EIGHTH AMENDED CERTIFICATE OF FRANCHISE AUTHORITY

On June 10, 2010, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 7-59-301, et seq., also known as the Competitive Cable and Video Services Act (the “CCVSA”), BellSouth Telecommunications, Inc. d/b/a AT&T Tennessee (“AT&T”) filed with the Tennessee Regulatory Authority (“TRA”) an Eighth Amendment to Certificate of Franchise Authority. This amendment supplements, and removes, certain municipalities and/or unincorporated areas within counties¹ previously described within its application filed July 1, 2008 and previous amendments thereto. As no basis for denial of the amendment under Tenn. Code Ann. § 7-59-305(i)(1) of the CCVSA has been alleged, the TRA hereby issues the Eighth Amended Certificate of Franchise Authority to supplement the original the Certificate of Franchise Authority issued to AT&T on August 5, 2008 and all amendments issued previously thereafter.

BE IT HEREBY AMENDED.

Mary W. Freeman, TRA Chairman

¹ Specifically, AT&T’s Eighth Amendment to Certificate of Franchise Authority incorporates the City of Pulaski, Giles County, Tennessee, within its franchise area. The City of Paris, Henry County, Tennessee, is removed from its authorized franchise area.
