Dear Ms. Foust:

Pursuant to our conversation this morning, Silv Communication Inc. (Silv), by its regulatory consultant, requests a one-week extension, until May 18, 2009, to respond to the entirety of the Authority's April 30, 2009 request for additional information in the above-referenced matter. The additional time is primarily required to obtain original signatures on page 2 of the bond, and to verify information from Silv's marketing company, currently unavailable in time to meet tomorrow's Authority submission deadline. Otherwise, the Company's response has been prepared and is ready for submission.

Per your request, we are providing a single completed response to the Authority on or before the requested filing extension deadline rather than tomorrow, on the presumption that the instant request for filing extension is granted, as we discussed.

Thank you for your kind attention to this matter. Questions may be directed to the undersigned.

Sincerely,

MILLER ISAR, INC.
