Dear Ms. Dillon:

Pursuant to Tennessee American Water Company's Notice of Inadvertent Disclosure filed on November 22, 2010 and Tenn. R. Civ. P. 26.02(5), enclosed please find an original and four replacement disks labeled "Tennessee American Water Company's First Discovery Responses to City of Chattanooga: Confidential, Disk Date: November 22, 2010."

The replacement disks contain PDF files of the non-privileged, confidential documents filed on behalf of the Company in response to the City of Chattanooga's First Discovery Requests. The replacement disks filed today should be substituted in place of the original disks filed November 19, 2010 and labeled: "Tennessee American Water Company's First Discovery Responses to City of Chattanooga: Confidential, Disk Date: November 15, 2010."

As requested in the Notice of Inadvertent Disclosure, please return the original and four copies of the Confidential November 15, 2010 disk, as well as the printed copy of the inadvertently disclosed attachment to Request No. 2, both filed on November 19, 2010.

You may keep the second disk produced as part of the Company's Response, filed November 19, 2010 and labeled "Tennessee American Water Company's First Discovery Responses to City of Chattanooga: TN-COC-01-Q19-CONFIDENTIAL ATTACHMENTS 1: Confidential, Disk Date: November 15, 2010." This second disk is not being recalled or replaced.

By way of this letter the Company is also sending replacement disks to all parties that have not already received replacement disks. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.
