Comment/Message:

There is a lot of complaining in Telliico Village about the water rates, and I don't think they are unreasonable. A very vocal few seem to have a vendetta against our Property Owners Association (POA), and this is just one of the many issues they are complaining about. These people don't represent the village. From what I understand, the Tellico Village POA has been responsible for running the water and sewer in the village since its inception, so I wonder what would cause a change.
