I am in the wrong business... If I can get my customers to help fund a purchase of the business / water utility like Limestone Water then it would be so easy to make a killing off the backs of customers by raising rates over 200%. COME ON !!! - Everyone knows expenses and prices have gone up across the board and any reasonable person would be fine with a 5-10% increase in rates. Most people would taken in stride and even welcomed the increase in order to keep the service working properly.

Comment/Message:
