Re: BellSouth Telecommunications, LLC dba AT&T Tennessee v. Halo Wireless, Inc.
Docket No. 11-00119

Dear Chairman Hill:

On July 26, 2011, AT&T Tennessee filed its complaint in the above-referenced docket. As set forth in that complaint, AT&T Tennessee believes that Halo is engaged in activity that breaches the interconnection agreement between AT&T Tennessee and Halo in a scheme to avoid paying the lawfully tariffed charges for switched access services. Similar complaints have been filed against Halo in other state commissions.

In an attempt to delay or avoid the consequences of its actions, Halo has engaged in a variety of legal tactics all aimed at avoiding having these claims considered by state commissions with the relevant subject matter expertise and original jurisdiction. Halo has filed for Bankruptcy protection and has also removed this and similar claims to the federal district courts. These tactics have been unsuccessful, as both the District Court for the Middle District of Tennessee and the Bankruptcy Court in Texas (where Halo's bankruptcy case was filed) have now issued orders allowing this case to proceed at the TRA.

AT&T Tennessee requests that the Authority place this docket on the next agenda for the purpose of convening a contested case and proceeding with the appointment of a hearing officer.

Very truly yours,

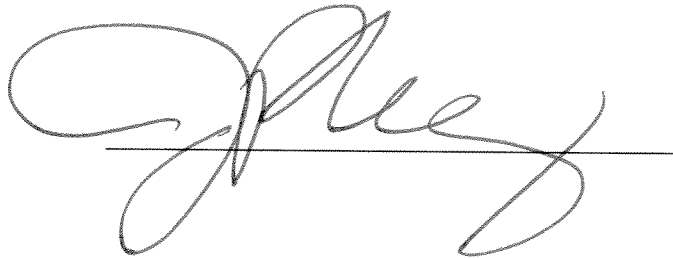

Joelle Phillips
