JOINT MOTION TO RESCHEDULE THE STATUS CONFERENCE SCHEDULED FOR JULY 9, 2013

---

The Consumer Advocate and Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General (“Consumer Advocate”), Chattanooga Gas Company (“CGC”) and the Tennessee Regulatory Authority Intervening Staff Party (“Staff Party”) (collectively, the “Parties”) respectfully request a two week extension for the status conference scheduled by notice for July 9, 2013. The Parties require additional time to discuss and prepare an issues list and a procedural schedule as requested by the Hearing Officer in the Notice of June 26, 2013. The Parties request the status conference be rescheduled for the morning of July 26, 2013, or at another date convenient for the Hearing Officer and the Parties.

This request in no way delays the evaluation work of the National Regulatory Research Institute and the Staff Party regarding CGC’s energy conservation programs in this matter.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED,

---

RYAN L. MCGEHEE
