Ms. Reeves,

I received the original bond for McGraw Communications, Inc. today. However, the portion of the form on page 1, Signature of Principal, was signed, but the person did not print their name and title below their signature. I will need to return this either to your office or I can send directly to the company if you wish. Let me know to which address this original bond should be mailed for completion of the printed name and title of the Principal on page 1.

Thanks,
Lisa Foust

Subject: TRA Docket No. 12-00134 Application of McGraw Communications, Inc.

Ms. Reeves,

To confirm our conversation last week regarding the above application, the surety bond included with the application was not an original. McGraw Communications, Inc. will need to obtain the original surety bond and submit it to the Tennessee Regulatory Authority in connection with its application. Additionally, a written data request will follow.
