Important trick

By FRANK STEWART

Tribune Content Agency

"If your project doesn't work, look at the part you didn't think was important." — engineer's maxim Against today's 3NT, West tried to hit his partner's strength by leading a spade. Dummy played low, and East took the queen and, diagnosing the nature of the lead, shifted to the jack of hearts.

South put up his ace and started the diamonds. He hoped to find West with the defenders' diamond trick (then South's queen of hearts would be safe from attack). But East won the third diamond to continue hearts, and the defense took three hearts for down one.

ERROR

South must have thought his play at Trick One wasn't important, but if you're going to make a fatal error, the first trick is the time. The defenders can't beat the contract with spade tricks, but South must be concerned about a possible early heart shift through his A-Q.

South must grab the ace of spades and start the diamonds. He sets up four diamond tricks to go with three clubs, a heart and a spade.

DAILY QUESTION

You hold: ♠ A 8 6 3 ♠ 5 2 ♠ K 10 7 5 ♣ K 7. Your partner opens one heart, and the next player passes. What do you say?

ANSWER: If your hand were stronger — say you had A 8 6 3, 5 2, A K 10 5 4, K 7 with enough values to force to game — the correct response would be two diamonds. You could afford to show your longest suit first and bid spades later. With your actual hand, take your opportunity to look for a fit in the major suit. Respond one spade.

Blazers loze Nurkic to severe leg injury, edge Nets in 2 OTs

PORTLAND. — They already without clutching a playoff spot, though there were no cheers or celebrations from the Portland Trail Blazers. Instead, just silence and prayers for Jusuf Nurkic.

The gruesome injury suffered by their center overshadowed everything else Monday night.

"Devastating," Blazers coach Terry Stotts said. Nurkic had 32 points and 16 rebounds before suffering his left leg injury in the second overtime, and the Blazers outlasted the Brooklyn Nets 148-144.

"It made me sick to my stomach," Blazers guard Damian Lillard said of Nurkic's injury. "As I was walking over there, I saw everyone else run around real quick and walk away, and then I look and I saw his leg."

Nurkic was hurt when his leg bent awkwardly as he battled for an offensive rebound. His leg was immobilized and he was removed on a stretcher while surrounded by members of both teams. Nurkic was then transferred to a local hospital and the team said he sustained a compound fracture to his left tibia and fibula.

After the injury, Blazers made enough plays to get the win, but then reality hit.

"He wouldn't want us to say, 'All right, let's feel sorry for ourselves, and feel sorry for Nurk and not care as much,'" Lillard said. "So we're going to finish the job, try to get the game, but I think after the game, that's when it kicks in."

The Blazers held a collective moment of silence and prayer for Nurkic in the locker room following the game.

"I'm just going to go home and pray for him," Blazers center Enes Kanter said. "This is bigger than basketball. We clinched the playoff spot but we can't even celebrate. He was a big part of our family. Not our team, our family."

The Nets, who watched guard Caris LeVert wheeled off the court after an injury earlier this season, had the same concern for Nurkic.

"That's what our guys are talking about in the locker room," Nets coach Kenny Atkinson said. "Not the game or the loss. They're talking about a player who was having a great game and a heck of a player so you just pray it's not a long-term thing and he can bounce back. It just takes the wind out of your sails."

15 ties over the course of the game, with Portland leading 95-90 after three.

The Nets, however, would storm back in the fourth thanks to the play of their bench. Brooklyn took multiple leads in the final period, with their biggest coming at 112-102 with 6:07 left after a jumper by LeVert.

Portland fought back and with the Nets up one with the ball, Seth Curry stole Russell's dribble and was fouled. He missed the first free throw but made the second to tie the game at 120 with 3.5 seconds left.

Russell missed a deep 3-pointer to force overtime. Russell scored five early points in the extra period, but Portland took a 128-125 lead on Nurkic's basket before a 3-pointer by Spencer Dinwiddie tied the game again.

It went to a second OT tied at 132 after Russell made a layup and Lillard missed a long final attempt.

TIP-INS
Nets: Brooklyn had its two-game winning streak snapped and has one game left on its seven-game road trip.

Blazers: Trail Blazers' Stotts said McCollum is doing well in his recovery from a knee strain he suffered on March 16, but that he will not join them for their four-game road trip. "He's progressing fine," Stotts said. "He will not go on the road trip. He will stay back and rehab and get some court work back here."

The Blazers extended the lead to 139-132, forced the Nets to start fouling.

There were 12 lead changes and

LEGAL NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that, pursuant to its existing Annual Review Mechanism tariff, Atmos Energy Corporation (the Company) has a Petition with the Tennessee Public Utility Commission (TPUC) on August 31, 2018, in Docket No. 18-00097, proposing to change its rates for natural gas service here in effect, and a Response to Order Opening Investigation to the Commission's Order Opening an Investigation and Requesting Deferred Accounting Treatment on March 29, 2018 in Docket No. 18-00034. The rates proposed by the Company are subject to approval by the TPUC. The TPUC may adopt, reject, increase or decrease any of the proposed rates in part or in whole. A complete copy of the proposed rate changes and the reasons for them are on file with the TPUC and are available for public inspection. A complete copy is also available in the Company's local office. The Company has requested this change to rates in accordance with the procedures approved in its Annual Review Mechanism tariff. The predicted impact of the proposed changes on the average residential customer is a decrease of approximately $12.39 per year. The predicted impact of the proposed changes on the average small commercial customer is a decrease of approximately $56.99 per year. The matter is set for hearing April 17th, 2019, beginning at 1:00 p.m. or as soon thereafter as it may be heard, on the TPUC's Hearing Room on the ground floor of the Anderson Justice State Office Building, 500 Deaderick Street, Nashville, Tennessee. The Company's current and proposed rates are as follows and do not include gas cost that is recovered through the Purchased Gas Adjustment.

Rate Schedule	Current Gas Cost	Current Gas Charge	Proposed Gas Cost	Proposed Gas Charge
Residential / Single-Family	$14.00	$1.20	$14.00	$1.20
