NOTICE REGARDING KING’S CHAPEL FILINGS

The Consumer Advocate and Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General (“Consumer Advocate”), hereby gives notice that it does not intend to respond to two pleadings filed by King’s Chapel Capacity on January 22, 2009: (1) King’s Chapel Capacity’s First Discovery Request for Information from the Consumer Advocate & Protection Division; and (2) the Response of King’s Chapel Capacity to Issues Presented in the Response of Tennessee Wastewater Systems, Inc. to the Issues List of King’s Chapel.

On the same day that King’s Chapel filed the two pleadings referred to above, the Hearing Officer issued an Initial Order on Petitions for Reconsideration of the Discretionary Grant of Limited Intervention and Report and Recommendation to Separate Corollary Issues into New Docket (“Initial Order”). In that Initial Order, the Hearing Officer held that:

From this point forward, no documents are to be served by the parties or filed with the Authority that require the services of a lawyer that are also not signed by an attorney duly licensed in Tennessee. Such documents include, but are not limited to: discovery requests or answers, pre-filed testimony or responses, or legal briefs of any kind.

Initial Order at 7.

The two pleadings referred to in this Notice were not signed by an attorney. Accordingly, in light of the Hearing Officer's determination in the Initial Order, the Consumer Advocate gives notice of its intention not to respond to the two pleadings at issue.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,
