FOURTEENTH AMENDED CERTIFICATE OF FRANCHISE AUTHORITY

On August 30, 2011, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 7-59-301, et seq., also known as the Competitive Cable and Video Services Act (“CCVSA”), BellSouth Telecommunications, LLC, d/b/a AT&T Tennessee (“AT&T”) filed with the Tennessee Regulatory Authority (“TRA”) a Fourteenth Amendment to Certificate of Franchise Authority. This amendment supplements certain municipalities and/or unincorporated areas within counties<sup>1</sup> previously described within its application filed July 1, 2008 and previous amendments thereto. As no basis for denial of the amendment under Tenn. Code Ann. § 7-59-305(i)(1) of the CCSVA has been alleged, the TRA hereby issues the Fourteenth Amended Certificate of Franchise Authority to supplement the original Certificate of Franchise Authority issued to AT&T on August 5, 2008 and all amendments issued previously thereafter.

BE IT HEREBY AMENDED.

Eddie Roberson, Chairman

<sup>1</sup> Specifically, AT&T's Fourteenth Amendment to Certificate of Franchise Authority incorporates the Cities of Madisonville, Vonore, Friendsville and Greenback in addition to unincorporated areas within Monroe County.
