ORDER GRANTING CONSUMER ADVOCATE'S PETITION TO INTERVENE

This matter is before the Hearing Officer of the Tennessee Regulatory Authority ("Authority" or "TRA") upon a Petition to Intervene filed by the Consumer Advocate and Protection Division of the Office of the Tennessee Attorney General ("Consumer Advocate") on February 28, 2014.

BACKGROUND

On January 30, 2014, Atmos Energy Corporation ("Atmos" or "Company") filed a petition seeking TRA approval of an Asset Management Agreement, related to its gas commodity requirements and management of its transportation and storage contracts, and an ETNG Delivered Supply Agreement with Atmos Energy Marketing, LLC ("AEM"). Thereafter, on February 14, 2014, Atmos filed an Amended Petition for Approval of Contract Regarding Gas Commodity Requirements and Transportation/Storage Contract ("Amended Petition"), which removed the ETNG Delivered Supply Agreement from Authority consideration, but maintained its request for approval of the Asset Management Agreement. On February 24, 2014, Atmos filed testimony in support of its Amended Petition.

During the regularly scheduled Authority Conference held on March 7, 2014, the voting panel of Directors assigned in this docket voted unanimously to convene a contested case proceeding and appoint General Counsel or her designee to act as Hearing Officer to handle any preliminary matters arising in this proceeding. To expedite the flow of information and protect proprietary and confidential materials that are entitled to protection under law, a Protective Order was entered in the docket file on March 7, 2014.

PETITION TO INTERVENE

In its Petition to Intervene, the Consumer Advocate seeks to intervene in this docket pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-118, which qualifies the Consumer Advocate to intervene in proceedings before the Authority in order to represent the interests of Tennessee consumers of public utility services.¹ The Consumer Advocate asserts that its intervention is necessary because the Asset Management Agreement may affect the charges paid by Atmos customers for natural gas services, and an investigation and review of the filings is needed to order to determine whether the Asset Management Agreement is in interests of consumers. In conclusion, the Consumer Advocate states that only by participating in this proceeding can it work to adequately protect the interests of consumers.²

FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS

Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310(a) sets forth the following criteria to be considered in reviewing a petition to intervene in Authority proceedings:

- (a) The administrative judge or hearing officer shall grant one (1) or more petitions for intervention if;

¹ Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-118(b)(1) states, “The consumer advocate division has the duty and authority to represent the interests of Tennessee consumers of public utilities services. The division may, with the approval of the attorney general and reporter, participate or intervene as a party in any matter or proceeding before the authority or any other administrative, legislative or judicial body and initiate such proceeding, in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5, and the rules of the authority.”

² Petition to Intervene (February 28, 2014).

(1) The petition is submitted in writing to the administrative judge or hearing officer, with copies mailed to all parties named in the notice of the hearing, at least seven (7) days before the hearing;

(2) The petition states facts demonstrating that the petitioner's legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities or other legal interest may be determined in the proceeding or that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor under any provision of the law; and

(3) The administrative judge or hearing officer determines that the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings shall not be impaired by allowing the intervention.³

In addition, in situations that do not satisfy the standards of Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310(a), the Hearing Officer has discretion to grant a petition to intervene upon determining that the intervention sought is in the interests of justice and shall not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.⁴ Further, the Hearing Officer may, at any time, limit or impose conditions upon an intervenor's participation.⁵ Finally, under TRA Rule 1220-1-2-.06, any party opposing a motion in a contested case must file and serve a response to the motion within seven (7) days of service of the motion.

Upon due consideration, the Hearing Officer finds that the Petition to Intervene is timely-filed, the Consumer Advocate qualifies as an intervenor under law, and that its intervention should not impair the interests of justice or the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings. Further, Atmos has not filed a response or otherwise objected to the Consumer Advocate's request to intervene in these proceedings. For these reasons, the Hearing Officer finds that the Consumer Advocate's request to intervene in these proceedings should be granted.

³Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310(a); see also Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-2-107: "All persons having a right under the provisions of the laws applicable to the authority to appear and be heard in contested cases as defined in this chapter shall be deemed parties to such proceedings for the purposes of this chapter. In addition, the authority may upon motion allow any interested person to intervene and become a party to any contested case."

⁴ Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310(b).

⁵ Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310(c).

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

1) The Petition to Intervene filed by the Consumer Advocate and Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General is granted.

2) The Consumer Advocate and Protection Division of the Office of the Attorney General may intervene and participate as a party in this proceeding and, as such, shall receive copies of any notices, orders, or other documents filed herein.
