RE: Docket No. 14-00151, Application of Athena Broadband for a Certificate to Provide Competing Local Telecommunications Services in Tennessee

Dear Mr. Twomey,

CLEC applicants are required, by statute, to demonstrate their managerial, financial and technical abilities to provide the services for which they seek authority. To assist the Authority in its review of Athena Broadband's application for certificate of convenience and necessity to provide competing local telecommunications services in Tennessee, you are requested to provide the following:

- 1) The $20,000 surety bond submitted with the application was a copy. Please provide the original surety bond.
- 2) Exhibit 2 of the petition contained an amendment to Athena Broadband's Partnership Agreement, dated November 1, 2013. Provide the initial Partnership Agreement.
- 3) Exhibit 3 of the petition contained biographical information for Josh Lynch, Partner and CEO and John Rowland. No information was included for the partner added via the amendment to partnership agreement, Rodney Parsons. Provide biographical information for Rodney Parsons
- 4) Are there additional management and/or personnel that are responsible for the day-to-day operations of Athena Broadband? If so, provide biographical information for those individuals detailing their duties and responsibilities. Also detail the duties and responsibilities for each partner listed in the partnership agreement.
- 5) The Small and Minority-Owned Business Participation Plan submitted is incomplete and missing the signature page. Provide a complete Small and Minority-Owned Business Participation Plan.

Please provide this information no later than 2:00 pm on February 27, 2015 and reference Docket Number 14-00151 on the response. In accordance with TRA rules submit either (1) thirteen written copies of your response or (2) four written copies and an electronic version. Should you have questions, please contact Lisa Foust at 615-770-6886.

Sincerely,

David Foster
Utilities Division Chief
