JOHNSBOROUGH — Francis Skokel band of the Abenaki Indians to educate on the truths of Native American history. "I'm a member of the St. Francis Skokel band of the Abenaki Indians, and we're right on the Canadian border but in Vermont," said current Johnsborough resident Dikeman. "I worked at Fort Ticonderoga, which was good for me because there were different languages we spoke but all up in Canada."

According to Dikeman, his first didn't sign a peace treaty with the federal government, so they have only been under British control for 17 years when the American Revolution began. A lot of the Indian and "relocated" Mohawks and Abenaki were called New England because of the states they were in.

"We were under British control for 17 years when the American Revolution began. A lot of the Indian and 'relocated' Mohawks and Abenaki were called New England because of the states they were in."

He said the Abenakis were recognized by states because in the 1920s, the federal government had a state government that brought in Indian that provided you with a state government. "I got the bill of sale and Nov. 5, 1954, and was sold."

Raised with a Dutch name, Dikeman was born Nov. 5, 1954, and was sold to his father's family. "I got the bill of sale and Nov. 5, 1954, and was sold."

Dikeman said, "They both for me. When I turned 18, they legally adopted me."

Dikeman said, "They both for me. When I turned 18, they legally adopted me."

NOTICE TO PUBLIC
KINGSPORT POWER COMPANY

Kingsport Power Company, d/b/a AEP Appalachian Power ("Kingsport"), hereby gives notice that on September 28, 2023 it made a tariff filing with the Tennessee Public Utility Commission ("Tennessee PUC") relative to changes in Kingsport's Fuel and Purchased Power Adjustment Rider ("PPAR"). The PPAR authorizes Kingsport, upon no less than 60-days notice, to apply a charge to all customer bills rendered by it to allow for changes in both fuel and the cost of purchased power from Kingsport's wholesale power supplier, under rate schedules implemented by the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission ("FERC"). Kingsport's current PPAR, and its filing regarding changes to its PPAR charges, are on file with the TPU at 502 Presidential Street, Nashville, Tennessee, and are available for public inspection.

In its September 28, 2023 tariff filing with the TPU, Kingsport provided new PPAR charges, calculated in accordance with the provisions of its PPAR, to reflect such change in costs. The changes, to be applied to customers this beginning November 1, 2023, would result in an approximate decrease of 9% for Kingsport's residential, commercial, and industrial customers.
