Local Currency shall be defined as the currency of the country where loss occurs. This definition shall also include a local currency equivalent.

37. REINSTATEMENT

With the exception of loss caused by perils which are subject to annual aggregate limits as noted in Clause 4, no loss hereunder shall reduce the amount of this policy.

38. SUIT AGAINST THE COMPANY

No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless the Insured shall have fully complied with all the requirements of this policy and legal action is started within 24 months after inception of the loss.

It is agreed that in the event of the failure of the Company to pay any amount claimed to be due hereunder or in the event of any other dispute relating to this policy, this policy will be governed by the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the United States (or Canada) and will comply with all of the requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction and all matters hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court, not including the court's law regarding choice of law.

In the event of any other cancellation by the Company, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata, not subject to the minimum earned premium.

The effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or the Company shall be equivalent to mailing. ENDORSEMENT 9 - TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT OF 2002

You are hereby notified that under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the "Act") effective November 26, 2002, you now have a right to purchase insurance coverage for losses arising out of an Act of Terrorism, which is defined in the Act as an act certified by the Secretary of the Treasury (i) to be an act of terrorism, (ii) to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to (A) human life; (B) property or (C) infrastructure, (iii) to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in case of an air carrier or vessel or the premises of a U.S. mission and (iv) to have been committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. You should read the Act for a complete description of its coverage. The Secretary's decision to certify or not to certify an event as an Act of Terrorism and thus covered by this law is final and not subject to review. There is a S100 billion dollar annual cap on all losses resulting from Acts of Terrorism above which no coverage will be provided under this policy and under the Act unless Congress makes some other determination.

For your information, coverage provided by this policy for losses caused by an Act of Terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States under a formula established by the Act. Under this formula the United States pays 90% of terrorism losses covered by this law exceeding a statutorily established deductible that must be met by the insurer, and which deductible is based on a percentage of the insurer's direct earned premiums for the year preceding the Act of Terrorism.

Unless you sign this form and return it to us rejecting Terrorism Coverage under the Federal Act, you will be covered for Terrorism as defined in the Act and your premium for that coverage is $92,000

I hereby reject coverage in accordance with the Act.

UNITED KINGDOM INSURANCE PREMIUM TAX

Please note the premium(s) indicated in the quote & binder letter(s) from Arch Insurance (Bermuda) ("Arch Bda.") may be subject to United Kingdom Insurance Premium Tax (IPT). This is a 5% tax applicable for new or renewal risks incepting on or after October 14, 1994. This tax was introduced by the UK Finance Act 1994 and the Insurance Premium Tax Regulations 1994 and the Insurance Premium Tax (Taxable Insurance Contracts) Order 1994. The tax is applicable to the UK portion of the premium (as determined by Arch Bda.) and is in addition to the premium(s) quoted. We would like to point out that the Arch Bda. is not liable for the IPT, merely responsible for determining the appropriate UK premium apportionment and the collection of the tax. The Insured is liable to Arch Bda. for the payment of the tax.

IPT is payable at the time of binding and therefore Arch Bermuda require details of the Insured's UK exposures, i.e. gross revenues, number of manufacturing facilities and/or any other pertinent information that Arch Bermuda should consider when determining the UK portion of the quoted premium, prior to binding. In this regard, please complete the questions below and return this form to Arch Bermuda as soon as possible.

(2) Stock in process (raw stock which has undergone any aging, seasoning, or other processing by the Insured but which has not become finished stock) shall be valued at the Insured's selling price of finished stock at the time of loss when such stock has been reported to the Company at selling price, otherwise stock in process shall be valued at the value of the raw materials and labor expended plus the proper proportion of overhead charges. When stock in process is valued at selling price, there will be deducted any manufacturing expense not incurred by the Insured and any discounts, rebates, and unincurred expenses to which the sales price would have been subject.

(3) Finished stock (stock which in the ordinary course of the Insured's business is ready for packing, shipment or sale) and merchandise shall be valued at the Insured's selling price at the time of loss, less all discounts, rebates, and unincurred expenses to which such sales price would have been subject.

If property damaged or destroyed is not repaired, rebuilt or replaced within two years after the loss or damage, this Company shall not be liable for more than the actual cash value at the time of loss (ascertained with proper deduction for depreciation) of the property damaged or destroyed. However, limitations imposed by federal, state, municipal or other governmental building codes shall not result in actual cash valuation.

However, physical damage by fire, explosion and sprinkler leakage resulting from flood will not be considered loss by flood within the terms and conditions of this policy.

B. Should any time period referred to in Clause A. above commence prior to expiration or cancellation date of this policy, this Company shall pay all such earthquake or flood losses occurring during such period as if such period fell entirely within the term of this policy.

C. This Company shall not be liable, however, for any loss caused by any earthquake or flood commencing before the effective date and time or commencing after the expiration date and time of this policy.

15. ACCIDENT

The term "accident" is defined solely for the determination of the limits of liability and/or deductible(s) and application of the sue and labor and suspension section only. The term "accident" shall not limit or define the perils or coverages provided elsewhere in this policy.

A. The term "accident" shall mean:

17. EXCESS INSURANCE

Excess insurance is insurance over the limit of liability set forth in this policy. The existence of such excess insurance shall not prejudice the coverage provided under this policy nor will it reduce any liability hereunder.

18. UNDERLYING INSURANCE

A. Underlying insurance is insurance on all or any part of the deductible and against all or any of the causes of loss covered by this policy including declarations of value to the carrier for hire. The existence of such underlying insurance shall not prejudice or affect any recovery otherwise payable under this policy.

B. If the limits of such underlying insurance exceed the deductible amount which would apply in the event of loss under this policy, then that portion which exceeds such a deductible amount shall be considered other insurance, as defined in the Other Insurance clause.

19. OTHER INSURANCE

Except for insurance described by the contributing insurance clause, the excess insurance clause, or the underlying insurance clause, this policy shall not cover to the extent of any other collectible insurance, whether directly or indirectly covering the same property against the same causes of loss. This Company shall be liable for loss or damage only to the extent of that amount in excess of the amount recoverable from such other collectible insurance. Notwithstanding that this policy only covers for the excess of any other collectible insurance, this Company guarantees prompt payment in full of the amount of loss which would have been recoverable under this policy in the absence of such other collectible insurance and agrees to advance the amount of loss as a loan, without interest, repayable in the event of and to the extent of recovery from such other collectible insurance minus the cost of recovery, and repayable in the event of non-payment by the primary Insurer due to insolvency as excluded in Clause 11.A. As used herein, "other collectible insurance" does not include self-insurance, deductibles, self-insured retentions or fronting policies.

20. PRIMARY INSURANCE

Primary Insurance shall mean locally admitted and/or non-admitted policies issued to the Insured in Canada and by the Company's local subsidiaries or representatives.

21. CONFLICT IN WORDING

Subject to all other terms and conditions set forth herein, coverage under this policy shall take precedence when the perils and/or definitions and/or conditions set forth herein are broader in meaning or scope than those of primary policies.

22. SUBROGATION

A. Any release from liability entered into by the Insured prior to loss hereunder shall not affect this policy or the right of the Insured to recover hereunder. The right of subrogation against the Insured, affiliated, subsidiary, and associated companies or corporations, the Insured's officers, directors, and employees, or any other corporations or companies associated with the Insured through ownership or management, and at the option of the Insured against a tenant of the Insured, is waived.

B. In the event of any payment under this policy, this Company, where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance are not reduced or eliminated, shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefore. The Insured shall execute all papers required and shall do anything that may be reasonably necessary at the expense of the Company to secure such right. The Company will act in concert with all other interests concerned, i.e., the Insured and any other Company(ies) participating in the payment of any loss as primary or excess insurers, in the exercise of such rights of recovery.

If any amount is recovered as a result of such proceedings, the net amount recovered after deducting the cost of recovery shall be divided between the interests concerned in the proportion of their respective interests. If there should be no recovery, the expense of proceedings shall be borne by the insurers instituting the proceedings.

23. SALVAGE AND RECOVERIES

Where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance is not reduced or eliminated, all salvages, recoveries and payments, excluding proceeds from subrogation and underlying insurance, recovered or received prior to a loss settlement under this policy, shall reduce the loss accordingly.

24. MACHINERY

In case of loss or damage insured against to any part of a machine or unit consisting of two or more parts when complete for use, the liability of the Company shall be limited to the value of the part or parts lost or damaged or, at the Insured's option, the lesser of cost and expense of replacing or duplicating the lost or damaged part or parts or of repairing the machine or unit.

25. SUSPENSION

Upon discovery of a dangerous condition with respect to any boiler, fired or unfired pressure vessel and any mechanical or electrical machine or apparatus used for the generation, transmission or utilization of mechanical or electrical power, any representative of the Company may immediately suspend the insurance with respect to an "accident" to said property by written notice mailed or delivered to the Insured at the home office address of the Insured.

26. ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

Any unintentional error or omission made by the Insured in the description of where insured property is located or to include a location in the Schedule of Locations or to report a newly acquired (owned, purchased, leased or rented) location, or that results in cancellation of an insured location under this policy, shall not void or impair the insurance hereunder provided the Insured reports such error or omission as soon as reasonably possible after discovery by the Insured's home office insurance department. Coverage under this clause shall be subject to the limit of liability stated in Clause 4.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6).

27. NOTICE OF LOSS

As soon as practicable after any loss or damage occurring under this policy is known to the Insured's Home Office Insurance Department, the Insured shall report such loss or damage to both this Company and then to Marsh Inc.

28. PROOF OF LOSS

The Insured, at the request of the Company, will render a signed and sworn proof of loss to the Company or its appointed representative as soon as practicable stating: the place, time, cause of the loss, damage, or expense; the interest of the Insured and of all others; the value of the property involved in the loss; and the amount of loss, damage, or expense.

29. PARTIAL PAYMENT OF LOSS

30. ASSIGNED ADJUSTER

It is agreed that at the Insured's option, the Company will use GAB Robins Camp Hill, PA for the adjustment of all claims made against this policy. This assignment may be changed by mutual consent of the Insured and the Company.

31. APPRAISAL

If the Insured and this Company fail to agree on the amount of the loss, each, upon written demand of either the Insured or this Company made within 60 days after receipt of proof of loss by the Company, shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser. The appraisers shall then select a competent and disinterested umpire. If they should fail for 15 days to agree upon such umpire, then upon the request of the Insured or of this Company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the jurisdiction in which such appraisal is pending. Then, at a reasonable time and place, the appraisers shall appraise the loss, stating separately the value at the time of loss and the amount of loss. If the appraisers fail to agree, they shall submit their differences to the umpire. An award in writing by any two shall determine the amount of loss and shall be paid by the Company within 30 days thereafter. The Insured and this Company shall each pay his or its chosen appraiser and shall bear equally the other expenses of the appraisal and of the umpire.

32. PAIR OR SET

Except as provided under the Machinery clause and paragraph (3) of the Consequential Loss clause, in the event of loss or damage insured against to any article or articles not being merchandise which are a part of a pair or set, the measure of loss or damage to such article or articles shall be, at the Insured's option:

A. the reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the pair or set, giving consideration to the importance of said article or articles, but in no event shall such loss or damage be construed to mean total loss of the pair or set; or

B. the full value of the pair or set provided that the Insured surrenders the remaining article or articles of the pair or set to the Company.

33. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION OF THE INSURED

The Insured shall reasonably cooperate with this Company, and, at this Company's reasonable request and expense, shall attend hearings and trials and shall assist in effecting settlements, in securing and giving evidence, in obtaining the attendance of witnesses and in conducting suits.

34. SUE AND LABOR

In case of actual or imminent loss or damage covered by this policy except imminent loss or damage as respects an "accident", it shall, without prejudice to this insurance, be lawful and necessary for the Insured, their factors, servants, or assigns to sue, labor and travel for, in and about the defense, the safeguard, and the recovery of property or any part of the property insured hereunder; nor, in the event of loss or damage, shall the acts of the Insured or of this Company in recovering, saving, and preserving the insured property be considered a waiver or an acceptance of abandonment. Subject to the applicable deductible or the deductible that would apply had the loss happened, this Company shall pay the expenses so incurred.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6) nor does it cover any expenses incurred for actions to defend, safeguard, preserve or recover insured property from actual or imminent physical loss or damage covered by Terrorism coverage as provided in Clause 9.S.

35. PAYMENT OF LOSS

All adjusted claims shall be due and payable no later than 30 days after presentation and acceptance of proofs of loss by this Company or its appointed representative.

36. CURRENCY

A. Loss, if any, is to be paid in the same currency in which the premium is paid.

B. (1) In the event of a property damage loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date(s) of expenditure.

If property damaged or destroyed is not repaired, rebuilt or replaced, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date of loss.

(2) In the event of a business interruption, extra expense, rental value, royalties and/or expediting expense loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the average New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal in effect during each 30 day period (or part thereof) commencing on the date the loss occurs.

C. Local Currency shall be defined as the currency of the country where loss occurs. This definition shall also include a local currency equivalent.

37. REINSTATEMENT

With the exception of loss caused by perils which are subject to annual aggregate limits as noted in Clause 4, no loss hereunder shall reduce the amount of this policy.

38. SUIT AGAINST THE COMPANY

No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless the Insured shall have fully complied with all the requirements of this policy and legal action is started within 24 months after inception of the loss.

It is agreed that in the event of the failure of the Company to pay any amount claimed to be due hereunder or in the event of any other dispute relating to this policy, this policy will be governed by the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the United States (or Canada) and will comply with all of the requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction and all matters hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court, not including the court's law regarding choice of law.

39. CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE

Any certificate of insurance issued in connection with this policy shall be issued solely as a matter of convenience or information for the addressee(s) or holder(s) of said certificate of insurance, except where any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are named pursuant to the Special Provisions of said certificate of insurance. In the event any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are so named, this policy shall be deemed to have been endorsed accordingly, subject to all other terms, conditions and exclusions stated herein.

The Company hereby authorizes Marsh Inc. to issue certificates of insurance including any Mortgagee, Loss Payee and, as authorized by the Company, Additional Insured.

40. CANCELLATION

A. This policy may be canceled at any time at the request of the Insured or it may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at American Water Works, 1025 Laurel Oak Road - Voorhees - NJ 08043 to the attention of the Risk Management department and to the additional named insureds/loss payees indicated on the certificates of insurance issued during the term of this policy, written notice stating when, not less than 60 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. The earned premium shall be computed on a pro-rata basis.

B. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice and the effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or by the Company shall be equivalent to mailing.

C. Cancellation shall not affect coverage on any shipment in transit on the date of cancellation. Coverage will continue in full force until such property is safely delivered and accepted at place of final destination.

D. In the event of non-payment of premium this policy may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at the address shown in A. above stating when, not less than 10 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective.

41. VALUES

The values on the schedule of property declared to the Company at the inception of the policy are for premium purposes only and shall not limit the coverages provided by this policy.

42. TITLES OF PARAGRAPHS

The titles of paragraphs of this form and of endorsements and supplemental contracts, if any, now or hereafter attached hereto are inserted solely for convenience of reference and shall not be deemed in any way to limit or affect the provisions to which they relate.

43. CONFORMANCE

The terms of this policy which are in conflict with the applicable statutes of the jurisdiction wherein this policy is issued are hereby amended to conform to such statutes, unless the statutes narrow or limit the coverage afforded by this policy and do not bar a policy from providing broader coverage.

44. GEOGRAPHIC TERRORISM PROVISIONS

A. As respects the United States, its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico any recovery under this policy for any insured loss or damage from acts of terrorism, as covered under this policy, may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government in accordance with the Terrorism Insurance Risk Act of 2002. Reimbursement by the United States Government will be under a formula established by Federal Law.

45. ASSIGNMENT

Assignment of this policy shall not be valid except with the written consent of this Company.

46. MISREPRESENTATION AND FRAUD

This entire policy will be void if, whether before or after a loss, an Insured has:

A. willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance, the subject thereof, any insurance claim, or the interest of an Insured;

B. made any attempt to defraud the Company;

C. made any false swearing.

47. EXCESS CLAUSE (DROP DOWN AND PRIORITY OF PAYMENTS)

A. Coverage hereunder shall not apply until the amount of loss, damage or expense arising out of any one occurrence exceeds $_25,000 plus the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible and any waiting period attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured hereunder.

The amount of the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible referred to above shall be determined by the proportion that the amount of loss attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against under this policy (without application of the excess provision) bears to the total amount of loss multiplied by the amount of the applicable primary deductibles.

In the event that the total amount of loss, damage, or expense attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverage insured under the underlying insurance exceeds that amount at which this policy would normally attach, but due to the application of sublimits in the underlying policy(ies), the total loss, damage and expense payable by the underlying policy(ies) does not fully exhaust the underlying policy(ies) limit, then this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss as covered under this policy in excess of the amount paid by the underlying policy(ies).

As respects theft, the term Occurrence as referred to elsewhere within the policy means the sum total of all losses of covered property resulting from one or more concealed acts committed by one person or more than one person acting in unison to the extent such loss is not otherwise excluded under this policy.

B. In determining the amount of any loss, damage, or expense for which this policy is excess, the total loss for all coverages caused by any combination of perils, one or more of which is insured against under the primary policy, shall be used even though all such perils or coverages are not insured against under this excess policy.

(1) Any recoveries made under the primary policy shall be considered as first applying to those perils and/or property and/or coverages not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributable to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or coverages and/or property insured hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(2) If there is any other excess insurance covering the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against in the primary policy, but not covered by this policy, this insurance shall then allocate any loss recoveries made under the primary policy in the same proportion as the amount of loss involving the property and/or coverages insured against by this policy bears to the combined total loss. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or property and/or coverages covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(3) Paragraph two shall not apply, however, when the amount of loss attributed to the perils insured under the primary policy, but not covered under this policy, exceed the total amount of insurance provided by the primary and excess coverages with respect to said perils. In this situation any recoveries made under the primary policy shall first apply to those perils not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(4) In the event the Insured is a contributing or self-insurer with respect to the perils and/or property and/or coverages otherwise insured in any underlying insurance and no policy is issued to define the extent of this contributing or self insurance, for the purposes of this Excess Clause, the Insured's contributing or self-insurance shall be deemed to be the same as either: (a) all other contributing insurance participating in the Insured's layer(s); or (b) all other contributing insurance participating in the layer below the Insured's layer where the Insured is entirely self insuring the layer. If the coverage provided by the policy(s) of the other contributing insurance company(s) is non-concurrent, then the contributing or self insurance provided by the Insured within the layer in question shall be deemed to be the same as the coverage provided by that contributing insurance company whose policy provides the least indemnity for the loss.

C. In the event the annual aggregate limits provided for flood and/or earthquake in any underlying insurance are diminished or exhausted in any one policy year, the coverage provided under this policy shall respond as excess of the remaining limits.

In such event, the applicable amount of the deductible provision of the primary policy shall apply to the combination of all policies.

Where applicable relative to contributing insurance policy(s) described in either subparagraphs B(4)(a) or B(4)(b) above, in the event the Insured is providing contributing or self-insurance in any of the layer(s) of insurance, and such other contributing insurance policies contain aggregate limits of liability, the Insured's contributing or self insurance for those coverages shall be deemed to be aggregated also.

48. FULL WAIVER

The terms and conditions of this form and endorsements attached thereto replace those of the policy to which it is attached, all terms, conditions and endorsements of the latter being waived unless otherwise specified herein.

ENDORSEMENT 8 - STANDARD PROPERTY CONDITIONS

In consideration of the premium charged, the following clauses are hereby made applicable under this policy.

MINIMUM EARNED PREMIUM CLAUSE

In the event of cancellation of this policy by the Insured, a minimum premium equivalent to 25% of the initial policy premum shall become earned, any provision of the policy to the contrary notwithstanding.

Failure of the Insured to make timely payment of premium, shall be considered a request by the Insured for the Company to cancel on the Insurer's behalf. In the event of such cancellation for non-payment of premium, the minimum earned premium shall be due and payable; provided, however, such cancellation shall be rescinded if the Insured remits and the Company receives the full policy premium with 10 days after the date of issuance of the cancellation notice. Such remittance and acceptance by the Company shall not effect the minimum earned premium provision of this endorsement. In the event of any other cancellation by the Company, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata, not subject to the minimum earned premium.

CANCELLATION CLAUSE

Except and to the extent of the Minimum Earned Premium Clause which is part of this policy, this clause supersedes other cancellation clauses made a part of this policy.

CANCELLATION: This policy may be cancelled by the insured by surrender thereof to the Company or by mailing to the Company written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. This policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing to the Insured, at the mailing address shown in this policy or last known address, written notice, stating when, not less than 90 days thereafter (10 days for non-payment of premium) such cancellation shall be effective. The effectiveness of cancellation is not dependent on the return of unearned premium with the notice. Proof of mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. The effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or the Company shall be equivalent to mailing. Return of any unearned premium will be calculated on a pro-rata basis if this Policy is canceled by request of the Insured or by request of the Company. Return of any unearned premium will be made by the Company as soon as practicable, but within 90 days time counted from the date of cancellation.

REPORTING CLAUSE

Notwithstanding that the Insured may be obligated to report full values for premium purposes, the Company's maximum limit of liability shall not exceed that amount stated as the policy limit of liability.

PROOF OF LOSS AND PAYMENT

The Insured shall complete and sign a sworn proof of loss within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of a loss (unless such period be extended by the written agreement of the Company) stating the time, place and cause of loss, the interest of the Insured and of all others in the property, the sound value thereof and the amount of loss or damage thereto, and all other insurance thereon. All adjusted claims shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after the presentation and acceptance of satisfactory proof(s) of floss at the office of the Company at 200 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02109

B. The following exclusion and related provisions are added to Paragraph B.2. Exclusions in the Causes Of Loss Forms and to any Coverage Form or policy to which a Causes Of Loss Form is not attached:

1. We will not pay for loss or damage arising out of any act committed:
   a. By or at the direction of any insured; and
   b. With the intent to cause a loss.
2. However, this exclusion will not apply to deny coverage to an innocent co-insured when the loss or damage is otherwise covered under this policy and is proximately related to and in furtherance of an abusive act by an insured who is a family or household member. Such coverage will be provided only if the innocent co-insured:
   a. Provides evidence of the abuse to us, to demonstrate that the loss is abuse-related; and
   b. For the act causing the loss, either:
      (1) Files a complaint under the Protection From Abuse Act against the abuser, and does not voluntarily dismiss the complaint; or
      (2) Seeks a warrant for the abuser's arrest and cooperates in the prosecution of the abuser.
3. If we pay a claim pursuant to Paragraph B.2., our payment to the innocent co-insured is limited to that insured's legal interest in the property less any payments we first made to a mortgagee or other party with a legal secured interest in the property. In no event will we pay more than the Limit of Insurance.

C. The following is added to the Transfer Of Rights Of Recovery Against Others To Us Condition:

If we pay an innocent co-insured for loss arising out of an act of abuse by another insured, the rights of the innocent co-insured to recover damages from the abuser are transferred to us to the extent of our payment. Following the loss, the innocent co-insured may not waive such rights to recover against the abuser.

Except as provided in D.1.b., we may not cancel or nonrenew the policy until at least 90 days after repairs to the residential structure have been substantially completed so that it is restored to the extent that it is insurable by another insurer writing policies in Florida. If we elect to not renew the policy, we will provide at least 90 days' notice that we intend to nonrenew 90 days after the substantial completion of repairs.

Assignment of this policy shall not be valid except with the written consent of this Company.

This policy is made and accepted subject to the foregoing provisions and stipulations and those hereinafter stated, which are hereby made a part of this policy together with such other provisions, stipulations and agreements as may be added hereto, as provided in this policy.

Concealment Fraud — This entire policy shall be void if, whether before or after a loss, the insured has willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance or the subject thereof, or the interest of the insured therein, or in case of any fraud or false swearing by the insured relating thereto.

This policy may be cancelled at any time by this company by giving to the insured a five days written notice of cancellation, and to the mortgagee to whom this policy is payable twenty days written notice of cancellation except where the stated reason for cancellation is nonpayment of premium where, in such instance, this policy may be cancelled at any time by this company by giving to the insured a ten days written notice of cancellation, and the mortgagee a twenty days written notice of cancellation, with or without tender of the excess paid premium above the pro rata premium for the expired time, which excess, if not tendered, shall be refunded on demand. Notice of cancellation shall state that said excess premium (if not tendered) will be refunded on demand and shall state or be accompanied by a statement of the specific reason or reasons for such cancellation. Mortgagee Interests And Obligations Notwithstanding any other provisions of this policy, if this policy shall be made payable to a mortgagee of the covered real estate, no act or default of any person other than such mortgagee or his agent or those claiming under him, whether the same occurs before or during the term of this policy, shall render this policy void as to such mortgagee nor affect such mortgagee's right to recover in case of loss on such real estate; provided, that the mortgagee shall on demand pay according to the established scale of rate for any increase of risk not paid for by the insured; and whenever this company shall be liable to a mortgagee for any sum for loss under this policy for which no liability exists as to the mortgagor, or owner, and this company shall elect by itself, or with others, to pay the mortgagee the full amount secured by such mortgage, then the mortgagee shall assign and transfer to the company interested, upon such payment, the said mortgage together with the note and debt thereby secured.

Pro Rata Liability This company shall not be liable for a greater proportion of any loss than the amount hereby insured shall bear to the whole insurance covering the property against the peril involved.

Requirements In Case Loss Occurs The insured shall give immediate written notice to this company of any loss, protect the property from further damage, forthwith separate the damaged and undamaged personal property, put it in the best possible order, furnish a complete inventory of the destroyed and damaged property, showing in detail the quantity, description, actual cash value and amount of loss claimed; and the insured shall forthwith render to this company a signed, sworn statement in proof of loss which sets forth to the best knowledge and belief of the insured the following: the time and cause of the loss, the interest of the insured and of all others in the property, the actual cash value of each item thereof and the amount of loss thereto, all encumbrances thereon, all other contracts of insurance, whether valid or not, covering any of said property, any changes in the title, use, occupancy, location, possession or exposures of said property, since the issuing of this policy, by whom and for what purpose any building herein described and the several parts thereof were occupied at the time of loss and whether or not it then stood on leased ground, and shall furnish a copy of all the descriptions and schedules in all policies and detailed estimates for repair of the damage. The insured, as often as may be reasonably required, shall exhibit to any person designated by this company all that remains of any property herein described, and submit to examinations under oath by any person named by this company, and subscribe the same; and as often as may be reasonably required, shall produce for examination all books of account, bills, invoices and other vouchers, or certified copies thereof if originals be lost, at such reasonable time and place as may be designated by this company or its representative, and shall permit extracts and copies thereof to be made.

When Loss Payable In case of any loss or damage, the company within thirty days after the insured shall have submitted a statement, as provided in the preceding clause, shall either pay the amount for which it shall be liable, which amount if not agreed upon shall be ascertained by award of referees as hereinafter provided, or replace the property with other of the same kind and goodness, or it may, within fifteen days after such statement is submitted, notify the insured of its intention to rebuild or repair the premises, or any portion thereof separately covered by this policy, and shall thereupon enter upon said premises and proceed to rebuild or repair the same with reasonable expedition. It is moreover understood that there can be no abandonment of the property described to the company, and that the company shall not in any case be liable for more than the sum insured, with interest thereon from the time when the loss shall become payable, as provided above. The company shall be liable for the payment of interest to the insured at a rate of one percent over the prime interest rate on the agreed figure commencing thirty days after the date an executed proof of loss for such figure is received by the company, said interest to continue so long as the claim remains unpaid.

Appraisal In case of loss under this policy and a failure of the parties to agree as to the amount of loss, it is mutally agreed that the amount of such loss shall be referred to three disinterested men, the company and the insured each choosing one out of three persons to be named by the other, and the third being selected by the two so chosen, and the award in writing by a majority of the referees shall be conclusive and final upon the parties as to the amount of loss or damage, and such reference, unless waived by the parties, shall be a condition precedent to any right of action in law or equity to recover for such loss; but no person shall be chosen or act as a referee, against the objection of either party, who has acted in a like capacity within four months.

Suit No suit or action against this company for the recovery of any claim by virtue of this policy shall be sustained in any court of law or equity in this commonwealth unless commenced within two years from the time the loss occurred; provided, however, that if, within said two years, in accordance with the provisions of the preceding paragraph, the amount of the loss shall have been referred to arbitration after failure of the parties to agree thereon, the limitation of time for bringing such suit or action shall in no event be less than ninety days after a valid award has been made upon such reference or after such reference or award has been expressly waived by the parties. If suit or action upon this policy is enjoined or abated, suit or action may be commenced at any time within one year after the dissolution of such injunction, or the abatement of such suit or action, to the same extent as would be possible if there was no limitation of time provided herein for the bringing of such suit or action.

Subrogation This company may require from the insured an assignment of all right of recovery against any party for loss to the extent that payment therefor is made by this company.

A. Underlying insurance is insurance on all or any part of the deductible and against all or any of the causes of loss covered by this policy including declarations of value to the carrier for hire. The existence of such underlying insurance shall not prejudice or affect any recovery otherwise payable under this policy.

B. If the limits of such underlying insurance exceed the deductible amount which would apply in the event of loss under this policy, then that portion which exceeds such a deductible amount shall be considered other insurance, as defined in the Other Insurance clause.

19. OTHER INSURANCE

Except for insurance described by the contributing insurance clause, the excess insurance clause, or the underlying insurance clause, this policy shall not cover to the extent of any other collectible insurance, whether directly or indirectly covering the same property against the same causes of loss. This Company shall be liable for loss or damage only to the extent of that amount in excess of the amount recoverable from such other collectible insurance. Notwithstanding that this policy only covers for the excess of any other collectible insurance, this Company guarantees prompt payment in full of the amount of loss which would have been recoverable under this policy in the absence of such other collectible insurance and agrees to advance the amount of loss as a loan, without interest, repayable in the event of and to the extent of recovery from such other collectible insurance minus the cost of recovery, and repayable in the event of non-payment by the primary Insurer due to insolvency as excluded in Clause 11.A. As used herein, "other collectible insurance" does not include self-insurance, deductibles, self-insured retentions or fronting policies.

20. PRIMARY INSURANCE

Primary Insurance shall mean locally admitted and/or non-admitted policies issued to the Insured in Canada and by the Company's local subsidiaries or representatives.

11. CONFLICT IN WORDING

Subject to all other terms and conditions set forth herein, coverage under this policy shall take precedence when the perils and/or definitions and/or conditions set forth herein are broader in meaning or scope than those of primary policies.

12. SUBROGATION

A. Any release from liability entered into by the Insured prior to loss hereunder shall not affect this policy or the right of the Insured to recover hereunder. The right of subrogation against the Insured, affiliated, subsidiary, and associated companies or corporations, the Insured's officers, directors, and employees, or any other corporations or companies associated with the Insured through ownership or management, and at the option of the Insured against a tenant of the Insured, is waived.

B. In the event of any payment under this policy, this Company, where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance are not reduced or eliminated, shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefore. The Insured shall execute all papers required and shall do anything that may be reasonably necessary at the expense of the Company to secure such right. The Company will act in concert with all other interests concerned, i.e., the Insured and any other Company(ies) participating in the payment of any loss as primary or excess insurers, in the exercise of such rights of recovery.

If any amount is recovered as a result of such proceedings, the net amount recovered after deducting the cost of recovery shall be divided between the interests concerned in the proportion of their respective interests. If there should be no recovery, the expense of proceedings shall be borne by the insurers instituting the proceedings.

13. SALVAGE AND RECOVERIES

Where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance is not reduced or eliminated, all salvages, recoveries and payments, excluding proceeds from subrogation and underlying insurance, recovered or received prior to a loss settlement under this policy, shall reduce the loss accordingly.

14. MACHINERY

In case of loss or damage insured against to any part of a machine or unit consisting of two or more parts when complete for use, the liability of the Company shall be limited to the value of the part or parts lost or damaged or, at the Insured's option, the lesser of cost and expense of replacing or duplicating the lost or damaged part or parts or of repairing the machine or unit.

15. SUSPENSION

Upon discovery of a dangerous condition with respect to any boiler, fired or unfired pressure vessel and any mechanical or electrical machine or apparatus used for the generation, transmission or utilization of mechanical or electrical power, any representative of the Company may immediately suspend the insurance with respect to an "accident" to said property by written notice mailed or delivered to the Insured at the home office address of the Insured.

26. ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

Any unintentional error or omission made by the Insured in the description of where insured property is located or to include a location in the Schedule of Locations or to report a newly acquired (owned, purchased, leased or rented) location, or that results in cancellation of an insured location under this policy, shall not void or impair the insurance hereunder provided the Insured reports such error or omission as soon as reasonably possible after discovery by the Insured's home office insurance department. Coverage under this clause shall be subject to the limit of liability stated in Clause 4.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6).

27. NOTICE OF LOSS

As soon as practicable after any loss or damage occurring under this policy is known to the Insured's Home Office Insurance Department, the Insured shall report such loss or damage to both this Company and then to Marsh Inc.

28. PROOF OF LOSS

The Insured, at the request of the Company, will render a signed and sworn proof of loss to the Company or its appointed representative as soon as practicable stating: the place, time, cause of the loss, damage, or expense; the interest of the Insured and of all others; the value of the property involved in the loss; and the amount of loss, damage, or expense.

29. PARTIAL PAYMENT OF LOSS

In the event of a loss covered by this policy, it is understood and agreed that the Company will issue partial payment(s) of claim subject to the policy provisions, and shall not be less than the undisputed estimate of loss or damage between the Insured and the Company.

30. ASSIGNED ADJUSTER

It is agreed that at the Insured's option, the Company will use GAB Robins Camp Hill, PA for the adjustment of all claims made against this policy. This assignment may be changed by mutual consent of the Insured and the Company.

31. APPRAISAL

If the Insured and this Company fail to agree on the amount of the loss, each, upon written demand of either the Insured or this Company made within 60 days after receipt of proof of loss by the Company, shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser. The appraisers shall then select a competent and disinterested umpire. If they should fail for 15 days to agree upon such umpire, then upon the request of the Insured or of this Company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the jurisdiction in which such appraisal is pending. Then, at a reasonable time and place, the appraisers shall appraise the loss, stating separately the value at the time of loss and the amount of loss. If the appraisers fail to agree, they shall submit their differences to the umpire. An award in writing by any two shall determine the amount of loss and shall be paid by the Company within 30 days thereafter. The Insured and this Company shall each pay his or its chosen appraiser and shall bear equally the other expenses of the appraisal and of the umpire.

32. PAIR OR SET

Except as provided under the Machinery clause and paragraph (3) of the Consequential Loss clause, in the event of loss or damage insured against to any article or articles not being merchandise which are a part of a pair or set, the measure of loss or damage to such article or articles shall be, at the Insured's option:

A. the reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the pair or set, giving consideration to the importance of said article or articles, but in no event shall such loss or damage be construed to mean total loss of the pair or set; or

B. the full value of the pair or set provided that the Insured surrenders the remaining article or articles of the pair or set to the Company.

3. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION OF THE INSURED

The Insured shall reasonably cooperate with this Company, and, at this Company's reasonable request and expense, shall attend hearings and trials and shall assist in effecting settlements, in securing and giving evidence, in obtaining the attendance of witnesses and in conducting suits.

4. SUE AND LABOR

In case of actual or imminent loss or damage covered by this policy except imminent loss or damage as respects an "accident", it shall, without prejudice to this insurance, be lawful and necessary for the Insured, their factors, servants, or assigns to sue, labor and travel for, in and about the defense, the safeguard, and the recovery of property or any part of the property insured hereunder; nor, in the event of loss or damage, shall the acts of the Insured or of this Company in recovering, saving, and preserving the insured property be considered a waiver or an acceptance of abandonment. Subject to the applicable deductible or the deductible that would apply had the loss happened, this Company shall pay the expenses so incurred.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6) nor does it cover any expenses incurred for actions to defend, safeguard, preserve or recover insured property from actual or imminent physical loss or damage covered by Terrorism coverage as provided in Clause 9.S.

5. PAYMENT OF LOSS

All adjusted claims shall be due and payable no later than 30 days after presentation and acceptance of proofs of loss by this Company or its appointed representative.

6. CURRENCY

A. Loss, if any, is to be paid in the same currency in which the premium is paid.

B. (1) In the event of a property damage loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date(s) of expenditure.

If property damaged or destroyed is not repaired, rebuilt or replaced, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date of loss.

(2) In the event of a business interruption, extra expense, rental value, royalties and/or expediting expense loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the average New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal in effect during each 30 day period (or part thereof) commencing on the date the loss occurs.

C. Local Currency shall be defined as the currency of the country where loss occurs. This definition shall also include a local currency equivalent.

7. REINSTATEMENT

With the exception of loss caused by perils which are subject to annual aggregate limits as noted in Clause 4, no loss hereunder shall reduce the amount of this policy.

8. SUIT AGAINST THE COMPANY

No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless the Insured shall have fully complied with all the requirements of this policy and legal action is started within 24 months after inception of the loss.

It is agreed that in the event of the failure of the Company to pay any amount claimed to be due hereunder or in the event of any other dispute relating to this policy, this policy will be governed by the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the United States (or Canada) and will comply with all of the requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction and all matters hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court, not including the court's law regarding choice of law.

9. CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE

Any certificate of insurance issued in connection with this policy shall be issued solely as a matter of convenience or information for the addressee(s) or holder(s) of said certificate of insurance, except where any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are named pursuant to the Special Provisions of said certificate of insurance. In the event any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are so named, this policy shall be deemed to have been endorsed accordingly, subject to all other terms, conditions and exclusions stated herein.

The Company hereby authorizes Marsh Inc. to issue certificates of insurance including any Mortgagee, Loss Payee and, as authorized by the Company, Additional Insured.

0. CANCELLATION

A. This policy may be canceled at any time at the request of the Insured or it may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at American Water Works, 1025 Laurel Oak Road - Voorhees - NJ 08043 to the attention of the Risk Management department and to the additional named insureds/loss payees indicated on the certificates of insurance issued during the term of this policy, written notice stating when, not less than 60 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. The earned premium shall be computed on a pro-rata basis.

B. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice and the effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or by the Company shall be equivalent to mailing.

C. Cancellation shall not affect coverage on any shipment in transit on the date of cancellation. Coverage will continue in full force until such property is safely delivered and accepted at place of final destination.

D. In the event of non-payment of premium this policy may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at the address shown in A. above stating when, not less than 10 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective.

11. VALUES

The values on the schedule of property declared to the Company at the inception of the policy are for premium purposes only and shall not limit the coverages provided by this policy.

12. TITLES OF PARAGRAPHS

The titles of paragraphs of this form and of endorsements and supplemental contracts, if any, now or hereafter attached hereto are inserted solely for convenience of reference and shall not be deemed in any way to limit or affect the provisions to which they relate.

13. CONFORMANCE

The terms of this policy which are in conflict with the applicable statutes of the jurisdiction wherein this policy is issued are hereby amended to conform to such statutes, unless the statutes narrow or limit the coverage afforded by this policy and do not bar a policy from providing broader coverage.

14. GEOGRAPHIC TERRORISM PROVISIONS

A. As respects the United States, its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico any recovery under this policy for any insured loss or damage from acts of terrorism, as covered under this policy, may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government in accordance with the Terrorism Insurance Risk Act of 2002. Reimbursement by the United States Government will be under a formula established by Federal Law.

15. ASSIGNMENT

Assignment of this policy shall not be valid except with the written consent of this Company.

16. MISREPRESENTATION AND FRAUD

This entire policy will be void if, whether before or after a loss, an Insured has:

A. willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance, the subject thereof, any insurance claim, or the interest of an Insured;

B. made any attempt to defraud the Company;

C. made any false swearing.

17. EXCESS CLAUSE (DROP DOWN AND PRIORITY OF PAYMENTS)

A. Coverage hereunder shall not apply until the amount of loss, damage or expense arising out of any one occurrence exceeds $_25,000 plus the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible and any waiting period attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured hereunder.

The amount of the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible referred to above shall be determined by the proportion that the amount of loss attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against under this policy (without application of the excess provision) bears to the total amount of loss multiplied by the amount of the applicable primary deductibles.

In the event that the total amount of loss, damage, or expense attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverage insured under the underlying insurance exceeds that amount at which this policy would normally attach, but due to the application of sublimits in the underlying policy(ies), the total loss, damage and expense payable by the underlying policy(ies) does not fully exhaust the underlying policy(ies) limit, then this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss as covered under this policy in excess of the amount paid by the underlying policy(ies).

As respects theft, the term Occurrence as referred to elsewhere within the policy means the sum total of all losses of covered property resulting from one or more concealed acts committed by one person or more than one person acting in unison to the extent such loss is not otherwise excluded under this policy.

B. In determining the amount of any loss, damage, or expense for which this policy is excess, the total loss for all coverages caused by any combination of perils, one or more of which is insured against under the primary policy, shall be used even though all such perils or coverages are not insured against under this excess policy.

(1) Any recoveries made under the primary policy shall be considered as first applying to those perils and/or property and/or coverages not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributable to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or coverages and/or property insured hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(2) If there is any other excess insurance covering the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against in the primary policy, but not covered by this policy, this insurance shall then allocate any loss recoveries made under the primary policy in the same proportion as the amount of loss involving the property and/or coverages insured against by this policy bears to the combined total loss. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or property and/or coverages covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(3) Paragraph two shall not apply, however, when the amount of loss attributed to the perils insured under the primary policy, but not covered under this policy, exceed the total amount of insurance provided by the primary and excess coverages with respect to said perils. In this situation any recoveries made under the primary policy shall first apply to those perils not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(4) In the event the Insured is a contributing or self-insurer with respect to the perils and/or property and/or coverages otherwise insured in any underlying insurance and no policy is issued to define the extent of this contributing or self insurance, for the purposes of this Excess Clause, the Insured's contributing or self-insurance shall be deemed to be the same as either: (a) all other contributing insurance participating in the Insured's layer(s); or (b) all other contributing insurance participating in the layer below the Insured's layer where the Insured is entirely self insuring the layer. If the coverage provided by the policy(s) of the other contributing insurance company(s) is non-concurrent, then the contributing or self insurance provided by the Insured within the layer in question shall be deemed to be the same as the coverage provided by that contributing insurance company whose policy provides the least indemnity for the loss.

C. In the event the annual aggregate limits provided for flood and/or earthquake in any underlying insurance are diminished or exhausted in any one policy year, the coverage provided under this policy shall respond as excess of the remaining limits.

In such event, the applicable amount of the deductible provision of the primary policy shall apply to the combination of all policies.

Where applicable relative to contributing insurance policy(s) described in either subparagraphs B(4)(a) or B(4)(b) above, in the event the Insured is providing contributing or self-insurance in any of the layer(s) of insurance, and such other contributing insurance policies contain aggregate limits of liability, the Insured's contributing or self insurance for those coverages shall be deemed to be aggregated also.

8. FULL WAIVER

The terms and conditions of this form and endorsements attached thereto replace those of the policy to which it is attached, all terms, conditions and endorsements of the latter being waived unless otherwise specified herein.

It is understood and agreed that faxed or electronically transmitted "PDF" documents will be deemed original documentation for the program.

2. capture, save, or retain and/or correctly manipulate, interpret or process any data or information or command or instruction as a result of treating any date otherwise than as its true calendar date; date/or

B. It is further understood that the Insurer will not pay for the repair or modification of any part of an electronic data processing system or its related equipment, to correct deficiencies or features of logic or operation.

C It is further understood that the Insurer will not pay for Damage or Consequential Loss arising from the failure, inadequacy, or malfunction of any advice, consultation, design evaluation, inspection installation, maintenance, repair or supervision done by the Insured or for the Insured or by or for others to determine, rectify or test, any potential or actual failure, malfunction or inadequacy described in A. above.

Such Damage or Consequential Loss described in A, B, or C above is excluded regardless of any other cause that contributed concurrently or in any other sequence.

This endorsement shall not exclude subsequent Damage or Consequential Loss, not otherwise excluded, which itself results from a Defined Peril. Defined Peril shall mean: fire, Lightning, explosion aircraft or vehicle impact, falling objects, windstorm, hail, tornado, hurricane, riot, strike, civil commotion, vandalism, malicious mischief, earthquake, volcano, tsunami, freeze or weight of snow.

In consequence of all the foregoing the Annual Premium remains unaltered.

All other terms and conditions and exclusions of this policy remain unchanged.

WATER DAMAGE EXCLUSION - INTERIOR OF BUILDING

In consideration of the premium charged, it is agreed that, notwithstanding any provisions to the contrary in the policy to which this Endorsement is attached, the coverage afforded by the policy is restricted as follows:

The Company shall not be liable for any loss or damage to covered property caused by, arising out of, contributed to, or resulting from rain, snow, sleet or ice, all whether wind driven or not, entering the interior of any building or structure undergoing construction or renovation unless the exterior of such building or structure, including but not limited to the roof and outside walls, is complete, and then only if said exterior of the building first sustains physical damage by a covered loss through which the rain, snow, sleet, or ice enters.

All other terms, conditions, definitions, exclusions, limitations and provisions of the Policy remain the same.

STANDARD PROPERTY CONDITIONS

MINIMUM EARNED PREMIUM CLAUSE

In the event of cancellation of this policy by the Insured, a minimum premium equivalent to 25% of the initial policy premum shall become earned, any provision of the policy to the contrary notwithstanding.

Failure of the Insured to make timely payment of premium, shall be considered a request by the Insured for the Company to cancel on the Insurer's behalf. In the event of such cancellation for non-payment of premium, the minimum earned premium shall be due and payable; provided, however, such cancellation shall be rescinded if the Insured remits and the Company receives the full policy premium with 10 days after the date of issuance of the cancellation notice. Such remittance and acceptance by the Company shall not effect the minimum earned premium provision of this endorsement. In the event of any other cancellation by the Company, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata, not subject to the minimum earned premium.

CANCELLATION CLAUSE

Except and to the extent of the Minimum Earned Premium Clause which is part of this policy, this clause supersedes other cancellation clauses made a part of this policy.

CANCELLATION: This policy may be cancelled by the insured by surrender thereof to the Company or by mailing to the Company written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. This policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing to the Insured, at the mailing address shown in this policy or last known address, written notice, stating when, not less than 90 days thereafter (10 days for non-payment of premium) such cancellation shall be effective. The effectiveness of cancellation is not dependent on the return of unearned premium with the notice. Proof of mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. The effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or the Company shall be equivalent to mailing. Return of any unearned premium will be calculated on a pro-rata basis if this Policy is canceled by request of the Insured or by request of the Company. Return of any unearned premium will be made by the Company as soon as practicable, but within 90 days time counted from the date of cancellation.

REPORTING CLAUSE

Notwithstanding that the Insured may be obligated to report full values for premium purposes, the Company's maximum limit of liability shall not exceed that amount stated as the policy limit of liability.

PROOF OF LOSS AND PAYMENT

The Insured shall complete and sign a sworn proof of loss within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of a loss (unless such period be extended by the written agreement of the Company) stating the time, place and cause of loss, the interest of the Insured and of all others in the property, the sound value thereof and the amount of loss or damage thereto, and all other insurance thereon. All adjusted claims shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after the presentation and acceptance of satisfactory proof(s) of floss at the office of the Company at 200 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02109

GOVERNMENT ACTIVITY CLAUSE

The Company shall not be liable for loss or damage caused by or resulting from: (1) the seizure or destruction of property insured by this policy by any government body, including any customs or quarantine action, or (2) confiscation or destruction of any property by order of any government or public authority, except an order to destroy property to prevent the spread of fire or explosion.

IN WITNESS HEREOF, we have caused this policy to be executed and attested, but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned in the Declarations by one of our duly authorized

Mold, Fungus, Wet and Dry Rot and Bacteria Exclusion

This policy does not insure any loss, damage or expense consisting of, caused by, contributed to, or aggravated by mold, moss, mildew, fungi, spores, bacterial infestation or any similar organism, wet or dry rot and extremes of temperature or humidity, whether directly or indirectly the result of a covered peril. This includes, but is not limited to, the cost for investigation, testing, remediation services, extra expense or business interruption. Such loss is excluded regardless of any other cause or event that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the loss. When stock in process is valued at selling price, there will be deducted any manufacturing expense not incurred by the Insured and any discounts, rebates, and unincurred expenses to which the sales price would have been subject.

(3) Finished stock (stock which in the ordinary course of the Insured's business is ready for packing, shipment or sale) and merchandise shall be valued at the Insured's selling price at the time of loss, less all discounts, rebates, and unincurred expenses to which such sales price would have been subject.

However, physical damage by fire, explosion and sprinkler leakage resulting from flood will not be considered loss by flood within the terms and conditions of this policy.

B. Should any time period referred to in Clause A. above commence prior to expiration or cancellation date of this policy, this Company shall pay all such earthquake or flood losses occurring during such period as if such period fell entirely within the term of this policy.

C. This Company shall not be liable, however, for any loss caused by any earthquake or flood commencing before the effective date and time or commencing after the expiration date and time of this policy.

15. ACCIDENT

The term "accident" is defined solely for the determination of the limits of liability and/or deductible(s) and application of the sue and labor and suspension section only. The term "accident" shall not limit or define the perils or coverages provided elsewhere in this policy.

A. The term "accident" shall mean:

(1) Any condition or occurrence within boilers or fired or unfired vessels owned by, operated by, or under the control of the Insured and subject to pressure or vacuum including piping or apparatus attached to and forming a part thereof, except that the words "any condition or occurrence" shall not include explosion, other than explosion of the parts of a steam boiler containing steam or water, steam piping, steam turbines, or steam engines;

17. EXCESS INSURANCE

Excess insurance is insurance over the limit of liability set forth in this policy. The existence of such excess insurance shall not prejudice the coverage provided under this policy nor will it reduce any liability hereunder.

18. UNDERLYING INSURANCE

A. Underlying insurance is insurance on all or any part of the deductible and against all or any of the causes of loss covered by this policy including declarations of value to the carrier for hire. The existence of such underlying insurance shall not prejudice or affect any recovery otherwise payable under this policy.

B. If the limits of such underlying insurance exceed the deductible amount which would apply in the event of loss under this policy, then that portion which exceeds such a deductible amount shall be considered other insurance, as defined in the Other Insurance clause.

19. OTHER INSURANCE

Except for insurance described by the contributing insurance clause, the excess insurance clause, or the underlying insurance clause, this policy shall not cover to the extent of any other collectible insurance, whether directly or indirectly covering the same property against the same causes of loss. This Company shall be liable for loss or damage only to the extent of that amount in excess of the amount recoverable from such other collectible insurance. Notwithstanding that this policy only covers for the excess of any other collectible insurance, this Company guarantees prompt payment in full of the amount of loss which would have been recoverable under this policy in the absence of such other collectible insurance and agrees to advance the amount of loss as a loan, without interest, repayable in the event of and to the extent of recovery from such other collectible insurance minus the cost of recovery, and repayable in the event of non-payment by the primary Insurer due to insolvency as excluded in Clause 11.A. As used herein, "other collectible insurance" does not include self-insurance, deductibles, self-insured retentions or fronting policies.

20. PRIMARY INSURANCE

Primary Insurance shall mean locally admitted and/or non-admitted policies issued to the Insured in Canada and by the Company's local subsidiaries or representatives.

21. CONFLICT IN WORDING

Subject to all other terms and conditions set forth herein, coverage under this policy shall take precedence when the perils and/or definitions and/or conditions set forth herein are broader in meaning or scope than those of primary policies.

22. SUBROGATION

A. Any release from liability entered into by the Insured prior to loss hereunder shall not affect this policy or the right of the Insured to recover hereunder. The right of subrogation against the Insured, affiliated, subsidiary, and associated companies or corporations, the Insured's officers, directors, and employees, or any other corporations or companies associated with the Insured through ownership or management, and at the option of the Insured against a tenant of the Insured, is waived.

B. In the event of any payment under this policy, this Company, where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance are not reduced or eliminated, shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefore. The Insured shall execute all papers required and shall do anything that may be reasonably necessary at the expense of the Company to secure such right. The Company will act in concert with all other interests concerned, i.e., the Insured and any other Company(ies) participating in the payment of any loss as primary or excess insurers, in the exercise of such rights of recovery.

If any amount is recovered as a result of such proceedings, the net amount recovered after deducting the cost of recovery shall be divided between the interests concerned in the proportion of their respective interests. If there should be no recovery, the expense of proceedings shall be borne by the insurers instituting the proceedings.

23. SALVAGE AND RECOVERIES

Where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance is not reduced or eliminated, all salvages, recoveries and payments, excluding proceeds from subrogation and underlying insurance, recovered or received prior to a loss settlement under this policy, shall reduce the loss accordingly.

24. MACHINERY

In case of loss or damage insured against to any part of a machine or unit consisting of two or more parts when complete for use, the liability of the Company shall be limited to the value of the part or parts lost or damaged or, at the Insured's option, the lesser of cost and expense of replacing or duplicating the lost or damaged part or parts or of repairing the machine or unit.

25. SUSPENSION

Upon discovery of a dangerous condition with respect to any boiler, fired or unfired pressure vessel and any mechanical or electrical machine or apparatus used for the generation, transmission or utilization of mechanical or electrical power, any representative of the Company may immediately suspend the insurance with respect to an "accident" to said property by written notice mailed or delivered to the Insured at the home office address of the Insured.

26. ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

Any unintentional error or omission made by the Insured in the description of where insured property is located or to include a location in the Schedule of Locations or to report a newly acquired (owned, purchased, leased or rented) location, or that results in cancellation of an insured location under this policy, shall not void or impair the insurance hereunder provided the Insured reports such error or omission as soon as reasonably possible after discovery by the Insured's home office insurance department. Coverage under this clause shall be subject to the limit of liability stated in Clause 4.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6).

27. NOTICE OF LOSS

As soon as practicable after any loss or damage occurring under this policy is known to the Insured's Home Office Insurance Department, the Insured shall report such loss or damage to both this Company and then to Marsh Inc.

28. PROOF OF LOSS

It is agreed that at the Insured's option, the Company will use GAB Robins Camp Hill, PA for the adjustment of all claims made against this policy. This assignment may be changed by mutual consent of the Insured and the Company.

31. APPRAISAL

If the Insured and this Company fail to agree on the amount of the loss, each, upon written demand of either the Insured or this Company made within 60 days after receipt of proof of loss by the Company, shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser. The appraisers shall then select a competent and disinterested umpire. If they should fail for 15 days to agree upon such umpire, then upon the request of the Insured or of this Company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the jurisdiction in which such appraisal is pending. Then, at a reasonable time and place, the appraisers shall appraise the loss, stating separately the value at the time of loss and the amount of loss. If the appraisers fail to agree, they shall submit their differences to the umpire. An award in writing by any two shall determine the amount of loss and shall be paid by the Company within 30 days thereafter. The Insured and this Company shall each pay his or its chosen appraiser and shall bear equally the other expenses of the appraisal and of the umpire.

32. PAIR OR SET

Except as provided under the Machinery clause and paragraph (3) of the Consequential Loss clause, in the event of loss or damage insured against to any article or articles not being merchandise which are a part of a pair or set, the measure of loss or damage to such article or articles shall be, at the Insured's option:

A. the reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the pair or set, giving consideration to the importance of said article or articles, but in no event shall such loss or damage be construed to mean total loss of the pair or set; or

B. the full value of the pair or set provided that the Insured surrenders the remaining article or articles of the pair or set to the Company.

33. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION OF THE INSURED

The Insured shall reasonably cooperate with this Company, and, at this Company's reasonable request and expense, shall attend hearings and trials and shall assist in effecting settlements, in securing and giving evidence, in obtaining the attendance of witnesses and in conducting suits.

34. SUE AND LABOR

In case of actual or imminent loss or damage covered by this policy except imminent loss or damage as respects an "accident", it shall, without prejudice to this insurance, be lawful and necessary for the Insured, their factors, servants, or assigns to sue, labor and travel for, in and about the defense, the safeguard, and the recovery of property or any part of the property insured hereunder; nor, in the event of loss or damage, shall the acts of the Insured or of this Company in recovering, saving, and preserving the insured property be considered a waiver or an acceptance of abandonment. Subject to the applicable deductible or the deductible that would apply had the loss happened, this Company shall pay the expenses so incurred.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6) nor does it cover any expenses incurred for actions to defend, safeguard, preserve or recover insured property from actual or imminent physical loss or damage covered by Terrorism coverage as provided in Clause 9.S.

35. PAYMENT OF LOSS

All adjusted claims shall be due and payable no later than 30 days after presentation and acceptance of proofs of loss by this Company or its appointed representative.

36. CURRENCY

A. Loss, if any, is to be paid in the same currency in which the premium is paid.

B. (1) In the event of a property damage loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date(s) of expenditure.

If property damaged or destroyed is not repaired, rebuilt or replaced, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date of loss.

(2) In the event of a business interruption, extra expense, rental value, royalties and/or expediting expense loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the average New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal in effect during each 30 day period (or part thereof) commencing on the date the loss occurs.

C. Local Currency shall be defined as the currency of the country where loss occurs. This definition shall also include a local currency equivalent.

37. REINSTATEMENT

With the exception of loss caused by perils which are subject to annual aggregate limits as noted in Clause 4, no loss hereunder shall reduce the amount of this policy.

38. SUIT AGAINST THE COMPANY

No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless the Insured shall have fully complied with all the requirements of this policy and legal action is started within 24 months after inception of the loss.

It is agreed that in the event of the failure of the Company to pay any amount claimed to be due hereunder or in the event of any other dispute relating to this policy, this policy will be governed by the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the United States (or Canada) and will comply with all of the requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction and all matters hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court, not including the court's law regarding choice of law.

39. CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE

Any certificate of insurance issued in connection with this policy shall be issued solely as a matter of convenience or information for the addressee(s) or holder(s) of said certificate of insurance, except where any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are named pursuant to the Special Provisions of said certificate of insurance. In the event any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are so named, this policy shall be deemed to have been endorsed accordingly, subject to all other terms, conditions and exclusions stated herein.

The Company hereby authorizes Marsh Inc. to issue certificates of insurance including any Mortgagee, Loss Payee and, as authorized by the Company, Additional Insured.

40. CANCELLATION

A. This policy may be canceled at any time at the request of the Insured or it may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at American Water Works, 1025 Laurel Oak Road - Voorhees - NJ 08043 to the attention of the Risk Management department and to the additional named insureds/loss payees indicated on the certificates of insurance issued during the term of this policy, written notice stating when, not less than 60 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. The earned premium shall be computed on a pro-rata basis.

B. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice and the effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or by the Company shall be equivalent to mailing.

C. Cancellation shall not affect coverage on any shipment in transit on the date of cancellation. Coverage will continue in full force until such property is safely delivered and accepted at place of final destination.

D. In the event of non-payment of premium this policy may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at the address shown in A. above stating when, not less than 10 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective.

41. VALUES

The values on the schedule of property declared to the Company at the inception of the policy are for premium purposes only and shall not limit the coverages provided by this policy.

42. TITLES OF PARAGRAPHS

The titles of paragraphs of this form and of endorsements and supplemental contracts, if any, now or hereafter attached hereto are inserted solely for convenience of reference and shall not be deemed in any way to limit or affect the provisions to which they relate.

43. CONFORMANCE

The terms of this policy which are in conflict with the applicable statutes of the jurisdiction wherein this policy is issued are hereby amended to conform to such statutes, unless the statutes narrow or limit the coverage afforded by this policy and do not bar a policy from providing broader coverage.

44. GEOGRAPHIC TERRORISM PROVISIONS

A. As respects the United States, its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico any recovery under this policy for any insured loss or damage from acts of terrorism, as covered under this policy, may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government in accordance with the Terrorism Insurance Risk Act of 2002. Reimbursement by the United States Government will be under a formula established by Federal Law.

45. ASSIGNMENT

Assignment of this policy shall not be valid except with the written consent of this Company.

46. MISREPRESENTATION AND FRAUD

This entire policy will be void if, whether before or after a loss, an Insured has:

A. willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance, the subject thereof, any insurance claim, or the interest of an Insured;

B. made any attempt to defraud the Company;

C. made any false swearing.

47. EXCESS CLAUSE (DROP DOWN AND PRIORITY OF PAYMENTS)

A. Coverage hereunder shall not apply until the amount of loss, damage or expense arising out of any one occurrence exceeds $_25,000 plus the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible and any waiting period attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured hereunder.

The amount of the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible referred to above shall be determined by the proportion that the amount of loss attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against under this policy (without application of the excess provision) bears to the total amount of loss multiplied by the amount of the applicable primary deductibles.

In the event that the total amount of loss, damage, or expense attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverage insured under the underlying insurance exceeds that amount at which this policy would normally attach, but due to the application of sublimits in the underlying policy(ies), the total loss, damage and expense payable by the underlying policy(ies) does not fully exhaust the underlying policy(ies) limit, then this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss as covered under this policy in excess of the amount paid by the underlying policy(ies).

As respects theft, the term Occurrence as referred to elsewhere within the policy means the sum total of all losses of covered property resulting from one or more concealed acts committed by one person or more than one person acting in unison to the extent such loss is not otherwise excluded under this policy.

B. In determining the amount of any loss, damage, or expense for which this policy is excess, the total loss for all coverages caused by any combination of perils, one or more of which is insured against under the primary policy, shall be used even though all such perils or coverages are not insured against under this excess policy.

(1) Any recoveries made under the primary policy shall be considered as first applying to those perils and/or property and/or coverages not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributable to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or coverages and/or property insured hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(2) If there is any other excess insurance covering the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against in the primary policy, but not covered by this policy, this insurance shall then allocate any loss recoveries made under the primary policy in the same proportion as the amount of loss involving the property and/or coverages insured against by this policy bears to the combined total loss. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or property and/or coverages covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(3) Paragraph two shall not apply, however, when the amount of loss attributed to the perils insured under the primary policy, but not covered under this policy, exceed the total amount of insurance provided by the primary and excess coverages with respect to said perils. In this situation any recoveries made under the primary policy shall first apply to those perils not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(4) In the event the Insured is a contributing or self-insurer with respect to the perils and/or property and/or coverages otherwise insured in any underlying insurance and no policy is issued to define the extent of this contributing or self insurance, for the purposes of this Excess Clause, the Insured's contributing or self-insurance shall be deemed to be the same as either: (a) all other contributing insurance participating in the Insured's layer(s); or (b) all other contributing insurance participating in the layer below the Insured's layer where the Insured is entirely self insuring the layer. If the coverage provided by the policy(s) of the other contributing insurance company(s) is non-concurrent, then the contributing or self insurance provided by the Insured within the layer in question shall be deemed to be the same as the coverage provided by that contributing insurance company whose policy provides the least indemnity for the loss.

C. In the event the annual aggregate limits provided for flood and/or earthquake in any underlying insurance are diminished or exhausted in any one policy year, the coverage provided under this policy shall respond as excess of the remaining limits.

In such event, the applicable amount of the deductible provision of the primary policy shall apply to the combination of all policies.

Where applicable relative to contributing insurance policy(s) described in either subparagraphs B(4)(a) or B(4)(b) above, in the event the Insured is providing contributing or self-insurance in any of the layer(s) of insurance, and such other contributing insurance policies contain aggregate limits of liability, the Insured's contributing or self insurance for those coverages shall be deemed to be aggregated also.

It is understood and agreed that the following special terms and conditions apply to this policy:

1. The limit of liability or Amount of Insurance shown on the face of this policy, or endorsed on to this policy, is the total limit of the Company's liability applicable to each occurrence, as hereafter defined. Notwithstanding any other terms and conditions of this policy to the contrary, in no event shall the liability of the company exceed this limit or amount irrespective of the number of locations involved.

   The term "occurrence" shall mean any one loss, disaster, casualty or series of losses, disasters, or casualties, arising out of one event. When the term applies to loss or losses from the perils of tornado, cyclone, hurricane, windstorm, hail, flood, earthquake, volcanic eruption, riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion, and vandalism and malicious mischief one event shall be constructed to be all losses arising during a continuous period of 72 hours. ENDORSEMENT 8 - STANDARD PROPERTY CONDITIONS

In consideration of the premium charged, the following clauses are hereby made applicable under this policy.

MINIMUM EARNED PREMIUM CLAUSE

In the event of cancellation of this policy by the Insured, a minimum premium equivalent to 25% of the initial policy premum shall become earned, any provision of the policy to the contrary notwithstanding.

Failure of the Insured to make timely payment of premium, shall be considered a request by the Insured for the Company to cancel on the Insurer's behalf. In the event of such cancellation for non-payment of premium, the minimum earned premium shall be due and payable; provided, however, such cancellation shall be rescinded if the Insured remits and the Company receives the full policy premium with 10 days after the date of issuance of the cancellation notice. Such remittance and acceptance by the Company shall not effect the minimum earned premium provision of this endorsement. In the event of any other cancellation by the Company, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata, not subject to the minimum earned premium.

CANCELLATION CLAUSE

Except and to the extent of the Minimum Earned Premium Clause which is part of this policy, this clause supersedes other cancellation clauses made a part of this policy.

CANCELLATION: This policy may be cancelled by the insured by surrender thereof to the Company or by mailing to the Company written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. This policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing to the Insured, at the mailing address shown in this policy or last known address, written notice, stating when, not less than 90 days thereafter (10 days for non-payment of premium) such cancellation shall be effective. The effectiveness of cancellation is not dependent on the return of unearned premium with the notice. Proof of mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. The effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or the Company shall be equivalent to mailing. Return of any unearned premium will be calculated on a pro-rata basis if this Policy is canceled by request of the Insured or by request of the Company. Return of any unearned premium will be made by the Company as soon as practicable, but within 90 days time counted from the date of cancellation.

REPORTING CLAUSE

Notwithstanding that the Insured may be obligated to report full values for premium purposes, the Company's maximum limit of liability shall not exceed that amount stated as the policy limit of liability.

PROOF OF LOSS AND PAYMENT

The Insured shall complete and sign a sworn proof of loss within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of a loss (unless such period be extended by the written agreement of the Company) stating the time, place and cause of loss, the interest of the Insured and of all others in the property, the sound value thereof and the amount of loss or damage thereto, and all other insurance thereon. All adjusted claims shall be due and payable thirty (30) days after the presentation and acceptance of satisfactory proof(s) of floss at the office of the Company at 200 State Street, Boston, Massachusetts 02109

GOVERNMENT ACTIVITY CLAUSE

The Company shall not be liable for loss or damage caused by or resulting from: (1) the seizure or destruction of property insured by this policy by any government body, including any customs or quarantine action, or (2) confiscation or destruction of any property by order of any government or public authority, except an order to destroy property to prevent the spread of fire or explosion.

IN WITNESS HEREOF, we have caused this policy to be executed and attested, but this policy shall not be valid unless countersigned in the Declarations by one of our duly authorized

ENDORSEMENT 9 - TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT OF 2002

You are hereby notified that under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the "Act") effective November 26, 2002, you now have a right to purchase insurance coverage for losses arising out of an Act of Terrorism, which is defined in the Act as an act certified by the Secretary of the Treasury (i) to be an act of terrorism, (ii) to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to (A) human life; (B) property or (C) infrastructure, (iii) to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in case of an air carrier or vessel or the premises of a U.S. mission and (iv) to have been committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. You should read the Act for a complete description of its coverage. The Secretary's decision to certify or not to certify an event as an Act of Terrorism and thus covered by this law is final and not subject to review. There is a S100 billion dollar annual cap on all losses resulting from Acts of Terrorism above which no coverage will be provided under this policy and under the Act unless Congress makes some other determination.

For your information, coverage provided by this policy for losses caused by an Act of Terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States under a formula established by the Act. Under this formula the United States pays 90% of terrorism losses covered by this law exceeding a statutorily established deductible that must be met by the insurer, and which deductible is based on a percentage of the insurer's direct earned premiums for the year preceding the Act of Terrorism.

Unless you sign this form and return it to us rejecting Terrorism Coverage under the Federal Act, you will be covered for Terrorism as defined in the Act and your premium for that coverage is $_____

I hereby reject coverage in accordance with the Act.

EXCLUSION OF CERTIFIED ACTS AND OTHER ACTS OF TERRORISM; COVERAGE FOR CERTAIN FIRE LOSSES

This endorsement modifies insurance provided under the following:

COMMERCIAL PROPERTY COVERAGE PART
FARM COVERAGE PART STANDARD PROPERTY POLICY

A. The following definitions are added with respect to the provisions of this endorsement:

1. "Certified act of terrorism" means an act that is certified by the Secretary of the Treasury, in concurrence with the Secretary of State and the Attorney General of the United States, to be an act of terrorism pursuant to the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002. The criteria contained in that Act for a "certified act of terrorism" include the following:
   a. The act resulted in aggregate losses in excess of $5 million; and
   b. The act is a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure and is committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion.
2. "Other act of terrorism" means a violent act or an act that is dangerous to human life, property or infrastructure that is committed by an individual or individuals and that appears to be part of an effort to coerce a civilian population or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of any government by coercion, and the act is not certified as a terrorist act pursuant to the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002.

B. The following exclusion is added:

EXCLUSION OF CERTIFIED ACTS AND OTHER ACTS OF TERRORISM

We will not pay for loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by a "certified act of terrorism" or an "other act of terrorism". Such loss or damage is excluded regardless of any other cause or event that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the loss. But with respect to an "other act of terrorism", this exclusion applies only when one or more of the following are attributed to such act:

1. The terrorism is carried out by means of the dispersal or application of pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials; or
2. Pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials are released, and it appears that one purpose of the terrorism was to release such materials; or
3. The total of insured damage to all types of property in the United States, its territories and possessions, Puerto Rico and Canada exceeds $25,000,000. In determining whether the $25,000,000 threshold is exceeded, we will include all insured damage sustained by property of all persons and entities affected by the terrorism and business interruption losses sustained by owners or occupants of the damaged property. For the purpose of this provision, insured damage means damage that is covered by any insurance plus damage that would be covered by any insurance but for the application of any terrorism exclusions. Multiple incidents of "other acts of terrorism" which occur within a 72-hour period and appear to be carried out in concert or to have a related purpose or common leadership will be deemed to be one incident.

 © ISO Properties, Inc., 2002 □

With respect to this Item B.3., the immediately preceding paragraph describes the threshold used to measure the magnitude of an "other act of terrorism" and the circumstances in which the threshold will apply, for the purpose of determining whether this exclusion will apply to that incident. When the exclusion applies to an "other act of terrorism", there is no coverage under this Coverage Part or Standard Property Policy.

C. Exception Covering Certain Fire Losses

If a "certified act of terrorism" or an "other act of terrorism" results in fire, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire. Such coverage for fire applies only to direct loss or damage by fire to Covered Property. Therefore, for example, the coverage does not apply to insurance provided under Business Income and/or Extra Expense coverage forms or endorsements which apply to those forms, or to the Legal Liability Coverage Form or the Leasehold Interest Coverage Form.

With respect to fire resulting from any one or more "certified acts of terrorism" under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002, we will not pay any amounts for which we are not responsible under the terms of that Act (including subsequent action of Congress pursuant to the Act) due to the application of any clause which results in a cap on our liability for payments for terrorism losses.

D. Application Of Other Exclusions

The terms and limitations of any terrorism exclusion, or the inapplicability or omission of a terrorism exclusion, do not serve to create coverage for any loss which would otherwise be excluded under this Coverage Part or Standard Property Policy, such as losses excluded by the Nuclear Hazard Exclusion or the War And Military Action Exclusion.

Information required to complete this Schedule, if not shown above, will be shown in the Declarations.

A. Applicability Of The Provisions Of This Endorsement

1. The provisions of this endorsement become applicable commencing on the date when any one or more of the following first occurs. But if your policy (meaning the policy period in which this endorsement applies) begins after such date, then the provisions of this endorsement become applicable on the date your policy begins.

a. The federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Program ("Program"), established by the Terrorism Risk Insurance Act, has terminated with respect to the type of insurance provided under this Coverage Form, Coverage Part or Policy; or b. A renewal, extension or replacement of the Program has become effective without a requirement to make terrorism coverage available to you and with revisions that:

(1) Increase our statutory percentage deductible under the Program for terrorism losses. (That deductible determines the amount of all certified terrorism losses we must pay in a calendar year, before the federal government shares in subsequent payment of certified terrorism losses.); or

(2) Decrease the federal government's statutory percentage share in potential terrorism losses above such deductible; or

(3) Redefine terrorism or make insurance coverage for terrorism subject to provisions or requirements that differ from those that apply to other types of events or occurrences under this policy.

2. If the provisions of this endorsement become applicable, such provisions:

a. Supersede any terrorism endorsement already endorsed to this policy that addresses "certified acts of terrorism" and/or "other acts of terrorism", but only with respect to loss or damage from an incident(s) of terrorism (however defined) that occurs on or after the date when the provisions of this endorsement become applicable; and

b. Remain applicable unless we notify you of changes in these provisions, in response to federal law.

3. If the provisions of this endorsement do NOT become applicable, any terrorism endorsement already endorsed to this policy, that addresses "certified acts of terrorism" and/or "other acts of terrorism", will continue in effect unless we notify you of changes to that endorsement in response to federal law.

B. The following definition is added and applies under this endorsement wherever the term terrorism is enclosed in quotation marks.

"Terrorism" means activities against persons, organizations or property of any nature:

1. That involve the following or preparation for the following:
   a. Use or threat of force or violence; or
   b. Commission or threat of a dangerous act; or
   c. Commission or threat of an act that interferes with or disrupts an electronic, communication, information, or mechanical system; and
2. When one or both of the following applies:
   a. The effect is to intimidate or coerce a government or the civilian population or any segment thereof, or to disrupt any segment of the economy; or
   b. It appears that the intent is to intimidate or coerce a government, or to further political, ideological, religious, social or economic objectives or to express (or express opposition to) a philosophy or ideology.

C. The following exclusion is added:

EXCLUSION OF TERRORISM

We will not pay for loss or damage caused directly or indirectly by "terrorism", including action in hindering or defending against an actual or expected incident of "terrorism". Such loss or damage is excluded regardless of any other cause or event that contributes concurrently or in any sequence to the loss. But this exclusion applies only when one or more of the following are attributed to an incident of "terrorism":

1. The "terrorism" is carried out by means of the dispersal or application of radioactive material, or through the use of a nuclear weapon or device that involves or produces a nuclear reaction, nuclear radiation or radioactive contamination; or
2. Radioactive material is released, and it appears that one purpose of the "terrorism" was to release such material; or
3. The "terrorism" is carried out by means of the dispersal or application of pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials; or
4. Pathogenic or poisonous biological or chemical materials are released, and it appears that one purpose of the "terrorism" was to release such materials; or

© ISO Properties, Inc., 2005

5. The total of insured damage to all types of property in the United States, its territories and possessions, Puerto Rico and Canada exceeds $25,000,000. In determining whether the $25,000,000 threshold is exceeded, we will include all insured damage sustained by property of all persons and entities affected by the "terrorism" and business interruption losses sustained by owners or occupants of the damaged property. For the purpose of this provision, insured damage means damage that is covered by any insurance plus damage that would be covered by any insurance but for the application of any terrorism exclusions. Multiple incidents of "terrorism" which occur within a 72-hour period and appear to be carried out in concert or to have a related purpose or common leadership will be deemed to be one incident, for the purpose of determining whether the threshold is exceeded.

   With respect to this Item C.5., the immediately preceding paragraph describes the threshold used to measure the magnitude of an incident of "terrorism" and the circumstances in which the threshold will apply, for the purpose of determining whether this Exclusion will apply to that incident. When the Exclusion applies to an incident of "terrorism", there is no coverage under this Coverage Form, Coverage Part or Policy.

D. Exception Covering Certain Fire Losses

The following exception to the Exclusion Of Terrorism applies only if indicated and as indicated in the Schedule of this endorsement.

If "terrorism" results in fire, we will pay for the loss or damage caused by that fire, subject to all applicable policy provisions including the Limit of Insurance on the affected property. Such coverage for fire applies only to direct loss or damage by fire to Covered Property. Therefore, for example, the coverage does not apply to insurance provided under Business Income and/or Extra Expense coverage forms or endorsements that apply to those coverage forms, or to the Legal Liability Coverage Form or the Leasehold Interest Coverage Form.

E. Application Of Other Exclusions

1. When the Exclusion Of Terrorism applies in accordance with the terms of C.1. or C.2., such exclusion applies without regard to the Nuclear Hazard Exclusion in this Coverage Form, Coverage Part or Policy.
2. The terms and limitations of any terrorism exclusion, or the inapplicability or omission of a terrorism exclusion, do not serve to create coverage for any loss or damage which would otherwise be excluded under this Coverage Form, Coverage Part or Policy, such as losses excluded by the Nuclear Hazard Exclusion or the War And Military Action Exclusion.

In each case of loss covered by this policy, the Company will be liable only if the Insured sustains a loss in a single occurrence greater than the applicable deductible(s) specified below, and only for its share of that greater amount.

Unless otherwise stated below, when this policy insures more than one location, the deductible will apply against the total loss covered by this policy in any one occurrence.

If two or more deductible amounts in this policy apply to a single occurrence, the total to be deducted shall not exceed the largest deductible.

As respects theft, the term Occurrence as referred to elsewhere within the policy means the sum total of all losses during a policy year of covered property resulting from one or more concealed acts committed by one person or more than one person acting in unison to the extent such loss is not otherwise excluded under this policy.

In the event that all or any portion of the deductible is payable under the Insured's primary insurance or by local, state or governmental funding organizations, such payment shall be considered Underlying Insurance as defined in Clause 18.

The amount of expense necessarily incurred in the subrogation for property lost or damaged shall be considered as part of the loss for the purpose of determining the annual aggregate deductible specified in paragraph (A) above, but not for an amount in excess of the amount by which the loss is reduced by such subrogation activities.

2. When, in connection with any loss or damage to property insured hereunder, any subrogation or any other right of recovery the insured might have against a third party is received subsequent to:

   a. application of the loss toward the annual aggregate deductible specified in paragraph (A) above, and ;

Cancellation by the Insured shall no result in any adjustment of the annual aggregate deductible.

This policy covers loss occurring anywhere in the United States of America, Canada, and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico

8. COVERAGE

Except as hereinafter excluded, this policy covers the following while at a location listed on the Schedule of Locations reported to and on file with the Company, while within 1,000 feet of such location, or while in transit within this policy's territory:

A. Real and Personal Property

(1) The interest of the Insured in all real and personal property including but not limited to property owned, used, leased or contracted for use by the Insured, or hereafter constructed, erected, installed, or acquired, including while in course of construction, erection, installation, and assembly. In the event of loss or damage, this Company agrees to accept and consider the Insured as sole and unconditional owner of improvements and betterments, notwithstanding any contract or leases to the contrary.

(2) The interest of the Insured in real and personal property of others in the Insured's care, custody, or control which the Insured is responsible for or has agreed to insure.

(3) At the option of the Insured, personal property of the Insured's officials, employees and representatives while on the premises of the Insured. This insurance shall then act as primary insurance except as respect employees' automobiles.

(4) Contractors' and vendors' interest in property covered to the extent of the Insured's liability imposed by law or assumed by contract, whether written or oral. Such contractors' and vendors' interest will not extend to any Time Element coverage provided under this policy.

(5) Newly Acquired Locations: Notwithstanding the above provision that a location must be scheduled on a Schedule of Locations in order to be covered, this policy does insure, subject to the Newly Acquired Locations limit of liability, real and personal property (including Time Element coverage if otherwise provided by this policy) at any location acquired, purchased, leased or rented by the Insured after the inception date of this policy from the date of acquisition of such location for the period of time as shown under Time Limits in Clause 4., until reported to the Company, or until agreement is reached that the location will not be covered by this policy, whichever is soonest. This policy does not insure property at such newly acquired locations that are insured in whole or in part by any other insurance policy.

New Dams, Dikes or reservoirs attaching to this insurance will need to be reported to the Company in order for coverage under this policy to be confirmed.

(6) Notwithstanding the above provision that a location must be on a Schedule of Locations in order to be covered, this policy does insure, subject to the Unscheduled Locations limit of liability, Unscheduled Locations (including Time Element coverages if otherwise insured by this policy) that are located within this policy's territory. There is no liability under this policy for loss or damage to property at Unscheduled Locations caused by or resulting from earthquake, as described in Clause 14., in California, Hawaii, Puerto Rico or the New Madrid Seismic Zone as shown in Appendix "A", or in the Pacific Northwest Seismic Zone as described in Appendix "B".

An Unscheduled Location is a location not listed on the Schedule of Locations reported to and on file with the Company; is not a Newly Acquired Location as described in Clause 8.A.(5) nor covered under the terms of Clause 26. Errors or Omissions and is a building, yard, dock, wharf, pier or bulkhead (or any group of the foregoing) bounded on all sides by public streets, clear land space or open waterways, each separation not less than fifty (50) feet wide. Any bridge or tunnel crossing such street, space or waterway will render such separation inoperative for the purpose of defining an Unscheduled Location.

(7) Off Premises Storage for Property Under Construction: Notwithstanding the above provision that a location must be on a Schedule of Locations in order to be covered, this policy covers insured physical loss or damage to property of the type insured (including Time Element coverages if otherwise insured by this policy) that is under contract to be used in a construction project at a location listed on the Schedule of Locations or as described in items (5) and (6) above. Coverage attaches at the time such property is delivered to the Insured or their contractor (with respect to the property under construction) by the manufacturer or supplier and such property is located at a storage site within this policy's territory but away from such construction project. This coverage includes necessary expendable materials and supplies to be utilized in the construction project but does not include any property owned or rented by the contractor. There is no liability under this policy for loss or damage to this property caused by or resulting from earthquake, as described in Clause 14., in California, Hawaii, Puerto Rico or the New Madrid Seismic Zone as shown in Appendix "A", or in the Pacific Northwest Seismic Zone as described in Appendix "B".

B. Business Interruption

(1) Loss resulting from necessary interruption of business conducted by the Insured, whether total or partial, and caused by physical loss, damage, or destruction covered herein during the term of this policy to real and personal property as described in Clause 8.A.

(2) If such loss occurs during the term of this policy, it shall be adjusted on the basis of ACTUAL LOSS SUSTAINED by the Insured, consisting of the net profit which is thereby prevented from being earned and of all charges and expenses only to the extent that these must necessarily continue during the interruption of business including ordinary payroll and only to the extent such charges and expenses would have been earned had no loss occurred.

"Ordinary payroll" is defined to be the entire payroll expense for all employees of the Insured except officers, executives, department managers, employees under contract, and other important employees as determined by the Insured.

(3) In the event of physical loss, damage, or destruction covered herein to property as described in Clause 8.A. which results in an interruption of research and development activities which in themselves would not have produced income during the indemnity period, this policy shall cover the actual loss sustained of the continuing fixed charges and expenses including ordinary payroll directly attributable to such research and development activities.

(4) However, this Company shall not be liable under this Clause B. for any loss resulting from damage to or destruction of finished stock nor for the time required to reproduce said finished stock. Finished stock shall mean stock manufactured by the Insured which in the ordinary course of the Insured's business is ready for packing, shipment, or sale.

The right of subrogation against the Insured, affiliated, subsidiary, and associated companies or corporations, the Insured's officers, directors, and employees, or any other corporations or companies associated with the Insured through ownership or management, and at the option of the Insured against a tenant of the Insured, is waived.

B. In the event of any payment under this policy, this Company, where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance are not reduced or eliminated, shall be subrogated to the extent of such payment to all the Insured's rights of recovery therefore. The Company will act in concert with all other interests concerned, i.e., the Insured and any other Company(ies) participating in the payment of any loss as primary or excess insurers, in the exercise of such rights of recovery.

If any amount is recovered as a result of such proceedings, the net amount recovered after deducting the cost of recovery shall be divided between the interests concerned in the proportion of their respective interests. If there should be no recovery, the expense of proceedings shall be borne by the insurers instituting the proceedings.

23. SALVAGE AND RECOVERIES

Where legally permitted and where loss payment under primary insurance is not reduced or eliminated, all salvages, recoveries and payments, excluding proceeds from subrogation and underlying insurance, recovered or received prior to a loss settlement under this policy, shall reduce the loss accordingly.

In case of loss or damage insured against to any part of a machine or unit consisting of two or more parts when complete for use, the liability of the Company shall be limited to the value of the part or parts lost or damaged or, at the Insured's option, the lesser of cost and expense of replacing or duplicating the lost or damaged part or parts or of repairing the machine or unit.

25. SUSPENSION

Upon discovery of a dangerous condition with respect to any boiler, fired or unfired pressure vessel and any mechanical or electrical machine or apparatus used for the generation, transmission or utilization of mechanical or electrical power, any representative of the Company may immediately suspend the insurance with respect to an "accident" to said property by written notice mailed or delivered to the Insured at the home office address of the Insured.

26. ERRORS OR OMISSIONS

Any unintentional error or omission made by the Insured in the description of where insured property is located or to include a location in the Schedule of Locations or to report a newly acquired (owned, purchased, leased or rented) location, or that results in cancellation of an insured location under this policy, shall not void or impair the insurance hereunder provided the Insured reports such error or omission as soon as reasonably possible after discovery by the Insured's home office insurance department. Coverage under this clause shall be subject to the limit of liability stated in Clause 4.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6).

27. NOTICE OF LOSS

As soon as practicable after any loss or damage occurring under this policy is known to the Insured's Home Office Insurance Department, the Insured shall report such loss or damage to both this Company and then to Marsh Inc.

28. PROOF OF LOSS

The Insured, at the request of the Company, will render a signed and sworn proof of loss to the Company or its appointed representative as soon as practicable stating: the place, time, cause of the loss, damage, or expense; the interest of the Insured and of all others; the value of the property involved in the loss; and the amount of loss, damage, or expense.

29. PARTIAL PAYMENT OF LOSS

In the event of a loss covered by this policy, it is understood and agreed that the Company will issue partial payment(s) of claim subject to the policy provisions, and shall not be less than the undisputed estimate of loss or damage between the Insured and the Company.

30. ASSIGNED ADJUSTER

It is agreed that at the Insured's option, the Company will use GAB Robins Camp Hill, PA for the adjustment of all claims made against this policy. This assignment may be changed by mutual consent of the Insured and the Company.

31. APPRAISAL

If the Insured and this Company fail to agree on the amount of the loss, each, upon written demand of either the Insured or this Company made within 60 days after receipt of proof of loss by the Company, shall select a competent and disinterested appraiser. The appraisers shall then select a competent and disinterested umpire. If they should fail for 15 days to agree upon such umpire, then upon the request of the Insured or of this Company, such umpire shall be selected by a judge of a court of record in the jurisdiction in which such appraisal is pending. Then, at a reasonable time and place, the appraisers shall appraise the loss, stating separately the value at the time of loss and the amount of loss. If the appraisers fail to agree, they shall submit their differences to the umpire. An award in writing by any two shall determine the amount of loss and shall be paid by the Company within 30 days thereafter. The Insured and this Company shall each pay his or its chosen appraiser and shall bear equally the other expenses of the appraisal and of the umpire.

32. PAIR OR SET

Except as provided under the Machinery clause and paragraph (3) of the Consequential Loss clause, in the event of loss or damage insured against to any article or articles not being merchandise which are a part of a pair or set, the measure of loss or damage to such article or articles shall be, at the Insured's option:

A. the reasonable and fair proportion of the total value of the pair or set, giving consideration to the importance of said article or articles, but in no event shall such loss or damage be construed to mean total loss of the pair or set; or

B. the full value of the pair or set provided that the Insured surrenders the remaining article or articles of the pair or set to the Company.

33. ASSISTANCE AND COOPERATION OF THE INSURED

The Insured shall reasonably cooperate with this Company, and, at this Company's reasonable request and expense, shall attend hearings and trials and shall assist in effecting settlements, in securing and giving evidence, in obtaining the attendance of witnesses and in conducting suits.

34. SUE AND LABOR

In case of actual or imminent loss or damage covered by this policy except imminent loss or damage as respects an "accident", it shall, without prejudice to this insurance, be lawful and necessary for the Insured, their factors, servants, or assigns to sue, labor and travel for, in and about the defense, the safeguard, and the recovery of property or any part of the property insured hereunder; nor, in the event of loss or damage, shall the acts of the Insured or of this Company in recovering, saving, and preserving the insured property be considered a waiver or an acceptance of abandonment. Subject to the applicable deductible or the deductible that would apply had the loss happened, this Company shall pay the expenses so incurred.

This coverage does not apply to any act, loss or damage excluded in Clause 11.H.(6) nor does it cover any expenses incurred for actions to defend, safeguard, preserve or recover insured property from actual or imminent physical loss or damage covered by Terrorism coverage as provided in Clause 9.S.

35. PAYMENT OF LOSS

All adjusted claims shall be due and payable no later than 30 days after presentation and acceptance of proofs of loss by this Company or its appointed representative.

36. CURRENCY

A. Loss, if any, is to be paid in the same currency in which the premium is paid.

B. (1) In the event of a property damage loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date(s) of expenditure.

If property damaged or destroyed is not repaired, rebuilt or replaced, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal as of the date of loss.

(2) In the event of a business interruption, extra expense, rental value, royalties and/or expediting expense loss adjustment involving local currency, conversion into the currency of the United States of America shall be at the average New York foreign exchange selling rate published in The Wall Street Journal in effect during each 30 day period (or part thereof) commencing on the date the loss occurs.

C. Local Currency shall be defined as the currency of the country where loss occurs. This definition shall also include a local currency equivalent.

37. REINSTATEMENT

With the exception of loss caused by perils which are subject to annual aggregate limits as noted in Clause 4, no loss hereunder shall reduce the amount of this policy.

38. SUIT AGAINST THE COMPANY

No suit or action on this policy for the recovery of any claim shall be sustainable in any court of law or equity unless the Insured shall have fully complied with all the requirements of this policy and legal action is started within 24 months after inception of the loss.

It is agreed that in the event of the failure of the Company to pay any amount claimed to be due hereunder or in the event of any other dispute relating to this policy, this policy will be governed by the jurisdiction of any court of competent jurisdiction within the United States (or Canada) and will comply with all of the requirements necessary to give such court jurisdiction and all matters hereunder shall be determined in accordance with the law and practice of such court, not including the court's law regarding choice of law.

39. CERTIFICATES OF INSURANCE

Any certificate of insurance issued in connection with this policy shall be issued solely as a matter of convenience or information for the addressee(s) or holder(s) of said certificate of insurance, except where any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are named pursuant to the Special Provisions of said certificate of insurance. In the event any Additional Insured(s) or Loss Payee(s) are so named, this policy shall be deemed to have been endorsed accordingly, subject to all other terms, conditions and exclusions stated herein.

The Company hereby authorizes Marsh Inc. to issue certificates of insurance including any Mortgagee, Loss Payee and, as authorized by the Company, Additional Insured.

40. CANCELLATION

A. This policy may be canceled at any time at the request of the Insured or it may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at American Water Works, 1025 Laurel Oak Road - Voorhees - NJ 08043 to the attention of the Risk Management department and to the additional named insureds/loss payees indicated on the certificates of insurance issued during the term of this policy, written notice stating when, not less than 60 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective. The earned premium shall be computed on a pro-rata basis.

B. The mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice and the effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or by the Company shall be equivalent to mailing.

C. Cancellation shall not affect coverage on any shipment in transit on the date of cancellation. Coverage will continue in full force until such property is safely delivered and accepted at place of final destination.

D. In the event of non-payment of premium this policy may be canceled by the Company by mailing to the Insured at the address shown in A. above stating when, not less than 10 days thereafter, such cancellation shall be effective.

41. VALUES

The values on the schedule of property declared to the Company at the inception of the policy are for premium purposes only and shall not limit the coverages provided by this policy.

42. TITLES OF PARAGRAPHS

The titles of paragraphs of this form and of endorsements and supplemental contracts, if any, now or hereafter attached hereto are inserted solely for convenience of reference and shall not be deemed in any way to limit or affect the provisions to which they relate.

43. CONFORMANCE

The terms of this policy which are in conflict with the applicable statutes of the jurisdiction wherein this policy is issued are hereby amended to conform to such statutes, unless the statutes narrow or limit the coverage afforded by this policy and do not bar a policy from providing broader coverage.

44. GEOGRAPHIC TERRORISM PROVISIONS

A. As respects the United States, its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico any recovery under this policy for any insured loss or damage from acts of terrorism, as covered under this policy, may be partially reimbursed by the United States Government in accordance with the Terrorism Insurance Risk Act of 2002. Reimbursement by the United States Government will be under a formula established by Federal Law.

45. ASSIGNMENT

Assignment of this policy shall not be valid except with the written consent of this Company.

46. MISREPRESENTATION AND FRAUD

This entire policy will be void if, whether before or after a loss, an Insured has:

A. willfully concealed or misrepresented any material fact or circumstance concerning this insurance, the subject thereof, any insurance claim, or the interest of an Insured;

B. made any attempt to defraud the Company;

C. made any false swearing.

47. EXCESS CLAUSE (DROP DOWN AND PRIORITY OF PAYMENTS)

A. Coverage hereunder shall not apply until the amount of loss, damage or expense arising out of any one occurrence exceeds $_25,000 plus the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible and any waiting period attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured hereunder.

The amount of the applicable portion of the primary policy deductible referred to above shall be determined by the proportion that the amount of loss attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against under this policy (without application of the excess provision) bears to the total amount of loss multiplied by the amount of the applicable primary deductibles.

In the event that the total amount of loss, damage, or expense attributable to the perils and/or property and/or coverage insured under the underlying insurance exceeds that amount at which this policy would normally attach, but due to the application of sublimits in the underlying policy(ies), the total loss, damage and expense payable by the underlying policy(ies) does not fully exhaust the underlying policy(ies) limit, then this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss as covered under this policy in excess of the amount paid by the underlying policy(ies).

As respects theft, the term Occurrence as referred to elsewhere within the policy means the sum total of all losses of covered property resulting from one or more concealed acts committed by one person or more than one person acting in unison to the extent such loss is not otherwise excluded under this policy.

B. In determining the amount of any loss, damage, or expense for which this policy is excess, the total loss for all coverages caused by any combination of perils, one or more of which is insured against under the primary policy, shall be used even though all such perils or coverages are not insured against under this excess policy.

(1) Any recoveries made under the primary policy shall be considered as first applying to those perils and/or property and/or coverages not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributable to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or coverages and/or property insured hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(2) If there is any other excess insurance covering the perils and/or property and/or coverages insured against in the primary policy, but not covered by this policy, this insurance shall then allocate any loss recoveries made under the primary policy in the same proportion as the amount of loss involving the property and/or coverages insured against by this policy bears to the combined total loss. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils and/or property and/or coverages covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(3) Paragraph two shall not apply, however, when the amount of loss attributed to the perils insured under the primary policy, but not covered under this policy, exceed the total amount of insurance provided by the primary and excess coverages with respect to said perils. In this situation any recoveries made under the primary policy shall first apply to those perils not insured against by this policy. Upon exhaustion of the primary policy limits, this policy shall drop down and be liable for the loss in excess of the amount attributed to the primary policy as respects those perils covered hereunder subject to the limit of this policy.

(4) In the event the Insured is a contributing or self-insurer with respect to the perils and/or property and/or coverages otherwise insured in any underlying insurance and no policy is issued to define the extent of this contributing or self insurance, for the purposes of this Excess Clause, the Insured's contributing or self-insurance shall be deemed to be the same as either: (a) all other contributing insurance participating in the Insured's layer(s); or (b) all other contributing insurance participating in the layer below the Insured's layer where the Insured is entirely self insuring the layer. If the coverage provided by the policy(s) of the other contributing insurance company(s) is non-concurrent, then the contributing or self insurance provided by the Insured within the layer in question shall be deemed to be the same as the coverage provided by that contributing insurance company whose policy provides the least indemnity for the loss.

C. In the event the annual aggregate limits provided for flood and/or earthquake in any underlying insurance are diminished or exhausted in any one policy year, the coverage provided under this policy shall respond as excess of the remaining limits.

In such event, the applicable amount of the deductible provision of the primary policy shall apply to the combination of all policies.

Where applicable relative to contributing insurance policy(s) described in either subparagraphs B(4)(a) or B(4)(b) above, in the event the Insured is providing contributing or self-insurance in any of the layer(s) of insurance, and such other contributing insurance policies contain aggregate limits of liability, the Insured's contributing or self insurance for those coverages shall be deemed to be aggregated also.

48. FULL WAIVER

The terms and conditions of this form and endorsements attached thereto replace those of the policy to which it is attached, all terms, conditions and endorsements of the latter being waived unless otherwise specified herein.

It is understood and agreed that the following special terms and conditions apply to this policy:

1. The limit of liability or Amount of Insurance shown on the face of this policy, or endorsed on to this policy, is the total limit of the Company's liability applicable to each occurrence, as hereafter defined. Notwithstanding any other terms and conditions of this policy to the contrary, in no event shall the liability of the company exceed this limit or amount irrespective of the number of locations involved.

   The term "occurrence" shall mean any one loss, disaster, casualty or series of losses, disasters, or casualties, arising out of one event. When the term applies to loss or losses from the perils of tornado, cyclone, hurricane, windstorm, hail, flood, earthquake, volcanic eruption, riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion, and vandalism and malicious mischief one event shall be constructed to be all losses arising during a continuous period of 72 hours. When filing proof of loss, the insured may elect the moment at which the 72 hour period shall be deemed to have commenced, which shall not be earlier than the first loss to the covered property occurs.

2. The premium for this policy is based upon the Statement of Values on file with the Company, or attached to this policy. In the event of hereunder, liability of the Company, subject to the terms of paragraph one (1) above, shall be limited to the least of the following:

ENDORSEMENT 8 - STANDARD PROPERTY CONDITIONS

In consideration of the premium charged, the following clauses are hereby made applicable under this policy.

MINIMUM EARNED PREMIUM CLAUSE

In the event of cancellation of this policy by the Insured, a minimum premium equivalent to 25% of the initial policy premum shall become earned, any provision of the policy to the contrary notwithstanding.

Failure of the Insured to make timely payment of premium, shall be considered a request by the Insured for the Company to cancel on the Insurer's behalf. In the event of such cancellation for non-payment of premium, the minimum earned premium shall be due and payable; provided, however, such cancellation shall be rescinded if the Insured remits and the Company receives the full policy premium with 10 days after the date of issuance of the cancellation notice. Such remittance and acceptance by the Company shall not effect the minimum earned premium provision of this endorsement. In the event of any other cancellation by the Company, the earned premium shall be computed pro-rata, not subject to the minimum earned premium.

CANCELLATION CLAUSE

Except and to the extent of the Minimum Earned Premium Clause which is part of this policy, this clause supersedes other cancellation clauses made a part of this policy.

CANCELLATION: This policy may be cancelled by the insured by surrender thereof to the Company or by mailing to the Company written notice stating when thereafter such cancellation shall be effective. This policy may be cancelled by the Company by mailing to the Insured, at the mailing address shown in this policy or last known address, written notice, stating when, not less than 90 days thereafter (10 days for non-payment of premium) such cancellation shall be effective. The effectiveness of cancellation is not dependent on the return of unearned premium with the notice. Proof of mailing of notice as aforesaid shall be sufficient proof of notice. The effective date and hour of cancellation stated in the notice shall become the end of the policy period. Delivery of such written notice either by the Insured or the Company shall be equivalent to mailing. Return of any unearned premium will be calculated on a pro-rata basis if this Policy is canceled by request of the Insured or by request of the Company. Return of any unearned premium will be made by the Company as soon as practicable, but within 90 days time counted from the date of cancellation.

PROOF OF LOSS AND PAYMENT

The Insured shall complete and sign a sworn proof of loss within ninety (90) days after the occurrence of a loss (unless such period be extended by the written agreement of the Company) stating the time, place and cause of loss, the interest of the Insured and of all others in the property, the sound value thereof and the amount of loss or damage thereto, and all other insurance thereon. ENDORSEMENT 9 - TERRORISM RISK INSURANCE ACT OF 2002

You are hereby notified that under the federal Terrorism Risk Insurance Act of 2002 (the "Act") effective November 26, 2002, you now have a right to purchase insurance coverage for losses arising out of an Act of Terrorism, which is defined in the Act as an act certified by the Secretary of the Treasury (i) to be an act of terrorism, (ii) to be a violent act or an act that is dangerous to (A) human life; (B) property or (C) infrastructure, (iii) to have resulted in damage within the United States, or outside of the United States in case of an air carrier or vessel or the premises of a U.S. mission and (iv) to have been committed by an individual or individuals acting on behalf of any foreign person or foreign interest, as part of an effort to coerce the civilian population of the United States or to influence the policy or affect the conduct of the United States Government by coercion. You should read the Act for a complete description of its coverage. The Secretary's decision to certify or not to certify an event as an Act of Terrorism and thus covered by this law is final and not subject to review. There is a $100 billion dollar annual cap on all losses resulting from Acts of Terrorism above which no coverage will be provided under this policy and under the Act unless Congress makes some other determination.

For your information, coverage provided by this policy for losses caused by an Act of Terrorism may be partially reimbursed by the United States under a formula established by the Act. Under this formula the United States pays 90% of terrorism losses covered by this law exceeding a statutorily established deductible that must be met by the insurer, and which deductible is based on a percentage of the insurer's direct earned premiums for the year preceding the Act of Terrorism.

Unless you sign this form and return it to us rejecting Terrorism Coverage under the Federal Act, you will be covered for Terrorism as defined in the Act and your premium for that coverage is $_____

I hereby reject coverage in accordance with the Act.

1. In the event of direct physical damage to property, for which Underwriters agree to pay hereunder, or which but for the application of a deductible or underlying amount they would agree to pay (hereinafter in this Clause referred to as "Damage"), this Policy also insures, subject to the limitations below and method of calculation in Clause VI of this Endorsement and to all the other terms and conditions of the Policy, expense:

   (a) which is reasonably and necessarily incurred by the Assured in the removal, from the premises of the Assured at which the Damage occurred, of debris which results from the Damage; and

2. The maximum amount of expense for removal of debris (subject to the limitations of paragraph 1 above) that can be included in the method of calculation in Clause VI of this Endorsement, shall be the greater of US$25,000 (twenty-five thousand dollars) or 10% (ten percent) of the amount of the Damage from which such expense results.

III. SEEPAGE AND/OR POLLUTION AND/OR CONTAMINATION EXCLUSION CLAUSE

(i) at the same premises as the Original Damage; and

(ii) insured by this Policy against the listed peril causing the Original Damage; and then this Policy, subject to the following additional terms and limitations and the method of calculation in Clause VI of this Endorsement, also insures:

(c) said property is damaged thereby (hereinafter in this Clause referred to as "Resulting Damage");

(e) the reasonable and necessary expense incurred by the Assured for debris removal and/or clean-up which is:

(i) limited to the same premises as the Original Damage; and

(ii) made necessary solely by the Resulting Damage;

but which shall in no event include any expense of clean-up or removal of land, water or air,

(which Resulting Damage and expense of debris removal and/or clean-up, hereinafter in this Clause are referred to as "Resulting Loss");

2. The maximum amount for any Resulting Loss and any other interest claimed under this Policy as a result of the Resulting Damage, whether physical damage, business interruption, extra expense or otherwise, that can be included in the method of calculation in Clause VI of this Endorsement is USD 10,000,000

(c) In respect of ADDITIONAL INCREASE IN COST OF WORKING: The additional expenditure in excess of the amount described under subsection (b) reasonably incurred for the sole purpose of resuming or maintaining normal business operations during the indemnity period;

(4) Memoranda:

MEMO 1: If during the indemnity period goods shall be sold or services shall be rendered elsewhere than at the premises for the benefit of the business either by the Insured or by others on their behalf, the money paid or payable in respect of such sales or services shall be brought into account in arriving at the turnover during the indemnity period.

A - local tax benefit received where the loss occurred.

B - 1 minus the effective tax rate in the country where loss payments are received.

C - actual loss otherwise payable under this policy, except for the operation of this clause.
