Re: Reachout Wireless, Nexus Communication, Inc.
TRA Docket No. 10-00083

Dear Chairman Kyle:

The Consumer Advocate is very interested in this matter since it could affect thousands of low-income consumers who are using Nexus wireless services. At this point, it appears that this case involves the resolution of communications between the TRA Staff and Nexus, as well as communications between the TRA Staff and USAC. We are watching this case carefully and should events warrant we will, of course, consider intervention. At this point, however, it appears Nexus is well represented by private counsel who has ably set forth the Nexus position.

Thank you for your attention to these matters.

Sincerely,

Vance Broemel
