

BEFORE THE TENNESSEE PUBLIC UTILITY COMMISSION

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE

January 8, 2019

IN RE:

PETITION OF TENNESSEE WASTEWATER
SYSTEMS, INC. TO AMEND ITS CERTIFICATE OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY TO INCLUDE WARRIOTO HILLS SUBDIVISION IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY, TENNESSEE

DOCKET NO.
18-00107

ORDER GRANTING THE PETITION TO INTERVENE FILED BY THE CONSUMER ADVOCATE

This matter is before the Hearing Officer of the Tennessee Public Utility Commission (“Commission” or “TPUC”) to consider the Petition to Intervene filed by the Consumer Advocate Group of the Office of the Attorney General (“Consumer Advocate”) on December 7, 2018.

RELEVANT BACKGROUND

Tennessee Wastewater Systems, Inc. (“TWSI”) filed a Petition to Amend Certificate of Convenience and Necessity (“Petition”) with the Commission on October 16, 2018. In its Petition, TWSI seeks approval to amend its CCN to provide service to a community in Montgomery County known as Warrioto Hills.

CONSUMER ADVOCATE’S PETITION TO INTERVENE

On December 7, 2018, the Consumer Advocate filed a Petition to Intervene seeking to intervene in the docket pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-118, which qualifies the Consumer Advocate to represent the interests of Tennessee consumers of public utility services in proceedings before the Commission. The Consumer Advocate sets forth a number of issues raised in TPUC Staff’s Data Request issued to TWSI that may arise in this docket that are of interest to the Consumer Advocate and that could also have an impact on future dockets. The Consumer Advocate asserts that “[t]he interests of consumers, may be affected by the determinations and orders made by the TPUC with respect to TWSI’s Petition.”¹ As such, the Consumer Advocate maintains that only by participating as a party in this proceeding can it adequately represent the interests of Tennessee consumers. TWSI did not oppose the Consumer Advocate’s intervention in these proceedings.

FINDINGS & CONCLUSIONS

Tenn. Code Ann. § 4-5-310 establishes the following criteria for granting petitions to intervene:

- (a) The administrative judge or hearing officer shall grant one (1) or more petitions for intervention if:
 - (1) The petition is submitted in writing to the administrative judge or hearing officer, with copies mailed to all parties named in the notice of the hearing, at least seven (7) days before the hearing;
 - (2) The petition states facts demonstrating that the petitioner's legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities or other legal interest may be determined in the proceeding or that the petitioner qualifies as an intervenor under any provision of law; and
 - (3) The administrative judge or hearing officer determines that the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings shall not be impaired by allowing the intervention.
- (b) The agency may grant one (1) or more petitions for intervention at any time, upon determining that the intervention sought is in the interests of justice and shall not impair the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings.²

Although it is not an automatic or absolute right to participate in proceedings before the Commission, Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-118(b)(1) provides a general basis for the qualification of the Consumer Advocate to be permitted to intervene as a party to represent the interests of Tennessee public utility consumers. It provides as follows:

The consumer advocate division has the duty and authority to represent the interests of Tennessee consumers of public utilities services. The division may, with the approval of the attorney general and reporter, participate or intervene as a party in any matter or proceeding before the commission or any other administrative, legislative or judicial body and initiate such proceeding, in accordance with the Uniform Administrative Procedures Act, compiled in title 4, chapter 5, and the rules of the commission.³

In the instant proceeding, there have been issues raised in this docket that directly impact TWSI's customers, including the rates and charges paid by customers. Therefore, the Hearing Officer finds that there is a sufficient factual basis to find that legal rights or interests held by those consumers may be determined in this proceeding.

Upon due consideration, the Hearing Officer concludes that the legal rights, duties, privileges, immunities or other legal interest of TWSI's customers may be determined in this proceeding. Further, the Hearing Officer finds that the Consumer Advocate qualifies under law as an intervenor for the purpose of representing those consumer interests, there is no objection to its intervention, and its Petition to Intervene was timely-filed and should not impair the interests of justice or the orderly and prompt conduct of the proceedings. For these reasons, the Hearing Officer concludes that the Consumer Advocate's Petition to Intervene should be granted.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED THAT:

The Petition to Intervene filed by the Consumer Advocate Group of the Office of the Attorney General is granted. The Consumer Advocate Group of the Office of the Attorney General may intervene and participate as a party in this proceeding and, as such, shall receive copies of any notices, orders, or other documents filed herein.
