Spring Hill Eagle Scout troop donates supplies to animal shelter

Maury County Animal Shelter received a massis Shelter received a massive donation of food, toys, towels and more this week from a local Boy Scout to keep its animals well fed during the winter season.

The project was the final task for Troop 1855 scout Antonio Anselmo to earn his Eagle Scout rank. He went to local businesses and neighborhoods, asking for donations with the help of his fellow scouts.

Anselmo said he wanted to dedicate the project to the memory of a former neigh-bor, Craig Ashley, who passe away recently, and his dog, Harley.

"I would like to thank my fellow scouts of Troop 1855, family, friends and neighbors for all their support and donations." Anselmo said. "I would like to make special thanks to my neighbor Kay
