ORDER

This matter came on to be heard on the petition of the Consumer Advocate, Office of the Attorney General, (the "Consumer Advocate") for leave to intervene and participate in this proceeding as its interests may appear. It appears to the Tennessee Regulatory Authority ("TRA") that this proceeding and the actions which may be taken by the TRA herein may affect or determine the legal rights or duties of the Consumer Advocate, and that the interests of justice and the orderly and prompt conduct of this proceeding will not be impaired by allowing this intervention.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

1. That the Consumer Advocate is hereby given leave to intervene and participate in this proceeding as its interests may appear and to receive copies of any notices, orders, or other documents filed herein.
2. That any party aggrieved with the TRA's decision in this matter may file a Petition for Reconsideration with the TRA within ten (10) days from and after the date of this Order;
3. That any party aggrieved with the TRA's decision in this matter has the right of judicial review by filing a Petition for Review in the Tennessee Court of Appeals, Middle Section, within sixty (60) days from and after the date of this Order.
