THIRD AMENDED CERTIFICATE OF FRANCHISE AUTHORITY

On November 22, 2011, pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 7-59-301, et seq., also known as the Competitive Cable and Video Services Act ("CCVSA"), Comcast Cable Communications Management, LLC, on behalf of its affiliates operating in Tennessee,¹ ("Comcast") filed with the Tennessee Regulatory Authority ("TRA") a Third Amendment to Certificate of Franchise Authority. This amendment supplements certain municipalities and/or unincorporated areas within counties² previously described within its application filed September 15, 2009 and previous amendments thereto. As no basis for denial of the amendment under Tenn. Code Ann. § 7-59-305(i)(1) of the CCSVA has been alleged, the TRA hereby issues the Third Amended Certificate of Franchise Authority to supplement the original Certificate of Franchise Authority issued to Comcast on October 2, 2009 and all amendments issued previously thereafter.

BE IT HEREBY AMENDED.

Dr. Kenneth C. Hill, Chairman
